W. J. ALLEN.

Letter from Mr. Blain. Farris Bros., Gentlemen: For a long time I despaired of getting any relief from my attack of rheumatism—I suffered day and night, and was only without pain or uneasiness of it when asleep. Hearing of the South American Nervine you are selling, and being assured of its wonderful curative qualities by George Butler, who had used it, I at once ordered two dozen bottles. To this fact I perhaps owe my life, and am as grateful to you for supplying the medicine, as I am that I used it promptly. Please send me one dozen more bottles. I intend to keep it in the house hereafter.

GEORGE C. BLAIN. WASHINGTON, May 1, 1891.

Fifty Per Cent. Better. Tokmah, Neb. Jan. 29, 1891. I. P. Hopewell, Bloomington, Indiana, Dear Sir, I have taken four of the one-half dozen bottles of South American Nervine you had sent me from Farris Bros., and I feel at least 50 per cent. better than I did before using it. I have put the other two bottles away for a rainy day, as I was afraid I would have trouble in getting it again. It is surely a wonderful tonic.

Your Svc., B. C. HOPEWELL

THE FINEST STOCK OF HANGING

AND STAND LAMPS IN TOWN, AT H. LINDLEY'S SONS.

PERSONS with whom the Progress has contracts for wood will please remember that we prefer 18-inch sugar, beech, or shell-bark hickory.

IF YOU WANT A NICE HANGING OR STAND LAMP, DO NOT FAIL TO EXAMINE H. LINDLEY'S SONS ASSORTMENT, BEFORE YOU BUY.

RECENTLY some $4,000 worth of samples belonging to the representatives of several large wholesale houses were purchased by Joe M. Smith. These samples (filling 26 large trunks) included the finest wares in the market, the most wonderful mechanical toys, the rarest specimens of toilet sets—oh, so many things that no one person could remember one-half of them. Well, he bought them, and those that have not already been sold, can now be seen on Smith's shelves, south side of the square. It is a wonderful exhibition of everything that is fine and rare, and but few can resist the temptation to buy. It is the one chance in a life time to see some rich and rare things. No charge made for looking at the goods—they are worth coming many miles to see.

SAVE MONEY and get the latest designs in Queensware and Glassware at C. H. McPheters' popular grocery store, southeast corner of the square. New supply of Ironstone China and Decorated Ware.

NO MAN excels Geo. Benckart as a Bread baker. His bread creates comment wherever used, by its sweetness, richness, lightness. Try it and be convinced.

Ladies! Ladies! Don't forget that Volpert makes nice cakes every day. Fresh candies daily. Next door to Bee Hive.

ASK FOR Winslow's when you come to town and want a set of Harness. He can save you money.

National Hotel barber shop is a convenient, cool and cosy establishment, just east of the post office. Gus. Krenger is proprietor. Give him a call.

GOING to or coming from the postoffice you can secure your groceries at Chas. H. McPheters' grocery and provision store. Charley is a popular man, his store is popular because it carries a well assorted stock, his prices are popular because they are reasonable.

Over a dozen kinds of cement are made which will unite the broken edges of glass and china and are about as good as another. The easiest and cheapest to prepare is made by taking two ounces of pulverized white gun shell and half an ounce of gum mastic. Soak them together in a couple of ounces of sulphuric ether and add half a pint of alcohol. After the whole is dissolved the preparation is ready for use. You heat the edges of the article to be mended, put on the cement with a brush, hold firmly till the cement has set, lay the article away for a week and it will break anywhere else than in the mended place.

—W. H. East's book entitled "The Monon Express Robbery; or the Celebrated Trial of Chesley Chambers" will be ready about the middle of December. The price of the book will be only 25 cents, and will be on sale at the drug and book stores in Bloomington. It will be of great local interest, and no resident of this community should fail to get a copy and read it.

