Will Hoover in Bad Luck.

Yesterday Henry Walters and wife, of near Linden, drove in and put up at Osborn & Booe's stable. Will Hoover was looting there and as the men were busy he ran the wagon back under the shed. Mr. Walters and wife returned soon after leaving to get a pocketbook which had been accidentally left on the seat. It was gone and Hoover was soon under arrest charged with the theft. He had about $8 on his person but was able to account for it. The pocketbook had contained about $20 and a check for $200. This morning it was learned that Hoover had purchased a $10 suit of clothes at Tannenbaum's just before he was arrested and Walters identified the bill as one he had lost. Other circumstances pointed to Hoover's guilt and he was arrested and jailed this morning on an affidavit sworn out by Walters. He denies his guilt strenuously.

The Governor in Town.

Governor Ira J. Chase arrived in town Saturday evening for the purpose of filling two appointments to preach at the Christian church yesterday morning and last night. Upon his arrival in the city he was driven to the residence of Dr. W. T. May, whose guest he was during his stay. At both the morning and evening service the house was filled to overflowing. Many were turned away unable to gain admittance. The Governor is a fine pulpit orator and his sermons were characterized by fervor and earnestness which carried conviction to all his hearers. He was met this morning at the Robbins House by a large number of our citizens whom he greeted in his usual manner. He left on the 9:27 Big Four train for Perryville where he has an appointment to deliver a political speech to-night.

A GREAT DAY

IN THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CIRCLES OF CRAWFORDSVILLE.

The Installation of Father Dinnen Commandery of the Knights of St. John.

Yesterday was the day set apart by the Catholic Hierarchy of America for the commemoration of the discovery of America by Columbus and it was, indeed, a fitting time for the installation of the Father Dinnen Commandery of the Knights of St. John. The day was a great one, perhaps the greatest, in the history of Crawfordsville Catholicism and too much credit cannot be ascribed to those having the affair in charge.

The day was a perfect one and the same can be said of its observance in this city. At seven o'clock in the morning the celebration began by the commandery mass for the Knights. This lasted three quarters of an hour and after it the Knights repaired to breakfast. From that time on until 10:30 o'clock the time was spent in receiving the visiting delegations and commanderies which arrived on the morning trains. The local commandery in full uniform and headed by the band met all comers with a hearty welcome.

At 10:30 o'clock occurred the Installation Mass conducted by Rev. J. J. French, C. S. C., Master of Semmarrests in Notre Dame University. The church had been most beautifully decorated for the occasion by the young ladies. The vaulted ceiling was fairly spread with the National colors while about the walls hung the flags of all nations intermingled with America's beautiful emblem. The four altars were beautifully decorated with rare flowers and vines and presented an imposing and magnificent spectacle. The celebrant, Father French, was assisted in the mass by the Deacon, Rev. J. Guendling, of Lafayette, and the Sub Deacon, Rev. J. R. Dinnen. The sermon of Dr. French was a model of beauty and appropriateness and dealt with the discovery of America by Columbus and its relation to America's liberty and greatness.

After the retirement of the congregation the private installation occurred, being conducted by the State installing officer, W. W. Cheezum, whose work was of the highest order. After the private installation a most sumptuous repast was served by the lady friends of the Knights in the commandery hall and at one time 260 were seated at the tables. The entertainment was lavish and hospitable and the guests were loud in their praises.

The first thing in the afternoon was the grand parade and it was undoubtedly the finest thing of the kind ever seen in Crawfordsville. Besides the full local commandery there were three bands, the Indianapolis Father Webber Zouaves and the Father Webber cadets, the Leo cadets of Columbus, the K. of St. J. commanderies of Lafayette, Columbus and Indianapolis. The principal streets were paraded and the procession was reviewed by Governor Chase, who was the guest of Father Dinnen during the afternoon, and who with the Catholic clergy sat upon the porch of the residence. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon occurred the public installation and at this the boys of the sanctuary appeared attired in thin red cockades and white surplices, while the clergy wore the richest vestments appertaining to the church. The sermon, a masterly one, was delivered by Father Walters, of Lafayette, and upon the altar with him appeared Father J. Berg of Reynolds, Father French, Father Guendling and Father Dinnen. After the Solemn Vespers which followed the sermon came the ceremony of blessing the swords and knighting the members of the commandery. The 28 swords were laid upon the cloth before Father Walters and the members to be knighted advanced by twos to the altar. Father Walters kissed each sword and in a most impressive manner knighted the candidates. The service was grand beyond description and at its conclusion the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was rendered by Father French, and the services were over. Supper was served by the ladies in the hall and the evening passed in a most pleasant manner. The installation greatly exceed the expectations of the uninitiated and was a great affair.

