Republican Progress

FOR PRESIDENT IN 1921
THE MAN NOMINATED
BY THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

—On Thursday Uncle Tommy Ellis, an octogenarian, of Wayne, was running a chew of tobacco, when he discovered that his two teeth failed to make any impression on it. After half an hour's wrestling with the stubborn piece of play he found that he was chewing away on the first joint of a man's thumb, which had come in the piece of tobacco. It so happened the old man that he is now hick with nervous prostration and bids fair to depart this world.

—A passenger conductor who has been nearly thirty years in the service has kept a memorandum of accidents which occur in the night for a few years past, and he was looking over the list to find that fully 13 per cent. of the accidents occurred between 3 and 4 a. m., and he attributes this to the fact that the men who have been on duty all night, or from 10 or 11 p. m. until morning, become tired, sleepy and careless.

—D. W. Carson, of near Bryanville, Lawrence county, is introducing the culture of a new fruit in this country. It is the German prune, of which he has four thriving and productive trees. The fruit is the size and shape of a large plum and of a purple color. The flesh is dry and of a pleasant taste, similar to that of the dried prunes.

Buying a Privilege to Buy.
National Standard and Farmer.
There is an enterprise of some kind in the West, with headquarters at Chicago, the object of which is ostensibly to secure for farmers the privilege of buying machinery, clothing, boots and shoes, groceries, farm implements, etc., at reduced prices. So far as we have been able to learn of its plan of working, it is about this: The patron pays $5.00 for a certificate, which entitles him to buy at a reduced rate. Agents are traveling over some parts of the country selling these certificates, and we are asked to pass upon the reliability of the concern doing business on this plan. We know nothing of the firm in the combination but the principle on which the whole thing is operated is to say the least questionable. Our advice to all readers of the Standard would be to say nothing of the kind severely alone.

—Among the guests at the Colorado mountain resort where the writers are all school teachers, is a Texan who is not noted for grammatical accuracy in speaking. The other day he said to a waiter, "Min, will you pass that butter?" "Butter," said the schoolmaster promptly, "is a noun, common noun, because it is the name of a thing and a very poor thing, too; sometimes; singular number; when strong enough to go alone; feminine gender, as indicated by the long hair often found in it, and judging from the objections raised by the boarders eating it, in the objective case, subject to discomfiting examination." The Texan said he guessed he would try and get along without butter if that was what ailed it.

—It was under the instructions of the late Admiral Porter that Lieutenant Cushing made his famous raid on the Confederate ram Albatross. All the circumstances of this famous naval exploit are detailed in a letter written by Admiral Porter, which will appear in the Boston Herald.

—The Farmer's Bank of Morrisville, Morgan co., transacted over a half million dollars worth of business last month. The greater part of this money was distributed in one township.

—A man is living in Oakland City, 65 years old, who never wore a pair of stockings until he arrived at the mature age of fifty years. He has made three trips from central Indiana to New Orleans by land, by lake and heavy, and since 1846 has voted the Democratic ticket unswerving. Of course.

—Is drunkenness curable? The question will be discussed in the September number of the North American Review by Dr. Wm. A. Hammond, Dr. Cyrus Edson, Dr. T. D. Crothers of the Walnut Lodge Hospital, Hartford, and Dr. Elos N. Carpenter.

—Once an Indiana man taught a very finely bred, well behaved setter to chew tobacco. Now the dog comes into the house by the back door, never scrapes his feet on the mat, never goes to church, is careless about his meals, gets barre in his tail, goes with a lower grade of dogs, and it is feared that he is beginning to take an interest in politics.—Burdette.

LEARN HOW TO DRIVE.—It is a reprehensible practice for the driver to jerk on the reins to make a horse increase his speed, yet three-fourths of the men and nine-tenths of the women do it. A well regulated horse with a decent mouth would resist such shabby treatment in a way that would put such a driver in a flutter. The practice must inevitably create a bad mouth or make a bad one worse, and no man with any pretensions to horsemanship would drive in such a fashion. The animal should be trained to drive up to his bit, and his pace be accelerated with word of mouth, or failing at that, the whip is the proper instrument to be applied. But "clucking" and jerking on the reins in conjunction is the common custom, and a very poor one it is. The good driving qualities of a horse are spoiled in this way, and he is soon denominated a plod by those who know how to drive.

SAN ANTONIO, TEX., Aug. 19.—There is a great scarcity of money in all the lower Rio Grande section of this State. There has been so much to speak of for eighteen months, the ranchmen are in debt, and the farmers have been unable to raise enough for their actual needs. The scarcity of money and the impossibility of obtaining it in any quantity was emphasized yesterday at Roma, on the Rio Grande, where two hundred and seventy-eight fat and healthy sheep, capable of growing four pounds of wool annually, sold for thirty-eight cents a piece.

