Frank Forsyth, who has been sexton of Rose Hill cemetery during the past year, has been re-elected.

The building south of the bank corner is being faced with stone, and it is a beautiful structure—a credit to the city.

Saturday, the 27th day of October, has been decided upon as the date for the trial of the Canning divorce case.

Corn on the stalk is drying very rapidly, and a number of farmers are now feeding the new crop to their horses.

The grand jury discharged Oscar Beaver, accused of appropriating Gar. Reeves' horse, as it could only be made to appear, legally, as a breach of trust.

Prof. Frank Fetter, who took the inter-State oratorical contest prize at one time for I. U., has been elected assistant professor in political economy.

The old weather flags were whipped out by the wind, and a new set has been furnished by the department at Washington. The Corner will continue to display the signals.

Seward & Co. have closed a contract with the city council for the erection of an iron fence fifty inches high on the west side of College Avenue from 6th to 4th st.

Edford Mail: Senator Voorhees was plainly angered by the small crowd which assembled in this city to hear him Monday afternoon. He snapped viciously at some of the faithful who wanted to get seats on the stand, saying "he didn't know whether the platform would hold them up."

The following named members of the Masonic fraternity went to Ellettsville last Tuesday to assist at the funeral services of Dr. Rice Harris: Gen. M. C. Hunter, Mr. Mulkey, Ben. Adams, Jr., Mose Kahn, H. T. Simmons, Dr. Potts, Dr. Lowder, Dr. Hen, Wm. F. Browning, F. P. Tourner and W. W. Spangler.

The annual session of the Presbyterian Synod of Indiana was in session at Ft. Wayne last week. Rev. Williamson, retiring Moderator, in his address, stated that, although Indiana was a great State, the last census showed that over one million of her people never attend church. There are forty thousand Presbyterians in the State. Five counties have no Presbyterian churches. Ten counties have but one each, and twenty-five have but two each, the average attendance being 127 to a church, and an average of three and one-half churches to each ten counties.

Dates of entertainments for the University lecture course will come in the following order: Dr. Henson, Nov. 16; Marie Decca Concert Company, Dec. 6; Kate Field, Feb. 1; Temple Quartette, March 1; Dr. Gansulus, April 13, and Eugene Field some time in May.

Eddie Porch, 14 years of age, died at his home just south of town on Monday night of last week, with E. H. H. disease. He had been very sick during the past six months and suffered intensely. The funeral was held at Clear Creek church on Wednesday.
