

If you can give yourself a spare moment drop in and see our assortment of Diamonds, Watches and Silverware don't put it off, the less likely you are to find the spare moment. You will instantly confess that you never saw such ideal material for Christmas gifts; just what you want you may not know now, but just what you want you will be absolutely sure to find when we show you what we have in store before you commenced to think of Christmas; now that it is ready we are not only satisfied with it, but you will share our satisfaction; you will be more than gratified by it.

This is a shoe That's sure to go through Eighteen Hundred and Ninety-Two.

Give your feet a show. They'll have to carry you through the new year. If you give them their deserts, you'll put them in shoes that they will take kindly to. You will be doing a handsome thing by them. If you encase them in a pair of our $5.00 shoes. When you are wearing them neither you nor they will have anything to complain about. The day may come when a better shoe than this can be sold for less money. For time brings wonderful changes as well as new years. But it hasn't come yet and there's no sign of it.

Respectfully Yours,
J. S. KELLY.

How We Reach Perfection.
We are having a big run on our $10 Suits and Overcoats and it doesn't astonish us in the least. They've hit the nail on the head as nothing else in that line ever did before. What is the secret of their success? There isn't any secret about it. There can't be any secret about what everybody knows and the first thing that leaked out about them was that they are away above par in value and away below par in price. Is the run subsiding? Not a bit of it. On the contrary the tide is rising. This of all others, is the time to buy. You never make any mistake when you go with the rising tide to headquarters.

The laws of health are taught in the schools; but not in a way to be of much practical benefit and are never illustrated by living examples, which in many cases might easily be done. If some scholar, who had just contracted a cold, was brought before the school, so that all could hear the dry, loud cough and know its significance; see the thin white coating on the tongue and later, as the cold developed, see the profuse watery expectoration and thin watery discharge from the nose, not one of them would ever forget what the first symptoms of a cold were. The scholar should then be given Chamberlain's Cough Remedy freely, that all might see that even a severe cold could be cured in one or two days, or at least greatly mitigated, when properly treated as soon as the first symptoms appear. This remedy is famous for its cures of coughs, colds and croup. It is made especially for these diseases and is the most prompt and most reliable medicine known for the purpose. 50 cent bottles for sale by Nye & Co.

Removal.
About January 7, D. H. Baldwin & Co. will move their stock of pianos and organs from 207 East Main street to the room in Joel block, next door to Martin & Craig's grocery store. Mr. Hughes will still have charge of their business at this point and adjoining counties, and will be glad to see his friends and customers at his new quarters.

DAILY JOURNAL.

TUESDAY, JAN. 5, 1892.

SHIPS.

Railroad travel was again good today.

Meetings at all the churches this evening.

The southbound Monon to-day was crowded with Italians, bound for Louisville.

Judge Seller is acting as city agent for the new game of "twenty four."

Some poor unfortunates are still unable to get their gas turned on, and shiver in cold rooms.

A good snow now would make elegant sleighing, the roads having been packed down until quite level.

Mrs. Clarence Linderwood has recalled her determination of sleeping in the barn, and is now roosting in the house.

The natural gas trenchmen are gradually leaving town and the Mayor's court is relapsing into its wonted tranquillity.

Rev. O. A. Smith will not return to Evansville until next week. He will leave his little girl with the family of J. A. Bonford.

To-morrow the services of Epiphany or Little Christmas will be observed at the Catholic church. High Mass at nine o'clock in the morning.

"Our Club" is the name of a new organization devoted to social amusement. Charley Kramer is president and a dance is now being arranged.

The Mission Circle of the Baptist church will meet to-morrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Margaret White, 805 West Market street.

Martin & Son report a magnificent sheet of ice on the dam and it will require only a few more cold nights before a splendid supply of winter can be cut and packed away.

There was considerable beef steak on the cow-catcher of the engine pulling the east-bound Big 4 train at noon. It was also distributed on the trucks of the tender and baggage car.

The Darlington mastodon is still twenty thousand leagues under the sea. It is under living water and a steam pump will probably have to be employed before the bones can be taken out.

On January 23 the real estate of the late Rachel Galey will be sold at public auction at Johnston's law office. At that time one business block, the old homestead and five lots adjoining and fourteen choice lots on east Wabash avenue will be sold.

The Christian church people held a meeting last night in the old church, the audience filling the old structure nearly full. Some of the old time songs were sung and a large number participated in the service. Another meeting will be held to-night at 7:30.

A. N. Cave, of Bethany, Mo., is here visiting his brother, J. E. Cave, of Sugar Creek township. Mr. Cave served through the war in the 2d Missouri Cavalry and this is his first visit to this county since the close of the great conflict. The improvements everywhere are quite noticeable to him.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Mr. Augustus is back all right. Most of the fraternities are burning natural gas.

