

Republican Progress

Wm. A. Galt, Editor and Proprietor

For President,
The Man Nominated at Minneapolis in June, 1892.

Republican State Convention.
Notice is hereby given to the Republican voters of Monroe county that there will be held a state convention of Republicans at the court house in Bloomington, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 20th, 1892, to appoint 16 delegates to the District Convention, to be held at Indianapolis, March 3d, to select two delegates and two alternates to the Republican National Convention.

Also, to appoint 3 delegates to the State convention, to be held at Indianapolis, March 10th, to select four delegates-at-large and four alternates for the State of Indiana to the Republican National Convention, at Minneapolis, June 7th, 1892.

R. C. Duncan, Chairman.
W. F. Rogers, Secretary.

For Governor.

There is little or no doubt among prominent Republicans of Indianapolis and elsewhere throughout the State that the name of ex-Governor Albert G. Porter, present minister to Italy, will come before the Fort Wayne convention in June for the Governorship, and will not be withdrawn. Over a week ago a dispatch to the Indianapolis Journal from Jeffersonville stated that Governor Porter had promised certain Republicans there that he would not decline a nomination, and there has been no denial of this report. Governor Porter, who is now in New Orleans, has neither affirmed nor denied the report. In this connection there is much speculation as to whether or not Minister Porter will return to Italy at all. When he returned home it was announced that his leave of absence was for sixty days, but that expired about the middle of January. When he went south he left word that if any communication arrived for him he should be notified at once. From this it is evident that the understanding is that he is not to return without instructions. Baron Fava, the Italian Minister, has been away from Washington some months upon an indiscrete leave of absence. It is surmised that the Department has determined that there shall be no U. S. Minister at Rome until there is an Italian Ambassador at Washington. In the meantime, it is also surmised, his business at New Orleans is to make observations and memoranda that will better enable him to act in the dispute over the Italian lynching.

She Says Her Meat is Sweet.

Miss Lizzie M. Jones, of No.
438 Locust street, Indianapolis, claims to have been benefited by using the dog meat treatment for consumption. Since the middle of September she has eaten nothing but dog meat, and three days after beginning the treatment noticed a change in her condition for the better. She says she has almost entirely recovered.

"I have eaten four dogs," she told a reporter to-day. "The first a shepherd, then two large Newfoundland and the last a water spaniel, which was not very good.
I tell you, sir, the shepherd is the dog. The meat and oil are both far superior to other dogs. I have had a great deal of trouble in getting my dogs. One of the Newfoundland I got at Woodruff place and had killed, and came very near getting arrested for it, and after all it was not a very good dog. I advertised for dogs, and the only answer I got was from a man who wanted $25 apiece for his dogs.
That would make rather an expensive meat bill for me, wouldn't it?
In preparing the meat I have the dogs skinned and cut up by the butcher. The last I have rendered, and cook my potatoes and other food with it, the oil I apply to my lungs externally, and the meat is cut up and generally fried. I keep it on ice, and one dog will last me a little less than two weeks. The meat is not like beef or mutton.
It has a sweeter taste and is very nice."

—Chili is a long, slim strip of country, resembling a shoe-string Congressional district gerrymandered by the Democrats. A good big United States cannon planted on the north end of the strip could blow every inhabitant off into the ocean and make them very much chillier than they are now.

—London stands between the devil and the deep sea with regard to its fog. The more coal it burns the more fog it has, the more fog it has the more gas it needs and the more gas it needs the more coal it burns. It looks as if it would pay London to let all its fires go out.

—St. Louis Globe: The W. C.
T. U. has entered a protest against war with Chili, but in view of the fact that the members of that available organization are exempt from military duty, its interference in such a matter is somewhat superfluous.

—One of George Kennan's hobbies has been for many years the collection of newspaper accounts of suicides, of which he will probably produce a book some day that will make a sensation. He has theories on the physical phenomena which induce self-destruction that are extremely novel, though, as he himself says, they are as yet immature.

