The Indianapolis Sun is of the opinion that if Jim. C.ry could manage to spend another term in the Northern Prison he'd have no difficulty in being elected to the office of Mayor.

—Indiana Conference, M. E. church, made the following appointments for Bloomington District: William Zaring, Presiding Elder; Bedford, J. W. Calver; Bloomfield, T. C. Danks; Bloomington, W. R. Halstead; Bloomington circuit, B. A. Allen; Ellettsville, A. N. Elrod; Freedom, W. S. McCallister; Gosport, Joseph Eawkins; Harrodsburg, John Walls; Helmsville, F. A. Ellet; Linton, H. Nash; Mitchell, Geo. Reid; Orangeville, Frank Deray; Superintendent; Orleans, W. H. Jack; Owensburg, John Crow; Pattersonburg, W. D. Woods; Plattsburg, W. V. Nick Johnson; Spencer, W. T. Davis; Cannelton, J. C. Boone; Worthington, R. H. Kelly.

U. P. Synod.

There are ten Synods composing the United Presbyterian church of North America, and the one that was in session in this place last week is known as the second Synod of the West. It comprises eight Presbyteries in Indiana, Tennessee and Western Ohio, and there are 69 ministers, 364 elders, 265 Sabbath school teachers, and 3,000 scholars. Service were opened Tuesday morning of last week by Rev. J. W. Smith, Xenia, O., pastor of the 3d church. After the sermon synod prepared for business by the election of a presiding officer. The Moderator chosen was Rev. D. H. French, D. D., of Dayton, O. Rev. H. H. Thompson, D. D., of Urbana, O., was re-elected clerk, and Rev. Knox Montgomery, Assistant Clerk. Wednesday morning was devoted to appointment of Committees and hearing reports from various Boards of the church. The feature of the afternoon was a conference upon the topics of the year, opened by an address by Dr. French, of Cincinnati. Morning Sun, O., was selected as the place for holding the next meeting of Synod.

On Thursday morning, Synod met in ball for a professor to fill the chair of Hebrew and Old Testament Exegesis in Xenia Theological Seminary. The vote was cast for Rev. White, who has been acting as tutor during the year. Mr. White is the author of a popular system of memory training. Other Synods have already cast their votes for Prof. White, and it is probable that he will be elected.

Although fewer members of Synod were present at this meeting than usual the amount of business has shown no decrease. Members of Synod have attended diligently to work, both as individuals and as members of committees. As a result the work has been well done.

Bedford's Part in the Vio-
Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Unusual interest was shown here to-day in the result of the elections in the four new States. The telegraph and newspaper offices were, as in regular State and presidential election times, visited by hundreds of prominent politicians. The Republicans are naturally jubilant over the way things went. They regard the victory as an indication that Republican politics have come to stay. Indiana men in Washington yesterday were their day in the four new States, and point to the fact that at least four former well known Hoosiers are on the road to the Governor's chair or to Congress. A. C. Mellette, Governor of South Dakota, was editor of a Muncie paper before he went to Dakota. John R. Wilson elected to Congress in Washington, is a lawyer at Crawfordville. H. C. Hansbrough, who goes to Congress from North Dakota, is a native Hoosier. Judge Gideon C. Moody, of South Dakota is from New Albany, and was colonel of the Ninth Indiana Infantry, and at the close of the war was appointed captain of a company in the regular army. Ex-Governor Gilbert A. Pierce, of North Dakota, formerly lived at LaPorte. The two gentlemen last named are to be elected to the United States by the Legislature next chosen. Martin Maginnis, who ran for Congress in Montana, is a former Indiana man. His election is at this writing in dispute. There may be other persons elected in the new States to prominent offices who have not been reported. Yesterday was a great day for Indiana men who took Horace Greeley's advice, and went West to grow up with the country.

Raid on a Gang of Counterfeiters.

(Orange Co. News.)

Several weeks ago a red man-tailed fellow appeared in Paoli and stopped at the Bowling House, but seemingly had no business. He talked to some like a horse jockey, to others like a newspaper man and many came to the conclusion that he was a counterfeiter and shoving the "queer," but on last Friday morning it was learned that the gentleman, whose real name is Harry Webster, with a pseudonym of Robert Williams, Henry Crow, Riley Lindley, Joseph Lowe, Geo. Lee, Samuel Landley, Charles Walts and Tom Williams, all charged with counterfeiting.

