—We will have no more circuit court till March 7th.

—Death claimed two of the shining lights of the Roman Catholic church Thursday—Cardinal Manning at London and Cardinal Simoni at Rome.

—Judge Canning is prominently mentioned in connection with the Democratic nomination for Congress in this District. 'Twould be a good joke on Congressman Cooper if Judge Canning should floor him.

—The Odd Fellows have determined to go on with their building on the ground recently purchased by them from the McPheeters heirs, northeast corner of the square, and bids are to be received till Feb. 15th, at Allen's hardware store, where plans and specifications may be seen.

—Remember that on Wednesday night, Feb. 3d, the finest vocal and instrumental organization in the country will be in College Chapel, as a part of the lecture course. Single tickets, 75c.

—No change was made in the Directory of the First National Bank, and the officers that have served this sterling institution so well in the past were again chosen. Wm. Wylie has been promoted to the position of assistant bookkeeper.

—Landlord Lawes of the "National" is off on a protracted hunt. The National Hotel goes on all the same, however, under the management of one of the most competent lady managers in Southern Indiana—Mrs. T. E. Lawes.

—Dwight Landers, the young man who was so terribly mutilated by being kicked in the head and face by horses, some time ago, is rapidly convalescing, and it is believed will get well.

—The Overland Monthly for February is to contain fully illustrated articles on the Tennessean Mine, so great a subject of curiosity at present; on Prof. Davidson's interesting scientific Ascent of Mount Connes; and on Camping with Fox Hounds in Southern California, by Helen Elliott Baudini. The number will also contain a timely article on the New Constitution of Brazil.

—Col. Bob Ingersoll is again engaged in making a furious onslaught upon the christian religion. There is always one marked feature about these assaults of the Eastern pagan, and that is that they do religion no harm and they please Bob immensely.

—The proprietor of the "Eagle" clothing house, James Simmons, accompanied by his family, is off on a visit to relations in Lincoln, Ill.

—The new box cars are rapidly coming into use on the Monon, and this great system will doubtless be able to do justice to its rapidly growing business this year.

—The common salutation in every portion of the county is: "How are your sick people?" Every neighborhood, and almost every family, has sickness to report, and some of it serious in character.

—The Chilian Minister got word some how that our own "Co. H," had determined to throw themselves into the breach, and he at once advised his cranky fellow-countrymen to stop their nonsensical war talk.

—The law requires that due notice be given in a paper of the election of trustees of all lodges, and all elections without this notice are void, and each member of the lodge becomes personally liable for the debts of the lodge.—Madison Courier.

—Martinsville is to have a new hotel this year, and it will be a handsome edifice. While the Pennsylvania railroad has no stock in the enterprise, the Indianapolis & Vincennes will greatly improve its facilities at that point, as the new building is to be directly opposite the railroad depot. A long platform will be built, a fountain put in, and considerable money expended in beautifying the locality.

—One of the city school trustees informs the PROGRESS that eight new rooms will be needed next spring to accommodate the school children. Every step that is required by law has been taken by the trustees, and it now remains with the city council to determine the location of the building, and say when the contract shall be let. The rooms occupied in the old college building must be surrendered, and whatever is done must be done promptly.

—Sleighing nearly always comes in cold weather, and the present winter has been no exception to the rule. For this reason the PROGRESS could not enjoy it, and so we have instructed our kind friend, Cal. Worrall, to use our team, with permission to ride any one he may fancy.

—John Rogers (a son of Stephen Rogers) who resided on South Rogers street, died on Thursday last with pneumonia.

—Has any newspaper proprietor received "coupon certificates" from the Grand Palace Hotel, Chicago? So far in this locality, that establishment has shirked all direct replies to demands for such evidence of indebtedness.

—Marion Wood, formerly of this county, has been indicted for killing John T. Webb in Orange county on the 14th of November. The grand jury was in session two weeks.

—Yes, well—you fellows who expect to get one of the county offices that under the new law will pay a salary of $1,800 or more, should hand in your announcements. There is going to be an immense amount of fun this campaign. Announcements of Democratic candidates made at the same price charged prohibitionists.

