

If you can give yourself a spare moment drop in and see our assortment of Diamonds, Watches and Silverware; don't put it off, the less likely you are to find the share moment you will instantly confess that you never saw such ideal material for Christmas gifts. Just what you want you may not know now, but just what you want you will be absolutely sure to find when we show you what we have to offer you; for this display we began preparing long before you commenced to think of Christmas; now that it is ready we are not only satisfied with it, but you will share our satisfaction; you will be more than gratified by

C. L. Rock.
207 East Main Street

This is a shoe That's sure to go through Eighteen Hundred and Ninety-two. Give your feet a show. They'll have to carry you through the new year. If you give them their deserts, you'll put them in shoes that they will take kindly to. You will be doing a handsome thing by them. If you encase them in a pair of our $5.00 shoes. When you are wearing them neither you or they will have anything to complain about. The day may come when a better shoe than this can be sold for less money. For time brings wonderful changes as well as new years. But it hasn't come yet and there's no sign of it.

Respectfully Yours,
J. S. KELLY.
124 East Main Street.

A Christmas Bonnet.

You should have one and it should be purchased at Mrs. WILSON'S place where you can always obtain for the least money the finest Millinery goods from the largest and latest stock in the Hoosier Athens. Fair ladies, the brave men admire smart ribbons and neat bonnets. Visit
Mrs. WILSON'S
Place on South Washington Street and purchase Christmas goods in which to shine.

Buy Your Clothing of J. A. Joel.

How We Reach Perfection.
We are having a big run on our $10 Suits and Overcoats and it doesn't astonish us in the least. They've hit the nail on the head as nothing else in hat line ever did before. What is the secret of their success? There isn't any secret about it. There can't be any secret about what everybody knows and the first thing that leaked out about them was that they are away above par in value and away below par in price. Is the run subsidizing? Not a bit of it. On the contrary the tide is rising. This, of all others, is the time to buy. You never make any mistake when you go with the rising tide to headquarters.

J. A. JOEL'S,
The One Price Clothing House.

PRICE OF
VACANT RESIDENCE LOTS
In the City per Front Foot.

Alexander Thompson recently sold 60 feet front College Hill for a fraction over $22 per front foot. Miss Harvey has been offered $25 per front foot for vacant property in the same locality. Mr. Spain has just bought 90 feet on the corner of Washington and College streets at $30 per front foot. Dr. Detton paid $35 per front foot for the lot on which his residence now stands.

The Wm. S. Galey lots are located in the very best residence part of the city. They are surrounded by beautiful homes occupied by our best citizens. The title to these lots is perfect. They are to be sold on reasonable payments to highest bidder, on and after the 23d, inst. If you want to buy a home or make a safe investment of your capital, you will certainly never have a better opportunity to get hold of property that will increase in value in your hands.

TO LATE TO CLASSIFY.
WANTED—A cook at H. T. Braden's, 409 East Main street.
WANTED—A few boarders, also a roomer at 603 West Main street at Mrs. Marshall.

Chicago Daily Markets.
Private telegrams to G. W. L. Brown, 107 1/2 North Washington street, from C. S. Lee:
May wheat, opened 95, closed, 94 1/2, @ 96.
May corn, opened 41 1/2, closed, 42.
May oats, opened 31 1/2, closed 32.
May pork, opened $10.97 1/2, closed $11.55.

Receipts—Wheat, 109 cars; corn, 139 cars; oats, 145 cars; hogs, 46,000.

DAILY JOURNAL.

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 6, 1892.

LARGE ALIMONY ASKED.

