

DAILY JOURNAL.

THE JOURNAL COMPANY,
T. H. B. MCCAIN, President.
J. A. GREENE, Secretary.
A. A. MCCAIN, Treasurer.

THURSDAY, NOV. 3, 1892.

This Date in History—Nov. 3, 1892—Columbus, still confident of reaching the mainland of Asia and the city of the great Khan, also that Cuba was Cipango and gold abundant there, turned westward and passed among a group of small islands, which he called the West Indies, and supposed to be the present Marquesas Islands.

1861—Ignatius Donnelly, sensational writer and author of many novel theories in literature, science and civil government, born in Philadelphia, now "running" Weaver in Minnesota.

1861—Allan Cameron, destined to reduce postage from three cents to two throughout Canada and to the States. The Grand hotel at San Francisco was burned.

1861—Great frauds discovered in the management of the Maverick National bank, Boston, and the officers arrested.

Facts to be Remembered.

The Republican party, by its representatives in Congress, removed the tariff from sugar.

THE DEMOCRATS IN CONGRESS VOTED UNANIMOUSLY AGAINST REPEALING THE TARIFF ON SUGAR.

The Mills tariff bill which the Democrats formulated and passed through the House PUA A TARIFF OF 3½ CENTS PER POUND ON SUGAR.

This was in accordance with the recommendation of Mr. Cleveland's Secretary of the Treasury, who said, in his official Report of 1886: "Our own sugar crop is so very small a part of the total amount of sugar we consume that sugar ranks next to coffee and tea in importance, for tariff taxation, on the ground that its consumption is universal; that the tax is easily and cheaply collected, that the increase price paid by the consumer is an unconsidered trifle," etc.

The "unconsidered trifles" of a tax on sugar as Mr. Mills' bill says in the next paragraph, has cost us nearly fifty-two millions of dollars yearly; and this is mostly paid by the poor people for NINETY-NINE HUNDREDTHS OF THOSE WHO USE SUGAR ARE POOR.

President Cleveland sent this recommendation to his Secretary of the Treasury.

Henry Watterson, who did more than all others to secure the adoption of the free trade plank in the Chicago Democratic platform said, in his paper of Aug. 6th, 1892: "WE WILL RE-ESTABLISH THE TARIFF SUITABLE TO THE NEEDS OF THE COUNTRY ANNUALLY AT THE RATE OF 3½ CENTS."

Let every poor man ponder these facts and if he wants to be taxed just as much as the rich man, let him vote for Brookshire, and Mr. Watterson's "revenue tariff on sugar."

But if he wants sugar to remain free, let him vote the Republican ticket.

NATIONAL.
For President,
BENJAMIN HARRISON, of Indiana.

For Vice-President,
WHITEHORN BROWN, of New York.

STATE.
For Governor,
IRVING J. CHASE.

For Lieutenant-Governor,
THEODORE SHOCKNEY.

For Secretary of State,
CHARLES E. COOPER.

For Auditor of State,
JOHN W. COONS.

Treasurer of State,
F. J. SCHOLZ.

For Attorney General,
J. H. MURRAY.

For Supreme Court Reporter,
GEORGE P. HAYWOOD.

For Superintendent of Public Instruction,
JAMES H. HENRY.

For State Statistician,
SIMON C. THOMPSON.

For Auditor of State,
JOHN D. MILLER.

Third District—BYRON K. ELLIOTT.

Fifth District—ROBERT W. McBRIDE.

For Appellate Judges.

First District—J. C. BAKER.

Second "—JAMES W. BLACK.

Fourth "—EDGAR CRUMPACKER.

For Congress,
WINDFIELD S. CARPENTER.

Joint Senator,
THOMAS J. DELL.

For Joint Representative,
T. T. MOORE.

COUNTY.
For Prosecuting Attorney,
WILLIAM H. REEVES.

For Representative,
NATHAN B. COOPER.

For Clerk,
HENRY B. HULETT.

For Treasurer,
JAMES O. MCKORMICK.

For Auditor,
THOMAS J. MUNHAL.

For Sheriff,
CHARLES E. DAVIS.

For Coroner,
DR. RICHARD F. KING.

For Sheriff,
WILLIAM F. SHARP.

For Assessor,
CHARLES W. ELMORE.

For Commissioner, 1st Dist.,
JOHN REED.

For Commissioner, 3d Dist.,
ALBERT H. HORBAKER.

The way to get out the full Republican vote is to get it out.

"A TARIFF for revenue only" means an increase from two to four cents in the price of every pound of sugar.

No wild cat, red-dog bank currency. The people will tie an American tin can to the tail of the Democrat wildcat on election day.

It is a significant fact that the Cincinnati Enquirer and the New York World both advise Democrats not to bet on the election.

The Republican party is going to win. This is as certain as the 8th of November will come. All that it requires now is unceasing work.

EX-SENATOR EVERTS states the position of the Democrats on the currency question in a very apt and striking way when he says that "they hold it to be unconstitutional to have good money for the whole country, but constitutional to have bad money for every State in the Union."

