Some Strange Mismomers.

Much of the Russia leathers comes from Connecticut, Borden wine from California, Italian marble from Kentucky, French lace from New York, and Spanish mackerel from New Jersey coast. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery comes from Buffalo, N. Y., but there is nothing in its name to criticize for it is truly golden in value, as thousands gladly testify. Consumption is averted by its use, and it has wrought many positive cures. It corrects torpid liver, kidneys, purifies the blood, banishes dyspepsia and scrofula, renews the lease of life, and tones up the system so nothing else will do. What is more, it is guaranteed to do all this, or the price is refunded.

DAILY JOURNAL.

MONDAY, OCT. 10, 1892.

A Strange Coincidence.

Special to The Journal.

WAYNETOWN, Oct. 11.—Some time ago Dr. Foster, of Kansas, purchased the practice of Dr. Culver, of this place, and came on here leaving his wife at home to pack up their effects. Dr. Culver resolved to remove to Indianapolis and went there to hunt a location leaving his wife to superintend the moving. On Thursday Dr. Foster was called to Kansas by a telegram announcing that his wife was dying and on Saturday Dr. Culver was summoned here by a similar message. Dr. Foster has not been heard from since he left but Mrs. Culver died Saturday night. She was a most estimable lady and the funeral, which was conducted this afternoon by Elder Shney, was largely attended.

FROM HERE AND THERE.

—Tom Maxedon is in the city.

—Charley Peterson, of Purdue University was the guest of Prof. Isaac Nell yesterday.

—C. M. Berry was over from Veedsburg today.

—Mrs. Tom Nolan went to LaFayette this afternoon.

—D. W. Gerard and wife are home from Danville, Ill.

—Miss Lulu Alfrey went to Indianapolis this afternoon.

—Dr. J. W. Greene went to LaFayette this afternoon.

—“Charley Boy” Bowers is still lingering at Silverwood.

—Henry Clements was up from Brazil to spend Sunday.

—Mrs. Jere Keeney, jr., went to Greencastle this afternoon.

—Harmen Marsh went to Greencastle this afternoon to visit his sisters.

—Prof. Alexander Smith returned from Bloomington this afternoon.

—Rev. Andrew Yount and wife, of Battle Ground, are the guests of Mrs. Sallie Ramsey.

—The ladies of the Christian church will give a fair early in December. Wait for your Christmas presents.

—The Monon passenger train last night killed a valuable colt for Wm. McGraw near Cherry Grove.

—Mr. Hester, who married Miss Matie Beard, of this city, died suddenly yesterday at their home in Oklahoma.

—Lavinia E. Peterman has sued for a divorce from T. Wallace Peterman, who basely deserted her several years ago.

—The funeral of little Lee Benson was conducted this afternoon at 3 o'clock by Rev. G. W. Switzer. The interment occurred at Oak Hill.

—Postage stamps will be for sale at the Music Hall box office this evening at 7:30 o'clock at 25, 35 and 50 cents. The postmaster will be on the boards.

—On account of the serious illness of Mrs. Ira McConnell THE JOURNAL has been requested to ask the students and the boys generally to make as little noise as possible in that vicinity. No unusually bad conduct has been complained of, but the natural ebullitions of youth have a tendency to increase the nervousness of the invalid.

—The reappearance of Rev. G. P. Fuson at the Baptist church yesterday morning after his extended absence was greeted by a large audience and the morning hour was really made a sort of a welcoming service. Mr. Fuson is a most popular minister and the warmth with which he was yesterday received by his congregation attested the esteem in which he is held.

Munson's Missionary Meetings.

Rev. R. W. Munson and wife, Methodist missionaries at Singapore, occupied the pulpit at the Methodist church yesterday afternoon and evening. The afternoon meeting was in charge of Mrs. Munson and was for the ladies. She told about Dr. Frank West and wife who are also missionaries at Singapore, and who went from here four years ago. Dr. West is a brother of Jere West who is entertaining Mr. Munson and wife. In the evening Mr. Munson spoke to a large crowd on the general character of missions the result of which no doubt will be to make the contributions to foreign missions here more liberal. This evening he will give a free lecture at the church on the manners and customs of the natives of Singapore, showing their costumes and other curios. Two young ladies, two young gentlemen and a child will be on the platform to put on the costumes in order to display them better.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Silas M. Pickering and Minnie E. Reichard.

David M. Turner and Amanda L. Webb.

News from New Ross.

Special Correspondence The Journal.

HAPPY WEDDING.

Yesterday evening at 3:30 o'clock at the residence of the bride, one mile south of here, Davy Turner and Miss Louise Webb were united in marriage. Rev. Pervis officiating. Very few guests were there. The bride was dressed in a navy blue bendoline suit elegantly ruffled and made princess fashion. Davy has had quite a time in the matrimonial line as several blushing damsels had him as they thought upon the string. Zack Williams and Mike Bruch dressed in full dress suits and with hair parted in the middle looked as sweet as two charming lilies as they did the honors of the occasion. Mr. Turner is a prosperous farmer and hardware dealer of our town and has the best wishes of all for a long and happy life.

MORTON CLUB.

Saturday night Hon. M. D. White, H. B. Hulet, and J. E. Barnett went to New Ross to organize a Morton club. Mr. White made an hour's speech to a crowded house and after the speech Mr. Barnett organized the club with thirty charter members. It was a rousing meeting and no doubt will have great effect. O. E. Kelley was chosen President; Jesse Raint, Vice-President; T. F. Ronk, Treasurer; A. W. Johnson, Secretary.