—The case of Miss Maggie Denninger, of Shelbyville, who has been living on dog flesh two weeks or more, is exciting great interest. For several years she has been an invalid, and for weeks before she began eating dog flesh was confined to her bed with consumption. Her physician had informed her that there was no remedy. Having heard that George Goodrich, of the same county, was cured of consumption forty years ago by using dog grease she determined to try the remedy. She takes the oil, drinks broth, and eats the meat, and has finished one dog. She is now up, doing her work, and superintending the killing of another dog. Since it has become known that she is improving six citizens have commenced using dog meat. Dogs may be of some use yet.

—The Rochester Republican tells a good one on a Fulton county farmer. He went to town and purchased a new suit of clothes, placed the bundle on the seat beside him and started home. When he reached a bridge over the creek, the idea struck him that it would be a great surprise to discard his old patched clothes and go home in his new suit. He pulled off and fired them into the creek, piece at a time. When he had nothing on but a shirt he reached for the package, but it was no longer in the wagon. The night was chilly and he went home at a two-forty gait. He surprised his family completely, and next morning when he went out and found the package banging to the brake-handle of his wagon he was somewhat surprised himself.

—In another column will be found an article entitled: "To Chicanama," written by Judge H. C. Duncan, of this city. Judge Duncan has recently returned from a trip over the battlefields in the region he describes, and the article will be of special interest to old soldiers who fought over that ground inch by inch. The second chapter will appear next week.

—Speaking of the death of Jas. D. Walker, the Shelbyville Republican says:

"The deceased was born in the city of Bloomington, Indiana, and at the time of his death was 42 years of age. He came to Shelbyville some eighteen years ago to clerk for Legg & Carter, who had a grocery store in the Odd Fellows building. Afterwards he was engaged in the dry goods business with his brother-in-law, John C. Edwards. When Mr. Edwards resigned the office of city treasurer to accept a government position, Mr. Walker was appointed to fill out the unexpired term, which he did in an honorable, faithful manner. For a time he was in the grocery business. In 1886 he took a position in the rooms of the Republican State Committee and after the election of Hon. L. T. Michener to the office of Attorney General Mr. Walker became the book-keeper in that office, filling the position with honor and credit throughout Mr. Michener's term. Mr. Michener always spoke of Mr. Walker's efficiency in the highest terms, and when Green Smith took the office he was retained in the same capacity. He was a valuable man in the Attorney-General's office and was at all times courteous and obliging. Some months ago he was taken down with the grippe which brought on dropsy, causing his death. Deceased was a member of Shelby Lodge No. 39, I. O. O. F., of this city and the Red Men of Bloomington. He was also a member of the M. E. church. The funeral services Wednesday will be in charge of the Odd Fellows." He leaves a wife and two children.

Mrs. Prof. Sanderson gave an old fashioned Thanksgiving Dinner to the members of the Faculty and their families.

University Extension. CHICAGO, ILL., Nov. 26.—A notable conference of Western Educators was held at the Newberry Library to-day. The matter under discussion was university extension. There were present President Harper, of the University of Chicago; President Rogers, of the Northwestern University; President Chamberlain, of Madison University; President Eaton of Beloit University; President Coulter, of the University of Indiana; Regent Burrill, of the University of Illinois; Prof. Moss and Forbes, of the University of Michigan; Prof. Turner and Freeman, of Madison University; Prof. Young, of the Northwestern University, and Dr. Poole, of the Newberry Library.

The Conference, after a long discussion, resolved itself into a Board of College Professors, to consist of a President and two Professors of each college. The duties of this board will be to choose lecturers for the various courses and to decide on a system of credits for work performed.

There was also appointed an Executive Board, consisting of President Rogers of the Northwestern, Roberts of Lake Forest, and Coulter of Indiana. This board will attend to the active work of directing the extension plans. While working in harmony the University is to be allowed to carry on the work according to its own methods.

The following notice has just been received by Will. Blair from W. H. McDoel, General Manager of the L. N. A. & C. Ry.:

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 25, 1891. I have just given an order to Mr. Hall to change the tracks in front of the station at Bloomington so that the passenger trains will pass on the track next to the station. As it is now, frequently freight cars are left on that track and passengers are compelled to go around, under and over them as the case may be, to get to the passenger trains.
