

The Ball corset has soft eyelets. Soft eyelets are loops of corset lace stitched into the corset; softer, smoother, pleasanter, neater, more womanlike than metal.

The Ball is the easiest ever worn by woman. The ease is due to covered coils of fine-wire spring in the sides. These springs hug the figure gently, and yield with every little strain.

The Ball is "boned" with Kabo that never breaks or kinks or rolls up or shifts from its place.

You can wear a Ball corset two or three weeks; and, if you don't like it, return it to where you got it and get your money back. The manufacturer pays the merchant to do that.

NEW ROSS

P. M. Brown was at the Capital on Wednesday.
George Brown was at your city on Wednesday.
Jas. Higgins transacted business in Lebanon Monday.

The meetings continue at the M. E. church with one addition.
There will be a grand sale of fine stationery here Feb. 10. Peoa Eagle is billed for sale.

Rev. N. S. McCallum will begin a series of meetings at the Christian church Wednesday evening, Jan. 21.

J. S. Zuck, your city, enroute for Clark county, was delayed on account of the wreck. He returned home in the evening.

Forty persons attended the tin wedding of Matt Bettinger Wednesday. A grand dinner was served in style and everyone enjoyed himself.

Yester morning as the local freight on the Big Four was pulling over the Midland crossing, a Midland freight dashed into it just amidships, knocking two cars from the track and derailing two others. The Midland engine reared into the air like a living monster and dropped over on its back completely demolished. No one was seriously hurt, but the Midland engineer, Michael Bush was seriously bruised. In consequence trains on both roads were delayed some time. The wreck train on the Big Four worked till in the night clearing away the debris. Both tracks are now clear and business is resumed.

WESLEY.

The school here had but three days holidays.
W. A. Swank spent Sunday with friends here.

Jasper Brown, of Malott, is working for John Messmore.
The devotional meetings of the Epworth League occur every Sunday evening at the church. All invited to attend.

J. W. Remley and F. M. Shanklin represented the local Epworth League in its district convention at Danville, Ind., last week.

A. S. Shanklin, of Roberts Chapel, was surprised very agreeably by his many friends on last Tuesday, the occasion being his 66th birthday. Mr. Shanklin has been all his life an earnest and untiring worker at Roberts Chapel, but he lately sold his farm and home and contemplates moving away, where he has not yet determined, so his friends to the number of 60 thought this a fit occasion of showing him the respect, good will and appreciation of his services. Rev. J. M. Stafford expressed the sentiments of the assembly in a short speech, which was responded to by Mr. Shanklin. Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Vance, his son-in-law and daughter, of Hopeston, Ill., were present, and all wished him the greatest of happiness in his remaining life.

BROWN'S VALLEY.

School commenced here Monday morning.
John Patton, of Richmond, is visiting T. P. Patton.
Dave McLeod has returned to school at Greensboro.

Scott Fullenwider returned Tuesday morning to school.
Rev. Hickman, of the Petit trial, was in the Valley Sunday.
John Williams has returned home from a visit in Kentucky.

The new organ for the Baptist church here arrived Wednesday.
Pine Todd has gone to Crawfordsville again to take music lessons.
Miss Lizzie Suman, of Crawfordsville, is visiting her sister Mrs. Clay Gott.
Rev. Kendall has commenced the meeting here to continue some time.

Quite a crowd were in attendance at the mask at Mr. Wilkerson's last Thursday.

Albert Swindler has gone back to his duties at the blind school at Indianapolis.

T. J. Sidener and Minnie Luter, of near Crawfordsville, visited friends here Sunday.

Misses Clara Hadley and Dola Parsons, of Plainfield, visited relatives here during holidays.

Edgar Allen's horse run away Sunday afternoon, throwing him and Jim Patton out but not seriously injuring them.

INDIANA.

Democratic Caucuses Choose Legislative Officers—Other News.

Caucus Nominations.
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 8.—The contest for the official positions in the Indiana General Assembly which will begin its biennial session today was brought to an end by the Democratic caucus Wednesday. The successful candidates were the following named persons: Speaker of the House of Representatives, Mason J. Niblack, of Vincennes; clerk, Thomas Newkirk, of Rushville; assistant clerk, Charles E. Crawley, of Sullivan; doorkeeper, Frank D. Hainbaugh, of Peru; secretary of the Senate, D. H. Fenton, of Hammond; assistant secretary, George E. Pleasant, of Vevay; doorkeeper, O. T. Wells, of Indianapolis.

The contest for the speakership was very close. Niblack defeated Curtis, of this city, by a majority of only one. He was the speaker of the last House, and it was supposed that as there had been no opposition to him until a few days ago his reelection would be by a large majority. The most surprising result of the contest, however, was the election of Fenton as secretary of the Senate. He came here from Hammond almost unknown, and his candidacy was regarded as a surprise. He soon showed, however, that he knew a few things about politics, and he came out victorious in a contest with the best men before the Legislature.

