The business of distributing offices tires Cleveland, but he endures it better than many of the office seekers.

A Missouri chess-player has secured an office, but the poker-players are still "eating the air," as Hamlet says.

Mr. BAYARD is the only one of the members of Cleveland's former Cabinet who has been endorsed by the present Administration.

Mr. WHITNEY declares that he will not accept any office from Cleveland, which indicates that he is a Democrat of the eccentric variety.

The Government goes on buying silver, and silver goes on falling the same as if no such effort was being made to bolster it up.

Mr. MAXWELL is doing fairly well as a decapitator of Republican fourth class postmasters, but he has not yet struck the pace that endeared Stevenson to the Democratic heart.

That extra session will have a bigger fight on silver than on the tariff. A large majority of the Democrats of the country think free silver is more necessary than free trade.

It turns out that Mr. Rieley has two qualifications for office under the present administration, instead of one. That is to say, he is not only the brother-in-law of Senator Voorhees, but he was also a member of the order of the Golden Circle during the war.

The reports of the Mugwump organs that Cleveland and his party in the Senate are in agreement on the silver question must mean that Cleveland has surrendered to the silver element. The composition of the Senate's Finance Committee shows that the bulk of the Democracy in the "upper branch" cling to the free-coinage idiosyncrasy.

That naval review in American waters next month will be a grand spectacle.
Thirty foreign vessels, the best that the leading nations of the Old World can muster, and fourteen American vessels will take part in it. Moreover, our ships will be fully the equal in strength, speed and destructive power, of the finest vessels in the review or elsewhere, which fly any foreign flag. The United States has grown to be something of a naval power herself in the past ten years.

HEROIC LIFEBOATMEN.

An Instance of Rare Courage and Determination.

The little fishing port of Peel, on the west coast of the Isle of Man, looks out on the Irish sea. A rocky headland, called Conary head, juts out south of the harbor, while in front is a rugged island rock on which stand the ruins of Peel castle. It is a perilous place for ships, and a splendid place for the display of the heroism of the Manx-men.

One afternoon in October, 1889, a Norwegian ship, in a fearful tempest, was drifting upon Conary head. All Peel was down at the beach watching her. The lifeboat was got out, and there were so many volunteers that the harbor-master had no difficulty in selecting a crew.

The Norwegian had lost her masts, and the spars were floating around, that she was dangerous to approach; but the lifeboat reached her.

"How many of you?" cried out the coxswain to the Norwegian captain.

"Twenty-two."

The coxswain counted them as they hung on the ship's side, and said:

"I only see twenty-one; not a man shall leave this ship until you bring the odd one on deck."

The odd one, a disabled man, had been left below to his fate. He was brought up, and all were taken aboard the lifeboat and safely landed on the beach. The Norwegian government struck medals for the lifeboatmen, and sent them to the governor of the island for distribution.

Deafness Cannot be Cured.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever.
Nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

Women Wanted!

Between the ages of fifteen and forty-five. Must have pale, sallow complexion, no appetites, and be hardly able to get about. All answers to this description will please apply for a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription; take it regularly, according to directions, and then note the general improved condition. But a thorough course of self-treatment with this valuable remedy, the extreme cases of nervous prostration and debility peculiar to women, are radically cured. A written guarantee to this end accompanies every bottle.

Ex-Gov. Chase Speaks.

Messrs. RAMEY & CO., Chicago, Gentls.
Dear Sirs:—I wish to recommend your catarrh cure with medicine to all afflicted with catarrh of throat, trachea, or lungs, as I, being out of health, found such immediate relief that I now cure most follow and I will not travel without it. Respectfully yours, W. J. CHASE,

free treatment is given. All invited. 5-29

THE STATE AT LARGE.

Interesting Information from Towns in Indiana.

Eleven Years Old and a Burglar.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 3.—Lyle Justus, 11 years old, living on Elizabeth avenue, was arrested Saturday on a charge of burglary, and made a confession which shows an unprecedented record of crime in one so young. According to his story he began a career of burglary one year ago and organized a band which included three others older than himself. For awhile his depradations were confined to the neighborhood of his home, but they soon extended to all parts of the city.
The older members would raise him on their shoulders and he would enter the houses through the transoms over the door and then let his confederates in. He gave the names of seventeen places he had robbed and conducted the police to the place where the plunder was kept. The stolen goods included watches, jewelry, silverware, bric-a-brac, books, clothing and other articles, and its value is estimated at from $2,000 to $3,000. Justus gave the names of his confederates and they will be arrested.

Will Demand an Early Decision.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 3.—Attorneys for the state and for the railroad companies left for Washington for the purpose of asking the United States supreme court to advance the appealed cases, involving the constitutionality of the new tax law, upon the docket, that a decision may be reached before the third Monday in April. At that time the first installment of taxes under the assessment of 1892 falls due and both the state and the companies are anxious to have the cases decided before that time. A total of $1,000,000 in taxes is now due from the railroads and half that amount will fall due on the third Monday in April. Unless a decision is given the state will again attempt to collect the taxes by levying on the property of the companies.

Riot Case Nearing the Jury.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., April 3.—Saturday morning Judge Langdon permitted the evidence in the riot case, involving the letter of Rudolph, printed in the Patriotic American of Detroit, and giving an account of the riot, to be read to the jury. This closed up the evidence and the argument began. George J. Haywood opening for the prosecution. The trial of Peter Clark, another of the men indicted, was set for April 10. Clark asked for a change of venue, but it was refused by the court.

