CHILDREN'S SUITS

The Jersey Suits for the little people have arrived, and are beauties. We can please you in our line of Children's Clothing, because we have all the patterns. Elegant double breasted, Scotch, the very latest styles. Fine Worsteds, and in fact every kind at present on the market.

Spring is here and your little boy must have a new suit. Why not see our stock? If you will call and let us show you, and we cannot please you we will not complain. But if you buy without seeing our line, and afterward see your neighbor's child dressed so much nicer, at the same price, you will complain for not taking our advice. All we ask is for you to try us, and we will be satisfied with the result.

Every Department in our store is now laden with the choicest of goods, and we expect to sell them and have made our prices accordingly. Remember the earlier you call the greater assortment you will find.

NEWS FROM NEW ROSS.

A Fire, a Fight, a Party and a Reception Make Life Interesting.
Special to The Journal.
New Ross, Mar. 31. —Yesterday evening at 2 o'clock the farm house of Milton Roberts burned to the ground with all its contents. The origin of the fire is not exactly known. Mrs. Roberts went away from home just after noon and left the small boy at home. He states that he built up a big fire in the stove and left. In the course of an hour flames and smoke were seen pouring from the windows and before any one could come to rescue any goods, the roof fell in. The loss is not exactly known.

JACKSONS IN TOWN.

Last night the Jackson boys, who live near Advance, came here gloriously drunk. They proceeded to the livery barn and whipped Josh Wright. Then they went up in town and flourished revolvers and pandemonium reigned. McGuffin attempted to arrest them but he backed down when a gun was thrust in his face. He deputized Dock Bobb and was presented with a revolver which he shoved clear through his pocket. Of course he could not use it. Ed Ryan attempted to get the Jacksons out of town but a drawn ax compelled him to let the job off. McGuffin was backed by eighteen men, but failed to get his men. They departed about 9 o'clock for Advance.

A PLEASANT PARTY.

Last night quite a number of friends called upon Miss Eva Shepard. The evening was passed in an enjoyable way, various party games were indulged in till a late hour, when all went home feeling that they had spent a most pleasant evening. Those present were: Misses Dora and Ada Beck, Elsie Runk, Nora Shepard, Nell Miller, and Messrs. Marion Loop, C. L. Harris, Otto Vanhorn, Ambrey Bowers and A. W. Johnson.

I. O. O. F. SURPRISE.

Last night the town was full of strangers and they were a jovial set of fellows. The majority of them came from Ladoga and they marched up to the lodge. Altogether there were 100 visitors and will be a long remembered occasion. All left for their homes at a late hour and report a most enjoyable time.

RED MEN RECEIVE.

A Grand Pow-Wow and Corn Feast in Camp Last Evening.
The braves of Seneca Tribe, L. O. R. M., gave a delightful pow-wow to their squaw friends last evening at their camp in the Orsban block. The affair was a thoroughly enjoyable one from every standpoint and there were no less than 139 persons sat down to an excellent spread provided by the caterers. After refreshments the remainder of the evening was passed in various amusements, quite a number indulging in the pleasures of the dance, which, however, was anything but a war dance. Before the time arrives for another pow-wow and feast the tribe will be located in its new camp on Green street, where the accommodations will be of the finest.

The Amiable Anabals.

Yesterday evening Mrs. Charley Anabel had her lord and master arrested for the double barreled offense of assault and intoxication. The trial of the worthy creature is in progress this afternoon in the Mayor's court. It appears that Mr. and Mrs. Anabel reside and on Friday are at home to their friends in a luxuriously appointed flat "over beyond" the marble conia and sparkling fountains appertaining to the Motion station which rises from the plain like the temple at Delphi. Although surrounded with all the heart could desire from a shot gun to a capacious growler can, Mr. and Mrs. Anabel do not live in peace and unity. Mrs. Anabel asserted before the Mayor that Charley frequently administered slaps on her sunny head with a bed slat, a bung driver or any other little toy which might be at hand. She usually retaliate with her claws, as she modestly admitted, and no one doubted her word when the bruised and battered Charley was brought before the throne. Charley looked as though he had been in the prize ring with a prize fighter. If his appearance is an evidence of Mrs. Anabel's usual handiwork she does not need the protection of the law.

