DAILY JOURNAL.

MONDAY, DEC. 1, 1890.

Troublesome Taylors.

Saturday night was a lively one at Linden. The streets were full of drunks and high carnival held sway. Into the town came Harvey Taylor and Taylor Taylor, brothers, and loaded with a jg proceeded to a dance. Their boisterous actions here caused an attempt at their arrest but they promptly stoned the officer under shelter and went on their way rejoicing. Calling at the livery stable for their team about 11 p. m. They tried to take it off without paying the bill. A slight youth named Allen attempted to stop them but was pounced upon and beaten in a most vicious manner, besides being struck in the head with a stone. His injuries are said to be dangerous. This morning Marshal Ensminger armed with a warrant proceeded to the country to arrest them. The Marshall returned at noon thoroughly disgusted. He had paid out $1.50 for livery only to find the tough Taylors had gone to Linden, pleaded guilty and been fined.

Rev. E. T. Lane's Farewell. Rev. E. T. Lane delivered his farewell sermon at the Christian church yesterday morning, the subject being "Fruit Bearing." A large audience was present and the sermon an able effort. In his peroration Mr. Lane towered above his usual eloquence and many of his audience were moved to tears by his words of farewell. In the evening his subject was "The Law of Gravitation in the Spiritual World." The house was completely filled with an interested audience, and the sermon was one of the best Mr. Lane has ever delivered here. It was a sound, practical discourse, couched in the purest English, and brightened with flashes of eloquence. The speaker has been imperturbed by many who heard it, to have it published, that it may have a general circulation, but his modesty will perhaps prevent its circulation in that manner.

Boyland's Affidavit. A JOURNAL representative saw George Boyland on Saturday concerning his affidavit to the effect that Juror Imel had expressed an opinion on Pettit's guilt prior to the trial. "Yes," said Mr. Boyland, "I made the affidavit. A number of persons were in the habit of collecting at the store at Garfield every night during the habeas corpus proceedings at Lafayette. Comments were made on the evidence as it appeared in the papers and we all expressed our opinion pretty freely. We were generally agreed that he was guilty. Mr. Imel said, as near as I can remember, that when such men as Switzer and Hickman testified against him he was compelled to believe them, and therefore he must be a guilty man. I have two good witnesses to bear me out in this statement."

The Broom Maker.

An audience of several hundred persons witnessed a performance of the new comedy, "The Broom Maker of Carlsbad," by Same Riley and his company at the Opera House Saturday evening. The play served to introduce to local theatre goers a comedian in the person of Mr. Reilly, who is superior in many respects to the German dialect comedians now before the public, and who is destined to attain the same popularity enjoyed by J. K. Emmet in his prime. There are many points of resemblance between him and Emmet in his best days, and those who always found pleasure in the latter actor's performances willingly conceded the great promise in this young player.—Indianapolis Sentinel.

For Ten Years.

COUNCIL CHAMBER, CITY COUNCIL, CITY OF SALAM, Ind., Messrs. Sellers & Co., Pittsburg, Pa.

GENTLEMEN:—I desire to give voluntary testimony of the great good of your "Liver Pills." In my judgment they have few equals, and no superior, for headache and all diseases caused by a non-acting liver. I have used them in my family for the past ten years, and we find them the best pill extant. We will use no other. Every household in the land should be supplied, and much suffering would be abated.

Truly yours, H. C. FELTMAN, City Clerk.

FACTS WORTH KNOWING. In all diseases of the nasal mucous membrane the remedy used must be non-irritating. The medical profession has been slow to learn this. Nothing satisfactory can be accomplished with douches, snuffs powders or syringes because they are all irritating, and do not thoroughly reach the affected surfaces, and should be abandoned as worse than failures. A multitude of persons who had for years borne all the worry and pain that catarrh can inflict testify to radical cures wrought by Ely's Cream Balm.

FOR IRELAND'S SAKE.

The Irish Parliamentary Delegates Meet with a Rousing Reception at Chicago.

CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—Battery D proved inadequate to accommodate the crowd which gathered on Saturday night to welcome Messrs. Dillon, O'Brien and the other Irish members of Parliament who are now making a tour of American cities. An overflow meeting was therefore held in the County armory adjoining. The noted Irishman made speeches at both places.

None of the speakers uttered Mr. Parnell's name, but the resolutions adopted recognized the splendid services of Charles Stewart Parnell. The resolutions pledged the throng to the cause of Ireland and denounced the wrongs that had befallen her legislative independence. The Irish visitors were congratulated for their services and the sympathy of every American was tendered Dillon and O'Brien, who were shortly to enter upon terms of incarceration in coercion dungeons.

After Mr. O'Brien's address had concluded a collection was taken. Seven gentlemen subscribed $200 each, and there was a long string of $100, $50 and $25 offerings. When figured up the total reached something more than $18,000. This amount will probably be increased by future subscriptions.
