

Republican Progress.

BLOOMINGTON, IND.
W. A. GARY, Editor and Publisher.

THE NEWS RECORD.

SUMMARY OF A WEEK'S HAPPENINGS.

St. Louis Crashed to Death in a Mine—Minneapolis Visited by a Destructive Conflagration—The Hawaiian Islands Proclaimed a Republic—A Strange Legacy.

A SIX THOUSAND DOLLAR FIRE.

Central Market at Minneapolis, Destroyed.

Minneapolis, Minn., June 22.—The Central Market, occupying an entire block of ground between Second and Third streets north of Hennepin, and between Third and Fourth streets east of Hennepin, was today destroyed by fire. The market was a three-story brick structure. The cause of the fire is unknown, but it was discovered in the court about 10 o'clock. It quickly followed by a second and third alarm, but the building was doomed before a stream of water was turned on the flames, and the greater portion of the buildings across the street. Near where the fire started stood Matteson's livery stable and here a great number of horses were kept. The market was a valuable property, but immediately adjoining the stable was a huge reservoir belonging to the Minneapolis Gas Company, in which was stored 2,000,000 feet of illuminating gas. To keep the flames from reaching this was the hazardous undertaking of a large detachment of the fire department. The firemen did their work well, and although the intense heat set fire to the cupola of the building, the fire was kept from the highly inflammable material within.

Next to the livery stable toward the seventh street side were several small frame dwellings and a tenement house which, with the greater portion of their contents, were destroyed.

While clearing up the wreck after the fire Myron C. Finley, a fireman employed by the Brush Electric Light Company, came in contact with a live wire and died while being taken to the hospital.

Terrible Accident.

A few feet below took place in the mines at Williamstown, Pa., just as the miners were being hoisted out of the colliery. A number were in the wagon which had just started, when the pulley underneath failed to work and they were crushed against the top rock, five being killed instantly. They were John Raudenbush, John L. Lewellin, M. A. Carter, W. M. Charles Woodman. All live at Williamstown, married and have children. Their bodies were horribly mangled.

Seven Men Killed.

An accident, resulting in the death of seven men, occurred at Portsmouth, England. A Trinity House boat, having a crew of seven trained wreckers on board, was wrecked in the Solent, as it was dangerous to navigation. In some manner which will never be known, a dynamite cartridge exploded, killing the seven men and shattering the boat.

A Boiler Lets Go.

By a boiler explosion in the saw mill of White & Co. fifteen miles west of Helena, Ark., on the Arkansas Midland Railway, William Williams, the engineer, was killed outright. Charles Elder and Charles Simmons, laborers, were badly injured, and a third man, who was in the mill, was killed. The mill was quite a large establishment and was completely wrecked, parts being blown a distance of half a mile.

Attempt to Wreck an Express.

An attempt to wreck west-bound express train No. 4, on the Chicago and North Western, near Muncie, Ind., was made by wedging a heavy plank in a switch frog. A couple of ironworkers discovered and removed the obstruction just before the express arrived. The matter has been kept a secret. Night track watchmen are at work on all lines of this company now.

Republic Proclaimed.

Advices received at Auckland, New Zealand, by steamer from Honolulu show that a republic was proclaimed in the Hawaiian Islands on July 4. Sanford B. Dole, the president of the republic, is the first President of the new Republic. When the steamer bringing the advices sailed many persons had taken the oath of allegiance.

Indiana Miners Return to Work.

Brazil, Ind., special: General Manager Broughton of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois, kindly furnished the miners a train so that they could visit the mines and take on summer work. The vote was taken and the result was almost unanimous for returning to work.

Trouble Brewing.

Secretary Herbert has ordered the cruiser Columbia, now at the New York Navy Yard, to proceed to Bluefields just as soon as she can be made ready for the trip. The order was issued because of the disturbed and threatening state of affairs there.

Town Almost Destroyed.

The town of Somerset, Ind., was almost totally destroyed by fire. The business portion was destroyed with a large number of residences. The loss is heavy with small insurance.

A Strange Legacy.

Dr. J. L. Booth of Crestline, Ohio, leaves a legacy of $300,000 to the United States National Academy of Medicine. The legacy is to be used for the benefit of the academy and for the advancement of medicine.

Fire in Forest.

