—The advertising "fakirs" have been getting in their work in Bloomington during the past week. The last individual to "snake 'em in" and laugh about it to his fellow fakirs, was the man with a number of spaces surrounding a big picture which he is going to nail up somewhere. He sold these spaces for $5 each, and the business men paid him the cold cash. When a home newspaper succeeds in getting a sickly dollar ad, the business manager is notified that he must take it out "in trade."

In Memoriam.
On the morning of April 12, 1894, after a long and painful illness death claimed him and bore away from earth our honored past-president, loved sister and co-worker, Sarah E. Hughes.
Therefore, be it resolved, by Paul E. Stearns, Relief Corps No. 92, that while we bow with humble submission to the will and decree of our Heavenly Father, it is with deepest sorrow we say farewell to our dear sister, summoned hence in the meridian of life and days of usefulness in the community and Corps.
Resolved, That we will ever cherish her memory in fondlest recollection, and tender to the husband, mother and relations our sympathy and direct them to our Savior to whom she looked for comfort in her hour of affliction.
Resolved, That this memorial be spread upon the minutes of the Corps, and our charter be draped in mourning for a space of thirty days as a tribute of love and respect for our departed sister, and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the husband and mother. Also copies sent to the city papers for publication.
MADE J. SICKLEY.
ANNA CLARK.
JESSIE JACKSON.

—Indiana Republicans are like Alexander of Macedonia. They are weeping because there are no more worlds to conquer. The only reason why they did not carry more cities in the recent municipal elections, was because there were no more to carry.

—Don't swallow orange seeds. George McDonald, a prominent citizen of Youngstown, was seized with peritonitis, which resulted in death, and all caused by an orange seed, which had lodged in the appendix of the intestines. The long, sharp-pointed orange seeds are a menace of life when taken into the stomach.

—The pension appropriation is reduced $25,000,000. This is the answer of a Democratic Congress to Appomattox. The Confederate Brigadiers are having their innings now. It is the beginning of an effort to repeal all pension legislation, unless it is made to include Confederate soldiers also.

—In a book published by a German who visited America last summer, he says: "In Chicago everything was on a grand scale. Gigantic buildings of colossal splendor, and I lived in a hotel of such huge proportions that when I rang the bell Friday evening the waiter would come to my room Tuesday morning."

—Work on the Chickamauga National Park is going forward steadily and the improvement of the grounds will be well advanced for the general dedication next year. Massachusetts will be the first to complete its monument, near Orchard Knob. New York has appropriated $81,000 to mark Hooker's position at Lookout Mountain. Ohio has fifty-six monuments under construction on the field of Chickamauga. Minnesota is erecting a monument for each of its regiments engaged, and Iowa has made an appropriation to locate the position of its troops. The Tennessee commission will visit the field on the 15th inst., and other Southern States are showing an active interest in preserving the history of the battle of nature's own unerring map. Chickamauga was a more desperate battle than Waterloo. The armies that came in collision were about as strong as those at Gettysburg, and one-third of the troops on both sides were killed and wounded. It was virtually a fight to a draw, and may well serve to commemorate, without prejudice, the quality of American valor.

—Mrs. Bidle of Jersey City, N. J., was the guest of her uncle, D. H. McPherson, west 5th st., several days of last week. She had come from Jersey City to Princeton to attend the women's general missionary society.

—The I. U. base ball team went to Terre Haute on Saturday and played the Rose Polytechnic nine. The Polys were defeated by a score of 26 to 10. I. U. will tackle the DuPauw team on our own grounds next Saturday.

—Columbus Browning, known to all of our older citizens, died at his home in Dalton, Ga., on Thursday. Mr. Browning has been in failing health for a number of years, and his many old friends here will not be surprised to hear of his death.

—Thos. Taggart, the man in Brown county, defeated for the nomination to the office of Representative has given notice that he will contest the nomination of John K. Anderson. Have known these Democrats who are dissatisfied for over a quarter of a century, and they never fail to join the procession before the doors are closed. Just keep an eye on this Taggart movement and see if the Progress is not right. You can't depend on them to go back on their ticket, no matter what they say.

—The "Bee Hive," it is stated, is paying the highest price for wool. Go and see them before you sell.

—On Friday last Mrs. Jas. H. Stone died at her home on south College Avenue, after a protracted illness with tumor of the stomach. Mrs. Stone was 64 years of age, and was a life-long member of the U. P. church. She leaves a husband and two daughters to mourn her loss. The funeral occurred on Saturday from the residence, Rev. Lyons officiating.

IT IS OVERSTREET.

The Johnson County Man Nominated on the Eleventh Ballot at Martinsville.