The Taxes AND WHO LEVIED THEM.

By an examination of the Auditor's books we learn that the total taxes levied this year for county purposes, over which the county commissioners have exclusive control is

$42,403 38

Last year the tax that was levied was 37,442 48

The difference between this year's levy and that made last year 4,960 90

Taxes now levied, and to be paid in 1892, $123,174 78

Taxes levied in 1891 98,653 32

Increase of tax over '91 $26,521 46

Of this amount the Co.
Board levied 4,960 90

The remainder, added through the acts of the Democratic legislature 21,560 56

The County Board carefully figured the levy to make the tax this year for county purposes about the same as that of last year, but the valuation of taxable property in the county was raised by the State Board, hence the increase of taxes over last year, though the levy for county purposes was lowered five cents on the hundred dollars by the County Board.

The appraisal of real estate (without improvements) for purposes of taxation, as returned by the Monroe County Board of Review was $2,375,905

To this the State Board added 15 per cent., or 488,275

Making a total of $2,864,180

This amount, through the efforts of our Republican County Auditor, was reduced to $3,065,330

A reduction of 358,850

Net increase by State Board over County Assessor's appraisal 129,425

A reduction of 10 per cent. $229,425

To be more explicit, if Auditor Blair had not made a personal and persistent effort before the State Board at Indianapolis, the farming lands of Monroe county would today have been groaning under a burden of $229,425 of assessment more than is now placed against them.

Additional Locals.

—The Democratic Congressional race in this district promises to be warmly contested, as already three candidates are spoken of. Prominent among these is our friend John R. East, who has a strong following, and who if cordially supported can secure the nomination.

We learn also that the many friends of Jas. Ryan will present his name to the Democratic convention as a candidate for Representative. Mr. Ryan is a well known mechanic and will make an active canvasser.

—Mrs. E. M. Seward gave addresses on the subject of Woman's Suffrage in the northern part of the State, several nights the latter part of the past week. In her speeches Mrs. Seward never antagonizes parties, but urges the duty of all citizens to do justice to women, thereby bringing about desirable results.

—J. B. Hazel, a strong labor party advocate, has been chosen the official delegate to represent this congressional district at St.
Louis, Feb. 22d. At this convention an effort will be made to combine all the labor organizations, make it one body, and harmonize on one ticket.

—Prof. C. M. Carpenter has purchased the Keck residence on 4th street—a two-story brick—paying $2,400. The price paid is very reasonable.

—Landlord Lawes returned from Arkansas with a new pair of whiskers and a fine fat deer.

—Ed. C. Mooney and wife of Columbus, Ind., came over Saturday on a visit to Henry Hines and wife. Mr. Mooney returned Monday, but Mrs. Mooney will remain several weeks.

HANDSOME Valentines in Bloomington, and very cheap at Lindley's drug store.

—Chas. Axtell is at his father's residence in this city, confined to his bed with inflammatory rheumatism.

VALENTINES, sentimental and comic, at Lindley's drug store.
Some very handsome ones.

—Dr. Jos. Rogers of Pratt, Kas., is visiting relations. After a couple of days spent here he went to Richmond to visit his sister.

—Marie Boyson is said to be sick with scarlet fever.

—Rev. Mr. Halstead has been called to Terre Haute, to attend the funeral of his sister's child.

—Both John F. May and his wife have been seriously sick. Mrs.
May is convalescing, but Mr. May recovers but slowly.

—Cyrus Reed returned to West Superior, Wis., Sunday night, to resume his duties as a traveling salesman. Mrs. Reed will remain here a month or two.

SEND A VALENTINE. Lindley's has the best assortment in town, and cheap as you want them.

Dr. Woodburn closed his extension lectures at Indianapolis, Friday night.

Mrs. Prof. Ballott entertained a small party party Friday evening, in honor of Mrs. Eva Bulcroft.

