WILLIAM A. GARDNER, Editor and Publisher
Republican County Ticket:
Governor, Thomas J. Farr
Lieutenant Governor, James W. Jackson
Attorney General, Ed. J. Anderson
Comptroller, Dr. Jas. H. Marshall, Jr.
Circuit Judges, C. F. Smith
County Judges, Wm. Peterson
Justices of the Peace, J. S. Bloomer
For Judges—10th Judicial Circuit, HENRY C. DUNNAN.
For Prosecutors—Stephen Love.
Official Republican Paper of City, County, Township and School Districts.

Judge H. C. Dunnan has proven himself to be the right man in the right place. His nomination and his subsequent appointment were both fortunate circumstances for the party, and for the people who have come to be adjudicated by him. The court records show here was a very successful and economical one—cases were decided with uncommon promptness by both Judge and jury showing that instructions were lucid and easily comprehended, and that an honest effort was made to expedite business. Many hundreds of dollars were thus saved to taxpayers and litigants, and the docket was disposed of with more than a week of the term to spare. This result is due to the management of the circuit judge, for his power is absolute. No man or officer in Indiana has as much power as a Circuit Judge, and if this power is used wisely it will redound to the good of the public. The Progress believes that Judge Dunnan deserves great credit for the manner in which he managed the recent term of Monroe Circuit Court, and that the people will endorse him at the ballot box on November 4th.

—Tom Farr, the Republican Sheriff, has the widest, smoothest way of getting along with all classes of people that any one has ever seen. He performs his duties conscientiously and promptly, but he is not offensive in his manner of performing them, as some men are. Tom is a kind-hearted, jovial fellow—wouldn't harm a fly, unmercifully—but he isn't afraid to do his duty to the utmost extent when it is required of him. When Tom was a mere boy he enlisted, and carried a musket through the war, in the gallant 33d Ind. Volunteers. The men who soldiered with Tom Farr always exhibited great affection and esteem for him, and there is not one of them that wouldn't have ever heard of that wouldn't make almost any sacrifice for his sake. When you get ready to cast your ballot on Nov. 4th run your eye over the ticket, and if it doesn't read "For Sheriff, Tom J. Farr," why just are that you go to vote for him anyhow.

—Suit has been instituted at Kansas City by Miss Mary E. Donier against the Fidelity and Casualty Company of New York, to collect $10,000 on an accident insurance policy. The plaintiff in the case is the sister of W. L. Donier, the young architect who died suddenly on June 23 last from heart pneumonia. April 26, 1890, young Donier took out the $10,000 policy with the Fidelity Casualty Company, and the expiration was a year from the date of issue. After Donier's death the company refused to pay the policy on the ground that a death by pneumonia was not an accidental death. This is the first time that this question has ever been raised in this country, and whichever way it results in the trial court it will be appealed. The courts have held that death by pneumonia is an accident, but whether a person whose death is caused by pneumonia dies through external, violent and accidental means has never been determined.

—Union soldiers on the Democratic ticket:
Ivan N. Walker,
Robert W. McBride,
John W. Lovett,
William T. Noble,
John Worrell.

—The attention of Indiana soldiers is called to the following extract from a speech by General Cushman member of Congress from Michigan:
There is one thing we have greatly missed in the present Congress and that is our ready list of presidential votes of pension bills. The present chief executive evidently believes now, as he believed before the election, that it is no time to weigh the gratitude of the country for its soldiers with an apothecary's scales. In the nine months since this Congress convened no veto of a pension bill, great or small, public or private, has come from the hands of Benjamin Harrison. In addition to the many hundreds of private pension bills which have become a law during this session, we have placed upon the statute book, as a monument of the ability of the Republican party to its promise, the act of June 27, under which no hundreds but hundreds of thousands of disabled soldiers, and soldiers' widows will receive the grateful bounty of a pension.

—Enoch Fuller has done much to give employment to working men since he has been in Bloomington. He laid out an addition, west of town, and contracted for and built a number of houses for mechanics, laborers, etc. This gave work and wages to a large number of our people, and so benefited them to that extent. In this Fuller has been a benefit to the town, the county, and to the people. For three years and a half Enoch Fuller carried a musket, and was a good soldier, and has three wounds as evidence of the fact that he was not afraid of bullets, or at least was where it "was dangerous to be safe." He is the Republican candidate for Clerk, and his friends expect to elect him on the 4th of November.

