FOR COLUMBIAN DAY.
The Mass Meeting Last Night Makes Arrangements for the Celebration.

The citizens mass meeting at the court house last evening to perfect the preliminary arrangements for the observance of Columbian Day, while not so well attended as it might have been, was nevertheless fruitful of results. When all had assembled Dr. John L. Campbell was chosen chairman and Fred Maxwell the secretary of the meeting.

Prof. Wellington, of the committee on programme, reported the following programme for the day which was favorably received, but which will of course, be subject to revision:

The students of Wabash College will head the educational procession, to be formed in front of the College buildings at 9:30 a. m. Oct. 21, and form as a head of a hollow square. The schools of the city and county will form on Grand and Wabash avenues, on the east and north sides of the college campus, at the same hour and march in the order hereafter to be designated, to complete the hollow square. After this formation the college students and the schools, assisted by the G. A. R., will carry out official programme for the schools as published in the "Youth's Companion" of Sept. 8; after which the schools will reform at 11 a. m. and heading east on Wabash avenue will join and follow the civic display and secret orders in the following line of march: East to Washington street, north to Market, east to Water, south to Main, west to Green south to Wabash avenue, west to Washington, south to College, and west to campus, when the schools of the city and county will have a basket picnic. The afternoon programme will consist of an oration, speeches, patriotic songs, etc., etc.

John Wampler reported that all the secret orders of the city and all the uniformed organizations had been invited to participate, had received the invitations favorably and would act on the question at their next meetings.

Capt. H. H. Talbot was chosen for field marshal with authority to select his own aides. Mayor Bandel was, on motion, appointed as director-general of the celebration. Father J. R. Dinnen was elected as chairman of the finance committee to be assisted by Messrs. Louis Bischof, Thomas Ross, O. C. Dorsey, Burd Jo, John M. Schultz and Gus Truitt.

As assistants to Mayor Bandel, on the committee on arrangements the following gentlemen were selected: Ex-Mayors Carr, Russell and Stillwell, Prof. Wellington, County Superintendent Zuck, David Hartman, Frank O. Maxwell and Charles Cloud. The programme above presented was referred to the committee on arrangements which is to act jointly in the matter with the committee on programme. The selection of the orator of the day was left to the committee on arrangements. The meeting then adjourned and it is evident that the success of the celebration is now assured.

Amusements.
On Monday evening, October 10, the great melo-dramatic sensation of New York and Chicago will be produced at Music Hall. The title of the play is "The Postmaster," and deals with life in the Sierra mountains. All the special scenery used in the New York production is carried by the company. Among the sensational features of the play are the flight of the Cannon-ball Express, the robbing of the U. S. mail and the murder of the postmaster. Judging from the flattering notices of the Chicago papers the piece must have achieved a genuine success. Seats are now on sale, secure them early as every city the company has so far visited has seen the standing room only sign out long before the curtain went up. During the action of the play numerous specialties are introduced including Joe B. Murphy's latest topical song "The Sullivan-Corbett Fight." This will be the only chance this season of witnessing this play previous to the Australian tour of the company, which sails from San Francisco on February 19, '93.

Mail will be distributed at Music Hall Monday evening instead of at postoffice. Open from 7:30 to 10:30.

She Croaked Not In Vain.
Mrs. Mary Wolever and her son, Mr. Charles Wolever, are rejoicing with a joyful joy over the recovery of the jewelry which was stolen from them and which Madame Crowe predicted would be returned by the thief. Sure enough it was for the other night it was thrown over the back fence and found in the morning all covered with dew which sparkled like countless diamonds on the blades of the green, grassy grass. Mr. Charles is now wearing his gold watch again and his broad smile of complacency is large enough to shelter a sad eyed Missouri mule.

—There was a brilliant audience at English's Tuesday evening, to witness the second performance of "Ben Hur." Gen. Lew Wallace himself was present. The members of the governor's guard and Col. McKee were present in full uniform, as were the members of the light artillery. The series of pantomimes were admirable and the performance moved off with much more precision than on the opening night. It was a fact quite interesting to the management, and not at all a drawback to the artistic feature of the piece that the receipts of the evening were over $700. —Indianapolis Sun.

A Distressing State of Affairs.