Hickley, Minn., a small town on the Duluth Road and in the heart of the Northern Minnesota lumber district, is surrounded by forest fire. Flames have been raging for several days near Hickley City, N. D., devastating so far over 5,000 acres. A ten-mile section in Isabella County, Michigan, has also been swept, destroying three sawmills, besides crops, bridges, fences, etc., and rendering homeless nearly 100 families.

Elkhart Drug Firm Closed by Law.

The wholesale and retail drug store of Edward H. Beckley in Elkhart, Ind., was closed on judgments in favor of foreign wholesale dealers. Beckley, insured a curative war among druggists about a year ago, and his failure is attributed to the small profits and big expenses.

For Docking Horse's Tail.

Summons have been issued for Millionaire William Fawcett Morgan, his wife and coachman to appear in court for animals in docking the tails of their horses. Mr. Morgan is a well-known club man in New York City and his wife belongs to the fashionable set.

Cuts His Throat with a Razor.

Frank Schenckel, dead clerk in the County Recorder's office at Cincinnati, committed suicide by cutting his throat with a razor. His associates say that he had been despondent for several days.

DITCH A TRAIN.

Yentger's Flaming Locomotive and Great Seventy-five Passenger.

A bad wreck on the Chicago and Grand Trunk occurred at Battle Creek, Mich. Some time after midnight the train was derailed from the track and the locomotive and the train were derailed. The train was derailed and the locomotive and the train were derailed.

Blown to Bits.

A dozen Pennsylvania miners killed by exploding dynamite. The explosion occurred at the mine near Hazleton, Pa., and resulted in the death of twelve miners.

Shows Trade Sound.

Withstands the Effect of Both Strikes and Tariff Talk. R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: "The business situation is sound and the market is steady."

JOY IN WASHINGTON.

Reception of News that the Strike Had Been Declared Off. The telegraph, says a Washington correspondent, has brought to Washington no more welcome news for many a day than the dispatch from Chicago telling that Debs had declared the strike off.

TO SEE FOR $470,000,000.

Pennsylvania Man Claims to Be Heir of Robert Edwards. Richard Wood Woodward, of Marshalltown, Pa., has claimed to be the heir of Robert Edwards, who died in 1874, leaving a fortune of $470,000,000.

Lightning's Fatal Work.

Of four boys who were fishing in Argo Lake near Denver during a thunderstorm James Burrell was instantly killed by a flash of lightning and his body forced to the bottom of the lake.

Preacher Named for Governor.

The New Hampshire Prohibition State Convention nominated Rev. D. C. Knowles, Treasurer of Tilton Seminary, for Governor, and Dr. Edgar L. Carr, of Pittsfield, as his opponent.

Mrs. Brunsvick Refuses $30,000.

Mrs. Brunsvick, widow of Marshal Brunsvick, who was killed by a steam locomotive in Chicago, has refused a $30,000 settlement offered her by the Chicago and North Western Railway.

Dillon Divorce Case Sent Back.

On appeal from the divorce case of Dillon vs. Dillon, the Supreme Court of the United States has sent the case back to the lower court for further proceedings.

Battled with Deputies.

A battle between strikers and deputies occurred at the Knoxville Iron Company, near Dunbar, Pa., in which one striker, named Santos, was fatally and several others seriously wounded.

T. A. Bently Killed Two Mexicans.

Deputy Sheriff T. A. Bently, in trying to make an arrest at El Paso, Texas, was viciously attacked by two Mexicans that he was compelled to shoot and kill both. Bently is a young man.

MARKET QUOTATIONS.

CHICAGO. CATTLE—Common to Prime, $10.00 to $12.00. HOGS—Common to Prime, $6.00 to $8.00. SHEEP—Common to Prime, $4.00 to $6.00. WHEAT—No. 2 Red, $1.00 to $1.20. CORN—No. 2 Yellow, $0.75 to $0.95. RYE—No. 2, $0.80 to $1.00. BARLEY—No. 2, $0.60 to $0.80. POTATOES—New, per bushel, $1.00 to $1.20.

CHICAGO.

CATTLE—Common to Prime, $10.00 to $12.00. HOGS—Common to Prime, $6.00 to $8.00. SHEEP—Common to Prime, $4.00 to $6.00. WHEAT—No. 2 Red, $1.00 to $1.20. CORN—No. 2 Yellow, $0.75 to $0.95. RYE—No. 2, $0.80 to $1.00. BARLEY—No. 2, $0.60 to $0.80. POTATOES—New, per bushel, $1.00 to $1.20.

CHICAGO.

