

THE DAILY JOURNAL.

VOL. VI—NO. 533.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, INDIANA, FRIDAY OCTOBER 14, 1892.

PRICE 2 CENTS

The Crawfordville College
A SCHOOL OF
ORTHODOX, PROLOG & LAMENBURY.
On all the various subjects of the GREETING.
Mr. Madison C. Kline, has attended regularly and applied himself diligently during the required term of studies at this college, and has shown his examinations that he is competent to Diagnose and Correct Errors of Refraction.
In testimony whereof, we have signed our name, and the College Seal this 14th day of October, 1892.

Dr. J. H. Kline, President
Dr. J. H. Kline, Secretary
Dr. J. H. Kline, Treasurer
Dr. J. H. Kline, Librarian
Dr. J. H. Kline, Steward
Dr. J. H. Kline, Chaplain
Dr. J. H. Kline, Moderator
Dr. J. H. Kline, Recorder
Dr. J. H. Kline, Reporter
Dr. J. H. Kline, Correspondent
Dr. J. H. Kline, Editor
Dr. J. H. Kline, Publisher
Dr. J. H. Kline, Proprietor

Mr. Kline can always be found and will be glad to see all who have errors of vision at the Old Reliable Jewelry Store of

MAT KLINE, 105 E. Main St. Opp. Court House

Y. M. C. A. Barber Shop!

Weather Report.

Showers, cooler.

Everything to be had at our place at a bargain.

The best of everything for the least money.

Four first-class barbers and four bathes.

McCALIP & ARMSTRONG.

Smoke OUR COMMANDERY, No. 68, 5ct Cigar. Sold by J.T. Laymon.

Indianapolis Business University
THE HIGHEST GRADE BUSINESS AND SHORTHAND SCHOOL.
Established 1880, open all the year; entrance free; instruction, lecture, large faculty; time short; expense low; no fee for diploma; a strictly business school in an unrivaled course; practical, efficient and profitable; professional, professional and business men who employ skilled help; no charge for positions; unequalled in the success of its graduates.
SEND FOR ELEGANT CATALOGUE.
HEEB & OSBORN, Proprietors

Elmer's Cream Balm for CATARRH
THE POSITIVE CURE.
ELMER BROTHERS, 66 Warren St., New York. Price 50 cts.

Van Houten's Cocoa
—BEST AND COOKS FARTHEST—
leaves no sediment on the bottom of the cup.

The Crawfordville Transfer Line,
WALKUP & McFARLAND, Proprietors.
Passengers and Baggage transferred to hotels, depots or any part of the city.
OMNIBUSES, CABS AND HACKS.
Leave orders at the stables on Market street, Telephone No. 47

C. R. Snodgrass,
The Fashionable Tailor,
Is now located over Robinson & Wallace's bookstore.

You get your money's worth

When you trade with

CASH FRY, the Grocer.

126 West Main Street.

New Parlor Furniture, and Bedroom Furniture,
New Dining Room and Kitchen Furniture,
New Patterns in Carpets and Rugs,
New Patterns in Lace Curtains,
New Designs in Chairs, Side-Boards,
Parlor Library and Office Book-Cases and Desks.
All goods are new, desirable and prices always the lowest for cash or payments.

ROYCE & PEAVEY.
FURNITURE and CARPET Store,
125 South Washington Street.

WANT REVENGE.

Sympathizers of the Dalton Gang Making Threats.

THEY MAY ATTACK COFFEYVILLE.

Eager to Avenge the Death of Their Comrades—Citizens of the Town Armed for Resistance—The Latest Train Robbery.

A DESPERATE GANG.

COFFEYVILLE, Kan., Oct. 14.—The town of Coffeyville is wild with excitement over a reported attempt to burn the town and kill the people out of revenge for the killing of the Dalton gang last week. The report started from the robbing of the Missouri Pacific train at Tyro, near Coffeyville Wednesday night. At noon Thursday the mayor of Coffeyville telegraphed the report to Parsons and the superintendent of the M., K. & T. road at once fitted up a car with a posse and rifles and sent it to Coffeyville as a special.

Armed to the Teeth.