Tom Drake, of near Linden, is accountable for a very hilarious runaway which occurred near that village Tuesday evening. Mrs. Polly Foster and Mrs. Cynthia Hudson were jogging quietly along behind their horses, Nell and Queen, and were talking pleasantly and glibly of the growing crops, the quiet condition of politics and the relentlessness with which Squire Jones puts the thumb screws to evil doers. Mrs. Foster was smoking a delicious pipe and everything was as lovely as could be desired. Suddenly, however, as they passed the residence of Mr. Tom Drake, that gentleman who had been assiduously employed in harvesting hogs, threw his basket high in air. Up went the ears and tails of Nell and Queen and down the road they went at a break neck and break everything else speed. When they reached the crossing of the deadly Monon the smash came and the ladies together with their butter and eggs were spilled out and mixed up most shamefully. Both ladies were well buttered but Mrs. Foster suffered sadly. Her pipe stem penetrated her cheek and cut an ugly gash which required a physician's aid to remedy. One of the children was missing and it was not found for some time having bounded out half a mile back. The husbands of the ladies are very indignant at Mr. Tom Drake, who we are sure, however, was merely acting from a sense of gallantry in throwing that basket.

Hughes-Paice.
The marriage of Mr. William Hughes and Miss Lois Peirce which occurred at Indianapolis yesterday was attended by several persons from this city. Regarding the marriage the Indianapolis News says:

Miss Lois Peirce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. F. Peirce, was married at noon to-day to William Hughes, of Omaha, at the family home on north Meridian street. The bride wore a white satin gown, with train, covered with white embroidered mousein de sole, having a full ruching of the same material around the skirt. The dress was elaborately trimmed with orange blossoms. Miss Peirce wore a long tulle veil, fastened with orange blossoms. The Rev. J. Albert Rondthaler performed the ceremony, in the presence of the family and a few intimate friends. The following persons from out of town were present: Mr. and Mrs. Hughes, of Dayton; Mr. and Mrs. Hornung, of Milwaukee; Mr. Neilson, of Chicago; the Misses Leerer, of Shadyside; Mrs. and Miss Murdoch, of Logansport; Mr. and Mrs. Marsh of Florida; Mr. and Mrs. Brown, Miss Davidson and Miss Smith, of Crawfordsville.

Mr. Hughes was raised in Crawfordsville and here has scores of warm personal friends who unite in wishing her all possible happiness through life.

Gaining in Strength.
Under the able tutelage of Capt. G. W. Lamb Company I is every night engaged in drilling and is rapidly acquiring rare proficiency in the manual of arms. The ranks are swelling and when the time comes for the World's Fair trip there will be an enrollment of over 60. Five were enrolled last night. The company will have to pay its own way to Chicago as the Legislature made no appropriation, but the roads have reduced the fare to one cent a mile and when the militiamen arrive there they will be housed and fed free of charge.

Delightfully Surprised.
Mrs. Brown celebrated her 32nd birthday yesterday and in the evening about 80 of her friends tendered her a delightful surprise. They came with baskets well filled and after grace by Rev. J. Q. Edwards a bountiful repast was partaken of by all. It was a pleasant affair in all its details and will long be remembered as such. Those present from out of the city were: John F. Canary of Milwaukee, Mrs. Victoria Brown and daughter of Indianapolis, Mrs. Kate Canary and Miss Mollie Ballard, of Brown's Valley.

Strong Witnesses.
Among the thousands of testimonials of cures by Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, is that of Nathan Allison, a well known citizen at Glen Rock, Pa., who for years had shortness of breath, sleeplessness, pain in left side, shoulders, smothering spells, etc.; one bottle of Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure and one box of Nerve and Liver Pills, cured him. Peter Jaquet, Salem, N. J., is another witness. For twenty years suffered with Hepatic Disease, was turned away by physicians as incurable, death stared him in the face, could not lay down for fear of smothering to death. Immediately after using New Cure he felt better and could lay down and sleep all night, and is now a well man. The New Cure is sold, also free book, by Nye & Booe.

Dame Nature is a Good Book-keeper.
She don't let us stay long in her debt before we settle for what we owe her. She gives us a few years' grace at the most, but the reckoning surely comes.
