RICHEST COFFEE in the town is served at Geo. A. Benckert's bakery, where can be secured a lunch that will specially commend itself to farmers and others.

CHANGES of the choicest brands are always found at McPheters' grocery, corner opposite post office. In these goods he has a large and constantly increasing trade. Then in coffee, tea and tobacco he leads the leaders. Ask for Charley McPheters' grocery.

If you don't know Charley McPheters' grocery location be sure to ask for it. No one excels him in quality of stock, nor in cheapness. He keeps very choice cigars, so all smokers say.

REMEMBER that Robertson & McKinley are in the grocery business in the new room north of the Progress Block, and that they carry a complete new stock of all goods in the grocery line. Both are clever men, well known all over the county. They will buy choice produce, and want no other kind.

A COUNTY FAIR in what Joe Smith's remarkable store on the south side of the square is called by some people, and indeed it is that, and more, for while it partakes of all the characteristics of a great exhibition, it has so much more than is usually found in one. For here are the choicest gems set in pure gold, the standard grades of silverware, all the novelties in clocks and watches, and wagon loads of rings, breast pins, etc. Watch repairing a specialty. The largest stock of books and stationery in Southern Indiana, will be found here at all times.

Edw. E. L. Winslow, opposite the county jail, is headquarters for everything in the Buggy, Surrey, Cart and Harness line.

No More Nonsense.
Some of you people have been owing me by note or account for many long, weary months—and years. I am getting very tired of your dilatory action, and I am determined to have my money! Do you understand that? I mean to have it. Now the sooner you settle your indebtedness the cheaper it will be for you, as I intend to give an officer or a lawyer a chance to make a few fees if you don't come to time. These are "words with the bark on 'em."

The registration law has been decided unconstitutional by the Indiana supreme court, so that need worry no one any longer.

Miss Anna McDermott has been entertaining Miss Temple West of Rockport.

Since the building of the school house has been determined upon, lots are selling rapidly on west 7th and 8th streets, and a number of houses are in course of construction. The new school house will be a handsome building.

Gov. Mellette of South Dakota, is in the city, the guest of his father-in-law, Dr. T. A. Wylla. Mrs. Mellette is also here.

On last Saturday night the opera house was crowded with people who came out to hear Beveridge, Worrell and Mellette. The meeting was a grand success in every way. The speakers were generally applauded, and the "old-time Republican religion" seemed to be warming up the people.

Sam. Orchard returned from Missouri last Friday—in time to vote the Democratic ticket.

It is Undeniable That
The litigation and controversy over the pikes and the reassessment of property, has made the duties and labors connected with the Auditor's office doubly as great as heretofore. It requires twice the amount of work and a degree of tact not possessed by all men to get through it successfully. But Wm. T. Blair, the present incumbent, did it, and in such a manner as to impress all who understand the work, with his ability. Such a man should be retained, and it is reasonable to presume that the good sense of the voters of Monroe county will impel them to vote for him on the 8th of November.

Remember that the election is on November 8th, and that you will have an opportunity to vote for Wm. Adams, one of the men who helped to save the Union. Wm. was a soldier in the late war, and a good one. Keep that in mind as you go to the polls.

Before Starting From Home
Ask your neighbor to go with you to the polls, and entrust him to vote the Republican county ticket. These are men he knows. They are his fellow-citizens, and he can judge better of their merits. Tell him how important the office of County Auditor is, and ask him to see that a competent man is elected to fill it. William T. Blair is the man to vote for.

George Welch, the candidate for County Assessor, will be elected by a satisfactory majority. Don't forget to add your vote to the others, and you will feel well satisfied with the result.

Vote for Wm. Adams for Sheriff and you will know that you have done your duty. Adams is a No. 1 man for the position, and will fill the office of Sheriff acceptably to all.

Don't FAIL to see the latest designs in fringed curtains at Lindley's Sons.

Go to Jimmy Robinson's for your staple groceries. He has an immense fall stock which includes everything you may want, and his goods are the choicest that are ever brought to this market. He takes pride in furnishing the best to his customers, and they in turn appreciate it. Call for any staple and he will supply it.

People of Monroe County
In Wm. T. Blair you have one of the best officers who has ever held the position of County Auditor. He is competent, prompt, agreeable, and can always be depended upon to render the services required of him. When you have such a man in office it is not best to swap him off for one who is untried.

Everybody, regardless of politics, should come out Friday to see the great Republican parade and rally. It will be the biggest thing of the year if the weather is favorable.

Your Cloak came in this week. Call at HALL BROS.

Remember That
"For Sheriff, Wilson Adams" is the way your ballot should read. Adams is one of the old soldier boys, who braved the hardships of war and came to help shape the new Republic as free as it does to-day in all the States of this great Nation. Wm. will fill the office of Sheriff in a satisfactory manner, and he should receive a large vote.

All are invited to call and see the new stock of Cloaks arriving daily at HALL BROS.

Overconfidence among Republicans ought to be guarded against with the greatest possible intelligence and watchfulness. The prospects for victory for the party are bright, but they are based altogether on the assumption that every Republican will go to the polls. Often in the past this feeling that the party would win anyhow, even if a few voters here and there should stay away from the polls, brought disaster. Three votes lost in each voting precinct in the State would foot up thousands in the aggregate, and make the difference between victory and defeat for the party.

It is a Fact That
No one can find any fault with the management of the Auditor's office since the election of Wm. T. Blair. He has conducted the business successfully, and in so smooth a manner as to leave nothing wanting. The voter who remembers to include W. T. Blair among those he votes for on November 8th will do a favor for Mr. Blair and will be voting for his own best interests as a citizen and as a taxpayer.

Come to town next Friday and see the biggest rally ever held in Monroe County. Let Republicans invite their Democratic friends so they may see the grand street display. The parade will be worth a trip to the county seat.

Hughes were chosen directors, and H. E. Wells was elected President, James Karsell, Vice President. Work will begin immediately upon the fitting up of the room, and the bank will be in operation in about four weeks.

Several little skirmishes occurred Saturday afternoon. "Soldier" Wilson and Walter Morgan had a controversy, the result of which was that Morgan picked up a spoke in front of the Swindler-Graves restaurant, and threw it at Wilson, the only striking blow behind the right ear and making a slight crack in the skull, Dr. Harris says. Dora McPheters and Danny Bockman got into an argument and because Danny talked loud there was "end in the kiss." Danny was "a sight for to see" when McPheters got through vanishing him. Two lads got into a quarrel in the street in front of the postoffice—one a Cleveland boy and the other a Westmoreland boy. The Westmoreland boy was knocked over, and forthwith set up a regular third party "boo-hoo," when some one knocked the other boy and over end. Resulted one of old war times.
