Republican Progress

$1.50 Per Annum

FOR PRESIDENT IN 1897:
THE MAN NOMINATED
BY THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

Some of our eager capitalists are secure a bargain by applying to the proper parties in Chicago, as the Sherman House of that city is offered for sale at $1,500,000. The building is six stories, and yields a rental of $180,000.

The four great parties that have occurred in the United States were twenty years apart. They were in 1819, 1837, 1857 and 1873. The next one will probably be due in 1893 or 1897. So get ready.

The House committee on "Temperance" of Indiana Legislature, has not yet been called together, and when Mr. Gent, the Chairman, was asked when it would be, he said: "Oh well about February 29th." The Progress is not tearing its clothes over the temperance question, but no one can fail to see the difference in the treatment of this matter by the two great parties when in power. If the legislature had been Republican our citizens would have had positions presented to them every day, asking some sort of radical law making on the subject of temperance. Don't you notice how quiet they are now?

Why, of course it is, as I can prove to you in an instant. Here's this $5 bill. I'll put it in an envelope. Now smell it. There you have it. There is nothing on earth that smells like paper money, and an expert thief with good olfactory nerves can detect the presence of money in an envelope at any stage of the game. There is one thing that people should remember, and that is that for ways that are dark and tricks that are vain, the average mail thief beats the "feathered Caesar."

Gen. Wade Hampton's father was probably the largest slave holder in the South before the war. His plantations were situated principally in Mississippi. Wade Hampton inherited these estates and was very wealthy before the outbreak of hostilities, but since the close of the war he has depended on a large extent upon his salary as a public official.

He told his son to milk the cows, feed the horses, chop the pigs, heat the eggs, feed the calves, catch the colts and put him in the stable, cut some wood, split some kindlings, stir the coals, put fresh water in the cruetary after supper and to be sure to study his lessons before he went to bed. Then he went to the farmers' club to discuss the question, "How to Keep Boys on the Farm."

"Tiddly-de-wink" is a stupid game. There is about as much civilization in it as in twirling one's thumbs in a dark room. "Tiddly-de-wink" as the game is called, is not quite the proper way of spelling it. The word was originally "tiddly-wink" and not very long ago a bold newspaper editor, in the land from which comes the man who vanquished Democracy, was arrested because an officer of the crown alleged he had been blacked by the writer, who called him a "tiddly-winkler." The progress of the trial developed that the definition of the term was, "To use small tricks to serve one's own selfish ends." If this definition is adopted by the philologist sharp who are revising the standard dictionaries, the term may serve a more useful purpose than that of the name of a trivial game, for then one may apply it to persons who are known to possess the characteristics of a "tiddly-winkler."

We find the following going the rounds of the press: When an animal is choked, put a handful of gunpowder on the roots of its tongue and holds its jaws together, if possible, for half an hour. The gunpowder relaxes the muscles and permits the obstructing substance to get either down or up. It is dangerous to poke the obstruction down the animal's throat.

C. S. PLUMB, Pres't.

Let every live dairyman of Indiana attend this meeting. The addresses are by people who have made successes of their special lines—practical dairymen; and discussion will occur after each address. The Indiana State Dairyman's Association has come to stay, and the more the dairymen rally around its standard, the greater the success of its work. Remember the date, Wednesday, February 18th, 1891.

It is stated that unscrupulous New York chemists have brewed a bogus lymph for consumptives, which is being sold to physicians over the country as the genuine article prepared by Prof. Koch in Berlin. It is no doubt harmless, because they would be liable to severe penalties for the sale of an injurious bogus lymph. But it is, nevertheless, a fraud, the preparation of which should stamp any one participating in it as an inhuman wretch. It holds out

Two gentlemen near Frederickburg signed a contract for territory to sell a patent harrow recently that was being sold by slick-tongued sharper. A few days after the contract turned up, in the Salem Bank, an iron clad note for collection. Read the papers.

"Godey's Lady's Book" for February is full of novelties; the book grows better with each issue, and is particularly adapted to the season. The publishers offer an extra attraction in giving three of the current numbers for twenty-five cents, as a sample to the public. Address, Godey Publishing Co., Philadelphia, Pa. Price, $2.00 per year.