A Decided Penchant For Meat.

It appears that J. F. Booe, arrested for stealing meat at the farm of F. M. Dice, is an old hand at the business. J. L. Cooper and Pleasant Williams, of Hillsboro, were in the city last evening on the lookout for meat which had been stolen from them on Sunday night. Mrs. Booe admitted that her newly made husband arrived home from Hillsboro on the night in question with meat answering the description of that stolen. He also brought meat from Hillsboro about two weeks ago on the night when the smoke house of Mr. Wilson, of that place, was robbed. Messrs. Cooper and Williams found some of their lost pork in the house of Mrs. Lydia Hampton, to whom Booe had sold it at a ridiculously low price. Booe appears to have been an old hand at the business and his capture by the police was quite a little strike.

And He's Right, Too.

Manager Davis in a recent conversation gave vent to his indignation, at what he terms "the neck" of the fly-by-night theatricals, which try to secure time at his house, and he shook his head as he said "No more for me, I'm tired; I'll know they're right or they don't get in; this town is good enough for the best only." He certainly has a fine list of attractions booked, some above the average; he feels highly elated at securing the great New York success, "She Couldn't Marry Three," which will appear here for one night during the next few weeks. — Press Notice.

Eight Years Old.

Louis Miller was eight years old yesterday and in order to mark it distinctly from ordinary days, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Miller, arranged a party in his honor. About fifty youngsters of both sexes were entertained from two to six o'clock and a gay time they had. Frank Ruffner, the Tinkerville ventriloquist, was present and gave numerous wonderful exhibitions. Refreshments were served and altogether it was a great occasion in childish society.

Ingomar.

The beautiful play "Ingomar," which occurs in "Ingomar," the play to be presented by Mr. Charles B. Hanford and his excellent company on their return engagement at the Music Hall Thursday evening, April 6, discloses more clearly the theme and purpose of this beautiful play of Love and Honor than could be expressed in a column about the plot.

Peanut Party.

Miss Mabel Burroughs entertained quite a party of young friends last evening at a peanut party. The entertainment was both unique and enjoyable and all present were most hospitably entertained. The invitations were pretty conceits being enclosed in peanut shells upon which were the names of those to whom they were addressed.

The Y. M. C. A. Juniors.

The Y. M. C. A. Juniors are working hard to prepare for their exhibition drill which will occur April 20. The proceeds will go toward the purchase of a big tent in which the boys will go camping next June. The life of the Y. M. C. A. is a merry one.

Frank Hallowell and daughter will occupy the property of J. J. Insley on Morgan street.

The H. and M. club are required to meet at the law office of Kennedy & Kennedy to-morrow evening at 5:15.

Dr. G. S. Burroughs is in Lafayette attending a meeting of the Northern Indiana Teachers' Association, before which he delivers an address.

Walter Hulet and his friends are rejoicing over the fact that Cleveland has declared that he will smash all slates. Judge Jump's name was on a slate.

Homor Patterson, a young man well known in this city and county and very well connected here, has been arrested at Lebanon for chicken stealing. He was a deacon in the church.

Miss Harriet Cleland entertained a small party of friends yesterday afternoon in honor of Miss Messick, of Memphis, Tenn., and Miss Dice, of Crawfordsville. — Indianapolis Journal.

Will S. Guthrie, who has been spending the past eight months in the west, returned to Lebanon Sunday afternoon looking well and expressing himself as well pleased with the western country. Most of the time he was away he spent in and about Spokane Falls, Washington. He will remain at home about two weeks. — Lebanon Patriot.

Mr. and Mrs. Patterson, of Crawfordsville, will arrive this evening to visit their sister, Mrs. W. B. Slutz, for a few days. Captain Lamb, formerly of this city, now of Crawfordsville, was in the city to-day. The Captain has received his commission and ordered to report for duty immediately at the World's Fair. He will be in command of a company of the Columbian Guards. The hours of service will be six hours on and six hours off in every twenty-four, and for such services he will receive a captain's pay. He will leave for there to-night. — Frankfort News.

A. K. Rush is very sick.
Our school will close April 7.
S. S. Heath is happy once more. It's a girl.

Mrs. Mollie Myers' house is ready for plastering.