They were taken to Indianapolis Friday night by U. S. Marshal Mowatt, Detective Webster and Sheriff Pierce and preliminary hearing was given them Saturday. There seemed to be no case against Tom Williams and he was released. Bob Williams, who is eighty-four years old, was released on a $500 bond. Crow's bond was placed at $2,000, Lee's $2,000 and the others at $1,000 each.

Henry Crow, who claims to be a minister of the Gospel and a clock fixer, is said to be the leader of the gang and made most of the money. He was recently invited to dinner by Judge Farwell, and said grace in a very plain manner. Sam and Riley Lindley, Geo. Lee and Joseph Lowe are farmers and Bob Williams is a silversmith. Charles Walts keeps a store at Chambersburg, runs a huckster wagon, and shoves a great many of the nickles, dimes and quarters among his customers.

They made nickles, dimes, quarters, halves and dollars and most of the money was sent to George Sallinger in Missouri, a former resident of this place, who disposed of it for them. He has also been arrested.

The officers secured four mounds, 25 pounds of the metal and $6 of the counterfeit money.

—In consideration of the departure of Dr. Kirkwood, the officers and teachers of the Presbyterian Sabbath school adopted the following resolutions:

Whereas, Dr. Kirkwood has been for many years a faithful, efficient and tireless worker in the Walnut St. Presbyterian Sabbath school, and whereas he is about to leave us, therefore be it

Resolved, That we the officers and teachers of the Sabbath school, hereby express our deep regret at parting with Dr. Kirkwood, and our feeling that in his departure we lose the example of one who never felt that he had outgrown the Sabbath school; who was always at his post, who was ever ready to do his part, and who, like the Great Teacher, was never above noting the humblest.

Resolved, That we will continue to respect, honor and love him, and will follow Dr. and Mrs. Kirkwood with our sympathies, our kindest wishes, and our prayers.

ANNA McDERMOTT,
ANNA B. HOFFMAN,
Committee.

Death of Col. McLean's Wife.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—The death of Mrs. Juliette E. McLean, wife of Col. Wm. E. McLean, which has been expected daily for two months, came this afternoon. Mrs. McLean has for many years been an invalid. Colonel McLean intended to remove to his old home at Terre Haute immediately after he retired from the deputy commissioner of pensions recently, but the condition of Mrs. McLean would not permit her transfer. The remains will be temporarily deposited in a vault in this city, and will be taken to Terre Haute for permanent interment when Colonel McLean is ready to return to that city and resume his permanent home. Mrs. McLean was the daughter of Judge Hughes, of the United States Court of Claims. She was about forty-two years old.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—The funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Juliette E. McLean, wife of Col. Wm. E. McLean, were conducted at the family residence, No. 1828 Fifteenth street, this afternoon, in the presence of many friends. The Rev. Dr. Bartlett, formerly of Indianapolis, now pastor of the New York Avenue Presbyterian church, of this city, delivered a beautiful eulogy and sermon. The remains were deposited in a vault at Glenwood Cemetery, but will be taken out Monday next, and to their old home at Terre Haute, where funeral services will be held on next Wednesday. The pall-bearers to-day were John L. Smith, Heber J. May, Reese Voorhees, Edward Jay, Gen. A. D. Unshaw and J. W. Nichol. President and Mrs. Harrison and many others sent floral offerings.

—The three-year old trotting stallion, Artzell, on Friday last, at Terre Haute, trotted a mile in 2:12. After the race the horse was purchased by a Chicago syndicate for $105,000.

—Mrs. Jesse Mitchell and Mrs. W. F. Malott of Bedford were the guests last week of Dr. Simpson's family.

During the week of the Theta Convention in Bloomington a grand banquet will be given at the residence of Hiram Lindley, 8th and Rogers streets.

—Chas. P. Tournier was at Cincinnati the greater part of last week looking up novelties for his clothing store, north of Norman's drug store. He got them and now he will offer them so cheap that you will find it economy to buy.