Mrs. Amanda Davis, of Brown Township, Asks for a Divorce from James Davis. Last Monday by Crane & Anderson, her attorneys, Mrs. Amanda Davis, of near Brown's Valley, filed application in the circuit court for a divorce from her husband, James Davis. As it was supposed that the defendant would make no defense the matter was kept suppressed in the belief that everything could be settled amicably and quietly. Inasmuch, however, as Mr. Davis has employed counsel and a lengthy public trial is to occur it seems best to give a plain and fair statement of the facts in the case. Mr. and Mrs. Davis, so the complaint says, were married twenty-three years ago and for the first five years lived together very peacefully. Four daughters were born to them, and as time went on Mrs. Davis was greatly shocked at the profanity of her husband who swore constantly and without restraint before herself and children. Not infrequently he cursed, slapped and choked her in the presence of the children, and a week ago last Saturday after such an occurrence, Mr. Davis resolved that she could stand it no longer, and consequently filed the suit. She asks for the children and $40,000 alimony. Mrs. Davis is a most excellent lady, and upon the establishment of her charge should receive all she asks. Jas. Davis is one of the most prominent and wealthiest citizens of Montgomery county, and has retained G. W. Paul as his attorney. Mr. Paul is not yet admitted to the bar of the circuit court, where the case is to be tried of necessity, and will have to get admitted before he can conduct the case. This will add a new complication to the affair.

The Carter-Hostetter Marriage.

The marriage of Chas. Carter, of Denver, Col., and Miss Mattie Hostetter took place last evening at the home of the bride on South Green street. The officiating clergyman was Rev. R. S. Inglis, of the First Presbyterian church, who married the couple in a very acceptable manner. Music was furnished by Eddie Brandkamp, and immediately after the ceremony, ample refreshments were served. A large number of presents were presented to the happy couple. Mr. and Mrs. Carter departed on the night train for Chicago, where they will remain a short time, going then to their home in Denver, where they expect to arrive on Friday evening. The happy wishes of a host of friends go with the couple on their journey through life, and may they receive the choicest blessings of God. Among those in attendance from abroad were Frank Carter, of Peru, Mr. Quimby, of Petersburg, and Morton Linn. Will Hostetter and daughter, Clara Hostetter, and Miss Tapp, all of Ladoga.

Rev. Swadener's Closing Service.

Last night closed the services of the series conducted by the special evangelist. He was greeted by a large audience. His theme was the sermon of Christ in the synagogue at Nazareth. The after meeting of prayer and praise was very interesting. Three came forward and united with the church. The meetings will continue during the week. Rev. H. M. Middleton will preach tonight. The song service will begin at 7 o'clock and the preaching at 7:30. Let all who can come be present to help in the good work. If it is of God let it go forward. There is need in the city, while all the churches are engaged in special services, to urge forward the work of saving men. There are forces of darkness at work that must be overthrown or they will wreck many an immortal soul. Let the good work go on.

The Athenian.

The Athenian club met yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. C. L. Thomas having been postponed from Monday on account of the funeral of Mrs. O. A. Smith. Mrs. Harrison read a paper on "The Place of the Magazine in Literature," and Mrs. Jackson led a conversation on the great editors of the country. A paper by Miss Evangeline Binford on "Practical and Ideal Journalism" was omitted. Mrs. J. H. Osborne, Mrs. S. C. Campbell and Mrs. Frank Cross were elected to membership succeeding Mrs. J. M. Coulter, Mrs. C. P. Doney and Mrs. T. F. Davidson.

Ladies' Reception.

This afternoon between two and five o'clock Mrs. O. B. Arms charmingly entertained quite a number of her lady friends at an afternoon tea at her home on east Jefferson street. The pretty house was most tastefully decorated with vines and plants and the every want of the guests amply provided for. The refreshments were both choice and elaborate and Mrs. Arms fully sustained her established reputation as an entertainer.

Will Begin Next Month.

On the first of February the hub and spoke factory will begin operations in earnest and will make fur fly. J. W. Ward, of Mace, is now engaged in paying the highest market price for all forest hickory and second growth hickory in this region. He has gone into the business on a large scale and will buy any amount of it. Things are looking up all around.

SHIPS.

