NO. 201, HALL BROS.

Bloomington, Ind. Progress.

Entered at the Postoffice at Bloomington, Ind., as second class matter May, 1907.

No man excels Geo. Benckart as a bread baker. His bread creates comment wherever used, by its sweetness, richness, lightness. Try it and be convinced.

There is a great difference between butter and grease. Some people never learn to make butter. When a good butter maker is found the product is always in demand. Charley McPheeters has the "knack" of finding these people, and as a consequence always has the best butter in the town.

Richest coffee in the town is served at Geo. A. Benckart's bakery, where can be secured a lunch that will specially commend itself to farmers and others.

Cigars of the choicest brands are always found at McPheeters' grocery, corner opposite post office. In these goods he has a large and constantly increasing trade. Then in coffee, tea and tobacco he leads the leaders. Ask for Charley McPheeters' grocery.

If you don't know Charley McPheeters' grocery location be sure to ask for it. No one excels him in quality of stock, nor in cheapness. He keeps very choice cigars, so all smokers say.

Remember that Robertson & McKinley are in the grocery business in the new room north of the Progress Block, and that they carry a complete new stock of all goods in the grocery line. Both are clever men, well known all over the county. They will buy choice produce, and want no other kind.

A COUNTY FAIR is what Joe Smith's remarkable store on the south side of the square is called by some people, and indeed it is that and more, for while it partakes of all the characteristics of a great exhibition, it has as much more than is usually found in one. For here are the choicest gems set in pure gold; the standard grades of silverware, all the novelties in clocks and watches, and wagon loads of rings, breast pins, etc. Watch repairing a specialty. The largest stock of books and stationery in Southern Indiana, will be found here at all times.

You don't want to order shoes, or bluffs till you call at W. J. Allen's hardware store and investigate the samples and prices. All manner of builders' hardware of late style and at low prices as possible.

Boys, R. L. Winslow, opposite the county jail, is headquarters for everything in the Buggy, Sundry, Cart and Harness line.

Craig Worley can supply you with a buggy, phaeton, spring wagon, or anything else in the way of a vehicle which you may need. You don't have to pay him cash, either, as he will swap for horses or mules. He may be found at the big livery barn north of the square, on College Avenue.

No More Nonsense. Some of you people have been owing me by note or account for many long, weary months—and years. I am getting very tired of your dilatory action, and I am determined to have my money! Do you understand that? I am going to have it. Now the sooner you settle your indebtedness the cheaper it will be for you, as I intend to give an officer or a lawyer a chance to make a few fees if you don't come to time. These are "words with the bark on 'em."

W. J. ALLEN.

NEW THINGS in groceries and provisions have been secured by Chas. McPheeters, the popular postoffice grocer. He buys only the best goods. He sells always the cheapest. He has no superior in any of these specialties.

PRODUCE! PRODUCE! PRODUCE!—The best that Monroe county affords is always secured by McKinley & Robertson, at their grocery on North College Avenue. It is the place to look for something choice.

Remember that no man can sell No. 1 farm wagons or spring wagons cheaper than W. J. Allen. He asks you to call and examine his wagons before you buy.

Administrators and Executors and those who have the advertising for Estates will do a special favor for the PROGRESS if they will always insist upon the advertising (WHICH IS REQUIRED BY LAW) to be done in the PROGRESS. Rates are always reasonable.

The persons with whom we have been corresponding with reference to bringing in that 16 and 18 inch wood, will please hustle it in at once, before the roads get bad.

How Corbett Knocked Out Sullivan.

Faris Bros., Gentlemen:—I owe much of my success in knocking out the big duffer of a Sullivan to a course of treatment I underwent by the aid of South American Nervine. I got full of malaria and all out of it while waiting for my fight, and found my only relief in this wonderful medicine. I sent for the genuine article to your drug house and felt its effect from the first dose. It made a powerful man of me.

Yours truly,
JAMES CORBETT, Champion.

A HANDSOME town lot next to alley, 66 by 132 feet, well McAdamsized and paved on the east front, will be sold by Soddy Carmichael to the first applicant. Location only four squares from court house. Speak quick.

ASK FOR Winslow's when you come to town and want a set of harness. He can save you money.

NEATEST stock of Fall Goods in the city just received by Chas. Mobley, the south side dry goods dealer. These goods will be coming in each week now till November for the fall trade, as arrangements have been made for shipment as regularly as the new styles are brought out. Everything new and novel in Ladies wear and in gentlemen's supplies may be found in the show cases and on the counters at this store. When you come to town do not decide where you will make your purchases till you call at the "Golden Rule" dry goods store, south sides square.

ENGLISH SPRAIN Liniment removes all Hard, Soft or Calloused Lumps and Blisters from Horses. Our Grandmother Used Sulphur as a favorite home remedy. "Liquid Sulphur" the new discovery, is invaluable in all Blood, Stomach and Skin troubles. FARR BROS., Bloomington, Agents.

It will soon be time to read in the papers of some fool who accepts a challenge to "eat thirty quails in thirty days." There are men in this city who could come very near eating thirty quails in a ten-hour day.

Better not buy of home men when you can get goods from peddlers for twice the money you'd pay to a home merchant.

Don't wait till the snow is on the ground before you bring that wood. We want it right now.

Soddy Carmichael has 40 acres of land, about a mile from Unionville, (neg neg sec21 to r1e) which he will trade to some one. What have you to swap?

Confirmation services will be held in St. Charles Catholic church on Sunday next. Right Rev. Chatard, Bishop of Vincennes, is expected.

Fred. Howe of Louisville came to Bloomington to attend the funeral of Dr. J. D. Maxwell.

