liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of electric bitters cured him.

Edward Shepard, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years standing. Used three bottles of electric bitters and seven boxes of Buckle's aricia salve and his leg is now sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large fever sores on his legs. doctors said he was curable. One bottle

Killed by an Exploding Boiler.

EST. LIVERPOOL, O., July 19.—Soon after the beginning of work in the extensive Walker brick and tile works, at Walkers, a western suburb of this city, one of the boilers exploded, wrecking the building and instantly killing the engineer, James Moneypenny, and badly scalding half a dozen or more of the other employees. The establishment employs about 300 men, and the small loss of life is remarkable.

Pierced by Steel.

FALL RIVER, Mass., July 19.—Dr. C.
C. Terry, a leading physician of this city, was fencing with Prof. Castile in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium Monday night when, by some accident, the knob on the tip of Castile's foil came off and the point pierced Terry's mask and entered his eye. Dr. Terry lost consciousness at once and died in an hour. The presumption is that the steel entered his brain. Prof. Castile is the instructor in the United States navy training school at Newport. R. L.

Death of a Philanthropist's Widow.

NEW YORK, July 19.—Lucy Fayer-weather, widow of Daniel B. Fayer-weather the millionaire leather merchant, died in Rutland, Vt., Saturday night.
Mr. Fayerweather left over $1,000,000 to various colleges and institutions, and his widow's death releases $500,000 which goes to the same end. The richer the university at Evanston, Ill., received $100,000 from his estate.

Death of a Noted Author.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., July 19.—Mrs.
Rose Terry Cooke, the author, died at Pittfield Monday morning of congestion of the lungs. Last winter she had an attack of the trouble, followed by a gripe, which left her quite weak.
A few days ago she contracted a cold which brought on her old enemy, but none of her friends was alarmed at her condition until within a few hours preceding her death. She leaves a husband and one daughter.

Left Her Children Motherless.

CHICAGO, July 19.—Jane Cummings, 40 years old, and the mother of five children, the youngest only a few months old, was found dead in her room, 1953 West Harrison street, at noon. Dr. Gray pronounced it a case of death from poison. Suicide is suspected. An investigation will be made.

Gen. Cunningham Dead.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 19.—George E. Stilling, a tailor, 68 years old and Trust Building, reported to the police at 2 p.m. that he had just been gagged by two men and robbed of $7,700 he had in his safe and $600 he had in his pocket. The police doubt his story. He has since confessed that his story was false, but gives no reason.

WARRANTS ARE OUT.

Leaders of the Homestead Strike Charged with Murder.

SEVEN OF THEM ARE TO BE ARRESTED

Burgess McLuckie Does Not Wait for the Officers But Surrenders and Gives to Jail—Talk of Arresting Frick and Others.

AT THE LEADERS.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 19.—Informations have been filed before Alderman McMasters for murder against Hugh O'Donnell, John McLuckie, S. Critchlow, Anthony Flannery, Samuel Hunt, James Flanagan, and Hugh Ross. These men are all leaders of the strike at Homestead and they are charged with the murder of T. J. Connors, one of the Pinkerton men killed in the riots. Warrants have been issued and the men will be arrested at once with the exception of Hugh O'Donnell, who is out of the city. The informations were made by T. F.
Lovejoy, secretary of the Carnegie Steel Company. The constables left at once for Homestead and are now looking for the men. The news created a great deal of excitement among the strikers, and it was believed that nothing would be done for the present at least.

TONY CONNORS WAS KILLED.

Connors was a Pinkerton man, 30 years of age, and lived at 80 Bond street, New York. He was struck on the back of the head with a dynamite bomb and had his left arm crushed.
Wayne was a young single workman, who lived with his parents in Homestead. He had his head shot off with a canon ball, fired from the opposite side of the river, while standing with his brother in the steel yard. There are two separate informations against the defendants, and only vary in the names of the victims.
Will the Warrants Hold?

Gossip about the latest move on the part of the company ran wild, and people familiar with the case freely expressed their opinion. A few pronounced the move as well founded, backed up by the legal advice of the firm's counsel. But a greater number said it was a shrewd move to get the leaders in the strike out of the way at a time when the company expects to begin operations as the remainder of the workmen would be deprived of the advice and leadership of the men in whom they have confided ever since the trouble began. Still others charged Secretary Lovejoy with precipitating the information at a time when Mr.
O'Donnell, the principal defendant, is absent from the city, so it could be said that he had heard of the informations and tried to escape arrest. But his friends say he will not shrink to face the situation, and the news of the arrest of his fellow-workmen will, if anything, bring him back sooner than he would otherwise have come. To show that the workmen had no fear about the results of the case, Burgess McLuckie, as soon as the news reached him, sent word to Alderman McMasters that he would come to the city and surrender himself.
McLuckie Goes to Jail.