CATTLE—Common to Prime, $10.00 to $12.00. HOGS—Common to Prime, $6.00 to $8.00. SHEEP—Common to Prime, $4.00 to $6.00. WHEAT—No. 2 Red, $1.00 to $1.20. CORN—No. 2 Yellow, $0.75 to $0.95. RYE—No. 2, $0.80 to $1.00. BARLEY—No. 2, $0.60 to $0.80. POTATOES—New, per bushel, $1.00 to $1.20.

CHICAGO.

CATTLE—Common to Prime, $10.00 to $12.00. HOGS—Common to Prime, $6.00 to $8.00. SHEEP—Common to Prime, $4.00 to $6.00. WHEAT—No. 2 Red, $1.00 to $1.20. CORN—No. 2 Yellow, $0.75 to $0.95. RYE—No. 2, $0.80 to $1.00. BARLEY—No. 2, $0.60 to $0.80. POTATOES—New, per bushel, $1.00 to $1.20.

CHICAGO.

CATTLE—Common to Prime, $10.00 to $12.00. HOGS—Common to Prime, $6.00 to $8.00. SHEEP—Common to Prime, $4.00 to $6.00. WHEAT—No. 2 Red, $1.00 to $1.20. CORN—No. 2 Yellow, $0.75 to $0.95. RYE—No. 2, $0.80 to $1.00. BARLEY—No. 2, $0.60 to $0.80. POTATOES—New, per bushel, $1.00 to $1.20.

CHICAGO.

CATTLE—Common to Prime, $10.00 to $12.00. HOGS—Common to Prime, $6.00 to $8.00. SHEEP—Common to Prime, $4.00 to $6.00. WHEAT—No. 2 Red, $1.00 to $1.20. CORN—No. 2 Yellow, $0.75 to $0.95. RYE—No. 2, $0.80 to $1.00. BARLEY—No. 2, $0.60 to $0.80. POTATOES—New, per bushel, $1.00 to $1.20.

DEATH ON PARADE.

Terrible Explosion Among Uncle Sam's Men.

Rank of Federal Troops Scattered While Out for Summer Drill Exercise in Chicago—Four Men Killed, Seventeen Injured, and Nine Horses Dead.

Cause of the Disaster Unknown.

By the explosion in Chicago of an ammunition chest belonging to the Second Artillery, from Fort Riley, Kan., four soldiers were instantly killed, eighteen other people, soldier and spectators, were wounded, and nine artillery horses were killed.

Blown to Bits.

The carnage produced by the discharge of the ammunition chest, loaded with shells and steel percussion shells, was frightful. The houses in the neighborhood of the scene of the explosion, which was the intersection of Grand and Oakwood boulevards, were riddled by the projectiles of all kinds from shrapnel bullets and canister, and a part of the gun carriages. Two of the soldiers were killed by the explosion of the chest.

Blown to Bits.

The carnage produced by the discharge of the ammunition chest, loaded with shells and steel percussion shells, was frightful. The houses in the neighborhood of the scene of the explosion, which was the intersection of Grand and Oakwood boulevards, were riddled by the projectiles of all kinds from shrapnel bullets and canister, and a part of the gun carriages. Two of the soldiers were killed by the explosion of the chest.

Blown to Bits.

The carnage produced by the discharge of the ammunition chest, loaded with shells and steel percussion shells, was frightful. The houses in the neighborhood of the scene of the explosion, which was the intersection of Grand and Oakwood boulevards, were riddled by the projectiles of all kinds from shrapnel bullets and canister, and a part of the gun carriages. Two of the soldiers were killed by the explosion of the chest.

Blown to Bits.

The carnage produced by the discharge of the ammunition chest, loaded with shells and steel percussion shells, was frightful. The houses in the neighborhood of the scene of the explosion, which was the intersection of Grand and Oakwood boulevards, were riddled by the projectiles of all kinds from shrapnel bullets and canister, and a part of the gun carriages. Two of the soldiers were killed by the explosion of the chest.

Blown to Bits.

The carnage produced by the discharge of the ammunition chest, loaded with shells and steel percussion shells, was frightful. The houses in the neighborhood of the scene of the explosion, which was the intersection of Grand and Oakwood boulevards, were riddled by the projectiles of all kinds from shrapnel bullets and canister, and a part of the gun carriages. Two of the soldiers were killed by the explosion of the chest.

Blown to Bits.