THE CIRCUS.—Wallace & Co.'s circus arrived from Rockland by rail early Sunday morning. The show proceeded quickly to the base ball grounds. Here the tents were spread, and a large number of citizens visited the grounds during the day and found everything quiet and orderly. The performers, musicians and managers of the show, took their meals in a dining car at the railroad station, only a very few stopping at the hotels, while the canvasmen, hostlers and other laborers ate at the ground. The street parade of the show in the forenoon was a large and good one. The many very fine horses were especially noticeable. The circus was a clean and most excellent exhibition throughout. The meals by Mr. Evers and Willie O. Dale were superb, and the "Ging men in the air," Fisher Brothers, gave a wonderful performance, equal if not superior to anything we have ever seen here. The proprietors and managers of the show were all agreeable and intelligent gentlemen.—Lincoln (Ill.) Record.

—The New Home Sewing Machine can now be found in all parts of the world. Its reputation for all ways being in order and ready for any kind of work, either plain or fancy, has gained for it a rank among sewing machines, which others less meritorious have long coveted. We refer you to the thousands that are now using the New Home. Don't take our word or an interested agent's ask those that have one and you will find they are satisfied they have the best, then try one and investigate for yourself, and if you do not find the New Home the best don't buy it.

—An alarm of fire Saturday afternoon was turned in from the 3d ward, where a blaze had been discovered in a stable attached to the Drysdale house (recently purchased by Mrs. Perdue). The stable was full of hay, and created a great smoke and blaze. It is supposed that the fire communicated through the careless use of a pipe by some one who had been working about the stable. The stable was a total loss, and the adjoining buildings were only saved by prompt work.

—The Horticultural Society closed a three days' successful fair on Saturday night. No better or larger display of choice and fine apples is made by the State Horticultural Society, than was seen in Ryan's Hall. The display of pears, grapes, potatoes, etc. was never surpassed by a county organization. The floral display attracted unusual attention from both home and foreign visitors. A choice musical program was rendered each night. The managers worked hard to make the fair a success and they have the satisfaction of knowing that they succeeded.

—No. 523 drew a silver butter dish at the Horticultural Fair, and was held by Ezra Borland.

Ab. Ketcham had some cabbage that tempted the cabbage hungry. I. Milt Rogers, Geo. Campbell, Wm. Neeld, Cal. Worrall, Wm. Banger, Geo. Dinsmore, Ab. Ketcham, Alf. Perring, and others were active in making the fair a success.

Alf. Perring had a trunk 113 years old, on exhibition.

A silver teapot, 156 years old, was exhibited by Mrs. Chas. Alexander.

Premiums will be paid upon presentation at C. R. Worrall's office.

—Hiram Birch's infant child choked to death Sunday while eating an apple, at the home of the parents south of Stanford.

—Van Buren tp. has sixteen teachers at work in this county, eight of whom have positions in their own locality.

—Ed. Thrasher will be postmaster at Dudley.

—L. D. Rogers and wife are visiting Indianapolis this week.

—Mrs. Brodix will occupy the Ketcham property this winter.

—Mrs. Jessie Buskirk was recently married at St. Thomas, Dak., to J. C. McNichol.

—Miss Flora Carr, sister of Bruce Carr, Auditor of State, was the guest of Mrs. C. L. Alexander during the reunion.

—Miss Hattie Ourbacher, of Louisville, Mo., to be married on Tuesday, the 24th, to Mr. Richard James. They will go to Chicago on their wedding tour and are expected in Bloomington on the 25th or 26th.

—Thos. H. Barnhill of Unionville is visiting his brothers and uncle in and near Fredonia, Kas.

—Mrs. Marie Hester (nee Miss Jessie Henderson) is teaching music in Chicago, with rooms at 21-34 Monroe st.

—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wyatt and son of Indianapolis were the guests last week of the family of Geo. W. Norman.

—Nelson Connet, formerly of Stanford, this county, died on September 19th at Baileyville, Kansas, with Bright's disease, in his 60th year.

—A brother of Mayor Denny was in Bloomington last week, the first time for many years. He is an uncle of Mrs. Carmichael and Mrs. Breeden.

—Mrs. Wm. B. Baker will return from Denver about Christmas. In the meantime Mr. Baker will build a residence on west 6th street.