GROVER CLEVELAND evidently sees the handwriting on the wall. His last speech is nothing but one long, loud wail. To read his speech one would think that the whole country is but a seething mass of corruption and that the liberties of the people are to be bought and sold for a price. What a beautiful commentary on the Democratic voters of the country! According to Mr. Cleveland they are all for sale! And yet this same Grover Cleveland contributed to the Democratic Tammany Hall fund, the most corrupt political organization on earth, the sum of $10,000, with which to debauch voters. After getting down on his belly and crawling to Tammany Hall Mr. Cleveland is not the man to prate of political honesty.

We have tried, in vain so far, to get some Democratic speaker to explain upon what principle or theory the Democratic party favors a tariff of 2½ cents on sugar and wants to put it on the free list. As Mr. Lamb and Mr. McKenzie are to speak here to-morrow, perhaps they will furnish the desired information. Mr. Brookshire has persistently refused to tackle the subject.

Let no Republican voter be beguiled into a trade on any portion of the ticket. Propositions of this kind have been made but it should be borne in mind that the Democrat proposing it does not intend to stick to his bargain, as he well knows that there will be no means of detecting his bad faith. Make no unlikely alliances with the enemy.

BEWARE of the political rookery just now. The Indianapolis Sentinel fills its columns daily of this kind of stuff. And what is the most indolent asks intelligent people to believe it all. Its backwoods readers maygulp it down but with sensible men of all parties it is extremely disgusting.

The entire Republican ticket in this country is worthy of support. Every man is possessed with the qualifications to perform the duties of the office to which he aspires. Vote the ticket and vote it straight by stamping but once in the square surrounding the eagle.

Our efforts of the Democrats to get away from the wild-cat currency plank of the Chicago platform are ludicrous. But they can't do it; the platform is made and the little organs can't make it.

REPUBLICANS have ample grounds for encouragement in the reports that come from every part of the country. Effort and vigilance are needed until election day has passed and victory will be ours.

From the way some Democrats are kicking about Federal supervisors at the election one would infer they were afraid of being overtaken in their dirty work.

SENATOR HILL must be more than ever convinced now that the "McKinley" law has converted every workshop in the country into a Republican headquarters.

Now is the time for every Republican to work.

NEW ROSS.

Mrs. Ed Mount is visiting in Lebanon.

N. P. Harris, of Crawfordsville, was here Sunday.

J. L. Winters, of Louisville, Ky., was here Monday.

Miss Fannie Watson, of Orth, was here Saturday.

Isaac Inlow has been quite sick but is now able to be out again.

Rev. P. J. Pickett, of Crawfordsville, presented here Friday night.

Miss Louise Brown was the guest of George Sanford Wednesday.

T. A. Adkins was called to Marion Wednesday by the death of his mother.

The New Ross Comedy will hold the boards here Saturday evening in "Simple Silas."

Hallowe'en was duly celebrated here. Hotspots were adorned with boxes and buggies and things scattered around quite promiscuously.

Rev. W. S. McCallum, of Irvington, preached at the Christian church Sunday. Seven additions.

Aubrey Bowers re-opened school at Greenwood after a three weeks' vacation on account of diphtheria.

Miss Lucy Barnes and Mann Routh were married at the home of the bride, near Shannondale, Thursday night.

M. E. Foley of Bristle Ridge, spoke here Wednesday evening. The drum corps was here and pranced around in the mud to quite a depth but, in vain, they were not in it, and Ben will be.

LONGVIEW.

Mrs. Chesteen is quite sick.

The Indian cemetery is still visited. Miss Lizzie Remley and nephew, Edward Remley, are visiting at Logansport.

Mrs. George Britton's niece, Miss Robinson, has returned to her home in Mississ.

Body Schwank has bought a coon dog for which he paid $5. He caught two coons and a possum within two hours after he bought it.

Since the rain Mr. Darter will finish digging his potatoes. He averages about 150 bushels a day and thinks he will have 2,000 bushels.

The suspension foot bridge across Sugar Creek is completed. It is about 200 feet long and 25 feet from the water. It is made of wires stretched from one side to the other and kept from swinging by wires fastened to the center of the bridge to the trees.

If you want a first class new sewing machine for twenty dollars call on Z. S. Wheeler, 215 east Main street.

HOOSIER HAPPENINGS.

Electric Flashes from Various Portions of Indiana.

BRAZIL, Ind., Nov. 3.—Mrs. Sarah Shepard, living a few miles southwest of this city, met with a horrible death Tuesday afternoon. She was 104 years old and lived with two of her stepsons on a farm. It was the custom of the boys to leave the old lady at the house alone during the day while they worked on the farm. Tuesday evening they were attracted to the house by the old lady's screams, when they found her lying on the floor in a nude condition, her clothing having burned from her body. She was terribly burned and died in a few hours. She was unconscious when found and was unable to tell how the accident occurred. It is thought her clothing was ignited by a spark from her pipe. Mrs. Shepard was the oldest woman in the state and enjoyed good health.