The carnage produced by the discharge of the ammunition chest, loaded with shells and steel percussion shells, was frightful. The houses in the neighborhood of the scene of the explosion, which was the intersection of Grand and Oakwood boulevards, were riddled by the projectiles of all kinds from shrapnel bullets and canister, and a part of the gun carriages. Two of the soldiers were killed by the explosion of the chest.

Blown to Bits.

The carnage produced by the discharge of the ammunition chest, loaded with shells and steel percussion shells, was frightful. The houses in the neighborhood of the scene of the explosion, which was the intersection of Grand and Oakwood boulevards, were riddled by the projectiles of all kinds from shrapnel bullets and canister, and a part of the gun carriages. Two of the soldiers were killed by the explosion of the chest.

Blown to Bits.

The carnage produced by the discharge of the ammunition chest, loaded with shells and steel percussion shells, was frightful. The houses in the neighborhood of the scene of the explosion, which was the intersection of Grand and Oakwood boulevards, were riddled by the projectiles of all kinds from shrapnel bullets and canister, and a part of the gun carriages. Two of the soldiers were killed by the explosion of the chest.

Blown to Bits.

The carnage produced by the discharge of the ammunition chest, loaded with shells and steel percussion shells, was frightful. The houses in the neighborhood of the scene of the explosion, which was the intersection of Grand and Oakwood boulevards, were riddled by the projectiles of all kinds from shrapnel bullets and canister, and a part of the gun carriages. Two of the soldiers were killed by the explosion of the chest.

Blown to Bits.

The carnage produced by the discharge of the ammunition chest, loaded with shells and steel percussion shells, was frightful. The houses in the neighborhood of the scene of the explosion, which was the intersection of Grand and Oakwood boulevards, were riddled by the projectiles of all kinds from shrapnel bullets and canister, and a part of the gun carriages. Two of the soldiers were killed by the explosion of the chest.

Blown to Bits.

The carnage produced by the discharge of the ammunition chest, loaded with shells and steel percussion shells, was frightful. The houses in the neighborhood of the scene of the explosion, which was the intersection of Grand and Oakwood boulevards, were riddled by the projectiles of all kinds from shrapnel bullets and canister, and a part of the gun carriages. Two of the soldiers were killed by the explosion of the chest.

Blown to Bits.

The carnage produced by the discharge of the ammunition chest, loaded with shells and steel percussion shells, was frightful. The houses in the neighborhood of the scene of the explosion, which was the intersection of Grand and Oakwood boulevards, were riddled by the projectiles of all kinds from shrapnel bullets and canister, and a part of the gun carriages. Two of the soldiers were killed by the explosion of the chest.

Blown to Bits.

The carnage produced by the discharge of the ammunition chest, loaded with shells and steel percussion shells, was frightful. The houses in the neighborhood of the scene of the explosion, which was the intersection of Grand and Oakwood boulevards, were riddled by the projectiles of all kinds from shrapnel bullets and canister, and a part of the gun carriages. Two of the soldiers were killed by the explosion of the chest.

Blown to Bits.

The carnage produced by the discharge of the ammunition chest, loaded with shells and steel percussion shells, was frightful. The houses in the neighborhood of the scene of the explosion, which was the intersection of Grand and Oakwood boulevards, were riddled by the projectiles of all kinds from shrapnel bullets and canister, and a part of the gun carriages. Two of the soldiers were killed by the explosion of the chest.

Blown to Bits.

The carnage produced by the discharge of the ammunition chest, loaded with shells and steel percussion shells, was frightful. The houses in the neighborhood of the scene of the explosion, which was the intersection of Grand and Oakwood boulevards, were riddled by the projectiles of all kinds from shrapnel bullets and canister, and a part of the gun carriages. Two of the soldiers were killed by the explosion of the chest.

DEATH ON PARADE.

Terrible Explosion Among Uncle Sam's Men.

Rank of Federal Troops Scattered While Out for Summer Drill Exercise in Chicago—Four Men Killed, Seventeen Injured, and Nine Horses Dead.

Cause of the Disaster Unknown.

By the explosion in Chicago of an ammunition chest belonging to the Second Artillery, from Fort Riley, Kan., four soldiers were instantly killed, eighteen other people, soldier and spectators, were wounded, and nine artillery horses were killed.

Blown to Bits.