On the account of Dr. Hemphill of Lou-ville not being able to be here Sunday afternoon, there were no chapel services.

Miss Anna Hancock, a student of De Witt college, class '91, and will do with Miss Nora Kirby, next 3d week.

Prof. Fellows was at home to the members of his classes, Thursday evening from 6 to 8.

Prof. Hoffman contemplated erecting a fine dwelling house on east 3d street, on the Jordan property.

Kappa Alpha Theta held open meeting Saturday evening at the home of Miss Bertha Alden.

Edna Randall, of Logansport, is the latest addition to the roll. He is of the Webb college, class '91, and will do special work in Botany here.

Dr. Woodburn's lectures are highly appreciated in Chicago. The Newberry Library has written him asking that he give a second series of lectures after the present course is finished.

Zella Smith of Lebanon was visiting friends at the U. H. He is at present a student at DePaul and a member of the Delta Upsilon Fraternity.

Miss Ida Manley now has a class of 20 in Physical Culture at Indianapolis, and is much pleased with the success of her work.

The amount subscribed by the students to repair the loss sustained by the Janitor in the burning of the engine house, was $65; a like sum was subscribed by the members of the Faculty.

Indiana University students never lack for recreation. Let it be a fire or a dog fight, "U. H." may be heard above the cracking of the fire or the howling of the dogs.

The Phi Delta Theta boys have their hall newly furnished and have one of the most attractive places of meeting in the city. A. M. edition, new upholstered chairs and last curtains have been added.

Miss Nellie Hough returned to her home near Richmond to fill a place in the schools at that place, made vacant by the resignation of her mother, who has accepted a position in the schools at Munster. Miss Nellie will return to her college work next term.

The Monday holiday question has appeared and disappeared. It was the voice of the faculty that it would not be advisable to do anything towards settling it this year, but a favorable feeling was expressed towards its ultimate adoption.

The Goethe Club, under the management of Dr. Karsten, met at the residence of Mrs. Burson, 4th street, Saturday afternoon at 2:30. The exercises were very interesting. The speakers were:
Von Gustaf E. Kurster, Von Laura Moore, Von H. J. Gertner.

The news that Prof. R. B. Richardson, professor of Greek at Dartmouth, has declined the chair offered him by Leland Sturges of the University, was hailed with delight by all the Dartmouth men whose diplomas have a date of not more than ten years standing.—Concord

I. U. Oratorical Association is offered as follows: President, W. M. Wood of the Senior class; Vice President, A. M.
Bain of the Senior class; Corresponding Secretary, O. M. Hubbard of the Junior class; Treasurer, Kepner of the Junior class; Recording Secretary, Holloman of the Freshman class.

The third entertainment of the regular lecture course was held Wednesday night, Feb. 3. The concert was hardly as good as the first. The vocalists were appreciated by the large audience which was present. The vocalists were not so good as has been heard on the same stage. Considering the amount of money it takes to bring this company it is likely that they will not be asked to return.

The gymnasium class now numbers 50.
Considering the age of this institution it has certainly made a remarkable growth.
Every one seems to be interested in "gymnasium work." The classes meet from 3 to 5 o'clock on Tuesday, Wednesday and one for class drill. The foot ball and base ball teams meet on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. The regular class Monday, Wednesday and Friday. The equine, basketball and tennis are $1 and a pair of shoes with no socks in them.

—Mrs. Jas. Matthews, who has been seriously sick, is now convalescing.

—The illustration of the Review of Reviews is timely in the February number as in any preceding issue. The frontispiece is a fine portrait of Cardinal Manning. In the progress of the world are portraits of Senators Cullum and Palmer, of Illinois, Lord Hartington, Joseph Chamberlain and Mr. Collins, M. P., the late Prince Albert Victor, the Princess Mary of Teck, the late Emile de Laveleye, G. W.
Childs and A. J. Drexel, of Phila-