BURNT TO DEATH.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., Nov. 3.—A severe gale, accompanied by heavy rains, passed over the city Tuesday night, doing great damage to residences. The storm was fiercest on the river. While the Louisville and Madison packet Kanawha was rounding at this port to land the steamer was uncontrollable, due to the high wind blowing at the time, and was forced broadside against the steamer Sunshine. The Kanawha was well laden with passengers and a panic followed. The larboard side of the boat fore and aft was badly damaged, bulk rails and stanchions broken and a portion of the boiler deck torn away. The Kanawha was unable to proceed to Louisville.

Damage by a Gale at Jeffersonville.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 3.—Judge Brown, of the circuit court, Wednesday decided that the will of the late James H. Rice, the democratic politician, had not been properly probated, and that the clerk exceeded his authority by admitting the instrument to probate outside of open court. This was a victory for the contestants, and formal objections will be offered to admitting the will to probate. It is charged that the signature to the will is not that of the deceased, and also that he was suddenly influenced by his sister, Mrs. Ryan, in making the will by which he disinherited his other sisters.

Ruling in the Rice Will Case.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 3.—Judge Brown, of the circuit court, Wednesday decided that the will of the late James H. Rice, the democratic politician, had not been properly probated, and that the clerk exceeded his authority by admitting the instrument to probate outside of open court.

MISSING.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 3.—The Indianapolis Journal, the young woman who created a scene at St. Joseph cathedral by declaring that the "Lord, ruler of the universe," had desired her to become the wife of Rev. Father Gavins, ended abruptly. The defense which had been begun by her relatives was withdrawn and the commissioners declared her insane.

MISS Griffin Declared Insane.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 3.—The insanity proceedings against Miss Anna Griffin, the young woman who created a scene at St. Joseph cathedral by declaring that the "Lord, ruler of the universe," had desired her to become the wife of Rev. Father Gavins, ended abruptly. The defense which had been begun by her relatives was withdrawn and the commissioners declared her insane.

MISSING.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 3.—The Indianapolis Journal, the young woman who created a scene at St. Joseph cathedral by declaring that the "Lord, ruler of the universe," had desired her to become the wife of Rev. Father Gavins, ended abruptly. The defense which had been begun by her relatives was withdrawn and the commissioners declared her insane.

MISSING.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 3.—The Indianapolis Journal, the young woman who created a scene at St. Joseph cathedral by declaring that the "Lord, ruler of the universe," had desired her to become the wife of Rev. Father Gavins, ended abruptly. The defense which had been begun by her relatives was withdrawn and the commissioners declared her insane.

MISSING.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 3.—The Indianapolis Journal, the young woman who created a scene at St. Joseph cathedral by declaring that the "Lord, ruler of the universe," had desired her to become the wife of Rev. Father Gavins, ended abruptly. The defense which had been begun by her relatives was withdrawn and the commissioners declared her insane.

MISSING.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 3.—The Indianapolis Journal, the young woman who created a scene at St. Joseph cathedral by declaring that the "Lord, ruler of the universe," had desired her to become the wife of Rev. Father Gavins, ended abruptly. The defense which had been begun by her relatives was withdrawn and the commissioners declared her insane.

MISSING.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 3.—The Indianapolis Journal, the young woman who created a scene at St. Joseph cathedral by declaring that the "Lord, ruler of the universe," had desired her to become the wife of Rev. Father Gavins, ended abruptly. The defense which had been begun by her relatives was withdrawn and the commissioners declared her insane.

MISSING.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 3.—The Indianapolis Journal, the young woman who created a scene at St. Joseph cathedral by declaring that the "Lord, ruler of the universe," had desired her to become the wife of Rev. Father Gavins, ended abruptly. The defense which had been begun by her relatives was withdrawn and the commissioners declared her insane.

MISSING.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 3.—The Indianapolis Journal, the young woman who created a scene at St. Joseph cathedral by declaring that the "Lord, ruler of the universe," had desired her to become the wife of Rev. Father Gavins, ended abruptly. The defense which had been begun by her relatives was withdrawn and the commissioners declared her insane.

MISSING.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 3.—The Indianapolis Journal, the young woman who created a scene at St. Joseph cathedral by declaring that the "Lord, ruler of the universe," had desired her to become the wife of Rev. Father Gavins, ended abruptly. The defense which had been begun by her relatives was withdrawn and the commissioners declared her insane.

MISSING.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 3.—The Indianapolis Journal, the young woman who created a scene at St. Joseph cathedral by declaring that the "Lord, ruler of the universe," had desired her to become the wife of Rev. Father Gavins, ended abruptly. The defense which had been begun by her relatives was withdrawn and the commissioners declared her insane.

MISSING.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 3.—The Indianapolis Journal, the young woman who created a scene at St. Joseph cathedral by declaring that the "Lord, ruler of the universe," had desired her to become the wife of Rev. Father Gavins, ended abruptly. The defense which had been begun by her relatives was withdrawn and the commissioners declared her insane.