It arrived at the town at 3 o'clock and found the place wild with fear and excitement. Doors and windows were barricaded and everybody was armed to the teeth. All of the rifles in the town were in readiness and every man stood waiting for an attack. The car from the M., K. & T. at Parsons stood at the depot barricaded and armed. In the homes women and children were frightened over the outlook for another bloody encounter with the bandits, and the mayor of Coffeyville conferred with the railroad officials and wired to Parsons that the people here could care for themselves, as the number of the attacking party was greatly magnified and that a matter of a few hours would result in their capture.

Do Not Need Help Yet.

"Coffeyville people," said he, "have shown their ability to care for themselves." Ben and William Dalton and many of their sympathizers have been loitering about Coffeyville for days. Tuesday Emmet Dalton's wounded body was removed to Independence. Ben and William and their mother accompanied him. Since then nothing has been heard from them here. At 6 o'clock Thursday evening a bonfire was started in the plaza of the town to furnish an illumination.

Alleged Plan of the Daltons.

The information of the approach of the Daltons was conveyed to the people of Coffeyville by the force under Detective Dodge, of the Wells-Fargo Company, who is scouring the Indian territory for members of the gang. One of his men heard it and wired the mayor of Coffeyville, who asked for help from Parsons and got it. The plan was for George Dalton and forty whites and half-breeds, completely armed, to ride into Coffeyville at 9 o'clock Thursday night and wipe out the place. No mercy was to be given, according to Dodge's information.

How the Patrols Were Placed.

Upon the receipt of the notice of the impending raid the people assembled at the public square and were told off in detachments. A portion of them were held in reserve at the jail to go to the aid of any point that might be attacked. Others dismounted established a cordon around the village, guarding every approach to the town, making it a matter of practical impossibility for any one to reach the city without being observed. In addition to these precautions a mounted patrol was sent out a distance of 4 miles into the country, where a most vigilant watch was kept up. All the citizens were well armed with rifles and revolvers and plenty of ammunition. As is the case with all border towns, more especially those on the Indian territory line, the people possess an abundance of improved firearms and good ammunition and an excellent idea of their use. The patrol consists of men who have been in more than one fight, who are cool, determined fellows, ready to face death if need be. The country in this vicinity is open to a great extent, and the only hope of the gang would be to catch the guards unawares. This is made more difficult as the old campaigners, who control their movements, directed the guards both mounted and on foot to carefully avoid the roads, to keep in the background and thus head off any cross country flank movement. While the roads are seemingly unoccupied it would be utterly impossible for any living thing to move in the direction of the town without a challenge, swiftly followed by a shot if not heeded.

Parsons People Ready to Fight.

PARSONS, Kan., Oct. 14.—As soon as the news of the contemplated invasion of Coffeyville was made public in this city a large posse of men was at once armed and ready to embark on a special train for Coffeyville when the news reached this city that there was no likelihood of any trouble and that in case of any invasion the people of Coffeyville were prepared to cope with the invaders. The town of Coffeyville has been a pandemonium of excitement, yet no braver set of men ever shouldered a gun than the gallant and fearless citizens of this Kansas town.

There is every reason to believe from the actions of some of the men who have visited Coffeyville that if Emmett Dalton recovers some steps will be taken by his friends to liberate him. The people of Coffeyville will see to it that he gets his just deserts, even if they again have to resort to arms.

The Train Robbery.

WICHITA, Kan., Oct. 14.—Train No. 482, east bound, on the Missouri Pacific railroad, was held up and the Pacific express car was robbed by masked men just outside of Caney, Kan., at 10:30 o'clock Wednesday night, but, as all the express money was transferred at Conway Springs, the outlaws cannot have secured much booty.

As the train was leaving Caney a man mounted the front platform of the combination baggage and express car and fired over the treetops. As Engineer Eggleston stopped his train between the switches the robber covered him and the fireman with revolvers and ordered them to pull out further. When the whistling post was reached a second member of the gang was in waiting, and as soon as the engine and express car had been uncoupled the engineer was again ordered to go ahead. In a deep cut, half a mile out of Caney, the train was brought to a standstill, and at the point of their revolvers the outlaws forced the engine crew to open the express car. Express Messenger J. N. Maxwell seems to have been unprepared for resistance, as he opened up his safe and delivered what money he had. The robbers then fired a few shots through the car, hitting no one, however, and left.

Superintendent Harding thinks there must have been at least three men implicated in the robbery. It is thought the men were the same who last week held up the station agent at Sedan, Kan.

Didn't Get Much.

