We are determined to sell more goods the next year than we have this. By doing this we propose to sell more goods and less profit. For the next 30 days we will offer great inducements in Stoves, Furniture and Queensware. We had to arrive since Christmas 14 Dinner Sets that were sent here for Christmas and failed to get here. Will sell these sets cheap as our stock is large. Do not fail to come around and buy your groceries of us as we are selling cheap. It will pay you to watch this space as we will have something else to say soon. Respectfully Yours

DAILY JOURNAL.

FRIDAY, JAN. 8, 1892.

THE DAILY JOURNAL is for sale by Robinson & Wallace.

CHIPS.

—We are promised warmer weather. —Lillian Lewis at Music Hall to-night.

—John R. Robinson went to Terre Haute last evening. —W. F. Sharpe returned this morning from a trip to Muncie.

—J. M. Macy is again in Waynetown to-day on a business trip.

—F. M. Dice has returned from a trip to Washington, D. C.

—Rev. Frank Bristol will lecture at the Y. M. C. A. hall on Jan. 14.

—Our medical fraternity should be well represented in our special addition. —There were no trains on the Monon last night on account of the wreck near Bedford.

—J. H. Ransom is in receipt of a beautiful $400 watch left him by the will of a late uncle.

—T. H. B. McCain was called to Westfield this morning by the serious illness of his father.

—Taylor Dale and wife gave a select dance at their home on east College street last night.

—Geo. Brown, colored, has been called to Potomac, Ill., by the serious illness of his mother.

—Amanda Davis has dismissed the divorce suit against James Davis, he deeding her 160 acres of land.

—At the meeting of the Omniton Club this evening A. C. Jennison will read a paper on "Immigration."

—Our bar is considered the best in the State, and surely must be represented in the special addition. "Join in."

—Charley Benson and wife pleasantly entertained nine members of Co. I last evening at his home on east College street.

—The funeral of the late Abe Bischof occurred at Terre Haute this morning conducted by the B'nai B'rith Society.

—J. T. Shepherd and family, of Sugar Grove, will remove to Crawfordsville to reside. They are prominent members of the Methodist church.

—Judge Harney has issued an order for the sheriff to summon the grand and petit jurors for this term to convene at the court house on January 18.

—Miss Flora Work will take the school in Scott township made vacant by the resignation of Palmer Graham. She took the examination to-day.

—Do not worry if Mr. Allen does not call on you to-day. He has many people to see, and we hope when he does call you will encourage him with a few lines.

—The Big Four agent has officially announced that a new stove would soon be placed in the east waiting room, having such a heating capacity that newspaper men will be obliged to remain out on the platform.

—Under the head of "Ninety Miles in Eighty-nine Minutes," the General Superintendent of the New York Central Railway contributes to the January number of the North American Review a picture of the life and work of locomotive engineers.

—As the natural gas fitting for heating of the Episcopal church may not be completed for the coming Sunday, there will be no services, but the following Sunday services will be resumed and the church thoroughly warmed.

—Charley Skaggs and lady are preparing to give another of their delightful dances to-morrow evening. Music and caterer will be brought from Goose Commons especially for the occasion and everything possible done to make the occasion one of brilliancy and enjoyment.

—Miss Belle Barnett, of Wingate, was seriously burned the other day by her gasoline stove. Gas accumulated in the oven, and when she opened the door it was ignited, flashing directly in her face. Her hair was burned off and her face terribly burned. The whole town was aroused by the explosion and came running into the rescue. Miss Barnett is fearfully burned and suffers excruciating pain.

—Skating at the rink to-night. —For sale—6 acres or less, directly west of Junction House. Decided bargain. City property taken in exchange. Address lock box 423, city.

Thanks. We desire through the columns of your paper to return our sincere and heartfelt thanks to our kind neighbors and friends for their kindness to us in our recent sad affliction.

—Cost sale at the Trade Palace next week.

—Attention, P. O. S. of A. Members. There will be a meeting at my office on Friday evening, Jan. 8, to see about going to Darlington next Monday evening. It is desired that a large number go. WM. M. REEVES.

