PEACE TO HIS ASHES.

Funeral of Vice President Garrett A. Hobart.

Patterson (N. J.) special: With the impressive religious services of the Presbyterian Church and with the dignity due to his high office, all that is mortal of the Vice President, Garrett A. Hobart, was committed to the earth Saturday. The President, Secretary of State Hay, Chief Justice Fuller, former Vice President Morton, ex-Secretary of War Alger, Secretary Hitchcock, the Supreme Court Judges, members of the Senate and House of Representatives and the Vice President's personal friends, filled the beautiful Church of the Redeemer, and with moistened eyes and bowed head testified silently and eloquently to his worth as a statesman, friend and neighbor.

Through a long line of thousands of uncovered heads the cortege wended its way to Cedar Lawn Cemetery, where the body was placed in the receiving vault.

Says It's All Over.

Manila special: Bautisa, President of the Filipino Congress, presented himself to Gen. McArthur and formally renounced all further connection with the insurrection. He was one of the influential Filipinos who hesitated at the beginning of the war as to which side to cast his lot. He was offered a judgeship of the Supreme Court, but declined. He now announces that he desires to accept the position and says the Filipino Congress and Cabinet are scattered, never to reassemble.

Some of the members, he adds, have returned to their homes, while others are flying for safety. Many of the Congressmen have resigned and he believes the Filipino soldiers will lay down their arms every where as soon as they learn the truth.

The Khalifa Killed in Battle.

A dispatch from Cairo says: Lord Cromer, the British minister here, has received the following dispatch from Gen. Kitchener:

"Wingate's force came up with the Khalifa's force seven miles southeast of Godid and attacked it. After a sharp fight he took the position. The Khalifa, who was surrounded by a strong bodyguard of emirs, was killed, and all the principal emirs were killed or captured except Osman Digna, who escaped."

The Dervishes were utterly defeated, their whole camp was taken and thousands surrendered. A large number of women, children and cattle also fell into the hands of the Anglo-Egyptian forces.

Brave Bill Anthony Suicides.

William Anthony, better known as "Brave Bill" Anthony, died at the Presbyterian Hospital, New York, half an hour after he had swallowed a quantity of cocaine at Central Park. He was the man who, on February 15, 1898, when the battle-ship Maine was blown up in Havana harbor, reported to Capt. Sigsbee, in the famous words: "Sir, I have the honor to report that the ship has been blown up and is sinking."

Bribers Sentenced.

At Philadelphia, Ellery P. Ingham, ex-United States District Attorney, and his law partner and former assistant, Harvey K. Newitt, were sentenced by Judge McPherson to imprisonment for two years and six months and to pay a fine of $1 and the costs of their trial for conspiracy in attempting to bribe a secret service operative in connection with the recent big revenue counterfeiting conspiracy.

Buildings Demolished.

At Indianapolis, Ind., the immense water tank of King & Co.'s packing house collapsed, the paint shop of the plant and other smaller buildings were destroyed by an avalanche of water and several buildings were demolished. The tank was 100 feet high, and held 38,000 gallons or 140 tons of water.

Two Men Cremated.

The town jail and several business houses at Jellico, Ky., burned. John Spruse and Granville Neil, prisoners, held for intoxication, were cremated. It is believed they set the jail afire, hoping to have a chance to escape.

Drowned by a Cloudburst.

A portion of the town of Cotulla, Texas, was washed away by a cloudburst. Four inches of rain fell in thirty minutes. A merchant named Walker, and his wife, were drowned. Many buildings were wrecked.

The Kentucky Election.

A dispatch from Frankfort, Ky., says: The Court of Appeals has decided the Nelson County case in favor of Taylor. This practically makes him Governor.

MURDER REVEALED BY ILLNESS.

Crime Committed Years Ago in Ohio Is Brought to Light.

Frederick Klinder and his son Henry, farmers near Napoleon, Ohio, were arrested charged with the murder of Mrs. Frederick Klinder in 1894. At the time the woman's body was found in the garden near her home with her throat cut and a knife wound near her heart suicide was advanced. The weapon which had caused her death was found tightly clasped in her fingers. The woman was Frederick Klinder's second wife. His son was by his first marriage. Two months ago Henry Klinder, while dangerously ill, confessed that himself and father had committed the murder, which was unprovoked. Frederick Klinder felled his wife with a club and the son cut her throat. Then they changed their clothing and attended a party. The confession was a profound secret until Henry Klinder recovered. Himself and father are charged with first degree murder.