The carnage produced by the discharge of the ammunition chest, loaded with shells and steel percussion shells, was frightful. The houses in the neighborhood of the scene of the explosion, which was the intersection of Grand and Oakwood boulevards, were riddled by the projectiles of all kinds from shrapnel bullets and canister, and a part of the gun carriages. Two of the soldiers were killed by the explosion of the chest.

Blown to Bits.

The carnage produced by the discharge of the ammunition chest, loaded with shells and steel percussion shells, was frightful. The houses in the neighborhood of the scene of the explosion, which was the intersection of Grand and Oakwood boulevards, were riddled by the projectiles of all kinds from shrapnel bullets and canister, and a part of the gun carriages. Two of the soldiers were killed by the explosion of the chest.

Blown to Bits.

The carnage produced by the discharge of the ammunition chest, loaded with shells and steel percussion shells, was frightful. The houses in the neighborhood of the scene of the explosion, which was the intersection of Grand and Oakwood boulevards, were riddled by the projectiles of all kinds from shrapnel bullets and canister, and a part of the gun carriages. Two of the soldiers were killed by the explosion of the chest.

Blown to Bits.

The carnage produced by the discharge of the ammunition chest, loaded with shells and steel percussion shells, was frightful. The houses in the neighborhood of the scene of the explosion, which was the intersection of Grand and Oakwood boulevards, were riddled by the projectiles of all kinds from shrapnel bullets and canister, and a part of the gun carriages. Two of the soldiers were killed by the explosion of the chest.

Blown to Bits.

The carnage produced by the discharge of the ammunition chest, loaded with shells and steel percussion shells, was frightful. The houses in the neighborhood of the scene of the explosion, which was the intersection of Grand and Oakwood boulevards, were riddled by the projectiles of all kinds from shrapnel bullets and canister, and a part of the gun carriages. Two of the soldiers were killed by the explosion of the chest.

Blown to Bits.

The carnage produced by the discharge of the ammunition chest, loaded with shells and steel percussion shells, was frightful. The houses in the neighborhood of the scene of the explosion, which was the intersection of Grand and Oakwood boulevards, were riddled by the projectiles of all kinds from shrapnel bullets and canister, and a part of the gun carriages. Two of the soldiers were killed by the explosion of the chest.

Blown to Bits.

The carnage produced by the discharge of the ammunition chest, loaded with shells and steel percussion shells, was frightful. The houses in the neighborhood of the scene of the explosion, which was the intersection of Grand and Oakwood boulevards, were riddled by the projectiles of all kinds from shrapnel bullets and canister, and a part of the gun carriages. Two of the soldiers were killed by the explosion of the chest.

Blown to Bits.

The carnage produced by the discharge of the ammunition chest, loaded with shells and steel percussion shells, was frightful. The houses in the neighborhood of the scene of the explosion, which was the intersection of Grand and Oakwood boulevards, were riddled by the projectiles of all kinds from shrapnel bullets and canister, and a part of the gun carriages. Two of the soldiers were killed by the explosion of the chest.

Blown to Bits.

The carnage produced by the discharge of the ammunition chest, loaded with shells and steel percussion shells, was frightful. The houses in the neighborhood of the scene of the explosion, which was the intersection of Grand and Oakwood boulevards, were riddled by the projectiles of all kinds from shrapnel bullets and canister, and a part of the gun carriages. Two of the soldiers were killed by the explosion of the chest.

Blown to Bits.

The carnage produced by the discharge of the ammunition chest, loaded with shells and steel percussion shells, was frightful. The houses in the neighborhood of the scene of the explosion, which was the intersection of Grand and Oakwood boulevards, were riddled by the projectiles of all kinds from shrapnel bullets and canister, and a part of the gun carriages. Two of the soldiers were killed by the explosion of the chest.

Blown to Bits.

The carnage produced by the discharge of the ammunition chest, loaded with shells and steel percussion shells, was frightful. The houses in the neighborhood of the scene of the explosion, which was the intersection of Grand and Oakwood boulevards, were riddled by the projectiles of all kinds from shrapnel bullets and canister, and a part of the gun carriages. Two of the soldiers were killed by the explosion of the chest.

Blown to Bits.

The carnage produced by the discharge of the ammunition chest, loaded with shells and steel percussion shells, was frightful. The houses in the neighborhood of the scene of the explosion, which was the intersection of Grand and Oakwood boulevards, were riddled by the projectiles of all kinds from shrapnel bullets and canister, and a part of the gun carriages. Two of the soldiers were killed by the explosion of the chest.