A Word to the Boys.
Sometimes my boy, you'll know why mother weeps; why the weary eye-lids cease to rest all throughout the weary night; while day after day her youthful looks are waning and wrinkles make deep furrows in her brow. Sometimes when life's lesson you are learning and when your blind eyes are made to see the error of your way, you'll catch a glimpse of her worry. The world may not know that you, my boy, are going astray; but mother does. And it is this knowledge that is changing her black hair to white. She has counseled you, my boy, as no other has; she has been more kind than any other will ever be. Regard her teachings; change your erring way; throw off the mantle that will soon wrap you in degradation. Stop your visits to places of vice. This alone is why she weeps. Through dim mist she divines your future, and the pathway is rugged. Sometimes when you and I stand and drop the hot, eye burning tears, it will come to you—everything that caused her heart to despair. There is where, my boy, where all wrongs are seen at the grave. Change now; she is going fast and it will not be long ere her trials will be over.

—Reduced oil is used to run the five lime kilns and mills at the quarry, in place of the crude oil. It requires 18,000 gallons each week to supply them. Sheds are being built over the tanks that supply the kilns with oil.—Salem Leader.

—It is the habit of some insurance agents to write tornado policies on buildings in course of construction. Many people don't read the conditions of the contract they enter into thinking the agent all right and he will not deceive them. If any person will read the conditions which are very short they will find that in case of loss their policy would be void, and if the facts were known the company would not send an adjuster. No company is liable for loss by tornado unless the building is enclosed.

—President Polk left a very queer will. Everything was given to his wife, and at her death to be turned over to the most deserving member of the family bearing the name of Polk, the decision to be made by the State Legislature. The nearest relative until recently was State Treasurer Polk of Tennessee, to whom it was supposed the estate would go, but he became a defaulter and fled to Mexico, where he died. His dishonesty cut off his family, and there are no other deserving members of the family bearing the name of Polk. Now that Mrs. Polk is dead there is a mystery how the matter will be settled and the courts will have to decide the matter. It is not believed that the will can stand a legal test.

—The other day a Democrat went into a grocery in a Knox co. village and asked for a dollar's worth of sugar. The grocer put up one large package, then another, and after that another. "I asked only for a dollar's worth," grieved the buyer. "That's what I'm giving you," said the grocer. "What, all that?" "Yes." "How does that come?" "Well, you see the McKinley law—the dealer began in explanation.

"The McKinley law! Great Scott! Give me only half a dollar's worth. If I take all that home my wife will make me vote the Republican ticket."

Hogg—What now, Mr. Crank?
Jawkins—Why, here's this kangaroo with a pocket, and nothing to put in it, and the girl who is looking at the beast has her handkerchief, gloves, purse and umbrella in hand, and no available pocket.—Texas Siftings.

The Bass-Tow Feud.
MITCHELL, Ind., Aug. 22.—The old Bass-Tow feud has broken out again, and one man will likely die. Friday W. H. Tow, trustee of this township, owner of a large distillery and a prominent farmer, was returning to his home and had reached a place where the road is fringed with a heavy growth of underbrush. Suddenly some hidden assassin opened fire from the bushes with buckshot and Tow fell from his buggy mortally wounded. His lower jaw was completely torn away and his face and head filled with shot. Workmen near by heard the shots and rushed to the scene but could find no trace of the villain. Later Tow said his son-in-law Curtis Bass was the man and he was arrested. He could not furnish bail. All is excitement here and more serious trouble is looked for.

—The annual old settlers' meeting at Ketchum's sulphur springs will be held Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 29th and 30th. Good speakers for both days have been selected and will attend. The music on Saturday will be furnished by the Harrodsburg Male Quartette, and there will be instrumental music by the Wright Bros. The Moonlight Club will furnish excellent music on Sunday. The committee of arrangements is to meet on the grounds Thursday, Aug. 20th, to make all necessary arrangements, and as the grounds, seats, etc., are in bad condition, they request and earnestly insist upon all the neighbors who feel interested in the meeting to come out on that day and assist them.

Fatal Runaway.
Franklin Star of Saturday.
Another most deplorable accident has just taken place in Brown county. Benjamin King and family had been to Nashville to spend the day, and were returning home. The mother and two daughters were in a buggy, while the father and small son were on horseback. When south of the county seat, and near the descent of Tullahoma's hill, which is one of the steepest in the county, the horse attached to the buggy became frightened and a portion of the harness gave way as the animal dashed down the descent. In his fright the father ran his horse after the mother and daughters forgetting his little son who had been thrown to the hard ground and rendered unconscious for hours. Near the foot of the descent the mother and two daughters were dashed against a large stone. Both daughters' skulls were fractured and the younger cannot recover. The mother was badly bruised about the face and body, while the father is the only member of the family uninjured.

Senders' Exchange.

