DAILY JOURNAL.

FRIDAY, OCT. 7, 1892.

RESORT TO DYNAMITE.

Anarchists Hurt the Cause of the Unions at Homestead.

Special to the Journal:

Pittsburgh, Pa., Oct. 7.—About half past two this morning a dynamite cartridge was thrown through an open window into a non-union boarding house at Homestead, Pa. A terrific explosion followed and the house was badly damaged. None of the inmates were seriously hurt, however. The persons are unknown.

Educated Horse.

Prof. Jesse Beery will exhibit his educated horse in front of the court house to-morrow afternoon at half past two o'clock, after which he will make up a class in horsemanship. Every horse owner should join his class.

Mayo To-Night.

Edwin Mayo appears at Music Hall to-night in the melodrama "After 20 Years." The drama is a war piece and is said to be as thrilling as "Shenandoah." Mr. Mayo's histrionic ability is well known here and no doubt he will be greeted with a good audience.

Farewell Reception.

This evening at the Methodist church will be given a farewell reception to Rev. G. W. Switzer who this week closes a most successful pastorate of five years. The reception is under the auspices of the Epworth League and all the friends of Mr. Switzer in the city are cordially invited to be present.

Musical Amateurs.

The first section of the Musical Amateurs Society, under the direction of Miss Eliza Harmon and Miss Alma McClure, will give a recital in the lecture room of the First Presbyterian church on Monday afternoon, Oct. 10, at 8 o'clock. As this is the first meeting of the year the treasurer requests all members of the society come prepared to pay their annual dues.

Daniels at Center School House.

Henry Daniels, candidate for election from the Eighth district, had a successful meeting at Center school house last evening. The house was full and not a few Democrats were present and listened to the exposition of Republican doctrine. Henry Swindler presided. At the close of Mr. Daniels' speech Dr. K. K. Stranghan gave his experience with wild cat money before the war.

Who is He?

Tuesday night a married man from Crawfordsville drove to Ladoga in company with a lady not his wife. While here his horse ran away and the buggy struck the hitching post in front of W. Gill's residence. Next day a Crawfordsville attorney came down to investigate the matter. It is claimed that the hitching post is too far out in the street, but some drivers under certain conditions find all streets too narrow.—Ladoga Leader.

The above is mighty interesting reading but would have been much more so if M. Warfel had published the names of these worthy people.

That Water Report.

In response to the statement made by Superintendent Horner in last evening's JOURNAL Dr. Taylor said this morning: "while it is true that Dr. Hurty has made no report yet here is a letter from the Doctor which explains matters and upon which I made my statement a few days since.

This is Dr. Hurty says:

The exhaustive analysis of the sample shows some queer features. For example, that from the dam comes up smiling with less chlorine, less ammonia and less nitrates, than any of the others. The reservoir shows up worse, and the deep wells had the most ammonia. You are certainly right about an analysis not establishing the quality of a water, and that if the local conditions point to the probability of sudden pollution [the street drainage and the fair ground drainage with its privy vaults] such considerations outweigh any analysis."

Dr. Hurty then says that he will fully inform Dr. Taylor of every point in this matter as soon as worked out.

—The JOURNAL was in error yesterday in making the statement that Mrs. Abigail Gregory was dead. The facts in connection with her serious illness were as stated, though at last accounts she was still living.

—Theron McCampbell of Rockville, was in the city to-day to make arrangements for speaking in the court house. He addressed a large crowd at Frankfort last evening on the issue from a Republican standpoint.

—George McCabe and bride left this afternoon for Lafayette to seek their fortunes. They are a blooming and gorgeous couple and it is with peculiar pleasure that they are recommended to the mercies of Lafayette.

—Mr. Chuckey Fell again aspires to this pugilistic and wishes to go against Bill Henderson. Chuckey's Waynetown experience would have ever satisfied the aspirations of most young men but the accomplished Chuckey is irrepressible. Unfortunately Mr. Henderson declined to meet a man of Chuckey's "reach."

—McClure & Graham are the people in cloaks and millinery. Go to their cloak opening to-morrow, day and evening.

—WOLVES IN SHEEP'S CLOTHING.

The result was that documents, especially prepared to influence the soldiers, were sent over here from the Democratic headquarters in New York in great quantities, and men employed to wear the Grand Army badge and distribute them broad cast among the old soldiers.

It need scarcely be said that this fact when it became known created the greatest indignation among the veterans gathered here. It was also discovered that the Democrats had adopted a form of campaign badge which so closely resembles the Grand Army button that it can scarcely be detected as a counterfeit.

This fact added to the indignation on the part of the old soldiers, who saw in it an attempt to make use of their nonpartisan organization for partisan purposes, after the Democrats had even refused to appropriate a penny in congress for the entertainment of the old soldiers. The contrast between the two parties was strongly marked in the apparent absence of efforts by the Republicans to use this gathering for political purposes.

—Comparing Party Records.

One of the most conspicuous failures was that made by Democratic emissaries to show that the Democratic party has been friendly to the soldier. Those who are familiar with the work of congress quickly met and defeated this effort. They showed from the records of congress that nine-tenths of the legislation favorable to the veterans of the late war originated with the Republican party, and that on almost every bill passed for the benefit of soldiers in the war of the rebellion a majority of the Democrats voted against the measure, and that every Republican voted for it.

It was shown that in the aggregate of the votes upon the dozen or more great pension bills that have been passed by congress nearly two-thirds of the Democrats voted against these measures, and that out of the 1,300 Republican votes cast in the house upon these bills only two votes were against them.

—Records of Presidential Candidates.

One thing that has come to the minds of the old soldiers gathered here in comparing the attitude of the two parties toward them has been the fact that every Republican president elected since the war has been a distinguished soldier.

Those who are familiar with the work of congress quickly met and defeated this effort. They showed from the records of congress that nine-tenths of the legislation favorable to the veterans of the late war originated with the Republican party, and that on almost every bill passed for the benefit of soldiers in the war of the rebellion a majority of the Democrats voted against the measure, and that every Republican voted for it.