Both robbers wore heavy black masks and their clothing was spattered with mud, indicating that they were mounted and had ridden hard. The express messenger claims he does not know the value of the booty secured. The express officials and railway men at different points along the line claim that the robbers did not secure $500, if, indeed, they got that amount. When the train reached Tyro the watchman was told of the robbery, but no effort was made to get a posse and pursue the robbers. This morning the railway people sent a squad of officers to Tyro and will begin an active search for the men.

Santa Fe Agent Robbed.

WINFIELD, Kan., Oct. 14.—Operator Mosier was taking a short nap in the Santa Fe depot Wednesday night when he was suddenly punched in the ribs and told to straighten up. He did so, and looked squarely into two revolvers held by masked men. They lifted up his hat from the table and took his revolver. They also pulled out a drawer and found another pistol, showing that they had been familiar with the place. The cash drawer was then broken open and robbed of its contents, amounting to only $25. An attempt was then made to open the safe, but it was unsuccessful. Some persons waiting for a late train were searched and their valuables taken.

ENDED IN A BANQUET.

The Week's Festivities in Honor of Columbus Closed—Took Distinguished Speakers at Lenox Lyceum.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—The Columbian celebration in this city was brought to a fitting close Thursday night by a grand banquet at the Lenox lyceum. Several hundred of the best-known men in the country were seated at the tables. The president of the United States was not present, owing to the illness of his wife. He was represented by Vice President Morton. The hall had been decorated with excellent taste. Promptly at 8 o'clock, as the band played "Hail to the Chief," Vice President Morton and Mayor Grant were escorted to the platform of the stage. Mayor Grant took the seat as the presiding officer, the vice president sitting at his side. On the same side of the table were Secretary of State Foster, ex-President Cleveland and Baron Fava. On the left were Gov. Flower, ex-President Hayes, Gen. Horace Porter and Bishop Potter. Among the guests at the tables on the main floor were many distinguished public men. The time for speech-making at length arrived and Mayor Grant trusted the company to order. The first toast was responded to by Vice-President Morton, who, at the conclusion of his remarks, proposed a toast to the wife of the president, expressing a wish for her speedy recovery.

Secretary of State Foster responded to the toast: "The United States." Gov. Flower spoke on "The Empire State." President Arnold, of the board of aldermen, responded to the toast "New York," and was followed by Gen. Horace Porter, who spoke on "American Patriotism." C. G. F. Wable, Jr., secretary of the committee of 100, had "America and Its Discoverer," and "America." Other speakers were Congressman Amos J. Cummings and William Sulzer.

Kentucky Blood Is Up.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 14.—The Louisville Times, after the Courier-Journal the most important newspaper in this state, advises all idea of an exhibit at the world's fair. This advice is based on the complications that have arisen due to politics, official disputes and questionable legislation, rendering the $100,000 appropriation unavailable until after recourse is taken to the courts, together with the criticisms that have been made upon Congressman Breckinridge by the Chicago press and public.

Whitfield Officially Out.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—Postmaster General Wanamaker addressed a letter to S. A. Whitfield acknowledging the receipt of his resignation as first assistant postmaster general, in which he expressed the president's appreciation of the ability and fidelity with which Mr. Whitfield had discharged the duties of his office, and added his personal and profound regret.

Drought Killed Thousands of Cattle.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Oct. 14.—Freight officials of the San Antonio and Aransas Pass railway say that 300 carloads of bones have been shipped from Alice station, representing the death during the late drought of 150,000 head of cattle in that immediate vicinity. Similar shipments have been made from other stations on the road.

Wheat Injured by the Weevil.

CANTHAGE, Ill., Oct. 14.—It has been discovered that the weevil in countless numbers has invaded the wheat bins of farmers in various portions of this county, and, as a result, thousands of bushels of wheat have been thrown upon the market by them at a reduced price.

ESCAPE CUT OFF.

Eight Men Buried in a Pennsylvania Mine.

NO PROBABILITY OF THEIR RESCUE.

They Are Entombed by an Explosion of Gas Which Also Kills One Man—Outright and Injures a Number of Others.

DEATH IN A COLLIERY.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., Oct. 14.—An explosion of gas occurred at the Sterling colliery Thursday morning, supposed to have been caused by a fall of coal striking a miner's lamp. One man was killed, four were injured and eight others intombed. It is believed that the latter are all dead. Up to this time the searching party has been unable to reach the missing ones, owing to so much "black damp." The following are the names of the dead and injured.

