DAILY JOURNAL.

FRIDAY, OCT. 7, 1892.

THE DAILY JOURNAL is for sale by Robinson & Wallace, and Pontions & Lacey.

FROM HERE AND THERE.

—James M. Waugh is in Chicago.
—The wheat is suffering for want of rain.

—A. S. Miller and Horace Law are attending the Knoxville races.

—Rev. G. P. Fuson has returned from Colorado much improved in health.

—Mrs. Dr. Griffith is in Marion attending the W. C. T. U. convention.

—The dry weather has prevented the frost from seriously damaging foliage as yet.

—Miss Fannie Watson will arrive this evening from New Ross to spend Sunday.

—Quails are reported to be scarcer than usual this year owing to the very wet spring.

—Mrs. Fanny Lane, who has been visiting friends here, went to Greencastle this afternoon.

—Mrs. G. L. Bell and children left today for Delphi, N. Y., called by illness in Mrs. Belle's family.

—Mrs. Jennie Evans, who has been the guest of Mrs. Prof. King, returned to Youngstown, Ohio, today.

—Don't fail to attend the cloak opening at McClure & Graham's to-morrow, day and night. They are the people.

—The committee on arrangements for the Columbian Day celebration will meet in the mayor's office Monday evening at 7 o'clock.

—The work on the Baptist church is being pushed and the building will be ready for occupancy in an unusually short time.

—You will see cloaks at McClure & Graham's cloak opening to-morrow, day or night, that beat them all for fine goods at fair prices.

—There will be a social at First Presbyterian church next Tuesday evening when stewed chicken, pumpkin pie and other delicacies will be served.

—Frank Cornell, of Montgomery county, will teach the New Brunswick school next year. Mr. Cornell is a graduate of the State Normal school. He was in this city last Saturday. —Lebanon Patriot.

—Mr. and Mrs. R. B. F. Pierce and Miss Van Valkenberg will go to Maxinkuckee to-morrow to spend a week at their cottage. Miss Agnes Dilks is visiting friends in Crawfordsville. —Indianapolis Journal.

—Base Hanna, who has been in jail some time patiently waiting his trial, appeared in court and plead guilty to the charge of larceny. He was fined $1, given thirty-five days in jail and discharged for one year. —Lebanon Reporter.

—The case of Mr. "Sent" Sullivan, charged with blacking the eyes of Will Orme came up before Mayor Bandel last evening. "Sent" had no attorney so he begged off until to-morrow morning when the case will be tried. The report that it was Dan Orme who was assaulted is entirely erroneous as he knew nothing of the difficulty until last night.

—Messrs. Al Zimmerman, champion wrestler of Illinois, Ohio, Michigan and Wisconsin, and Mike Quenan, the heavy weight pugilist, are down from Chicago and in company of Prof. Wilson, of the Danville Cycling Club, made the News a call last night. Quenan will remain in the city several days and will referee the glove contest between Prof. Wilson and Jack Kelley at the Grand opera house on the 14th inst. He is very anxious to meet Ed Corey, of Crawfordsville, Ind., in the prize ring and will challenge him to a mill for a purse of $250 to $500. —Danville News.

—Pure and Wholesome Quality. Commends to public approval the California liquid laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs. It is pleasant to the taste and by acting gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels to cleanse the system effectually, it promotes the health and comfort of all who use it, and with millions it is the best and only remedy.

CON CUNNINGHAM for over coats.

From Greencastle.
Emma Conner vs. James H. Starke is the title of the case venue from Montgomery to Putnam county. Miss Conner is the young lady who defended the American flag in a neighborhood trouble just over the line in Montgomery county about a year ago. She charges Stark with defamation of character and asks damages in the sum of $12,000. The particulars of the complaint are too indecent to publish.

At the quarterly meeting of the official board of College Avenue church Tuesday evening a resolution was passed requesting conference to return Dr. Town to the church for another year. Elder Wood then announced that Dr. Town had received a call elsewhere at a salary of $2,400 per year, and that it was possible that he would not return. Dr. Town gave no indication of his intentions. He leaves Monday for conference which meets in Terre Haute.

Hon. W. E. Humphrey, of Crawfordsville, spoke to a large audience of republicans and democrats in Aders's hall at Bainbridge last Friday night. The republicans were delighted with the speech, while the democrats were again treated to a dose of the truth. —Greencastle Banner and Times.