SAD DEATH.

Saturday night at 7 o'clock Wilber Victor, a farmer living south of here died of congestion. Early in the morning he went to his farm near Lebanon, and was taken ill on his way home. He had just buried his mother and he now follows. He was addicted to the liquor habit and no doubt it hastened his death.

REV. G. W. SWITZER'S FAREWELL.

An Overflowing House Greets Him in His Last Services.

The Methodist church was filled to overflowing yesterday morning by communicants and visitors to hear the farewell sermon of Rev. G. W. Switzer, who for the last five years has served as pastor of that congregation. The altar and organ were profusely and elaborately decorated with flowers and the occasion was an inspiring one. The organ was presided over by Miss Margaret Morgan and the hymns sung by the choir were appropriate. The opening prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. Munson, a returned missionary from Singapore. Mr. Switzer chose as his text the Paulian words: "Quit ye like men, be strong." He prefaced his address with personal remarks and his official relations with the church and each and every member. When he came to the charge five years ago the membership numbered 335, while now there are enrolled 640. Over 800 had been added during his pastorate. In a financial way the church had prospered. During the five years the church had raised over $25,000 to meet current expenses, which of course includes the pastor's salary, all benevolent collections and a deficit on the new edifice. He foretold at the close of each year a deficit of from $300 to $500 had been carried over into the next year. This year closed with the books about square and no debt. He spoke of these things with pardonable pride. He then passed to his discourse proper and delivered an eloquent address on the growth of Christian sentiment brought about by the church itself by its own enlarging views. Narrow sectarianism was being supplanted by a broad catholicity among all denominations which upheld the banner of the cross of Christ. At the close of the sermon one person united with the church by letter, after which the congregation united in sing.

"Blest be the tie that binds Our hearts in Christian love."

A Woman Beater Punished.

There was a disgraceful little set to late Saturday afternoon between Officer Grimes and Mr. Jim Goff, the worthy chicken picker of Zuck's poultry emporium. Mr. Goff is a gentleman of decided pugilistic ability and nothing pleases him quite so well as an opportunity to give an exhibition of the manly art and in order to have a party of the second part he not infrequently forces his wife to enter the ring. Saturday afternoon Mr. Goff outdid all previous achievements and succeeded in vanquishing two women and a lame man. Mrs. Goff was with James Freel and wife in the old Divine property on Pine street when Goff came in hunting trouble with both eyes squinted. Mr. Freel was in bed suffering from injuries received while at work on the central school building. Mr. Goff promptly punched his head and then demonstrated to the ladies that they could not stand up before him. Just as the row was drawing to a close Officer Grimes arrived and Mr. Goff defied him, throwing his hand in his face and denouncing him as a "geaser." Now this little by play on the part of Mr. Goff was very unfortunate for him. In less than three minutes his face was as remarkable a looking object as one could see in a day's walk. Mr. Grimes' mace is heavy and when it ceased to play on Jimmie's countenance Jimmie was about ready for the embalmer. He was jailed after Officer Milholland had arrived and not until safely behind the bars did he desist from biting, kicking and swearing. This morning Goff pleaded guilty to several charges and was fined $21.40 by the Mayor.

—Miss Hattie Harding returned to DePauw University this afternoon.

The Yandes Coterie.

The Yandes Coterie met Saturday evening at the office of Crane & Anderson and listened to a paper by E. P. Mount. Mr. Mount treated of English orators and oratory in a way that was highly interesting and provoked much discussion. The current topic introduced by A. A. McCain, was the new president of Wabash College, Dr. Burroughs. Three new members were admitted, M. B. Binford, Herbert Thomson and Gaylord McCluer. After transacting some business the Coterie adjourned.

After Blood.

This morning the suit of Sharples and company against N. J. Clodfelter and others, began in the circuit court. The Sharples company furnished the fittings for the defendant creamery and never received their pay. They allege that N. J. Clodfelter received $7,000 worth of stock for which he paid nothing and finally to get ahead of the plaintiffs that the plant was mortgaged to him for no consideration. The suit promise to be entertaining.

Death of James Wright.

D. O. Barnhill received a telegram from J. K. Blandin of Frankfort this afternoon, stating that his father-in-law, James Wright, had died. Mr. Wright was quite old and his many friends here will be sorry to learn of his death. The funeral will take place in the Christian church, this city, to-morrow at 10:30, and interment will be at Oak Hill.

Committee Meeting.

This evening at seven o'clock at the Mayor's office the committee on arrangements for the Columbian Day celebration will meet for the transaction of important business. The committee is composed of Mayor Bandel, ex-Mayors Stilwell, Russell and Carr, F. O. Maxwell, Supt. J. S. Zuck, David Hartman and Prof. I. M. Wellington.

Made Answer.

This morning the defendants in the suit brought by John S. Brown to set aside the legislative apportionment, filed their answer. It is a voluminous document of 35 pages and was prepared by Johnston & Johnston and Wright & Sellar.

Death of Charley Rapp.

Charley Rapp, died to-day at Ladoga after an illness of consumption. The funeral will occur Wednesday at ten o'clock under the auspices of the Knights Templar.

Died.

J. A. McClure received a telegram announcing the death of Abigail Gregory at Garden City, Kansas. The funeral will occur Thursday morning at Thornton.
