

If a corset is perfect in other respects and has the usual metal eyelets, the laces will break at the most annoying times; for the eyelets cut them.

There is a better eyelet; made of loops of corset lace; soft eyelet we call it. It costs no more, is neater, more such as a woman would make for herself, besides the convenience of not wearing out or cutting the laces.

The Ball and Kabo corsets are eyeleted with it.

You can get these corsets and wear them two or three weeks; and, if you do not like them, return them. The makers pay the merchants to sell them so.

OUR NEW YEAR BOY.

As was duly announced at 12 o'clock last night by the ringing of all the city bells and the explosion of a few lone some fire crackers, the year 1890 passed out and gave away to the year of grace, 1891. With feeling a both retrospective and prospective the people of the city stand at day. There are of course many regrets, felt if not expressed, for things that are passed, sins of omission and sins of commission are repeated, but the retrospective feelings are not all of a regretful nature. Many of our sensations must needs be of a most gratulatory kind and to the achievements of the year the community if not the individual man may "point with pride."

OUR COUNTRY: Our government has been both strong and pure, and all confess that our present administration has been progressing as well as above reproach. We are at peace with all the world and as to the usual degree, at peace with ourselves, at least moving toward that "consummation devoutly to be wished." We have passed through an exciting election and the complexion of Congress has been completely changed, but all with utmost good feeling. Surely, we are almost at peace with ourselves. The crops have been good the past year, our industries have prospered under the fostering care of a wise protective policy and no great national calamity as the Johnstown flood has marred the record of the year. Our country is well to do.

OUR STATE: "As Indiana goes the Union goes," is a saying true and tried. Deductively speaking, therefore, the State must certainly be in a good condition because the nation is. We had no Legislature to meet in 1890, and hence our State debt was not increased over $500,000. Our State is well to do.

OUR COUNTRY: Old Montgomery county is still in the van of Hoosierdom as regards intelligence among our people, her crops, her fine stock and whatever other things are good and acceptable in the sight of men. Our farmers are doing well and getting ahead in their accounts. Our school houses have been increased in number and the religious revivals have been attended with most gratifying results. No deadly epidemic has visited us and no fearful crime has blackened our court records. To be sure we have tried a celebrated murder case but it came to us from Tippecanoe and we can comfortably lock across our northern border and exclaim "We are holier than thou." Our country is well to do.

OUR CITY: We would not gainsay the fact that the official census was a disappointment but the sharp edge was taken off when the census of the direct people raised our population to 7,549. The spirit of lethargy which came upon us during the natural gas excitement in other sections has begun to pass away and a keen interest is beginning to be manifest in the establishment of industries and the upbuilding of various branches of business. The spirit of revival is coming in with the new year and Crawfordsville is "rousing herself like a strong man after sleep." Our people are happy, contented, intelligent and progressive. Our city is well to do.

In fact if we only view the situation in its true light all things are well to do. We have not been oppressed by tyrants, famine or disease in the year that has gone by and we have good reason to believe we shall not in the year which is to come. Full of good resolutions then and with full faith in the capabilities of our Nation, State, County and City let us take up the duty nearest us wishing the whole world. "A Happy New Year!"

SHROUDS HAVE NO POCKETS.

The last will and testament of two distinguished citizens of New York City were admitted to probate last week which leads the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette to moralize:

One was that of Daniel Fayerweather, a meek and lowly man who amassed a tremendous fortune in the leather trade. He was a patron of churches, charities and education.

After providing munificently for his family, his employees, and household servants, he gave the enormous sum of $2,195,000 to colleges, schools, hospitals and general charities.

The other was that of August Belmont, a blatant, harsh man, who amassed a tremendous fortune in Wall street, and in his bank which was conducted on the "cent per cent" basis.

He was a patron of politics, the race course and general "sports." After providing munificently for his family he gave—absolutely, not one cent elsewhere.

These men have found that shrouds have no pocket in them. Also no vase-line or cold cream for burns, scalds and so forth.

Draw your own conclusion.

GRAVELLY RUN.

Will Burke has returned from his supposed wedding tour.

Mrs. Minnie Butler is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Butler.

Mrs. Sarah Hall is with her daughter Mrs. Anderson at the capital city.

Mr. Earnest Boushall, of Indianapolis, is the guest of R. W. Paeble's family.

Mr. Will McDaniel, of Flat Creek, spent a part of last week in our midst.

Ben Myers and Jas. Hutchinson called on their friend F. S. Quigg Tuesday.

Harry and Helen Mount were guests Sunday of their sister, Mrs. Hallie Butler.

Mrs. Lizzie Brown has returned home from a visit to her parents at Potato Creek.

Mrs. Mary Anderson is quite sick at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robert Peabody.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lee were the guests Sunday of Will Long and family of Lee's school house.

Misses Lettie Hall, Ollie Wesner and Walter Wesner, of Darlington, attended church here Tuesday night.

Miss Annie Peabody, who has been in Chicago since last fall, arrived home about two weeks ago to the surprise of her many friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Cox and daughter and Enoch Peacock, wife and daughter dined with the family of Jos. Johnson Christmas day.

A Happy New Year to The Journal and its worthy correspondents. May 1891 prove a happy one to all is the wish of your G. B. correspondent.

Protracted meeting is in progress at Friends church, conducted by Rev. W. M. Cox, of Winchester. Large crowds are in attendance and unabated interest prevails.

One of the most social events of the season occurred at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Pritchard last Saturday evening. In the way of a genuine oyster supper, mixed in with cake, candy, etc., and with McDaniel and Chas. Long as entertainers, it proved an evening long to be remembered by those present.

WAVELAND.

The ball last night was a complete success.

Miss Anna Guppy, of Indianapolis, is visiting relatives here.

Chas. Kennedy and son, of New Market, visited here yesterday.

Train dispatcher, Parkhurst, of the Midland was here last night.

Mr. Lough, of Crawfordsville, agent for the Singer Sewing Machine is with us this week.

Geo. Canine has traded his interest in the hardware and stove store to J. H. Canine for his marble works.

Why don't our city dads have the rest of the street lamps on hand put up? We need them such nights as last night was.

The old year was ushered out by the ringing of bells and blowing of steam whistles. Our citizens at first wondered what part of town was on fire when they heard the racket, then they realized that '90 was dead and '91 was here.