A Glorious Time.

Last evening was a memorable one in colored society circles and not for a long time has so brilliant an event occurred under the auspices of the colored population. The Odd Fellows banquet and ball last evening was a grand success in all its details and particulars and upon the management reflects no end of credit. The tables in the Morton club hall were loaded down with the choicest of viands at the banquet hour and nearly 200 sat down the feast. The ladies were all elegantly costumed and at their best while the gentlemen were attired in their gallantry and good clothes. An unusually large number of guests from out of the city were present and the occasion was one of the felicitously felicitous sort. After the banquet all who danced adjourned to the 'SS's' hall, where far into the night they floated in the dreamy waltz. Schweitzer's orchestra furnished music for both the banquet and ball and the whole affair was simply grand.

He Wants His Old Cannon.

Charles L. Voris, of Paris, Ill., wants his old brass cannon and by all that's righteous he ought to have it. He has written to the city authorities and states that he wants it—wants it bad and needs it in his business. The old cannon is that same instrument of fell destruction with which John Bruker, of precious memory, used to raise Cain about these parts and disturb the sweet slumbers of all good citizens by his unearthly and uncanny bombardments at all unseasonable hours and on all occasions, seemly and unseemly. How John Bruker ever got hold of the old brass cannon of Mr. Voris is as much of a mystery as where that interesting relic of death and general desolation now is. The general impression is that the old brass cannon is among the things that were but if it can be found Mr. Voris ought to have it.

Dismissed.

The Wilbitts damage suit against the Clover Leaf road for $10,000 came to an abrupt close in the circuit court this morning. The plaintiff's testimony was all in yesterday and the defense had begun. When the court convened this morning, however, Mr. Paul arose and stated that after consulting with his co-counsel he had decided to dismiss the case. This was done because it was pretty evident that no verdict could be obtained from a jury and even if one could be it was certain that the court would set it aside. The plaintiff's witnesses did not pan out and actually gave pretty good evidence for the defense. The costs will be taxed up against the plaintiff.

Dr. Burroughs the Orator.

The committee on arrangements for the Columbian Day celebration met last evening in the mayor's office and chose an orator for the occasion. It was the unanimous sense of the committee that Dr. Burroughs, the new president of Wabash College, was the gentleman to be selected for the honor. Dr. Burroughs will arrive next week and perhaps no better method of introducing him to the rising generation could be struck up than having him deliver an oration before the school children of the county on Columbus Day.

The Shoemaker's Last.

Henry C. Shoemaker has brought suit through White, Humphrey & Reeves, for a divorce from Stella, who packed up her party dresses and manicure set and left his roof last October. Stella had been acting badly for some time before and in mid September when the mocking bird was singing o'er the grave of sweet Hallie and all that sort of thing, the complaint alleges that she had quite an interesting escapade with Charles Coons. This is the ground work of the plaintiff's plea and on this he chiefly depends for legal separation.

—M. E. Clodfelter was in Rockville yesterday and filed a petition for a new trial in the Foster Fletcher case. It was overruled by the court.

—Henry Daniels, of Rockville, was in the city today.

A REWARDED sense of vigor, health and ease follows the use of Irish Herb Tea. Children like it. 25c. at all drug stores.

Riley's Tribute.

Lord Tennyson passed away yesterday morning and in last evening's Indianapolis News James Whitcomb Riley has the following tribute to his memory:

We of the New World clasp hands with the old.

In newer fervor and with firmer hold

And nobler fellowship,

O master singer, with the finger-tip

Of Death laid thus on thy melodious lip.

All ages thou hast honored with thine art,

And ages yet unborn thou wilt be part

Of all songs pure and true:

Thine now the universal homage due

From Old and New World—aye, and still THE NEW.

The Suspenders Must Go.

The gentlemanly get-up, that is, the one showing the cloth skirt, regulation shirt and flare-away coat bids fair to be in vogue all the winter. The ugly suspenders will die with the summer sun.

Womankind never assumed anything that was quite so masculine or quite so ungraceful as these articles; they made her figure look badly, and they certainly did not make her look more a woman.

—From The Ladies' Home Journal for October.

—S. O. Bayless has returned to Frankfort.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable.

For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by J. F. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.