Furniture Trust in Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 3.—The three heaviest manufacturers of office furniture in Indianapolis, comprising the Indianapolis cabinet works, the D.
E. Stone Furniture company and Herman Laute, have entered into a combined trust for the control of output and prices.
It is expected that prices will be advanced to some extent. The three firms entering into the agreement employ about 1,000 men and have a large export trade.

An Astonishing Gastronomic Feast.

WILAMAC, Ind., April 3.—Charles Delano won a $25 wager that he could eat and drink eleven cans of coe oysters, sixteen eggs, two pounds of steak, one pound of cheese, two loaves of bread, ten cups of coffee, six mince pies, and finish upon one quart of apple butter. He accomplished the feat in side of one hour and then offered to drink eight schooners of beer.

Prize Fight at Shelbyville.

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., April 3.—Ed Skotiski won the fight against Jim Richey in the fourth round without receiving a scratch. The officers kept the fight from coming off for some time and the 200 spectators had to run all over the country to get away from them.

Accused of Murder by a Child.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 3.—Jessie Dorman, the 10-year-old step daughter of Charles Wadley, testified before the coroner Saturday in the investigation of the death of her mother, Mrs. Minerva Wadley. The child accused her step father of strangling her mother.

Infant Found Drowned.

LOGANSPORT, Ind., April 3.—The dead body of an infant was found Sunday morning at the water works gateway.
The child had probably been thrown into the water alive for the purpose of getting rid of it and to hide some crime.

Broke His Leg.

MICHAEL, Ind., April 3.—Hugh Knott, aged 60, broke his leg Saturday while loading a log. The chain breaking, caught him and jerked him against the wagon, bruising him badly.

Died of Spotted Fever.

MUNCIE, Ind., April 3.—John Byers, aged 32 years, died Saturday night of spotted fever after forty-six hours of suffering.

Cigarette Factory Burned.

NEW YORK, April 3.—Duke's cigarette factory, corner Thirty-eighth street and Second avenue, was burned Sunday morning. Loss, $400,000.

His Error.

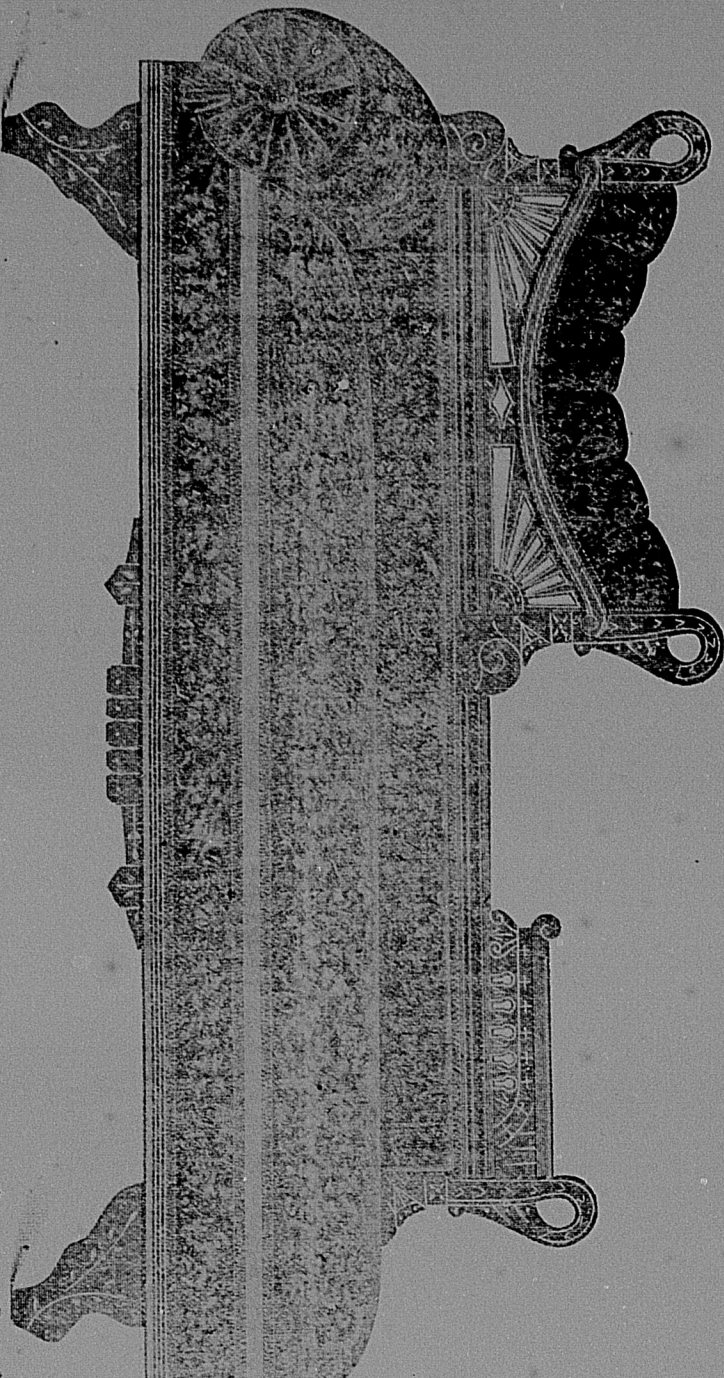

He—Just one, please.
She—What good will that do? You'll want another.
He (eagerly)—No, I won't. I promise you.
She—Then you can't have it.—Life.

Advocate the Preacher.

It is for the interest of each and every good minister and his congregation that we make the following suggestion. The physical body should be looked after as well as the spiritual, and if the preacher and each member of his congregation will get a fifty cent bottle of Los Angeles Raisin Cure Purine Laxative from Moffett & Morgan, the druggists, they need not suffer with indigestion, dyspepsia, biliousness or constipation.