—The next President of the United States will be nominated in a Republican Convention which will meet at Minneapolis on the 7th of June. Two weeks thereafter—that is to say, on the 21st of June—the Democrats will, at Chicago, name the man to be beaten by the Minneapolis candidate.

—The chair factory plant, just north of Showers Bros. furniture factory, has changed hands. One-half of it was changed by Showers Bros., and the other half has been purchased from S. C. Dodds. The inventory of the chair factory amounted to $31,000. It is understood that the manufacture of furniture will be conducted in the old chair factory and a quantity of the latest machinery will be purchased at once for it, and a dry kiln will be added. The newly arranged establishment will do business under the name of the "North End Furniture Co." and it will be placed in charge of Chas. T. Showers, a competent young business man. Mr. Dodds has real estate and stone quarry interests to look after that will occupy his time, and this is given as his reason for disposing of the factory, which has always done a satisfactory business.

—Chicago, with its usual good luck, gets the Democratic National Convention, although not an applicant for it. The time fixed for holding the convention is June 21st—just two weeks after the Republican National Convention meets in Minneapolis.

—A young man named Roberts, who came to Bloomington in September with a stock of stationery and books which he placed in the express office room, has made an assignment to Ed. Corr. Josh Howe, from whom he rented the room, brought matters to a crisis. Mr. Corr estimates the debts at $1,200, and the stock at $800.

—The Democratic county central committee met on Saturday for the purpose of organizing. With very little delay the committee got itself into working shape, and John Cravens' name having been submitted for chairman, he was elected unanimously; the choice for Secretary fell upon H. J. Felms in the same manner. For the office of Treasurer three candidates were suggested: Peter Bowman, Ed. Hall and S. K. Rhorer. Bowman was elected. The useful Democracy of Monroe county evidently looks for a large corruption fund or there would be no such scramble for the handling of campaign money. In response to calls upon Mr. Cravens for a speech in acknowledgment of his gratitude for elevation to so honorable a position, he showed that he was utterly dumb-founded and taken by surprise when he produced three quires of manuscript containing his few remarks. John is a sly, slick, smooth politician, and the PROGRESS will keep an eye on him this campaign, even though to do so it will be necessary to haunt the clerk's office with the pretence of collecting fees.

—Marriage licenses have not been selling rapidly this month. Mr. Cravens having only succeeded in disposing of five in twenty-five days. They are Jos. Chambers and Lizzie Vaughn, Wm. L. Smith and Elizabeth Pierce (colored), Curtis Albright and Lucy A. Prince, F. A. Linscomb and Rosa Johnson.

—Ed. Mooney, general manager of the American starch works, at Columbus, Ind., fell through a causeway Friday afternoon, seriously injuring himself and dislocating his right shoulder. Mr. Mooney is the son-in-law of Henry Healey of this place.

—John Chambers brings suit against Myrtle Chambers for divorce, charging adultery. This is the only new case since court adjourned.

—F. A. Linscomb, a young school teacher in the northwest portion of the county, was married last week to Rose Johnson. At her marriage Miss Johnson came into her estate, amounting to $1,700 in cash and a good farm.

—Mrs. Felix Dunn is quite ill with an aggravated attack of bronchitis.

—Mrs. Caroline Coffin has returned from Chicago, where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Brodix.

—Mrs. Mercer of Brazil, and Mrs. Baker of Chicago, sisters of Mrs. Martha A. Buskirk, are visiting in Bloomington.

—Frank Coffin has removed to Jeffersonville, Ind., where he has secured a position in a machine shop.

University Notes.

Prof. Osthaus has been very sick with grip, but is now slowly improving.

President Coulter has been confined to his room for several days.

Mr. Reid of Clayton, Ind., is the latest addition to the roll.

The Oratorical Association met on Thursday evening. It was decided to hold the primary contest Feb. 2nd or 12th.

Miss Lincoln of Fort Wayne, a new student, is now wearing the "Black and Gold."

