SICKLES STILL DEFiant.

He Shakes Grover Vigorously at the Washington Reception.
General Sicks still "has it" for Mr. Cleveland. Addressing his old comrades of the gallant Third Corps in Washington he defended the pension system, which recognizes in a practical way the services which the soldiers of the Union armies had rendered their country in its hour of peril. But he said more, and these are some of his words: "You are going home now, and there is something I want you to take home with you. Ponder it; teach it to your children; tell it to your neighbors. It is this: That the people of the United States will see that no man is ever elected to an office of profit and trust in this country who opposes the payment of pensions to the soldiers of the Union."
That was a savor thrust at Mr. Cleveland, who was never so merry as when hunting for half a reason to veto a widow's pension. The report continues: "The general seemed to have a special word for these words, and the sharp, idiomatic, merciless sentence, clean cut as a paragraph of constitutional law, cut through the air like the slash of a cavalry saber. He rumbled the words home hard, as Captain Bigelow did the last charge of the Massachusetts battery of the Third Corps, and the effect was instantaneous as when Captain Bigelow pulled the lockstring. In a moment what was left of the old Third Corps spoke with its old charging ring. His opinion of the man whose only job was cut at the expense of disabled veterans, 'Three cheers for the man who made that speech,' cried Comrade General Carr, springing to his feet, and again the charging cry of the old Third Army rang out into the night of Grand Army places and rolled up to the White House. General Sicks, who had been silent when he was waved his crutch in the Chicago convention and declared that Grover Cleveland would never receive the votes of the men who fought to preserve the Union.

PERTINENT QUERIES.

Some Foreign Questions for Democrats to Answer.
If foreigners do not pay the duties, why should they remove their factories to the United States?
If the United States is not producing tin plate in commercial quantities, why are sixty Welsh tin plate works in operation?
If the McKinley wool duties did not protect American wool prices, why has the price of wool fallen in the London market over 21 per cent. since January, 1890, while in the same time the fall in the price of American wool has been only 7 per cent?

Why should Democratic Labor Commissioner Peck's report, showing how the McKinley law has increased wages and given life to industry, cause such great sorrow in the free trade camp?
If the tariff has caused strikes, why were there 1,740 free strikes in New York State in 1891 than there were in 1890?
Is the example of Grover Cleveland, who immediately before his first nomination for the presidency claimed that he "didn't know a thing about the tariff" and who wrote his tariff message at the dictation of southern free traders, a better one for Democrats to follow than that of Jefferson, Madison, Jackson, Benton and Hancock?
With cost of living lower and farm prices higher than two years ago, as admitted by Democratic Senators Carlisle and Harris, would not the farmer be foolish indeed were he to vote against protection, the farmer's policy?
Are the free traders who attempted to nullify the constitution in 1893 and rebelled against it in 1891 better judges of its provisions than the protectionists who fought and bled for it during five long years of war—American Economic.

You are going home now, and there is something I want you to take home with you. Ponder it; teach it to your children; tell it to your neighbors. It is this: That the people of the United States will see that no man is ever elected to an office of profit and trust in this country who opposes the payment of pensions to the soldiers of the rebellion—General Sicks at G. A. R. Reception Sept. 21.

Harrison on the Battlefield.
It was almost the middle of May, 1864, before Colonel Harrison had the opportunity to participate in one of those great battles which have become historic. Resaca was the field upon which he made for himself a reputation for gallantry and personal valor which has not faded with the years. He was in charge of his brigade upon a formidable redoubt. Army in advance of the valley which to so many was the valley of death, and still in the lead he climbed the hill on which scores fell to rise no more.

Colonel Harrison was among the first to cross the parapet. It has been said to be the very first. A hand to hand combat ensued, the gunners defending themselves with their ramrods and the auxiliaries attacking with their clubbed muskets; officers exchanged pistol shots. It was in fact one of the rare instances of a genuine bayonet charge without a shot fired except by the defenders of the redoubt. The air rang with victorious cheers, and for awhile the inclosure was a scene of frantic joy. The colors had all been borne inside, and to both friend and enemy in the distance they announced that the height was gained—Washington Star.

ONE MORE.

Another Prominent Democrat Deserts Cleveland.
PROVIDENCE, Oct. 3.—General John M. Brennan, an astute Democratic politician, in discussing the political affairs of the state and nation, said: "The Democrats cannot win in Rhode Island, for they have nothing whatever to win on. The national party very foolishly want to the country with a defeated candidate, and they cannot recover the presidency. Cleveland was defeated with the federal government behind him and more than 100,000 officeholders, all of whom ought to have been with Cleveland, but they were in the majority against him, and when the election came around again in 1892 they largely voted for Harrison. There is but one logical conclusion to this part of the political outlook, and that is, What can Cleveland do without the federal patronage in 1892 when he could not win with it in 1888?"

Cleveland, who became so popular and grotesque in his thousands of pension votes to the poor Union soldiers' claims, will never be forgiven. He drove many nails in his political coffin when he made those votes. No one in all this country ever heard before of a candidate going to the people as a nominee for a great office against the expressed wishes and desires of the state delegation whence he came. In the November elections in Rhode Island the Democrats will be sure to see to it that the Cleveland following come two Muggins candidates as the nominees for congress, and they can go down with the still starved coterie of managers who expended so much money to secure the Cleveland delegates to the Chicago convention. These same Muggins in Rhode Island caused the defeat of the Democratic party in this state in the last April election.

POWDERLY FOR PROTECTION.