Blown to Bits.

The carnage produced by the discharge of the ammunition chest, loaded with shells and steel percussion shells, was frightful. The houses in the neighborhood of the scene of the explosion, which was the intersection of Grand and Oakwood boulevards, were riddled by the projectiles of all kinds from shrapnel bullets and canister, and a part of the gun carriages. Two of the soldiers were killed by the explosion of the chest.

Blown to Bits.

The carnage produced by the discharge of the ammunition chest, loaded with shells and steel percussion shells, was frightful. The houses in the neighborhood of the scene of the explosion, which was the intersection of Grand and Oakwood boulevards, were riddled by the projectiles of all kinds from shrapnel bullets and canister, and a part of the gun carriages. Two of the soldiers were killed by the explosion of the chest.

Blown to Bits.

The carnage produced by the discharge of the ammunition chest, loaded with shells and steel percussion shells, was frightful. The houses in the neighborhood of the scene of the explosion, which was the intersection of Grand and Oakwood boulevards, were riddled by the projectiles of all kinds from shrapnel bullets and canister, and a part of the gun carriages. Two of the soldiers were killed by the explosion of the chest.

CONSPICUOUS RAILWAY MAN.

John M. Egan, Chairman of the General Managers' Strike Committee.

John M. Egan is one of the most conspicuous figures in the railway world by reason of his recent position as Chairman of the General Managers' Strike Committee. Mr. Egan is a native of New England, but is now widely known in the West, having gone there at an early age.

CONSPICUOUS RAILWAY MAN.

John M. Egan is one of the most conspicuous figures in the railway world by reason of his recent position as Chairman of the General Managers' Strike Committee. Mr. Egan is a native of New England, but is now widely known in the West, having gone there at an early age.

CONSPICUOUS RAILWAY MAN.

John M. Egan is one of the most conspicuous figures in the railway world by reason of his recent position as Chairman of the General Managers' Strike Committee. Mr. Egan is a native of New England, but is now widely known in the West, having gone there at an early age.

CONSPICUOUS RAILWAY MAN.

John M. Egan is one of the most conspicuous figures in the railway world by reason of his recent position as Chairman of the General Managers' Strike Committee. Mr. Egan is a native of New England, but is now widely known in the West, having gone there at an early age.

CONSPICUOUS RAILWAY MAN.

John M. Egan is one of the most conspicuous figures in the railway world by reason of his recent position as Chairman of the General Managers' Strike Committee. Mr. Egan is a native of New England, but is now widely known in the West, having gone there at an early age.

CONSPICUOUS RAILWAY MAN.

John M. Egan is one of the most conspicuous figures in the railway world by reason of his recent position as Chairman of the General Managers' Strike Committee. Mr. Egan is a native of New England, but is now widely known in the West, having gone there at an early age.

CONSPICUOUS RAILWAY MAN.

John M. Egan is one of the most conspicuous figures in the railway world by reason of his recent position as Chairman of the General Managers' Strike Committee. Mr. Egan is a native of New England, but is now widely known in the West, having gone there at an early age.

CONSPICUOUS RAILWAY MAN.

John M. Egan is one of the most conspicuous figures in the railway world by reason of his recent position as Chairman of the General Managers' Strike Committee. Mr. Egan is a native of New England, but is now widely known in the West, having gone there at an early age.

CONSPICUOUS RAILWAY MAN.

John M. Egan is one of the most conspicuous figures in the railway world by reason of his recent position as Chairman of the General Managers' Strike Committee. Mr. Egan is a native of New England, but is now widely known in the West, having gone there at an early age.

CONSPICUOUS RAILWAY MAN.

John M. Egan is one of the most conspicuous figures in the railway world by reason of his recent position as Chairman of the General Managers' Strike Committee. Mr. Egan is a native of New England, but is now widely known in the West, having gone there at an early age.

CONSPICUOUS RAILWAY MAN.

John M. Egan is one of the most conspicuous figures in the railway world by reason of his recent position as Chairman of the General Managers' Strike Committee. Mr. Egan is a native of New England, but is now widely known in the West, having gone there at an early age.

CONSPICUOUS RAILWAY MAN.

John M. Egan is one of the most conspicuous figures in the railway world by reason of his recent position as Chairman of the General Managers' Strike Committee. Mr. Egan is a native of New England, but is now widely known in the West, having gone there at an early age.

CONSPICUOUS RAILWAY MAN.