On the face of the earth to-day there are but two sets of people who believe in free trade—the Democratic party and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, with Ireland suppressed. Russia, the granary of Europe, has abandoned free trade. France, Austria, Germany, Italy, Mexico and the Dominion of Canada, that child of Britain herself, have all joined the army of Protection. It is the instinct of humanity against the assumptions of the book men. It is the wisdom of the race against the wisdom of the few.

—The Board of State Charities of Indiana invites all persons interested in the care of the poor to attend a State conference of charities to be held at the capital, commencing Tuesday, October 14th, and continuing for three days. Special hotel and railroad rates may be secured. For information address Alexander Johnson, Secretary of Board of State Charities, State House, Indianapolis. A program may be seen at this office.

—Indiana Conference, M. E. church appointed the following named preachers for Bloomington District: W. M. Zaring, Presiding Elder; Bedford, J. W. Culmer; Bloomfield, A. N. Elrod; Bloomington, W. R. Halstead; Bloomington Circuit, J. W. Baker; Ellettsville, W. D. Woods; Freedom, W. S. McAllister; Gosport, Jos. Rawlins; Harrodsburg, W. McK. Johnson; Heltonville, J. C. Boone; Linton, J. W. Nash; Mitchell, H. S. Headen; Orangeville, N. F. Denny; Orleans, H. J. Barr; Owensburg, J. W. Robinson; Pattersonburg, M. L. Payton; Pleasantville, B. F. Johnson; Spencer, W. T. Davis; Tunnellton, John Walls; Worthington, B. A. Kemp.

—Harvey Steer's suit against the railroad company for damages sustained in a collision near Bedford last spring resulted in his receiving judgment for $4,000. Mr. Jonathan Wright also brought suit for his son Charles Wright who lost his life in the same collision. His case was continued.

—The old 33d Ind. Vols. never had a better or cleverer man in its ranks than Tom Farr. He enlisted before he was 18 years of age and was assigned to Company H. Tom Farr is the Republican candidate for Sheriff, and is a deservedly popular man. He attends to his duties in a quiet, easy way that is very satisfactory to the mass of the people who have business to transact with him. The worst thing they can say about Tom Farr is that he is too kind hearted to have charge of prisoners. That is, it is bad to be good. Tom is not cruel, hard and stern, as some people would be doubtful, if placed in his position, but he performs the duties of his office promptly and without any "friction." Remember, when you go to the polls in November that the name of Tom Farr ought to be on your ticket.

—Bert Moore is a Sigma Chi. Theta met at the residence of the Misses Perry Friday evening. Edgar S. Maines is a pledged Phi Delta Theta.

—Thirty-five have so far enrolled in the law department. Miss Wicks entertained the Kappa last Friday evening. Jenkins is suffering from a severe case of base ball finger. John Wisley, a graduate of '90, is doing special work at Ann Arbor. Dr. Jencks met his classes on Wednesday morning in his old room.

—Dr. Jordan delivered his lecture "Ethics of the Dent," on Sunday, the 27th ult. Joe Eads, who was in a few days at the beginning of the term, will re-enter Christmas. Frank Axtell, through Junior with '90, has re-entered college and graduates with '91. Theta initiated four members Friday evening: Misses Ardry, Carter, Haig and Fields.

—Kappa has been increased by three new members: Misses Hunter, Dorsey and Bowman. Ralph Bamberger attended the marriage of his sister at Indianapolis, the first of last week. Henry Pierce is collecting news for the Telephone this term, while John B. Brill is scribbling for the Courier.

—Dr. Oliver P. Jenkins, of De Pauw delivered the lecture at the chapel last Sunday. Subject: "Facts and Philosophy." The chapel is being crowded every morning now so there is hardly standing room. Dr. Jordan has offered to excuse a few.

—Vinton Busby, who has been across the "pond" with Dr. Jordan, came in Monday evening, after a short visit with relations near Anderson. The interest that I. U. students take in athletics is quite phenomenal. As yet not a game of basketball or football has been played at the grounds. A meeting for the reorganization of the gymnasium will be held soon. It is the intention to make it the head of all athletics in the college. Judge Banta has reorganized the Court which will hold its session on Friday afternoon. Coon and Wall struggled against Morgan Weather last Friday in the Junior law.