Sleighting parties have been quite common. A number of students seized the magnificent opportunity for taking their best girls sleigh riding.

The social given by the Christian Association at the old college chapel, was a decided success. About one hundred were present.

Mr. Zines of Indianapolis, whose services have been obtained by I. U. as instructor of the new gymnasium, has arrived, and will begin work as soon as the course is laid out and the hours specified.

Prof. Boone's class was favored with a lecture by Rev. Brood of Michigan City on Monday morning. Also on Thursday morning by Dr. Halsted of this city.

The "Botanical Gazette," one of the leading botanical journals of this country, of which Dr. Coulter is editor-in-chief, has been enlarged and the place of publication has been changed from Crawfordsville to Bloomington.

Mr. Guenther is now a member of the faculty. Tutor in German, owing to the sickness of Prof. Osthaus, he is certainly very necessary that something should be done in regard to the debt. With the Association as much in debt, it will be impossible to drive the base ball team as it should be in the spring.

The Athletic Association met at the Chapel building, Friday. Most of the time was taken up by the discussion of the "Debt." It was decided to take some definite steps in regard to the matter. Each member of the Association has been assessed $1. It is the purpose of the Association to have some sort of an entertainment early in the year.

The new gymnasium was formally opened Jan. 20th, at 2 o'clock. Notwithstanding the fact that "everything had the grip," the exercises passed off nicely. Dr. Ross and Coulter were not able to be present. The ladies' exercises under the supervision of Mrs. Sanderson, were appreciated by all. The "fancy ring marching" was highly enjoyed. The address was given by Dr. Ross and Coulter were not able to be present. The ladies' exercises under the supervision of Mrs. Sanderson, were appreciated by all. The "fancy ring marching" was highly enjoyed. The address was given by Dr. Ross and Coulter were not able to be present.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of working Republicans convened at the court house last Saturday afternoon for the purpose of organizing the central committee that was elected two weeks ago. The Chairman of '88—Nat. U. Hill—seemed to be the first choice of the Republicans assembled, but he told them that it would be impossible for him (owing to the large amount of private business that demands his attention) to give the campaign the time it deserves and should have. The committee then unanimously selected Wm. H. Adams, of Perry pt., as chairman. Mr. Adams is a young man who is thoroughly fitted by education and inclination for the duties of the position. He has always taken a deep interest in politics in his own township, and has always been at the polls as a worker in some capacity. He is at present engaged in the stone quarry business, and is one of the owners of the property known as the Adams quarry, the best paying piece of property of the kind in the county. Mr. Adams will be acceptable to all Republicans, and we believe his selection will be generally endorsed. For Treasurer, the committee selected J. G. McPheeters, and for Secretary W. P. Rogers. All those officers were filled by acclamation, which gives an idea of the feeling of earnestness, and the harmony which exists among Monroe county Republicans. The Democrats already have assaulted the court house and captured the lower story. Judge, Treasurer and Clerk. Should they be permitted, by apathy, or by a division among Republicans, to capture the up-stairs offices, there is no telling when, if ever, they could be ousted. The best plan is to work together, just as Republicans can, if they will, and victory can be won. It is nonsense to say that this can be done easily—the Democrats are too much encouraged by their success in '90, and they will make a desperate fight. Victory or defeat is in the hands of Monroe county Republicans. Let them choose.

A race track is to be constructed on the farm of F. E. Worley, near Ellettsville.

The funeral of D. Eckley Hunter occurred on Saturday afternoon last, services being held in Walnut St. Pres. church. The attendance was very large. The E. O. F. took charge of the ceremonies, deceased having been for many years a member of that Order. Frank Hunter of El Paso, Texas, and George Hunter of Eagle Pass, came home to be present at the funeral.

Bloomington physicians have been very busy during the past three weeks, some of them finding it useless to disrobe as they are called out every hour, day and night.

Waldo Vanzandt and Jacob Howe have bought Til. McFerrin's stock of groceries and will move in today. The building belongs to Jacob Howe.
