OVER THE STATE.

Telegraphic News from Various Towns in Indiana.

Her Affairs Badly Tangled.
RICHMOND, Ind., April 5.—The love affairs of Mrs. William Grant, of this city, are tangled in a remarkable manner. She has at present two husbands, and a third man is also involved. In 1884 Mrs. Grant married Allen Dodge at Oxford, O., but after a short time left him and returned here. Subsequently Dodge informed her that he had secured a divorce, and she then accepted an offer of marriage from Officer Charles T. Jones, of Chicago. Jones was at that time a married man, and while waiting for him to secure a divorce Mrs. Dodge met and married Grant, but almost immediately learned that her marriage with Dodge still had legal existence. She has now filed a suit for divorce from Dodge, and Grant, objecting to her familiarity with Jones, has preferred charges against him.

Fredericks rushed back to rescue them, but was severely burned that he had to retreat and ordered the women to jump into his arms from the second story. His mother made the leap, but crushed Fredericks to the ground. She is in a critical condition and may die. The sister also jumped, but is less seriously injured. Fredericks was badly burned, about his body and face very seriously. The monetary loss is about $4,000.

Trust Company Formed.
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 5.—The Indiana Trust company, with a capital stock of $750,000, filed articles of incorporation Tuesday. This is the first company of this kind organized under the recent act of the legislature authorizing their formation.

The Meeting Is On Friday.

This Date In History—April 5.

33—This is the date agreed upon by most church historians as that on which Jesus Christ rose from the dead.
1388—Thomas Hobbes, noted deistical writer, born at Malmesbury, England; died 1679.
1614—Pocahontas married John Rolfe.
1683—Catherine II. of Russia was born; died 1772.
R. 1733.
1704—Danton, Camille, Desmoulins and other Jacobins guillotined.
1820—John T. Raymond, noted actor, born in Buffalo, died 1888.
1879—Judge James J. Roosevelt died in New York city, aged 67.
1888—Jacob Sharp, financier, who "hoodloded" the New York aldermen, died in that city; born 1817.
1892—Lord Arthur John Edward Russell of London died. Bill Murphy, a Jellico (Tenn.) desperado, slew his brother and five others. Devant, a French anarchist, arrested at Madrid with bombs on his person.

In Town.
They had no "peering in the wood."
No "meetings in the hawthorn lane."
"Fiddle the sea" they never stood.
Nor "watched the sunset after rain."
Their pathway was the busy street.
Their tramping place the office stair.
Yet well I know for more complete
Did never visit mortal pair.

And why should music love alone
Be decked with all poetic art?
These folk, gray city walks have known
The beating of a nation's heart.
The weary workers come and go:
The street of each soul's drink
Yet still at times a radiant glow
Across their wayward lives may come.
And these, my happy lovers, knew
Hand toil, small wage, and scanty fare.
The skies they saw were never blue,
But love made sadness everywhere.
His step upon the office floor
Was sweet to her as thrush's song.
Her face that paled the open door
For him made passion's day long.
—London Flare.

Postmaster General Bissell.

The new postmaster general, Wilson Shannon Bissell, who was President Cleveland's Buffalo law partner, is physically a very large man and a most agreeable one to meet. He was born in New London, Onondaga county, N. Y., Dec. 31, 1847, and when 6 years old was taken on by his parents to Buffalo, where he has ever since resided. He was graduated with WILSON S. BISSELL, high honors from Yale, studied law with A. P. Lanning, and in the fall of 1872 formed a partnership with Hon. Lyman K. Bass. A year or so later Grover Cleveland became a member of the firm, and after Mr. Bass removed to Colorado on account of his health the firm was Bissell & Cleveland till the latter was elected governor of New York in 1882. Mr. Bissell was Mr. Cleveland's best man when the latter was married in the White House. Mr. Bissell is married and is the father of a little girl of almost exactly the same age as Baby Ruth.

FASHION'S MIRROR.

The new swallowtail directoire coat above the shortened, expanded dress skirt will be smartly worn this spring by slender women.

The skirt portions of all the new spring jackets are much widened at the back and slightly on the side, and of the falling easily over the enlarged dress skirts.

The shoulder seam having been so much lengthened, it follows that sloping shoulders will once again assert their claims to recognition, for the second empire bodice is hardly compatible with the square shouldered ideal.

The new dress skirts measure from four to six yards in width around the bottom, and the woman who decides upon the skirt with the latter measurement must also consent to wear its inevitable accompaniment—the hoopskirt.

The most popular chevrons this season have a very rough surface and show wide diagonal stripes. The colors and colors are in great variety, and among them a soft and peculiarly beautiful shade of greenish gray is remarked; also a gray color of great delicacy of tint.

Very pretty simple bengalines and mer- vellous satins, dotted with silk of a contrasting color, are made up into dress- ful toilets that have a rather full medium length skirt and low cut corslet, with guimpe and balloon sleeves of plain silk the color of the corslet.

Oriental red is the name given to a new shade of red that color which appears in cloth dresses, bourette wools and silk and wool mixtures. It is a handsome dye between that of a deep crimson rose and rich dahlium color. It is remarkably becoming to both fair and dark women.—New York Evening Post.
