WEAK AMMUNITION.

For lack of argument the Democrats resort to all kinds of disreputable attacks on Hon. James A. Mount, the Republican candidate for Congress.
The smallest and most contemptible is the charge that Mr. Mount inherited all his wealth through his wife. This, of course, is not true, but what matters it so an issue can be made in the campaign. Another charge is that Mr.
Mount drew large pay from the State for attending the various Farmers' Institutes last winter and spring. To set this matter in its proper light and to state the exact facts, Prof. Latta, of Purdue University, whom, as superintendent, was committed the work of holding these Farmers' Institutes, communicates a letter to the Terre Haute Express. He says:

"The appropriation to each county was $40, and this sum was in most cases wholly absorbed in paying hall rent, advertising, and the traveling expenses of speakers, so that absolutely nothing was left to pay any one a per diem. In a very few instances, where the $40 was not all used in defraying expenses, the local managers, appreciating the efficient work of their visitors, bestowed the unexpended balance on the speakers. These instances were the exception, however, and not the rule; and I have personal knowledge of the fact that Hon. James A. Mount and Mrs. Meredith—both of whom have been charged with receiving large pay for their services—did not always get back even their necessary traveling expenses, while freely donating their time to the work. It is simple justice to the public-spirited, large-hearted men and women who donated time and talent to the institute work, and the few who receive of them all political faith—to let the public know of their gratuitous services in a good cause. Indeed, the success of the institutes has been very largely due to these same men and women, who, for their necessary expenses while so engaged, generously left their homes and their business to devote days and weeks and even months to institute work."

"All honor to such men and women.
May their numbers increase be the wish of the undersigned."

The sub-committee on mines and mining in the World's fair directory have petitioned for a separate building in which to place the mining exhibits of the country. They remind the directors that our mineral deposits are one of the greatest sources of the country's wealth.
This is right. Our mines have drawn more European gold to the country than any other investment—more money than the unfortunate individuals who invested in their stocks ever got out again, or ever will get.

There is another free-trade admission.
The New York Times favors international copyright because it "would relieve American authors from unfair competition." Precisely; and pray tell us why the same rule should not be applied to those who work with their hands.

If any man wants to put the price of goods up on you because of the passage of the McKinley bill, just put him down as a humbugger, and go somewhere else for your goods.

The McKinley bill places tin cups beyond the reach of ordinary intellects.
Imagine our size drinking from a pleasant gourd.

ious Parts of Indiana.

His shortage Over $15,000.
TERRA HAUTE, Ind., Oct. 8.—The special committee that has for a month or more been investigating the books and accounts of ex-City Treasurer Fitzpatrick reported to the city council Tuesday night that there is a shortage of $7,193 during his first term and $8,358 during the second term, a total deficiency of $15,551.
Fitzpatrick has turned over all his real estate to his bondsmen, but it will fall $5,000 short of paying the deficit.
Fifteen hundred dollars of the deficiency was money collected by Fitzpatrick from Robinson, his immediate predecessor, who was also a defaulter, which Fitzpatrick himself failed to turn over.

Trotting at Terre Haute.
TERRA HAUTE, Ind., Oct. 8.—Despite the fact that there has been a week of hard rain, the track of the Terre Haute Trotting Association on Tuesday, while in good shape, was fully three seconds slow. It improved, however, with every hour's work. McDowell won the citizens' stake, 2:12 class; best time, 2:18 1/4.
The harness stakes for 2-year-olds was won by United States; best time, 2:38 3/4.
The spring race, 2:15 class, was unfinished. There were eleven starters, and two heats were paced, the first being won by Grant's Abdallah in 2:19, second, Harry Jones, 2:19 1/4.

National encampment of the Union Veteran Legion assembled in this city Tuesday and will hold a three days' session. General J.
S. Reed, of St. Louis, the National Commander; General G. R. Stormont, Commander of Indiana, and other prominent gentlemen are present. At night posts and a grand ball and banquet at the Princess Hotel.