POCKET LAMP FOR TRAVELING.—While riding in a railroad car, trying to read a newspaper by the uncertain light of the lamp which was suspended at a tantalizing distance from the eyes, says Traverer, in the Boston Post, a friend who sat next to me said: "Traverer, old fellow, don't spoil those critical optics of yours by using that wretched apology for a lamp, but suit yourself with this." He whipped a little tube out of his pocket which he fastened to my buttonhole, and before I could see what he was driving at, a bright light illuminated the newspaper, which had been blurred by the devious rays from the railroad lamp. "That's electricity," added my friend, with seemingly superfluous frankness, and he then went on to show how the apparatus worked. It had a storage battery for the motive power and a reflector to concentrate the light, and the entire weight of the light was only 15 pounds. I found the electric light somewhat glaring at first, the reflection from the newspaper dazzling my eyes, and the shadows cast giving a sort of dark lantern gloom to outlying objects. But this effect soon wore off, and by adjusting the paper to the light, it was easy for me to read without experiencing any inconvenience.

"The Greatest Thing in the World."—Prof. Drummond's famous address on "Love: The Greatest Thing in the World" has had a wonderfully large sale at 35 cents a copy, and has undoubtedly done a great deal of good. It is now published by Alden, unbridled, in large type, for Three Cents! It ought not to circulate by the million. The same publisher issues Drummond's "Natural Law in the Spiritual World," in large type, fine "half-cast" binding, for 25 cents, plus postage. 10 cents. These are two items characteristic to the 132 page Catalogue, which is sent free on request, by the publisher, John B. Alden, 286 East Street, New York.

YOU CAN GET A pretty Valentine for a very reasonable price, at H. Lindley's Sons drug store.

AN ORDINANCE

for the improvement of Eleventh street, and providing for the cost thereof.

Sec. 1. Be it ordained by the Mayor and Common Council of the City of Indianapolis, Indiana, two-thirds of the members thereof concurring therein, that Eleventh street in said city be improved by Grading, Gutting, MacAdamizing and paving a brick sidewalk on both sides thereof from Morton street to Jackson street in accordance with the plans and specifications therefor as heretofore adopted and amended by the Council for the improvement of said street, now on file in the office of the Clerk of said city, and in accordance with the Resolution of the Common Council adopted December 23d, 1890.

Sec. 2. The cost of said improvement of said street, except the proportion thereof occupied by street and alley crossings, shall be assessed per linear front foot against the real estate abutting thereon, said assessments, if deferred shall be paid in ten annual installments, to each of which shall be added interest at six per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually, from the date of final estimate thereon, and collected as provided by law. A bond or bonds shall be issued in anticipation of the collection of said deferred assessments before said bond or bonds are issued. All as provided for in an act of the General Assembly of Indiana, approved March 9th, 1889.

Sec. 3. That all previous ordinances heretofore adopted for the improvement of that part of said street are hereby repealed.

Sec. 4. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect on and after its legal publication.

I, Robert C. Greaves, Clerk of the City of Indianapolis, Indiana, certify the foregoing is a true and correct copy of an ordinance adopted by the Common Council of said city at their regular meeting held January 20th, 1891.

The cost of said improvement of said street, except the proportion thereof occupied by street and alley crossings, shall be assessed per linear front foot against the real estate abutting thereon, said assessments, if deferred shall be paid in ten annual installments, to each of which shall be added interest at six per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually, from the date of final estimate thereon, and collected as provided by law. A bond or bonds shall be issued in anticipation of the collection of said deferred assessments before said bond or bonds are issued. All as provided for in an act of the General Assembly of Indiana, approved March 9th, 1889.

Sec. 3. That all previous ordinances heretofore adopted for the improvement of that part of said street are hereby repealed.

Sec. 4. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect on and after its legal publication.

I, Robert C. Greaves, Clerk of the City of Indianapolis, Indiana, certify the foregoing is a true and correct copy of an ordinance adopted by the Common Council of said city at their regular meeting held January 20th, 1891.

ROBERT C. GREAVES, City Clerk.

for the improvement of Eleventh street, and providing for the cost thereof.

Sec. 1. Be it ordained by the Mayor and Common Council of the City of Indianapolis, Indiana, two-thirds of the members thereof concurring therein, that Eleventh street in said city be improved by Grading, Gutting, MacAdamizing and paving a brick sidewalk on both sides thereof from Morton street to Jackson street in accordance with the plans and specifications therefor as heretofore adopted and amended by the Council for the improvement of said street, now on file in the office of the Clerk of said city, and in accordance with the Resolution of the Common Council adopted December 23d, 1890.

Sec. 2. The cost of said improvement of said street, except the proportion thereof occupied by street and alley crossings, shall be assessed per linear front foot against the real estate abutting thereon, said assessments, if deferred shall be paid in ten annual installments, to each of which shall be added interest at six per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually, from the date of final estimate thereon, and collected as provided by law. A bond or bonds shall be issued in anticipation of the collection of said deferred assessments before said bond or bonds are issued.
