Hon. W. S. CARPENTER, Republican candidate for Congress, and Hon. M. D. WHITE will address the citizens of Montgomery County Ind., as follows:

Darlington, Monday, Oct. 24, 7:30 a.m., Linden, Tuesday, Oct. 25, 3:30 p.m., New Richmond, Tuesday, Oct. 25, 7:30 p.m., Waynesville, Wednesday, Oct. 26, 7:30 p.m., Union, Thursday, Oct. 27, 2:30 p.m., Waverly, Thursday, Oct. 27, 7:30 p.m., New Market, Friday, Oct. 28, 7:30 p.m.

The people of all parties are respectfully invited to attend these meetings and hear the issues of the campaign discussed.

DAILY JOURNAL.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 19, 1892.

Notice to P.O.S. of A. Members. All members of the P. O. S. of A. are requested to be at their hall on Friday morning by 10 o'clock, and join in the parade.

An 11-cent Social. The Y. P. S. C. E. of Center church will give a social in the church parlors Friday evening, Oct. 21. Light refreshments will be served from 7 to 10 o'clock. All young people are cordially invited to come.

New Market Party. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Goltra entertained a number of their friends last evening at a New Market party. The affair was a very pleasant one and those present were: Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Kline, W. K. Wallace, H. H. Talbot, W. E. Nicholson and W. T. Brach.

Decorate Your Places. The committee on arrangements for the Columbian Day celebration earnestly requests the citizens and business men of the city to decorate their places of business Thursday evening or Friday morning quite early. A large crowd is expected to be in the city and a royal welcome should be extended by our people.

Withdrawn. The appointment of Hon. W. S. Carpenter and Hon. M. D. White to speak at Mac on Saturday, Oct. 29, has been cancelled for the reason that Chaplain Lozier will be in Crawfordsville that day. As many persons of that vicinity have expressed a desire to see and hear the distinguished Orphan it has been deemed expedient to make this change.

An Indian Cemetery. George Britton has discovered an old Indian cemetery in his gravel pit two miles west of town. He has already taken out about a dozen skeletons and from the size of their bones it was evident that there were giants in those days. Some of the bodies were buried in a sitting position and the teeth of one were worn almost to the jaw bone proving that their owner died at a great age.

Joint Discussion. On next Tuesday night at the court house T. E. Ballard and F. W. Jacobs will discuss the following proposition: "Resolved, that under existing circumstances, the Prohibition party has a better claim to the suffrages of American citizens than the Democratic party has." Ballard affirms and Jacobs denies. The speakers are both able to handle their respective sides, and a racy debate is assured.

Farmer Shields Coming. Hon. John L. Shields, of Sullivan, Ind., the Prohibition candidate for Congress in this district, will speak at Linden Thursday night, Kirkpatrick Friday afternoon at 2:30, Darlington Friday night, and Crawfordsville at the court house Saturday night. Mr. Shields is a graduate of Wabash College, a farmer and president of the county assembly of the Farmers' Mutual Benefit Association of Sullivan county.

The Old Lady Was Deceived. Joe Cates, of the firm of Thompson & Cates, is a practical witness to the good effects of the McKinley law and a willing one. He tells a good story about a worthy old lady who lives about four miles north of town. She read the Democratic line about how things would be increased in price by the McKinley tariff and believed them as thousands of others did. She therefore laid in a large supply of tinware of all kinds, costing altogether $11 or more. It was enough to last her for years but if she had waited until after the scare was over she could have bought the same goods for $8. It is a pity this woman cannot vote and record her disapproval of the way she was hoodwinked.

A Pleasant Affair. Rev. L. Pettiford, the very acceptable and worthy pastor of the A. M. E. church, and family were very pleasantly as well as profitably surprised last night. Promptly at 10 o'clock while all was quiet at the parsonage, save the organ and the voice of Mrs. Pettiford in rendering some very excellent music, about fifty of the pastor's friends approached silently, assembled themselves about the front door and sang a beautiful and appropriate hymn. The door being opened the crowd soon filled the house and placed upon the table about $15 worth of choice provisions. Mr. Charvat, of Lincoln school, tendered the tokens of esteem to the family with a well known speech, assuring the pastor that his many friends held him in quite high esteem and are ever mindful of his comfort and pleasure. Rev. Pettiford responded in a very able and impressive manner to the tokens and assurance of respect. The grand success and profit of this surprise is due the efficient labors of Mrs. Rice and Mrs. Sarah Hale, who always make a success of anything they undertake in this line. This surprise is possibly without a parallel among the colored people of this place. X.

MARRIAGE LICENSES. Jas. W. Honecher and Bertha E. Neighbors. John W. Cuppy and Martha M. Wiley.