The constables returned from Homestead empty-handed. They were unable to find any of the accused and will go up again to-day. A short time later Burgess McLuckie appeared at Alderman McMasters' office and announced that he was ready to answer the charge of murder preferred against him. The alderman had a commitment issued and he was placed in jail. To-day attorneys will go before the court and ask for his release on bail.

Before going to jail McLuckie said he courted a thorough investigation. The other defendants, he said, had not left the city to escape arrest and all but O'Donnell would be on hand to-day.
Burkett, he said, was a colored driver and was sick in bed on the day of the riot and was not present at any time during the fight. Critchlow is a Butler county farmer who formerly worked in the mill, but was at home on July 6. "We propose," said he, "to give Mr. Frick a dose of his own medicine, and informations against the officials of the company are now being prepared."

It was learned later that William J.
Brown, counsel for the Amalgamated association, was in conference with President Weil and that it was probable informations against Messrs.
Frick, Lovejoy and Potter would be made within the next twenty-four hours. The charge will be based on the introduction of Pinkerton men with the intent to break the strike.

From a source close to the Carnegies it was learned that the firm have the names of 215 strikers against whom they believe they have enough evidence to convict as accessories to the murder of Connor and Wayne. It is the intention of the firm to enter informations every day until the entire 215 have been arrested.

May Arrest Frick, Potter, et al.

A rumor was at once started that certain informations are to be made against H. C. Frick, Secretary Lovejoy and Manager Potter, and the general impression is that this is only the beginning of the legal struggle at Homestead.
There was considerable conjecture as to whether any of these defendants would have to remain in jail or not until the grand jury sits in Court. An attorney said the court could release them on bail, the amount of which would be determined by the evidence as to the character of the offense and the culpability of the defendants. In case Messrs. Frick, Lovejoy and Potter are arrested they will be compelled to go to jail or be released in the same way. Alderman McMasters said he expected informations to be made against the managers.

Wanted Go Back.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., July 19.—At 7 a.m.
Monday preparations were made at the Carnegie mills for the reception of old employees who might desire to return to work. 30 doses 26 cents.

work, notice having been given that repairs would be begun at the works.
Not one of the skilled mechanics reported. These mechanics are not only experts in their several lines, but they are familiar with every machine and every furnace in the Carnegie works. To fill their places will be extremely difficult, as the appliances at the Carnegie mills are in advance of those of any steel works in this country.
Even if men capable of doing the work are found, it will be no easy matter to induce them to work under guard. All night long the strikers' pickets patrolled the river front and not a man was smuggled into the works. Pickets also watched the gates in the morning and any deserter from their ranks who entered would have been reported. The unanimous decision of all the employees of the Carnegie works who are not members of the Amalgamated association and who number some 2,000 at their meeting on Sunday to stand out with the steel workers to the end has made the entire force of the Homestead mills a unit, and the company cannot hope to obtain a man from Homestead without first settling with the association.

Says They Were Not Ready.

Speaking of the failure to resume operations General Superintendent Dillon of the upper and lower Union mills said: "We did not start because we were not ready to resume. When we are ready we will start the mills. None of the men came back, but for all that we do not anticipate any trouble at all in resuming."

A MYSTERIOUS MISSION.

About a dozen of the strikers' leaders, not members of the advisory committee, but selected from the more conservative and best educated men in the Amalgamated association, left for the east on the noon train. Their mission is a secret one and none of them would give the faintest intimation of what they are going to do.
It is understood, however, that a number of steel workmen from the great Belgian steel foundry at Searling have been brought to America by the Carnegie company, and that these men are to meet them and urge them not to take the part of the employers in the fight at Homestead.

BOTH SIDES DETERMINED.

As the issue stands the matter is at a standstill. The company has attempted to get some of the old men back to work but has not been successful. The men have organized thoroughly and feel more confident than ever. There is, however, a feeling of uneasiness preying among the workmen, which is only natural considering the fact that if the company is successful in its efforts to start the mills the men lose their positions. They are confident, however, that the workers cannot be run by any but experienced hands, which class, they say, cannot be procured just at present. Each side will stand to its own.

HERE THE WITNESS TESTIFIES.

Ten Times Millionaire.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—When William McGarragh, of Washington, woke up Monday morning he was hardly worth a dollar, but at night his wealth was being estimated at something like $10, 000,000. The celebrated McGarragh claimant, which has been before congress for the last thirty-four years, is now out of the picture. The bill introduced by Mr. Mitchell and the court adjudged him at $300,000.

STATE SIGNED AT JOLIET.

JOLIET, Ill., July 19.—An official notice from Superintendent Pettigrew of the Illinois Steel Company brings the good news that the rodmill in this city, which has been closed down for some time, will resume operations this morning.
The scale was signed by both sides at a conference between representatives of the company and the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers. The terms were satisfactory and the result gives cause for rejoicing.
The only change made was a cut of 33 1/3 cents on the rollers.