The Democratic members of the Senate have determined to take into their own hands the appointment of the standing committees. They fear that the Republican Lieutenant-Governor's selections will not be satisfactory. They have appointed a committee on nomination of committees, with Senator Griffith as chairman.

Indiana's representation at the world's fair was considered, and it was decided that there should be created a committee on the Columbian exposition consisting of fifteen members, with each Congressional district represented. A definite conclusion as to the amount of the appropriation to be made was not reached, but there is a general sentiment in favor of making it about $200,000, that sum to be augmented by county contributions and such sums as may be raised from other sources.

The Republican members of the Legislature decided in caucus to support worthy Democratic treasurer and not to try to delay legislation unless pernicious. They nominated for complimentary vote the following: Speaker, Alex. Hess, of Wabash; clerk, Wilbur E. Severson, of Lafayette; assistant clerk, B. A. Noy, of Madison; doorkeeper, John Childs, of Decatur; secretary of Senate, C. C. Waite, of Union City; assistant secretary, George H. Henderson, of Warren; assistant doorkeeper, W. A. Darlin, of Noblesville.

The Democratic caucus decided to permit Lieutenant-Governor (Hess) to preside over all joint sessions of the House and Senate. This was a right that was denied the Lieutenant-Governor during the last two sessions of the Legislature.

The Governor's message will not be delivered until Friday morning. No Legislature has ever assembled in Indiana that had more important work before it. In the Senate there are 34 Democrats and 16 Republicans, and in the House 74 Democrats and 26 Republicans.

Indiana Board of Agriculture.
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 8.—The Indiana State Board of Agriculture on Wednesday devoted its session to consideration of the question of Indiana's duty in making a display at the world's fair, with the result that a resolution was adopted declaring that the State should be well represented and that a commissioner should be appointed to take charge of the display. The General Assembly was asked to at once appropriate the money needed for the display. In an address to the board on the subject of the culture of the sugar beet in Indiana Prof. H. W. Wiley, chemist of the National Department of Agriculture, said that the soil of Northern Indiana was specially adapted to the culture of beets, and that such an industry could be profitably worked in that section. The annual election of eight members of the State board resulted in the following being chosen: Fifth district, V. K. Officer; Sixth, W. W. Hamilton; Seventh, E. H. Reed; Eighth, J. M. Sankey; Tenth, J. N. Davidson; Eleventh, Lloyd Jones; Twelfth, J. M. Boggs; Thirteenth, W. A. Mays.

Booming the Indiana Gas Fields.
MAYO, Ind., Jan. 8.—A conference of those interested in the future of the Indiana gas field was held here Wednesday. At 10 o'clock a large party of Eastern capitalists and manufacturers arrived by special train. In the afternoon the Toledo-Kansas City Railroad Company provided a special train for a trip over the belt road and a visit to the factories. At the banquet at night Governor S. W. of Oklahoma presided. A number of addresses were made on subjects bearing upon the future of natural gas, and the Indiana field especially.

Whipped by White Caps.
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 8.—In North Indianapolis, a suburb of the Indiana capital, White Caps Tuesday night visited the house of David Davidson, forcibly took him a quarter of a mile from his home, and he was lashed with hickory switches by each of a dozen men. The flesh of his back was horribly cut by the whipping. He was in the habit of abusing his family while intoxicated.

Damages Recovered.
SHELBYVILLE, Ind., Jan. 8.—Mrs. Edna Feary, of this city, got $2,000 damages from Samuel Hamilton, of Madison, Ind., for injuries sustained by falling into his cistern.

Flames in a Court House.
DANVILLE, Ind., Jan. 8.—Fire in the court-house Tuesday morning caused a loss of $2,000, fully insured.

THE Indianapolis Journal.

In the Various Editions of the Indianapolis Journal.
DAILY, SUNDAY AND WEEKLY

Home and Foreign events of all descriptions are treated with a fullness and completeness not attempted by any other newspaper in Indiana. Among the newspapers of the State it is the most complete, the most reliable, the most accurate, the most timely, the most interesting, the most valuable. It is the only paper in Indiana that is read by every man, woman and child. It is the only paper in Indiana that is read by every man, woman and child. It is the only paper in Indiana that is read by every man, woman and child.

The Journal's market reports are prepared with the greatest care, and no pains are spared to make them accurate and absolutely reliable.

No Indiana reader, certainly no Indiana Republican, should be without the Journal. While it is thoroughly and soundly Republican in its policy, it is not partisan in its editing. It is a complete compendium of the news of the week, accompanied by the latest market quotations, and is devoted to agricultural, horticultural and household topics. It is complete in every department.

A large and handsomely printed paper, never less than twelve pages in size, frequently sixteen, and which will be increased in dimension as the extension of business may require, and justice to the reader demand. This paper contains a very large amount of the best current literature, including stories, poems and sketches by many of the best known and most popular writers of the time. The publishers' examination and comparison of this issue with any paper of similar character published elsewhere, will show that it is a complete and valuable addition to the library of every household.
