OR STAND LAMP, DO NOT FAIL TO EXAMINE H. LINDLEY'S SON'S ASSORTMENT, BEFORE YOU BUY.

JOE SMITH is not exclusively in the holiday trade, though it looks like Christmas every day at his southside store. He carries that kind of a stock all the year round.
But his specialty is fine goods, such as standard brands of silverware, fine clocks, gold and silver watches, diamond goods, fine chains that are manufactured, gold spectacles and eyeglasses, and anything and everything usually kept in such an establishment. Two expert watchmakers are busy all the time making repairs on watches, jewelry, etc.

ASK FOR Winslow's when you come to town and want a set of harness. He can save you money.

L. A. CLARK, Agt.

—The express companies and postmasters have had all they could do to look after the holiday business. It has been larger this year than usual.

—Ed. Stipp who now resides in California writes that he has recently cut a tree on his place which yielded forty-three cords of wood.

—Capt. N. E. Mathers has been spending his holiday vacation at home. Mathers is well pleased with his position in the U. S. Martial office, and will doubtless receive a deserved promotion in the ear future.

—The Seward foundry force have all been prostrated with la grippe and but little was done there during the past week.

—The PROGRESS is in receipt of a half dozen holiday novels from the Chicago publishers, with a request to read and review. Life is too short and eye-sight too precious to use it in this way. An examination of one was sufficient. They are "love stories." One of these introduces the heroine, Helen Davers, whose papa with his pants polishes the whisky barrels in Mike Mulligan's saloon on South State street, her mother has galloping consumption, three little sisters are sick with measles and her twin brothers have worms. One bright winter morning Helen was hurrying to the match factory where she earned a salary of 48 cents per week, when she fell upon the icy pavement and sprained her ankle (believe 'twas the left one). A gentleman in a sleigh and driving a spirited $425 horse, gathered her up tenderly and took her to her humble home. He wore a fur-lined overcoat, had black curly eyes and blue hair, gold in his teeth, and clover on his breath.
Well he was worth $4,000,000 and he married the girl, bought the old man a barrel of whisky, got some South American Nervine of Faris Bros. and cured the old woman and the five kids, and everything is now lovely. And that's about the way the other stories run. It is no trouble to write a love story.
Just toss in a fortune and a marriage and you have it.

—Showers Bros. have paid out for labor, during the past twelve months $62,000. At present the firm have over four million feet of lumber on their grounds. They manufacture full bed room suites, and have averaged 1,800 pieces each week for the past fifty-five, or 126,000 pieces. They ship to every State in the Union, as well as to the territories.

—W. B. Hughes and wife have both been sick with la grippe. Mr.
Hughes is convalescing but Mrs.
Hughes is still seriously ill.

—Born to S. E. Carmichael and wife, on Tuesday last, a son.

—Prof. Foster Hight spent the holiday vacation with his mother, in this city.

—The new Lodge K. of P. at Stineville, is officiated as follows:
C. C. Wm. Wiles; C. C. E. R.
Plether; V. C. Thos. Moore; Prelate; Wm. Williams; K. of R. and S. Chas. Walker; M. of F.
Robt. Welch; M. of E. Frank Moore; M. A. John Terry; L. G.
Audy Pugh; O. G. Galard Brown.

—Berlin physicians are trying to devise a method for the more thorough cleansing of beer glasses in restaurants. The city health physicians say that disease is spread by the glasses washed as they are at present. Can it be possible that any of the sickness now so prevalent in Bloomington is due to this cause.

—Dr. J. A. Woodburn was in Philadelphia last week, where he went to attend a national convention of University Extension.

—Jesse Hubbard, Supt. of Nobleville High School, is spending the holidays with Bloomington relations.

—The Monon railroad company are pushing the work of construction on their new depot at Ellettsville. It will be a vast improvement over the old one.

—I. U. will be open for business on Wednesday.

—Born to J. McKinley and wife, a daughter.

—Wm. Dinsmore, of La Salle co., Ills., is visiting his father, John Dinsmore.

—Mrs. Sam. Dinsmore of Cherryvale, Kas., is visiting relatives here.

—Ind. Journal: Miss Norma Hunter of Bloomington is the guest of Mrs. T. A. Winterrowd.

CORN! CORN! At W. J. Allen's.

—Twenty-nine years ago Thursday, at the battle of Murfreesboro, Jas. F. Manley lost his arm. The loss on each side at that engagement was about 10,000 men.

—There is no longer any trouble about crossing 5th and 6th streets at the railroad, as all freight trains pull through to the yards south of town without stopping. The man who gets on a freight train now and expects to get off at Bloomington will be mistaken. He will be carried to the yards and will have a long, tedious mile to walk to the public square.

—Carter school house, Clear Creek, had a successful Christmas tree, and the declamations and dialogues were unusually interesting.
The presents were not the least valuable and attractive part of the observance.

—Chas. Barnhill became a partner in the firm of Rogers & Wohl-ley, insurance agents, on the 1st inst. Mr. L. D. Rogers retiring.
Mr. Barnhill is a first-class young business man who will sustain the reputation already made by the firm.

—Mrs. H. C. Duncan has been quite sick with la grippe.

—The Jordan Poultry Company has absorbed the Springer & Rawles poultry house, on west 5th street.

—Mrs. Clarence Bicknell is visiting her parents, E. S. Sluss and wife, on west 6th street.

—Wm. Bhorer, a former citizen of Bloomington, died at Crawfor-dville one day last week.

—The Baptist church pulpit filled by Rev. Carter of the Ana. Baptist, last Sunday.

—Harry Swindell, who seek a more salubrious climate, will prolong his stay in the Pacific coast soon with