COLUMBUS, Ind., Oct. 8.—Victor M.
Grieser, a young merchant tailor of this city, on Tuesday fell heir to $10,000 left him as sole heir to the estate of Frederick Stachley, an aged German who died here a few days ago. Stachley made a contract with young Grieser some months ago to will him all of his property if he would live with and care for him until he died.
The contract was strictly observed.

Died from Eating Papaw.
MARTINSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 8.—Horace, a 12-year-old son of John Fattig, of Ameryville, died suddenly Saturday morning. He was heard groaning about 1 o'clock, and before the family could reach his bedside he was dead. A post-mortem was held, which showed that the boy had eaten a quantity of papaw, swallowing the seeds, which had passed into the small intestines causing acute congestion.

cure from the State Legislature an appropriation of $50,000 for the Indiana exhibit.

Parade of the Valed Prophets.
St. Louis, Oct. 8.—An enormous concourse of people witnessed the parade of the valed prophets Tuesday night.
The subject of the prophets' show was the "Nonsensical Alphabet." Most of the floats were humorous and all equaled in originality of design and richness of construction those of any preceding year.

We Are After New Subscribers!

THE JOURNAL, both Daily and Weekly, excels all rivals in Montgomery county in circulation, but we are not satisfied. We must have a large number of new subscribers, and quickly, too. Therefore, we have arranged to make the following

2 Great Inducements.

GRAND PREMIUM OFFER! A SET OF THE WORKS OF CHARLES DICKENS.

In Twelve Large Volumes, Which we Offer with a Year's Subscription to this Paper for a Trifle More than Our Regular Subscription Price.

Wishing to largely increase the circulation of this paper during the next six months, we have made arrangements with a New York publishing house, whereby we are enabled to offer as a premium to our subscribers a set of the Works of Charles Dickens, in Twelve Large and Handsome Volumes, with a year's subscription to this paper, for a trifle more than our regular subscription price. Our great offer to subscribers exceeds any ever heretofore made. Charles Dickens was the greatest novelist who ever lived. No author before or since his time has won the fame that he achieved, and his works are even more popular to-day than during his lifetime. They abound in wit, humor, pathos, mastery, delineation of character, vivid descriptions of places and incidents, thrilling and skillfully wrought plots. Every book is intensely interesting. No homes could be without a set of these great and remarkable works. Not to have read them is to be far behind the age in which we live. The set of Dickens' works which we offer as a premium to our subscribers is handsomely printed from entirely new plates, with new type.
The twelve volumes contain the following wonderful works, each one of which is published complete, unchanged, and absolutely unabridged:

DAVID COPPERFIELD,
MARTIN CHUZZLEWIT,
NICHOLAS NICKLEBY,
DOWNEY AND SON,
BLEAK HOUSE,
LITTLE DORRIT,
OUR MUTUAL FRIEND,
PICKWICK PAPERS, BARNABY RUDGE AND CHRISTMAS
OLIVER TWIST AND GREAT EXPECTA-TIONS,
THE OLD CURIOSITY SHOP AND THE COMMERCIAL TRAVELER, A TALE OF TWO CITIES, HARD TIMES AND THE MYSTERY OF EDWIN DROOD.

The above are without question the most famous novels that were ever written. For a quarter of a century they have been celebrated in every nook and corner of the civilized world. Yet there are thousands of homes in America not yet supplied with a set of Dickens' the usual high cost of the books preventing people in moderate circumstances from enjoying this luxury. But now, owing to the use of modern improved printing, folding and extensive machinery, the extremely low price of white paper, and the great competency of the book trade, we are enabled to offer to our subscribers and readers a set of Dickens' works at a price which all can afford to pay. Every home in the land may now be supplied with a set of the great author's works.

Weekly Journal, one year, with a set of Dickens' Works..... $2.00
Daily Journal, by mail or delivered, 3 months, and set of Dickens' Works..... 2.00 Daily Journal, by mail or delivered, 1