The Labor Leader Leaves the Democratic Party.
A Wilkes-Barre (Pa.) dispatch says: General Master Workman Powderly, of the Knights of Labor, and Channery F. Black, president of the State League of Democratic Clubs, met at the Delaware and Hudson railroad depot in Hyde Park this morning. Mr. Black was taking the train for his home in York, Pa., after attending the annual convention of the Democratic clubs in Scranton. Powderly grasped the Democratic statesman warmly by the hand and said: "Can you tell me where Cleveland stands on the tariff?"

Mr. Black replied, "That's more than I can tell, although if you asked where I stood I would be able to tell you."
"I tell you what," said Powderly, "I don't think he knows where he stands. He is at sea. I used to admire that man, but since his meddlingness interference with the silver question I have lost confidence in him. As between the Republican and Democratic parties I am a Republican this time."
The stand Powderly takes will create a sensation in labor circles. He has always been a Democrat.

Can't Datter Down That Wall.

The Cleveland administration of the public land office charged fraud against hundreds of thousands of honest homesteaders in the west, hung up entries upon millions of acres and went out of office leaving the country a mass of confusion. The Harrison administration has acted upon all of these and the many thousands which have since been presented, issuing patents for 65,000,000 acres against 36,000,000 acres patented by Cleveland's administration in the same length of time.

Under President Harrison's administration there has been an increase of $300,000,000 in the money in circulation in the country. The present administration has reduced the annual interest charge on the public debt $11,084,576, or a saving of practically a million dollars a month in interest alone.

Massachusetts Alliance Since New York.
Investigations of 3,745 manufacturing establishments in Massachusetts have revealed the following facts, the comparisons being between the years 1890 and 1891:
There has been an increase in the capital invested.
There has been an increase in the stock used in manufacturing.
There has been an increase in the number of persons employed.
There has been an increase in the gross amount of wages.
There has been an increase in the average yearly earnings per individual.

THE

Indiana Election Law and its Election Sheriffs, Challenges and Poll Clerks.
A howl went up from the leaders of the Clevelandites hereabouts, when it was known that a number of citizens, good and true men, had petitioned for the appointment of Federal Supervisors for the county.

Why the howl?
An honest man may dare to be watched; a dishonest one despises espionage. A political party that intends to do right in election matters can invite watching. If it contemplates crookedness it will not invite, and if it had the power to resist, would not tolerate watching. That's about the dimensions of this matter, morally and logically considered.

But what are the duties of the election supervisors, that the Democracy should raise such a howl against them? Why they can only stand by and watch the progress of the election, and if they see any crookedness transpiring they must report to officers above them. They can arrest nobody. They will only observe things. And one of them is to be a Democrat and one of them a Republican—your own citizens. Oh, what a terrible outrage on Democrats that they must be watched by one of their own party, who, if he catches them cheating, is sworn to report them.

Why then should this appointment of election supervisors raise such opposition among Democrats? We can't see why. But do you not know Democratic voters, that the present election law, passed by a Democratic Legislature, puts you under a closer surveillance than does the Federal election law?
Look at the arrangements for the balloting.
Look at the Election Sheriffs standing ready to drive you into the shute.
Look at the Election Sheriffs ready to arrest you and take you to jail if some hoodlum should make a complaint against you, and you pretend to be indignant because a couple of innocent election supervisors, one a democrat and one a Republican, are on the ground and in the polling places to see that all the work is done fairly to all parties.

Here is the Democratic State law that will jail you if some hoodlum ever swears a lie against you: Sec. 15. The election sheriffs are special deputies appointed by the sheriff of the county to act as officers at the polls; and they must be at the polls when they open and remain until the count is concluded. They must make arrests on the demand of any member of the Board (sec. 15 and 45) and also on affidavit made before the Inspector by any qualified voter: Thus you see that the State election law made by the Democrats subjects you to arrest on the ground of an affidavit if some one will make an affidavit that he believes that you are not a qualified voter, and for other reasons.

Election day used to be a free day, but now you are a slave on that day. You have to vote a ticket that is printed independent of you—you can't write out your ticket as in the days of free elections. You are not allowed to exercise the will and rights of an independent citizen. You are forced to be one of a multitude and do as it does, and yet at the sign from your leaders you set up a pitiful wall about election supervisors who do not interfere with your personal liberty in a single matter relating to the election. What a wofully humbugged set you followers of the Clevelandites are!!

Feels Very Thankful.

Stinesville, Aug. 30, 1892.
Favis Bros., Gentlemen—As a result of an attack of grippe last winter I have been unable to earn wages this summer. About August 1st I was induced to try three bottles of South American Remedy at your store, and taking the medicine according to directions I have so much improved that I now feel as well as ever. I feel very thankful to the man who discovered this medicine.

All persons who generally hand in lists to be made out, will please do so at their earliest convenience.

TOLBERT H. SPOFFORD,
County Treasurer.

—Thos. Braxton will leave on Wednesday for Chicago, where he has a position in a store.

—Cooper says the Democrats with their 150 majority in Congress, didn't have a chance to repeal the McKinley law, as they had promised to do—the Republican minority wouldn't let them. The Democratic party wants more chance than any party that ever existed! If Cooper and his Democratic colleagues really wanted to keep their promise, why did they not throw a bill for the repeal of the McKinley law at the feet of the Republican senate and dare them to go before the people on that issue? They dared not do it! They broke faith with the people who elected them! and a party that breaks its promises is unsafe, unworthy!