The Victims.

Dead—Thomas O'Carra. Probably dead—Benjamin Thomas, Samuel Collins, Patrick McDuff, Isaac Goney, Joseph Kelechi, Michael Vetchock, Charles Bellocman and Joseph Minstook. Injured—Horace Price, terribly cut and mangled; Samuel Rogers, leader, cut and mangled; William Mack, driver, cut and mangled; Daniel Reed, driver, skull fractured, burned and cut, will probably die.

Hastening to the Scene of the Disaster.

News of the awful disaster was soon carried to the homes of the miners and a moment later the wives and mothers of the unfortunate men had gathered about the mouth of the pit. All were greatly excited and most of the women were crying and wringing their hands hysterically. The pit boss and mine superintendent were aware of the necessity of prompt action, and without loss of time gathered all the miners in the vicinity and organized them into squads, that the work of clearing away the wreckage and rescuing the entombed men might be carried on night and day until it was accomplished. The women were tenderly but firmly urged to stand back that they might not in any way hinder the work.

Beginning the Work of Rescue.

In less than half an hour the task was begun. The first squad of rescuers, bared to the waist, entered upon the task with a zeal and determination that gave the weeping women hope that their loved ones might yet be saved. But, determined though the workmen were, they were frequently driven back by the poisonous black gas. Several of the zealous workmen were overcome by it and had to be carried out. The work had been in progress two hours, when two miners who had been imprisoned in a new entry made their way, half-dragging, half-carrying two others, who were so badly overcome that they were unable to get out alone.

Greeted by a Shout of Joy.

The appearance of these men at the entrance of the mine was greeted with a shout of joy from the little gathering outside. The hysterical women had become cooler by this time. The half-prostrated miners were quickly cared for by the woman who a short time before were wringing their hands in despair. An hour later the sturdy rescuers succeeded in liberating Irvin Edwards. At the time of the explosion he was with the men still entombed in the slope and who, it is feared, have been suffocated. He was hardly able to speak above a whisper. Some brandy was administered and he was a little time able to tell the anxious wives, mothers and friends of the men still buried in the mine what little he knew of their condition.

Story of a Survivor.

"We all started by a short cut for the bottom of the slope," he said, "but I grew faint from inhaling the poisonous gas, lost my way, and after wandering I don't know how long sunk helplessly where I was found. As near as I can make out the men are in a old gangway which is now closed by a mass of rock which fell a short time after the explosion."

It is impossible to say how long it will take to dig the unfortunate miners out of the old entry where they are supposed to be imprisoned. There is no means of telling how thick the mass of rock is and another hindrance is the poisonous black gas. Six miles were killed by the explosion.

LYNCHED FOUR NEGROES.

A Wholesale Burning at the Stake Prevented by Banging.

SUNNY SOUTH, Ala., Oct. 14.—It is learned that Wednesday night a mob of infuriated citizens stormed the jail at Monroeville and took therefrom Burrill Jones and his son Moses, with two accomplices. They were charged with murdering Mr. Richard L. Johnson and his daughter and burning their bodies at their residence at Davis Ferry on the Alabama river last Saturday night. The officials learned that a mob had been organized from the neighborhood of lower Beach Tree and were coming to the jail for the purpose of burning the four negroes at the stake. The prisoners were at once taken from the jail and an attempt made to spirit them away, but the officials ran into another mob, who took the four prisoners, and, after hanging them to a tree, filled their bodies with bullets. Burrill Jones made a full confession while in jail and said that the four men went to Johnson's for the purpose of robbery and the old man discovered them, whereupon he was murdered with an ax. The daughter came to the rescue of her father, and the villains, after assaulting, murdered her. The house was then set on fire to hide all traces of the crime. The mob that was to have burned the culprits expressed much dissatisfaction at being thwarted in their designs.

Georgia's Election.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 14.—The official returns from the recent election in Georgia place Gov. Nathan's vote at 135,000, against 65,000 for Peck, the alliance candidate.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

Royal Baking Powder
ABSOLUTELY PURE

MUST STAND TRIAL.

Indianapolis Grand Jurors After Iron Hall Officials.

TRUE BILLS FOUND AGAINST THEM.

The Indictments Charge Embezzlement—Similar Action Looked For in Other States—The Punishment Is Severe.