It is said that Keen saved the life of a small girl at the dam this morning.

Chapel begins at eight o'clock greatly to the joy of those who like to attend at that hour.

Ponies on almost any Latin or Greek text can be obtained at a well known business house.

The editors of the Wabash are preparing to turn out another issue very shortly.

There will be no 22d of February debates this year for the first time in a quarter of a century. The literary societies are both as dead as laboratory cats.

LITERARY NOTE.

William Black's new story, "The Magic Ink," will be published serially in Harper's Bazar. The first installment will appear in the issue of Jan. 9th, and it will run through about four numbers.

Harper's Young People for January 5th, being the first in 1892, will be called the "Columbus number." It will consist of twenty-four pages and a specially designed cover, and will contain the story of Christopher Columbus in brief, told by Thomas A. Janvier.

The recent publication by Harper & Brothers of Von Moltke's notable book, "The Franco-Prussian War," lends interest to the fact that the great soldier had another side than the one shown to the world.

The announcement that Mr. Howells will leave Harper's Magazine, to take charge of the Cosmopolitan, on March 1st, calls attention to the process of building up the staff of a great magazine. Probably in no monthly has the evolution been so distinctly under the eyes of the public as in the case of the Cosmopolitan. Mr. Howells, who is recognized universally as the foremost American of letters, upon the expiration of his contract with Harper Brothers, will take in hand the destinies of a magazine which promises to exercise a share of influence with the reading classes of the United States. His entire service will be given to the Cosmopolitan, and every thing he writes will appear in that magazine during the continuance of his editorship.

Sit at Nicholson's for your Christmas photographs. Go early and avoid the inevitable rush.

The Methodist Revival.

Rev. Swadener preached last night from Rev. vii. 9-17. His theme was Heaven. It was a beautiful and impressive sermon. In the after meeting of song and prayer many were the evidences of a good revival spirit. Several joined the church and more arose as desirous of a Christian life. Rev. Swadener will preach his last sermon to-night, before going to his next field of labor. Let there be a good attendance upon these closing services. It has been good for the church and Crawfordsville that Rev. Swadener has been here. His preaching has awakened many and has held up the banner of the gospel to beautify and adorn human character. He has exalted Christ and has made Him the great friend and savior of humanity. The meetings will continue during the week and Rev. H. M. Middleton will assist the pastor. Let the good work go on. The churches with their emphasis of the good and divine power to help humanity, are the loud works against the sins of the age that tear down manhood and character. Let the better angels of our natures have a chance. Give the soul a chance. Come to the meetings.

WAYNETOWN.

Mrs. Clara Hurt and son Paul, are visiting at New Richmond and Pleasant Hill this week.

Joseph Courtney, a well to do farmer, died at his residence one mile west of here Saturday evening, of la grippe.

Prof. Chas. A. McClure and wife, of Frankfort, were the guests of Jas. York on New Year's Day. They were also in attendance at the Critchfield entertainment.

Dr. Hamilton and Wm. Rider have been selected as appraisers for the Harvey estate. It is understood if they can't agree, they will choose the third party.

Enoch Reeves was tapped again last Sunday, which resulted in the removal of 24 pounds of water. Less than a month ago he had 19 pounds taken from him.

Odd Fellows have a public installation of officers next Thursday evening at the Baptist church, after which they will have some good speaking by visiting brethren from other lodges.

John Washburn had a slight stroke of paralysis last Thursday while at the barn feeding. He fell in a stall where there was a fire horse tied, and was perfectly helpless for some time. Fortunately we must say, the horse didn't stamp him to death.

Geo. Small was married to Mrs. Fannie Youngblood last Friday at high noon in the presence of a large concourse of friends and relatives, by Elder T. J. Shuy. They are expected to arrive here next Thursday, when they will be ready to receive all friends (and presents) that may favor them with their greetings.

Last Thursday evening at the Baptist church there was a declamation prize contest. Miss Lena Simms, Miss Lola Firestone and master Ermine Higgins were the contestants. The committee after long deliberation and much contention reported their grades as follows: Miss Firestone 94, Miss Simms 93, Master Higgins 91. The prize offered was a book on elocution.

Joe Critchfield, the temperance lecturer, who was holding a series of meetings at the Baptist church the fore part of last week, closed the work by giving an eloquent treat on Thursday evening to a small but appreciative audience, while how, he unaided got fifty to sign the pledge. I say unaided, because of the lamentable fact, that the church members of this place, together four or five ministers who reside here, failed to lend support either by word, their presence or their contributions to the cause. He is at Hillsboro this week speaking to large and enthusiastic audiences; people who are in sympathy with the temperance work and who are willing to do, and use all honorable means to support the giant evil of our land.