—Otters and minks were very scarce in Connecticut a dozen years ago, and it was feared the animals might become extinct. Fur traders were from $5 to $10 apiece, and everybody hunted for them. Then suddenly fashion changed her mind about the value of mink and otter skins, the price went down and now the animals abound in the State again. So numerous have minks become there that they are getting to be quite familiar with the country people. Recently a mink, frightened by a thunder storm, fled out of a meadow, rushed into a farmer's dwelling and roared from room to room until a hound caught him up stairs in a chamber. A still more remarkable incident occurred in Hartford a few days ago. A mink trotted right into the heart of the city, among throngs of people on the streets, and passed all kinds of dogs with impunity, and finally made his way into the back yard of a big store on Asylum street. In the yard men cornered him and tried to capture him alive, but he fought so desperately that they had to kill him.

—Three miles of steel rails, an immense quantity of ties, and one hundred kegs of spikes were unloaded at the new grounds of the railroad company south of town last week.

—IMPORTANT NOTICE.—The partnership firm known as McGee & Son was dissolved by mutual consent on Sept. 23d, Ben. McGee going out of business entirely and Ed. and Bert. McGee going into business in the Rhoer room, east of the Groves corner.

—Ben. McGee takes this method of thanking the many friends he has made in Monroe and adjoining counties for the liberal patronage they have bestowed upon him during the past thirty-eight years. He would say in this connection that all who may have claims against the firm are requested to call and get their money. Those who are indebted by account or note will also very much oblige him by calling at once, as his business must be settled, and that immediately.

—"Diamond Joe" is the only 10c. cigar that is sold for 5c. Warranted Long Havana Filler, and hand made. Sole agents Wetzel & Flood.

—Solisbury, Greene Co., July 9, '90.—Messrs. Faris Bros.—My wife had not been able to sit up more than two hours each day since she had a gripple last winter, but within the past two months, when she began to improve with the use of South American Nerve, three bottles of which I bought in May, while in Bloomington. She believes she will soon be as strong as ever, and indeed her recovery is almost miraculous. You can publish this if you wish.

—NEAR MANASSASVILLE, Aug. 20, 1890.—To Faris Bros., Druggists.—I am full of thanks for the benefits derived from South American Nerve, bought at your store. It seemed to reach the spot from the first dose. I have a good appetite, sleep soundly and can work with all my strength. My wife is also a medical witness to the money.

—Stineville, July 25, '90.—Messrs. Faris Bros.—I can testify to the good effects of South American Nerve. I was sick last winter and nothing I could get seemed to do me any good till I was induced to buy a bottle of South American Nerve while in Bloomington. I have used four bottles, and the medicine acted like a charm in my case. I can recommend it to any one.

—HENRY GILLMAN. —Stineville, Greene Co., Ind. Aug. 27, 1890.—Messrs. Faris Bros.—Gentlemen: On the 4th of July I came to Bloomington to witness the celebration. I had been sick from the effects of a gripple since early in the winter, and was very much discouraged. While in your place I was advised by a stranger who noticed my evident bad health to try South American Nerve. I did so, and up to the present time have taken three bottles. It has been worth an untold amount to me, for it has built up my health till I am feeling like another person. I recommend it to anyone who will listen to me. Yours truly, JOHN S. COGGAN.

—ROMONA, Ind., Aug. 12, 1890.—Faris & Bros., Bloomington.—Gentle—I am now on my fifth bottle of South American Nerve, and I feel well enough to quit, but I won't do it till I am certain I am all right. Had cough, night sweats, swollen liver, and felt half alive. I am all right now, thanks to that medicine. Yours de, CASPER SCHLELEY.

—In view of the lamentations of the free traders over the alleged "ruinous" policy of protection, it is in order to remark that from 1870 to 1890 Great Britain gained $283,000,000 in value of exports, while the United States gained $468,000,000. For Great Britain the gain was 20 per cent.; for the United States 125 per cent. That is, we have taken care of our home industries and our home market, and been building up our foreign trade better than has Great Britain, our free trade rival.

—A Clay county man has discovered a new remedy for rheumatism. It is said to consist of overturning a stand of beer and being seriously stung. He had had the rheumatism for four years and was scarcely able to walk. By accident he knocked over a stand of beer, and he forgot his "rheumatism" and ran like a quarter horse. His joints have been perfectly limber since. He even beat the sheriff and his deputies across the line into Parke county a few days ago. He is over there yet.