—The Owls will dance Saturday night, Dec. 9.
—R. C. Walkup and Mark Hays are in Jamestown to purchase horses.
—The service of the Christian church in the old house will begin at 7 o'clock this evening.
—It is rumored that there will be a surprise wedding at the Baptist church this evening.
—The ladies of the Episcopal church met this afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. A. Binford.
—The American Steam Laundry has been moved to the south end of Washington street.
—The ladies of the Athens Chapter, Order Eastern Star, held a meeting at their hall this afternoon.
—Skidmore, the mail carrier, almost lost his breath to-day because all the four noon trains arrived on time.
—A telegram has been received reading: "Hoist cold wave signal. A fall of 20 degrees by Thursday evening."
—The Sherman House has been fitted out complete with incandescent lights. This will kill many blowing out the gas items.
—Tom Connor, the grocery drummer, now owns a grocery store at Lafayette, but still keeps up his rounds from town to town.
—Last week Abe Caster marketed a car of choice hogs. This makes two car loads for Mr. Caster during the last six months.

—Arthur H. Dickerson and wife, of Terre Haute, have separated, Mrs. Dickerson returning to the home of her parents in this city.
—Frankfort is getting more show than any other town in this part of the State but most of them are of a very shady character.
—Rev. J. C. Barnhill went to Plainfield this afternoon to conduct the funeral of Dr. Evans, a member of the Christian church.

—The widow of the late Col. Billy Wilson, of Lafayette, is receiving sealed bids on the Colonel's law library, and will open them on January 18.
—The Monon railway now saves $3,500 per week by taking bridge tolls out of freight receipts instead of afterwards deducting them from the earnings.
—Word has been received by James Malony that he will receive his share of an estate in England about the first of March. It will be between $3,000 and $4,500.

—At the annual meeting of the Board of Directors of the Vandalia lines, a dividend of three per cent. was ordered. The old directors were re-elected and the same officers.
—At 8:20 this evening in the Christian church, Rev. Brown will unite in marriage, Mr. Charles C. Benson and Miss Myrtle M. Alexander. The doors of the church will be opened at 8 o'clock promptly.
—The leader of the "Columbian Quartette" of Chicago, is Mrs. Genevieve Clarke Wilson, leading soprano in Bishop Cheney's Episcopal church of that city. The other ladies of the quartette are well known Chicago singers of equal reputation. The concert by this organization in Center church auditorium on the evening of Jan. 19 will be of a popular nature, and the musical event of the season. The proceeds are for the benefit of the church.

—John Cain, a drummer for an Indianapolis wholesale liquor house, was shot and fatally wounded at that place Monday night by a man named Martin Moran, with whom Cain had had some trouble. Cain was well acquainted in this city, having made a trip here each month for the last ten years. He traveled for Geo. Woodford & Co. Cain was about 40 years of age and was said to have been a man of a quiet, peaceful disposition. There are many in Crawfordsville who will regret to hear of his tragic death.

A Special Edition.

About the first Saturday in February the WEEKLY JOURNAL will be issued as a "special edition." Six thousand copies will be printed, the aim being to supply every family in the county. The edition will contain write-ups of our leading business houses and for this purpose James Allen, a trustworthy and capable young man, will call upon the business men and secure their orders. Treat him as a friend and he will do you good.

Week of Prayer.

SUBJECTS.
WEDNESDAY—"Families and the Young," Col. 3, 1-17; Ps. 116.
THURSDAY—"Nations and the World," Matt. 5, 1-18; Ps. 107.
FRIDAY—"Foreign Missions," John 4, 31-42; Ps. 67.
SATURDAY—"Home Mission," Acts 3, 12-26; Ps. 118.

Meetings at the First Presbyterian church begin at 7 o'clock. Everyone welcome.

PERSONALS.