Lillian Lewis. No actress appears in Crawfordsville who has won staunch admirers than Lillian Lewis, the "Fair Lillian," as her friends call her. She makes annual visits to this city, each time winning new admirers and each time playing to increased receipts, which of course gladdens the managerial heart and makes the "Fair Lillian" wear a smile of contentment. She will appear here to-night as Lena Despard in "As In a Looking Glass," supported by the following cast:

Balfour.....Edmund Collier
Portinbras.....Arthur Elliott
Dromio.....Walter Eytling
Daisy.....Ralph Bell
Sir Thomas.....Fred Monie
Operator.....Frank Hillard
Footman.....Robert Terris
Lady Damer.....Louise Pomeroy
Felicity.....Mildred Hall
Lady Balfour.....Miss Morone
Miss Vyve.....Jennie Gitter
Lillian Lewis as.....Lena Despard
This is by long odds the best company that has ever surrounded Miss Lewis, and is in fact one of the best in America, as the list includes the names of several very distinguished artists. An exchange says: "Miss Lewis handled the part of Lena Despard in a brilliant and masterly manner and scored a number of hits, for which she was roundly applauded. The superb piece of acting by this estimable lady in the scene at Monte Cristo, held the audience spell-bound and her excellent support made it the masterpiece of the play. The grand finale between Miss Lewis and Mr. Collier was excellent and without a flaw. The death struggle was indeed well rendered."

Social Sensation. The many friends of Mr. Francis M. Rariden and wife will be pleased and gratified to learn that Mrs. Rariden has brought suit for divorce. This highly entertaining diversion on the part of Mrs. Rariden has been brought about by a number of causes, chief among which is Frank's all around worthlessness. This is pretty rough on Frank, but Mary says its as true as a patent medicine advertisement. People may be surprised, but actually Frank does very little to support his family and dearly loves to pinch and slap his wife and children. He has the heart of a stern old Roman father who believes in schooling his children in adversity that they may be able to cope successfully in the great battle of life. He is a good man and a worthy citizen, but his wife wants a divorce all the same.

Death of Mrs. Nancy A. Julian. Mrs. Nancy Anne Julian died Thursday night at 9 o'clock at her home near Wingate, of consumption, caused by the grip. Nancy Anne Hays was born in Warren county, Ohio, July 1, 1825. She came to Indiana at the age of 4 years, and settled with her parents, Geo. and Mary Hays, in Montgomery county, near Whitesville. She was married to Azariah Julian November 3, 1850. She was the mother of eight children, four of whom are living and four dead. She was an earnest and faithful member of the M. E. church for fifty years.

Encourage Mr. James Allen. In his vast undertaking by placing your ad in the special edition. The rates are low considering the big circulation you will get. We will positively get out 6,000 papers, and they will be mailed to every family in the county. Our aim is to make a big showing for Crawfordsville, and we hope to have your business well represented as we are sure it will do you good. Just think of 6,000 papers before the people of the county.

Wabash College Got 640 Acres. The previous statement that Wabash College was to receive 1,400 acres of land from the estate of Jacob M. Harmon, in Warren county, is incorrect as to the number of acres going to the college. The 1,400 acres were involved in the suit, and Wabash College's portion was but 640 acres, the balance going to two heirs. This 640 acres is valued at $25 per acre, which would amount to $9,600.

Week of Prayer. SUBJECTS. FRIDAY—"Foreign Missions," John 4, 31-42; Ps. 67.

SATURDAY—"Home Mission," Acts 3, 12-26; Ps. 118.

Meetings at the First Presbyterian church begin at 7 o'clock. Everyone welcome.

A Freak of a Hog. Jasper Malsbury raised a hog which is in the nature of a freak or rather was, for the poor hog is now dead and perhaps eaten. After the slaughter Mr. Malsbury discovered that one of this hog's fore feet was provided with six toes instead of four. The two extra ones grew out to one side and on an extra bone which originated at the ankle.

May Locate Here. Dr. Huntsinger, of Frankfort, was in the city yesterday, and stated that his cure for inebriates was succeeding past all his expectations. He will shortly erect an institute and states that he is thinking seriously of bringing it to this city for reasons too numerous to mention but decidedly urgent.

Attention, P. O. S. of A. Members. There will be a meeting at my office on Friday evening, Jan. 8, to see about going to Darlington next Monday evening. It is desired that a large number go. WM. M. REEVES.