WOULD BRAND FEMALE SEALS.

Alaska's Government Suggests a Plan to Prevent Extermination.

Gov. Brady of Alaska, in his annual report, pleads for statehood, government establishment and operation of cable and telegraph lines and persistent branding of fur seals and cessation of killing them for at least ten years. An appropriation of $110,000 is asked for a penitentiary and suitable public buildings at Sitka. The Governor says that to preserve the fur seals the United States should own a property right in the seals and brand the letters "U. S." four inches long on the back of every female seal, thus sparing them for furriers' uses, this branding to be done by a force of experts to be sent out by the Government equipped with latest electrical appliances.

Miner Killed by Dynamite.

By the premature explosion of a dynamite cartridge in the Bristol mine at Iron Mountain, Mich., William Holm was blown to fragments, August Nygren was so badly injured that his recovery is not expected and Charles Kellen received serious injuries, but will recover. A blast had been fired, but one of the holes did not explode with the others. The men were investigating the cause.

Tragedy Ends Two Lives.

Frank and George Bailey, prominent business men of Stockbridge, Mich., were found in the rear of their bicycle and jewelry store, both shot through the head. George was dead and Frank was dying. It is thought that Frank, who had been under a doctor's care for several days with a mental trouble, shot his brother and then himself.

Another B. & O. Wreck.

The second section of Baltimore and Ohio passenger train No. 9, west-bound, known as the Oyster train, crashed into the first section in South Cumberland, Md., and was badly wrecked. Engineer L. R. Kindle of Baltimore was seriously injured and his fireman, Lewis Massey of Baltimore, was terribly scalded and died in hospital.

Wisconsin Bank Is Robbed.

The bank of Milton, Wis., was robbed the other night, losing more than $2,000 in cash, stamps and bonds. Government bonds worth $1,720 are missing. The robbery seems to have been the work of professionals. The private deposit boxes within the vault were all broken open and the contents scattered.

Hazing Causes a Lad's Death.

Martin V. Bergen, son of Councilman Peter V. Bergen of Princeton, N. J., died from receiving a hazing at Lawrenceville. He died of inflammation of the bowels. Young Bergen was a freshman at Lawrenceville. He was being put through the initiation when one of the hazers accidentally fell upon him.

New Move by Union Pacific.

ESTATE IS RESTORED

PROPERTY CONFISCATED DURING A WAR.

Good News for a Wisconsin Farmer—Will Inherit More than One Million Dollars—Indian Village in Washington Swept Away by Flood.

A Chippewa Fall (Wis.) special says: "Frank Steinmetz, a young farmer who resides in the town of Tilden, received a letter from Paris informing him that he is a millionaire twice over. Steinmetz's grandfather was a wealthy resident of France before the Franco-Prussian war, and during that conflict all his property was seized, and later confiscated by the French government. Ten years ago a suit was commenced in the French courts for the recovery of the property, and not until last week was favorable decision reached. The property, which is valued at about 18,000,000 francs, will be divided between Steinmetz and two brothers, who reside in Germany."

INDIAN VILLAGE DESTROYED.

Log Jam Causes Nooksack River to Change Its Course.

The heavy fall of rain caused the Nooksack River to overflow in Whatcom County, Wash. At the mouth of the river is an immense log jam a mile long. This caused the river to find a new outlet. The new channel swept through Lummi village, which has been almost wiped out. The town contained 200 people, being the headquarters of the Lummi Indian reservation. Church, schoolhouse, and stores were swept away. The Indians have lost their possessions including the winter's store of smoked salmon and jerked beef. The flood struck the village at night, and the inhabitants were saved from drowning only by the dexterous use of boats and canoes.

Bank Succumbs to a Run.

With assets amounting to $30,000 and liabilities $20,000, the Yankton, S. D. Savings Bank was forced to close its doors after a three days' run occasioned by the defalcation of County Treasurer A. Peterson, who was known to deal extensively with that bank.

Fast System of Telegraphing.

Telegraph messages were transmitted by the Pollak-Virag system from Chicago to Milwaukee and return at the rate of 120,000 words an hour. Later "dots" and "dashes" were sent to Buffalo and back at the rate of 90,000 words an hour.