—Herb Lucas is in the city on a visit.
—R. K. Thomson returned from Terre Haute this morning.
—Robert Caldwell has returned from a visit in Neoga, Ill.
—George P. Haywood, of Lafayette, is in the city to-day.
—A. A. McCain came over from Indianapolis this afternoon.
—Jas. M. McIntyre is still very sick and is now out of his mind.
—The youngest daughter of C. W. Eltzroth is ill with the grip.
—Elder Kerr, of Waynetown, will remove to this city and locate.
—Miss Daisy Ayers, of Englewood, has the grip and is unable to be out.
—Mrs. George S. Durham returned last night from a visit with her daughter in Muncie.
—Tickets for the Columbian Quartette concert are on sale at both the book stores.
—Miss Daisy Mikelis, of South Bend, who has been the guest of Miss Florence Durham, left for Greencastle this afternoon.
—Miss Lola Martin, of Crawfordsville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. William Downie.
—Miss Emma Merrill, of Crawfordsville, is visiting friends on north Eleventh street.
—Mrs. Charles Mancourt, of Crawfordsville, is visiting Mrs. Frank Brandbury, of north Eleventh street.
—Terre Haute Express.

OFFICIAL.

Wheat is looking well.
Geo. Conard is on the sick list.
Rev. T. M. Hamilton will preach at Union church Sunday.
Moses Stephens, of New Market, has been visiting friends on the creek.
Mrs. M. C. Miller was home from Knightstown to spend New Year's.
Miss Phoebe Earl has returned from a visit at her home, and has begun her school again.

LADOGA.

Everybody got the grip.
Wesley Grantham is home from the West.
Bert Robbin was at Waveland Wednesday.
Ollie Pearson is able to be out in town this week.
Al Archer, of Anderson, is visiting Dick Peilley.
Wm. and Bob Zimmerman have gone to Anderson.
Dock Dick has been at Cloverdale for the last week.
Cabe Davis and family, of Crawfordsville, were here this week.
John Snyder and family have moved back here from Lafayette.
J. S. Maxwell and wife, of Crawfordsville, were the guests of Dr. Hunt and J. R. Peilley this week.

Notice.

I hereby notify the merchants and people of Crawfordsville and vicinity that I will not pay any debt contracted by my wife Kate Dickerson after this date, Jan. 6, 1892.
ARTHUR H. DICKERSON.

Keep Your Eyes and Ears

BOTH OPEN.

You will probably See something or Hear something drop in a short time.

D. F. MCCLURE.
TRADE PALACE.

FOR SALE!

I Will Tell You

"AN INTERESTING STORY"

On To morrow.

Watch this Space

ENSMINGER.
THE GROCER.

Give us a call.

G. E. BROCK,

Cor. College and Plum Sts.

Happy New Year.

To my many friends and patrons:

Thanking one and all for their liberal patronage in the past and hoping for a continuance of the same, I desire to announce that Monday, January 4, we will reorganize our business in a manner that will be both pleasing and beneficial to all. Watch for our announcement next week.

All knowing themselves indebted to me for 1891 will please call and settle.

Again thanking you and wishing you many returns of the season, I am, Respectfully,

Louis Bischof,

127 and 129 East Main Street.

Crawfordsville, Ind.

Great change in our business Jan. 4. Please call and settle what you owe before that time, as I desire to close my books.
L. BISCHOF.

DR. PRICE'S
Cream Baking Powder.

Used in Millions of Homes—40 Years the Standard.

O. U. PERRIN,
LAWYER and PATENT ATTORNEY.
Joel Block,
South Washington Street.
CRAWFORDSVILLE,
INDIANA.

CALL.

Music Hall.

Wednesday, Jan. 6.

The Inimitable, Eccentric Comedian,

Ezra Kendall,

In his Funniest of Plays.

A PAIR OF KIDS.

Seventh Year. A continuous stream of electric sparks of fun.

Prices:—35, 50 and 75 Cents.

GROCERY & LUNCH STAND.

Fresh Line of Groceries Always kept in Stock.

Lunch Counter open Day and Night and kept stocked with.

First Class Eatables, Candles, Oysters, Celery Kept in Stock.

SEERING & SON
FLUM STREET DEPOT.

Holiday Goods.

You are invited to call and examine the largest stock of

Fine Books, Teachers and Family Bibles, Albums, Pictures, Easels, Plush Goods

Of All Kinds. All the Latest Novelties. No Trouble to Show Goodr.

Robinson & Wallace.