TRUE BILLS FOUND.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 14.—The Marion county grand jury has made its final report and returned indictments against the officers of the late order of the Iron Hall. They are indicted on a charge of embezzlement. The indictments are joint and are in two counts. The indicted men are:

The Indicted.

Freeman D. Somerby, supreme justice, Indianapolis, Ind.; Mark S. Davis, supreme cashier, Indianapolis, Ind.; J. L. Youngblood, supreme trustee and chairman of the board, Danville, Ill.; H. C. Hooper, Jr., supreme trustee and secretary of the board, Camden, N. J.; C. E. Thompson, supreme trustee, Birmingham, N. Y.; George C. Fountain, supreme trustee, Jersey City, N. J.; W. Rouse, supreme trustee, Baltimore, Md.

The Charges.

The first count charges them with embezzlements of $200,000 of the order's funds, which they converted to their own use. The second count charges them with converting to their own use $200,000 by using it in Somerby's bank at Philadelphia.

Seeking Indictments.

Necessary papers will be issued and the governor will be asked for requisitions so that the indicted men may be brought in as soon as possible, and it may be that Judge Cox will order the arrest of Somerby by wire, asking that he be held until an officer can reach him with the necessary documents to return him to "headquarters" in Indianapolis. It is likely that Davis will be arrested at once.

Heavy Bail to Be Asked.

As the amount alleged in the indictments to have been embezzled is a large one, it is probable that Judge Cox will require a heavy bond. Some of the men, Davis particularly, have considerable property, and it is believed he will have no trouble to furnish a bond in almost any amount.

More Work to Do.

The grand jury has not completed its work so far as the officials of the Iron Hall are concerned. There are more of the "supremes" who are implicated. Their cases will receive attention at the next session and it will surprise no one to learn that some of the promoters of the Iron Hall are arrested for perjury. Some surprise is expressed that Supreme Accountant Walker is not on the list of indicted ones. It is claimed, however, that he was an underling and would not put him within the clutches of the law.

Indictments Looked For Elsewhere.

In Indiana embezzlement is severely punished. Convicted persons may be sent to the penitentiary for fourteen years. It is believed here that the action of the Marion county grand jury will be followed by indictments in Philadelphia and Baltimore.

BLAINE'S VISIT TO REID.

The Ex-Secretary Says He Is Out of Politics, But a Speech Is Expected.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Oct. 14.—Public interest centers about Ohio farmer, the host of Whitelaw Reid, the republican candidate for vice president. Ex-Secretary of State James G. Blaine is a guest of Mr. Reid, and his visit at this time has set all the politicians guessing as to its meaning and possible results.

On Tuesday night next the people of White Plains will hold a mass meeting, which will be addressed by Mr. Reid, Mr. Miller and Mr. Horace Porter. Mr. Blaine will also be present at this meeting and probably make a short address.

In conversation Mr. Blaine said on Thursday:

"My friends know that I am no longer a public man in any sense of the word, and any utterance from me would seem uncalled for. There is no reason why I should tell republicans to do their duty, nor to describe that duty for them, for they know it as well as I, and they will do it. On all political subjects I have only to say what I have already said in my public letters to Mr. Manly. I see nothing to add. My health has prevented me so far from taking any active part in the campaign and I have not considered the subject of entering the field as a speaker at this time."

THE VETERAN LEGION.

Officers Elected and Other Business Transacted at Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 14.—The encampment of the Union Veteran Legion devoted Wednesday's session entirely to business. The committee to which was referred Commander Palmer's address submitted a long report, in which the commander was eulogized, and all of his recommendations referred to as worthy of careful consideration. The encampment then took up the articles of the constitution, read them, section by section, and a number of unimportant changes were recommended and adopted. Officers were elected, W. H. Tucker, of Indianapolis, being chosen commander in chief.

Money and Jewels Stolen.

CHICAGO, Oct. 14.—Three hundred dollars in cash and diamonds valued at $2,400 were stolen from the chamber of Mrs. Catherine Post, 1439 Michigan avenue, Wednesday night. Mrs. Post occupies apartments at the Clinton flats, and was out for a drive when the robbery was committed.

SHORT SPECIALS.

A cyclone in northern Colorado and southern Wyoming did great damage. George Lake, an old-time counterfeiter, was arrested at Saginaw, Mich., Thursday.

Emory Weaver was drowned at Frankfort, Mich., Thursday by being knocked from a dump scow.