MARTINSVILLE, May 10.—Jesse Overstreet, of Franklin, was nominated for Congress here to-day on the eleventh ballot. The balloting resulted as follows:

First—Case, 45; Overstreet, 42; Fuller, 44; Beem, 10; Norton, 25. Second—Case, 44; Overstreet, 59; Fuller, 47; Beem, 13; Norton, 4. Third—Case, 44; Overstreet, 60; Fuller, 50; Beem, 15; Norton dropped. Fourth—Case, 48; Overstreet, 55; Fuller, 44; Beem, 18; S. A. Hays, 3. Fifth—Case, 49; Overstreet, 56; Fuller, 42; Beem, 18; Hays, 3. Sixth—Case, 42; Overstreet, 60; Fuller, 48; Beem, 18; Hays, 1. Seventh—Case, 47; Overstreet, 64; Fuller, 57; Hays, 1. Eighth—Case, 50; Overstreet, 64; Fuller, 53; Beem, 1; Hays, 1. Ninth—Case, 60; Overstreet, 59; Fuller, 48; Beem, 0; Hays, 1. Tenth—Case, 61; Overstreet, 59; Fuller, 37; Eleventh—Case, 57; Overstreet, 56; Fuller, 6; Nat. U. Hill, 20. It took 85 votes to nominate, and Mr. Overstreet received 86 on the last ballot and was declared nominated.

The resolutions were short and to the point, condemning the national Democratic administration and Mr. Cooper's course in Congress. It is the first time in several years that the Republicans have felt at all hopeful of carrying the district, and they will do it.

IT DOES MAKE A DIFFERENCE.
—Mother (near-sighted)—See that disgraceful intoxicated brute across the street! Where can the police be? Daughter (weeping)—Oh, ma, it's Brother Bob! Mother (swooning)—Then the saloon-keepers have been drugging that poor child again!

—Get ready for commencement. It occurs on the 20th of June. The merchants who advertise in the Progress have the goods you need.

—D. T. Raley is to go on the road as a traveler for a Louisville queensware house. Raley has always made a success as a traveling man.

—For cow pasture apply to W. J. Allen.

—Pineapple, orange and lemon ices made to order by Volpert, the north side confectioner. Call before making an order.

—Rev. Martin Fulk and wife of Greene county were the guests last Sunday of Senator R. A. Fulk of this city.

—Mrs. Ira Bateman and Miss Ida Waldron went to Indianapolis on Monday to attend the Festival of Music.

—The grating was forced from one of the north windows of the county jail Monday morning at about 1 o'clock, and over half the number in jail escaped. They were all in for plain drunk except Robinson, who is serving a year for bastardy, and it would be money in the pocket of the taxpayers if they are never caught.

Those who escape I answer to the names of Robinson, Fitzpatrick, Spices, Sadlers, Duncan, Smith, Baker and two Andersons.

—Courier: Mrs. Martha Small, living on North Martin street, met with a painful accident Saturday afternoon. She had a new pair of steps placed from the rear door of her residence so she could pass up and down them with more safety than the older ones, which were destroyed. She had just started to make her first trip down the steps, when she slipped and fell in such a manner as to break her left limb. Dr. Rogers was hastily summoned and found the injury considering her age to be a very serious one, and everything possible was done to alleviate her suffering. It is not at all probable that she will ever regain the use of that limb.

—A traveling paper hanger came here a short time ago and opened a "store" in the room north of Axtell's. He had a process for cleaning paper, and was doing well. His name was H. O. Howard, and he boarded at Mrs. McClusky's, 6th st. near the railroad. Howard left last Thursday as also did his landlady. Where they went nobody knows, but if Mrs. McClusky went with Howard she didn't go with a hand-somer man, for he was as ugly as a "mud fence."

Through an Open Switch.
HAMMOND, Ind. May 12.—Passenger train No. 5, on the Louisville, New Albany & Chicago Railroad, composed of a baggage car, smoker, day car, two parlor cars and a sleeper, ran into an open switch at Stratmore, two miles south of here, at 9:35 o'clock to-day. The engine and first three cars were derailed. The smoker telescoped the baggage-car, and the messengers were pinioned under the debris for nearly two hours. Engineer David Poole was found in a hole four feet deep, under heavy timbers, with a broken leg. Messenger Bustee and a passenger named Robinson, from Chicago, were seriously injured. The trainmen say it was a miraculous escape from a frightful loss of life, as there were nearly thirty passengers in the smoker and day car. The injured men were brought to Hammond.

He will move to this city about May 20th, if a suitable house can be found, and will at once proceed to put the quarry in condition to operate, supplying new machinery, etc. There is always a demand for this stone which possesses qualities peculiar to no other, and no doubt a profitable business will soon be maintained there again. The news that the quarry will be operated this season will be gladly received in Spencer, and Mr. McGarvey will be welcome among us. The lease is made for a period of three years, and operations will commence about June 1st.—Spencer Journal.