The Commandery wishes to return thanks to the P. O. S. of A. for the use of their hall and other favors.

Capt. John Drury, Capt. Keober, of Indianapolis, bassos; Prof. Brandkamp and Sir Knight Euhlin, of Indianapolis, tenors; Mrs. James Moloney and Miss Murphy, of Indianapolis, sopranos; Miss Bridgetta Costello and Miss Kelly, of Indianapolis, altos, furnished the music yesterday accompanied by the Music Hall orchestra for whose service the Knights return thanks.

The following are the names of the Commandery installed: Capt. John Drury; First Lieutenant, J. P. McGillich; Second Lieutenant and Financial Secretary, John M. Brown; First Sergeant, D. G. Sullivan; Second Sergeant, P. F. Casey; President, W. C. Murphy; First Vice, John McCarty; Second Vice, C. D. Callahan; Secretary, J. A. Brennan; Treasurer, T. F. Sullivan; Michael Zellar, M. J. McCarthy, Joe Carroll, H. B. Brennan, J. E. Kennedy, Charles T. Callihan, D. E. Callihan, J. F. Callihan.

COLLEGE NOTES.

The association made $150 on Saturday's game.

Delegations from Butler and DePauw were on the grounds Saturday.

The Phi Ipsi gave a very pleasant dance in their hall Saturday evening.

A small boy was jailed Saturday afternoon for throwing potatoes at the Purdue procession of triumph.

Miss Mary Goltra entertained a number of the Wabash and Purdue Sigs and their ladies on Saturday evening by a dancing party. The affair was a most delightful one in every way.

The McKinley club will meet at 7:30 on the college campus to night and headed by the band and drum corps will march in a body to the Music Hall to hear the speech.

The Purdue boys acknowledged the superiority of the Wabash rush line work over that of last year. Had Wabash been strong behind the line a stiffer game would have resulted.

The chapel was filled with a large audience yesterday, and they were well pleased with Dr. Burroughs' address to the students. Rev. Cunningham and Rev. Inglis delivered the invocation and benediction.

There was a called meeting of the executive committee of the State Athletic Association to-day at Greencastle. John Blair represented Wabash. The Bloomington-Butler squabble will come up for settlement.

Malley, the foot ball coach, will remain until Thursday. He was very much discouraged at the result of the game and says that it is no use the eleven having a coach if they can't keep cool and retain the ball in a scrimmage.

A radical change is to be made in the personnel of the foot ball eleven and Capt. Blair and Coach Malley are carefully studying the situation, for as Wabash plays Butler at Indianapolis next Saturday Wabash is under the necessity of winning to be in the race for second place.

State Secretary Stacy met with the cabinet of the college Y. M. C. A. Saturday evening and gave them points on extending this work. We shall expect to see the boys more aggressive hereafter. The association met again Sunday morning with Mr. Stacy and in the afternoon with Dr. Burroughs and O. M. Gregg, both of whom made speeches.

The Butler-State University game broke up in a row at Bloomington Saturday. It stood Butler 10, I. U. 6 when an I. U. man made a drop kick. The umpire decided that it did not make goal but the crowd decided that it did and there came near being bloodshed right there. President Coulter and many others are willing to swear that it went over and the game stands protested. It decided in favor of I. U. the score will be I. U. 11, Butler 10.

Morton Club Meeting.

The Morton Club will meet this evening at 7 o'clock at their rooms. After the transaction of some business a procession will be formed and march to the hotel to escort the speaker to Music Hall. A full attendance is requested.

Hon. Wm. Marine.

This distinguished Republican orator will appear at Music Hall to-night. Mr. Marine has been in Crawfordsville before and those who heard him will not fail to hear him. A full house should greet him.

I. O. O. F. Notice.

There will be a called meeting of Crawfordsville Lodge No. 223 on Wednesday evening at 7:30 to make arrangements for celebrating Columbus Day. Every member is pected to be present.

R. L. STOTT, L. N. LAUGHLIN, Secretary. N. G.

P. O. S. of A. Commandery.

Every member of the P. O. S. of A. Commandery is requested at the hall this evening at 7 o'clock, for initiation work and drill. Please notice the hour, and be prompt. By order of B. F. McClamrock, Com.