The last grand rally of the campaign will be held by the Republicans on Friday, Nov. 4th. It has not yet been decided who will be the orator of the occasion, but it will be some man of National reputation.

—Bring in that wood before the mud gets so deep that that will be the excuse.

—W. T. Blair has been one of the county's most faithful servants, having filled the office of Auditor with an unusual degree of satisfaction to the people. There has been twice as much work in the Auditor's office under Mr. Blair's administration as under any former Auditor. That he has performed it promptly and satisfactorily speaks well for him and entitles him to further recognition.

—Judge Gresham, it is stated, will not vote for Harrison. But then Gresham has but one vote. So what is the sense in making so much ado about it?

—Three new grocery stores and "holes punched for more" would look like there was a little profit in the grocery business, though after the bad accounts are sifted out it is hard to see it.

—James T. Robertson, the Republican candidate for County Treasurer, is making a leisurely canvass of the county, and expects to see every man, woman and child before election day. Robertson wants to be elected to the office of County Treasurer, and asks the assistance of all voters. Robertson isn't of much account physically, but he can easily attend to the duties of the Treasurer's office.

—The North Bedford Stone Co., with quarries located near Stinesville, held an election last week at which the old board of directors were re-elected. They are W. H. McKnight, James H. Dunn and C. P. Taylor, Louisville; M. J. Carnahan, Longottee; J. W. Ogden, Washington; R. C. Greeves and B. A. McGee, Bloomington. The following officers were elected: President, W. H. McKnight; Secretary, B. A. McGee; Treasurer, James H. Dunn.

—Wils. Adams was as good a soldier as ever shouldered a musket. He will also make a tip-top Sheriff. His friends ought to rally around the old veteran and give him a rousing majority.

—Mr. Nye spoke to a small audience at the court house on Wednesday night. This is not Bill Nye, the humorist, for there was no humor in Wednesday night Nye's speech. He came very "Nye" losing his audience in a short time—those that did not go to sleep.

—At a meeting of the University Athletic Association, the following officers were elected: A. M. Hadley, President; Robt. Miller, Vice President; Sam Murdoch, Secretary; Munson Atwater, Treasurer; S. F. Teter, manager of football team.

—Hiram Lindley was at Paoli last week, and while there secured a cross-cut saw with which he used to work fifty years ago. He enjoys talking about it now more than he appreciated working with it in those days.

—Mrs. Mariah H. Buskirk, of Bloomington, is visiting her son Thomas B. Buskirk, at Paoli.

SULPHUR BATHS, 12c.—Liquid Sulphur, "for the bath," $1.00 per jug—8 1/2 lbs.

—The Monroe Co. Horticultural Society will meet at the home of I. Milt. Rogers, Wednesday, Oct. 12. All are invited to come at 10 o'clock. Bring your baskets well filled and let us have a good meeting.
J. S. DISMORE, Sec.

—The voters of Monroe county should bear in mind that Wm. T. Blair, the efficient and accommodating County Auditor, is a candidate for re-election. Mr. Blair has honored the office by careful work, and the pleasant manner in which he has conducted business with all who might have occasion to call at the Auditor's office ought to recommend him to the suffrages of the people, regardless of politics. So far as the Progress is concerned we are in favor of taking his election by consent.

—Everybody in Monroe county, it is believed, has some knowledge of Wils. Adams. Wils. is the Republican candidate for Sheriff, and is making an effort to see all the people without regard to "race, religion or previous condition of servitude." Wils. Adams will be Sheriff of Monroe county after the 15th of November, so you had better get in the procession and come in on the winning side.

—A. D. Hall, the assistant civil engineer of the Monon road, was killed at Delphi on Wednesday morning by a train backing over him while his foot was fast in a frog. He was terribly mangled and lived but a few minutes.

DRINK "Liquid Sulphur."

—The city council has appointed Geo. Riley, Ira Bateman and R. C. Foster a committee to consider the re-numbering of the houses, at the request of George Riley.

—The improvement of 4th street from College Avenue to Gamble has been ordered by the city council.

THEY SAY THAT

Many Democrats are leaving the old free-trade wreck, and are coming over to the side of protection, liberty and good government. At this rate of desertion from the enemy, the Republican majority in Monroe county ought to be double.
—Mrs. Sam. Short is visiting relations at Vincennes. If you move now you lose your vote. Don't do it.—Chas. Butcher is teaching at Chapel Hill, and has removed his family to that point.
—James M. Hunter and family, now of Indianapolis have been visiting friends in this city.
—Jack Randolph, who for a time was located in Kansas is now practicing law in Chicago.

—The wires of the electric light plant have been subjected to a number of changes within the past week by experts in the business. The men who came here to do the work assert that 45 per cent of power was lost in the way in which the wires were strung. Of this more will be known when the plant is put in practical operation.

—Marion Hinkle purchased of John Stipp last week, thirty-three head of fat cattle for shipment to Indianapolis, at $4.15 per cwt. that averaged 1,529 lbs. He also got from I. P. Hopewell four head of cattle that averaged 1,335. He loaded the cattle into two cars with hogs, and they made heavy loads, you may be assured.

—A tragedy at the opera house, Thursday night, played by Frank Mayo and company, drew an ordinary house. The quantity of alcohol spilled was one of the most notable features of the play. Four or five men were killed by villains, and 25 or 30 soldiers were shot to death on the field of battle. After the play was over, the stage resembled the floor of one of the north pike slaughter houses, with blood running in rivulets, and congealing here and there. Nine buckets of gore were gathered up on Friday morning, together with two dozen "aha! villains!" Oh, it was harrowing.