To vote a straight Republican ticket within the square surrounding the eagle device, and nowhere else. If you wish to vote a mixed ticket, stamp in front of the individual names you wish to vote for, and nowhere else.

"Eighteen, All Drafted." Hon. Mortimer Nye, the Democratic candidate for Lieutenant-Governor who speaks here to-morrow night, is a very genial gentleman and a most entertaining story teller. He enjoys telling a story even at his own expense as much as at the expense of some one else. Being an advanced Mason he usually attends the meetings of the grand bodies, and generally is one of a party of congenial spirits who spend much of the time in a corner by themselves exchanging anecdotes and stories. One of his Masonic brethren relates the story that Nye told on himself at one of these meetings. He said the Democrats during one campaign held a meeting and marked out a line of policy they should pursue. They agreed that as Republicans had claimed the monopoly of furnishing all the soldiers to put down the rebellion that the tables should be turned and that the Democrats should make the same claim. Accordingly he was booked for a speech in one corner of Laporte county. He got along smoothly until he reached that part of his speech. "And now," said he, "the Republicans have been claiming all the glory for putting down the rebellion. They say they furnished all or nearly all the soldiers. Now I am prepared to say that this is not true. Every neighborhood in every Northern State furnished its full quota of soldiers and a majority of them were Democrats. I have no doubt that what I have stated is true of this neighborhood—that a majority of those who went to the war belonged to the glorious old Democratic party." He then appealed for some one to verify his statements. Just then arose a lantern jawed, snaggly toothed, squeaky voiced fellow in the back part of the house, "Yes sir, there were eighteen Democrats went from this neighborhood—all drafted." Mr. Nye says this completely knocked all the wind out of that speech and the Democratic line of tactics was immediately changed.

A Morning Marriage.

This morning at 10:45, Wm. A. David son and Miss Ira Gunkel were united in marriage by Rev. G. W. Switzer at the residence of the bride's parents, near Whitesville, after which an elegant dinner was served. Only the immediate relatives of both families were present among which were J. M. Waugh and wife and Abraham Huff, of this city. Mrs. Isa Jones, Misses Alma Kashner and Lida McNeely, of Darlington. The bride, a pretty blonde, was handsomely attired in a mode-colored cloth traveling dress with trimmings of green velvet and carried an exquisite bunch of bride's roses. The groom was in the usual black. Mrs. Davidson is the third daughter of C. G. Gunkel and wife, and has been a popular young teacher. She has many beautiful traits of character, which have made her popular in a large circle of friends. The groom is the only son of J. N. Davidson and wife, and is the brother of Mrs. J. M. Waugh. He is a young man of sterling integrity and well fitted to care for the charming bride he has won. He is engaged in farming and stock raising with his father and will reside at Smith Farm. They left for Chicago on the noon train, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Waugh. We extend hearty congratulations.

Mulberry Ohewd Up.

Unfortunately for Col. Mulberry Sellar, candidate for the Senate, he had a date to speak at Bainbridge Monday evening and so did Capt. Worrell, candidate for Congress for the fifth district. Mr. Worrell is a statistician and ohewd Mr. Sellar up, whiskers and all as the following from the Indianapolis Journal shows:

Mr. Seller mounted his tariff hobby, as usual, having served notice on his friends that he would seek an election to the Senate on that issue, and that alone. Capt. Worrell proved himself more than a match for the would be Senator. His array of facts and figures touching the operations of the McKinley bill was a complete refutation of the sophistries advanced by the free-trader. He also ventilated the Democratic legislative record, to the utter discomfiture of Mr. Seller, who could make no defense in his reply.

Some Corrections.

An omission was made yesterday in the program for Columbian Day. J. S. Zook, county superintendent of schools, should have appeared as master of ceremonies at the speaker's stand.

Harry Hammond's name was unintentionally omitted from the list of sides to represent the colored schools. Instead of the uniformed and ununiformed members of the same bodies being separated as published they will form together for the parade, the ununiformed of each body taking their places on the left of the uniformed.

Turned Him Loose.

The habeas corpus case of Harry Spatz, the New Richmond incendiary, was tried this morning before Judge Harney and Spatz was released. Hanna & Hanna appeared for Spatz and got him out of jail because the prosecutor had no witnesses at hand to show cause why Spatz should not be turned loose.

For a New Bell.

After prayer meeting at Center church this evening there will be a conference on the subject of purchasing a new bell for the church. A full attendance is desired as interesting information will then be given.

Chaplain Lozier.

A Million Friends.

A friend in need is a friend indeed, and no less true in the case of Harry Spatz, the New Richmond incendiary, who was tried this morning before Judge Harney and Spatz was released. Hanna & Hanna appeared for Spatz and got him out of jail because the prosecutor had no witnesses at hand to show cause why Spatz should not be turned loose. The second installment of taxes must be paid before the first Monday in November, in about three weeks