Dunn, James Smith, and Florence Harkler are defendants, requiring me to make the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars ($150), with the interest set on said decree and costs, I will expose at Public Sale to the highest bidder, on SATURDAY, SEPT. 26th, 1891, between the hours of 10 o'clock a. m. and 4 o'clock p. m., of said day, at the door of the court house in Bloomington, Monroe county, Indiana, the rents and profits for said tract of land, to wit: following described real estate, in Monroe county, in the State of Indiana, to-wit: Beginning at the northeast corner of the southeast quarter of section seven (7), thence west eighty (80) rods, thence north forty (40) rods, thence east one hundred and twenty (120) rods, thence south eighty (80) rods, thence east two hundred and one (201) rods, thence north forty (40) rods, to the place of beginning. Board of Health Notice.
It is a well established fact that most of the diseases prevailing during the summer months are due to the entrance into the system of germs, parasites or microbes and miasma. These poisons which gain entrance into the human organism, are of many kinds, due to fermentation or decay of vegetable matter from the combination of moisture and high solar temperature. The "heated term" is upon us, and prevention being safer and better than cure, every property holder should remove from his premises all accumulations of garbage, filth and other decaying matter which may prove detrimental to the public health, and to the health of his family. Disinfectants, as lime, copperas, etc., are cheap, and should be used liberally. "Cleanliness is next to Godliness" and "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

Town Health Officers of the county should see that everything is placed in good sanitary condition in their respective municipalities.

A. J. AXTELL, Secretary of the Monroe County Board of Health.

Notice of Application for License.
The undersigned, a male citizen over the age of twenty-one years, and an inhabitant of the town of Smithville, and the County of Monroe in the State of Indiana, hereby gives notice to the citizens of Smithville, Indiana, Clerk of the town, in said county of Monroe and State of Indiana, that he will at the September term, 1891, of the Board of Commissioners of the County of Monroe, State of Indiana, apply to said Board for a license to sell intoxicating liquors, to-wit: spirituous, vinous, and malt liquors in less quantities than a quart at a time, for a term of one year, to-wit: from the 1st day of January, 1892, to the 31st day of December, 1892, and he desires to sell said spirituous, vinous and malt liquors, and the premises being situated in the town of Smithville, township of Clark Creek, county of Monroe and State of Indiana, and described as follows, to-wit: Part of lot No. 3, in Smithville, Indiana, Commencing at the northwest corner of lot No. 3, in the town of Smithville, Indiana, thence east thirty (30) feet, thence south thirty (30) feet, thence west thirty (30) feet, thence north thirty (30) feet, to the place of beginning.

Fifty Cent Bottle Better.
TAKAMEN, Neb., Jan. 30, 1891.
I, F. H. Hopper, of Bloomington, Indiana, Dear Sir, I have taken four of the one-half size bottles of your Pure Nerveine you had sent me from Paris, and I feel at least 50 per cent. better than I did before using it. I have put the other two bottles away for a rainy day, as I was afraid I would have trouble in getting it again. It is surely a wonderful tonic.

Your Bro., B. C. HOPWELL.

VAULT CLEANING should not be neglected, in the interest both of cleanliness and health. John Brown is prepared in the most complete manner to give this business his careful attention. He has the right tools and everything that is necessary to make this business a success. Call on Brown and get his figures—it is cheaper to clean up your premises than to contract typhoid fever.

Declaratory Resolution
for the improvement of Walnut street from Kirkwood Avenue to Second street. Whereas it has become necessary for the proper improvement of the city of Bloomington, Indiana, and for the use of Second street in said city, that the said street be improved by laying a brick or sawed stone sidewalk on the south side of said street, from Walnut street to the east side of Dunn street.

Be it therefore resolved by the Mayor and Common Council of said city, two-thirds of the members thereof concurring therein, that it is necessary for the improvement of said city and for the use of said street, that the same be improved by laying a brick or sawed stone sidewalk on the south side of said street, from Walnut street to the east side of Dunn street in accordance with the plans and specifications therefor now on file in the office of the City Clerk.

The total cost of said improvement shall be assessed pro rata on the front foot of the real estate abutting on that part of said street to be improved, said assessments, if deferred, shall be paid in ten annual installments.

If said assessments are deferred, a bond or bonds shall be issued in anticipation of the collection of said assessments, unless the property owners pay said assessments before said bond or bonds are issued. All as provided for in an Act of the General Assembly of Indiana, approved March 18th, 1889, and amended March 6th, 1891.

That objections thereto will be heard in the Mayor's office in said city on Monday evening, Sept. 7th, 1891, at 7 o'clock p. m., when and where the property owners along the line of said proposed improvement can make objections to the necessity for the construction thereof.

I, Robert C. Greaves, Clerk of the City of Bloomington, Indiana, certify the foregoing is a true and correct copy of a Resolution adopted by the Common Council of said city at their regular meeting held August 4th, 1891.

ROBERT C. GREAVES, City Clerk, Aug. 12, '91.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.
Bids will be received by the Common Council of the City of Bloomington, Indiana, for the construction of a sidewalk on the west side of Walnut street, between Tenth and Eleventh street in said city. Specifications for said sidewalk are now on file, and can be seen at the City Clerk's office.