Sam Gees, a San Antonio Chinaman, was fatally assaulted by highlanders while passing along a public street.

James Spence was struck by a Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul train near Racine Monday and died from his injuries Thursday.

The Danville (Ill.) grand jury has indicted the Danville Fair and Trotting association for selling the privilege of running a wheel of fortune during the summer races.

Blacksmith Allard, of Levis, Que., has tempered aluminum to the hardness of steel, according to the certificate of Abbe La Flamme, of Laval university.

August Lamprecht, a coal miner, has recovered a judgment at Bloomington, Ill., for $5,000 against the McLean County Coal Company for injuries sustained in the company's mine.

John A. Brice was arrested Thursday in Baltimore. He had $5,000 worth of tickets over the Richmond & Danville and Chesapeake & Ohio railroads. They are supposed to have been stolen.

NOTRE DAME.

Father Sorin Completes a Half Century of Labor for the College.

NOTRE DAME, Ind., Oct. 14.—Thursday was founder's day at the university of Notre Dame, an annual feast devoted to venerable Father Sorin. Fifty years ago this autumn this pioneer of western education arrived on the site of Notre Dame from France. He had just five dollars in money. He established a school in a dilapidated log hut. With the help of his brothers and of the Indians the hut became a chapel, and the beginning was made of what is now the largest and most important Roman Catholic educational establishment in the United States. Father Sorin attended Thursday morning a solemn high mass celebrated by President Walsh in the beautiful church of Notre Dame, and later received several addresses of welcome. These exercises were followed by a banquet in the cathedral refectory, at which the venerable founder held the seat of honor.

A GREAT STORM.

The Recent Blizzard in Denver Likened to That Which Visited New York City in 1888.

DENVER, Col., Oct. 14.—The rain, sleet and windstorm that began Tuesday night ended Thursday morning, leaving the city in a torn up condition. The streets are littered with limbs and trunks of trees and all sorts of debris which before the storm formed portions of signs, cornices, chimneys and even steeples of churches. Had the weather been a little colder snow would have accompanied the storm and the chances are that it would have rivaled the famous New York blizzard of 1888 in destructiveness, for the wind at times blew at the rate of over 40 miles an hour.

Races for Horse Stealing.

LA PORTE, Ind., Oct. 14.—F. D. Amidon stole a $500 Clydesdale team, together with buggy and harness Tuesday night from E. B. Hannum, a wealthy farmer living near this city. Sheriff Reed captured Amidon with the outfit near Momence, Ill., Wednesday night, and returned with him on the midnight train. Amidon lives in Chicago, and formerly traveled for a wholesale wharf house.

Result of the Bourbon Races.

BOURBON, Ind., Oct. 14.—Ten thousand people saw the races Thursday. Summary: Free-for-all trot, purse $250—Dot L. first, Red Star second, Abadamed Allen, Jr. third; best time, 2:24. 2:45 class, trotting, purse $125—Alabon first, Don Artless second, Del Brown third; best time, 2:37.

Races at Vincennes.

VINCENNES, Ind., Oct. 14.—The following are the results of Thursday's races at the fair: The 2:30 pace, purse $300—Orphan boy won, Matie S. second, Richard B. third; best time, 2:23, and the best ever made on this track.

Novelty race, purse $100—Won by Bramlette and Heloise.

Death of a Student.

WABASH, Ind., Oct. 14.—Herman, the 18-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Payne, died at his home in this city Wednesday night of typhoid fever. Deceased was a member of the class of '95, DePauw university, and a popular Sigma Chi.

William Hamlin's Fate.

WABASH, Ind., Oct. 14.—Mrs. Hamlin has heard nothing from her husband, Will Hamlin, the musician, who left here September 20, and she is now fully convinced that he was burned up in the railroad wreck at Shreve, O.

Baseball.

National league games on Thursday resulted as follows: At St. Louis—Chicago, 9; St. Louis, 5. At Cincinnati—Cincinnati, 8; Pittsburgh, 6. At Baltimore—Boston, 9; Baltimore, 5. At Philadelphia—Philadelphia, 5; Brooklyn, 1.

A Hotel in Ashes.

BABYLON, L. I., Oct. 14.—The Massapequa hotel at Massapequa, about 8 miles from this place, was burned at 7 a. m. Thursday. The loss is placed at $80,000. The fire is believed to have been of incendiary origin.