George Myers is said to be the pretty man of our township.

Tim Ham and family have moved into the property of A. A. Walters.

Miss Edith Gwin, of Crawfordsville, is visiting friends here this week.

Will Grimes and family have moved to the property of Miss Edna Campbell.

Misses Ida Ammerman and Minnie Strong are visiting friends and relatives.

Samuel Heath has purchased a steel wind pump and has erected it at his residence.

Uncle George Stonebraker had another stroke of paralysis but is now convalescent.

E. A. McSpadden came home sick last Saturday from Crawfordsville but will return soon.

There will be service at the M. E. church next Sunday and Sunday night by Rev. Grimes.

Their will be an Easter supper at the Union church Saturday evening. Everybody invited.

J. P. Wirt & Co. have put out their card that they will buy all kinds of produce for the highest price.

Tom Little, the brave man, woke up last Sunday night and imagined that he saw a man looking in his window, and got very badly scared. Tom woke his wife after insisting some time. They dressed and went out the back way and stole across the town to where his father-in-law lives. There they stayed the rest of the night. The boys are complimenting Tom very much on his bravery.

GRAVELLY RUN.

S. J. Middleton, of Chicago, paid his uncle, Jos. Johnson, a flying visit last week.

Prof. Moore and family, of Thorn-ton, have been the guests of friends and relatives here.

Miss Bertha Hadley and J. M. Hadley were the guest of Miss Mabel Peebles last Thursday evening.

Ed Cadwallader and granddaughter, Ima Pritchard, of Darlington, were at Pleasant Butler's Sunday.

Mrs. Mahlon Butler has been quite sick for two weeks. Mrs. Sarah A. Daugherty, of Darlington, has been attending her for the past week.

Cue noted stockman, W. D. Peebles, is doing a good business this spring in cattle. Also our chicken fancier, F. S. Quigg, is kept busy filling orders in his line of business.

Just now is the time of year the wide awake, industrious farmer does a great deal of the year's repairing. We notice new fences, buildings and a general renovation seems to be taking place. Let the good work go on.

Our church will not engage in any festivities on Easter, but instead will attend the entertainment to be given at the Garfield church in the evening. An excellent programme has been prepared, we hear, and good music will be one of the features of the evening. With Prof. Imel as chorister, Mrs. Elmer Pickard as organist, and a choir of trained voices, the musical part is destined to be a success. Let everyone attend that can, remembering that Easter is a most sacred day, and yet 'tis one that calls forth rejoicing and with feeling we join the chorists of the mighty throng in heralding the glad anthem, "He is risen."

DIES A VERY OLD MAN.

We often hear of men reaching their nineties, but very seldom is the age of one hundred gained. A careful estimate on reliable authority indicates that the number reaching ninety would be able to live one hundred years had they in middle age used the Los Angeles Raisin Cured Prune Laxative to give vitality to the digestive organs and keep the bowels open. It is purely vegetable. Sold by Moffett & Morgan, druggists, and recommended by all as the best family medicine.

Ladies, attend the Grand Millinery Opening on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. Open evenings also.

Prizes For Advertising Ideas.
(From Boston Daily Journal.)

A bicycle manufacturer recently offered 24 prizes for the best suggestions for an advertisement. There were 25,000 ideas offered in the contest, and the fourth prize in this large field of contestants was taken by Mr. John Sturgis, connected with the well known advertising house of Pettigill & Co., Boston. Mr. Sturgis is an artist of skill and efficiency and fertile in ideas and suggestions.

"Give Us A Lift."

"Do send down something to help us." "Those little Pleasant Pellets, you sent before were just what we wanted." "They helped right where we were weakest." "Don't send anything else!"
Nature, abused and neglected, does her best to overcome exhaustion and ward off threatening disease, but sometimes calls for help and knows just what she's about. The system takes kindly to the mild, wholesome influence of Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, and often their timely assistance corrects evils which would soon lead to serious results. With the first signal of distress nature will thank you for remembering her request. Therefore if languid, easily tired, bad taste in mouth, bowels irregular or constipated, give nature a lift by taking Dr. Pierce's Pellets. Best Liver Pill made.
