TUESDAY, MAY 16, 1933.

It's nigh unto three months since the Democrats took possession of the government and the "unconstitutional fraud and sham" known as the McKinley law is still on the statute books.

The Louisiana sugar planters are afraid now that the Democratic party will carry out the tariff pledges of the Chicago and propose to formally protest against such a step. The planters are unnecessarily alarmed.

Be it said to the credit of Congressman Brookshire that he is not mixed up in the disgraceful squabble over the Terre Haute postoffice. The burglar who has been appointed is not one of Brookshire's darlings. He belongs exclusively to the Altitudinous Demagogue of the Wabash. Mr. Brookshire's appointees so far as we are able to learn are respectable gentlemen.

The Chicago Inter-Ocean says the pension policy of the Administration seems to be to evade the execution of laws legally enacted, and send veteran pensioners to death under a cowardly spy system that would disgrace any civilized nation upon the globe. Every spy turned loose will try to earn his salary, and lying will be the cheapest asset of the Democratic party.

It is now stated that Col. C. A. Zollinger, of Ft. Wayne, will be appointed Pension Agent for Indiana. Capt. D. F. Allen, one of the prominent candidates for the position, has been appointed State Tax Commissioner by the Governor, and D. F. Mustard, another man, is a candidate for United States Treasurer to succeed E. H. Nebeker. This leaves Colonel Zollinger alone in the field.

"Pressure of public business will prevent him from attending the Decoration day ceremonies at the Arlington National cemetery," writes Private Secretary Thurber in answer to the committee which invited President Cleveland to join in the exercises of that day. This excuse is only a pretense. He spends as much time every day in driving around Washington as it would require to go to Arlington. He has a realizing sense that he would be out of place at a ceremonial of this kind. A fishing excursion would be more to his taste.

The feeling in commercial circles continues feverish, as the financial troubles do not abate to any extent. Until the Administration announces its financial policy and the country knows what Congress intends to do with the tariff and silver questions, there will be a general disposition to go slow. Men who control capital manifest a desire to be in a position to take advantage of any unexpected turn that affairs might take. It may be expected therefore that all institutions that are not financially sound will pass through a crisis and many will go to the wall entirely.

The disgraceful proceedings attending the change in the Terre Haute post office, brought about, precipitated and carried on by a gang of Democratic politicians who do much to create a stronger public sentiment in favor of the principles of civil service reform. Such proceedings are calculated to disgust the respectable portion of every community whose only interest in politics is the administration of good government. Politicians of the Voorhees and Lamb school may sneer at the law regulating the civil service, yet the law has come to stay. Men who run political parties may as well make up their minds to this fact. Overriding and resisting a law that is on the statute books is criminal, whether it is done by the President of the United States or whether it is done by a tramp.

The Geary act which requires all Chinese who were in this country prior to May 1 to furnish their photographs and to register, failing in which they shall be deported, and excluding all immigrants from the Celestial Empire in the future, has been declared to be unconstitutional by the Supreme Court of the United States. Should China retaliate with a similar measure so far as the United States is concerned no person should complain. If the Chinese shall have no privileges in this country upon what grounds can Americans ask to be protected in their pursuits in China. The Geary act is an outrage on international comity. If the United States desires to rid the country of an undesirable population other fields can be found that are more fruitful. For example we could get along without the Anarchists and Nihilists which swarm in Chicago, New York and other cities of the Eastern and Middle States, and which are a menace to our free institutions.

MINE GAS EXPLOSION.

A Disaster at Lincoln, Ill., in Which One Man Was Killed and Three Injured.
LINCOLN, Ill., May 16.—About 11 o'clock Sunday night an explosion of mine gas occurred in the mine of the Lincoln Coal company, and by it one man was killed and three injured. Michael Gleason, Mark Lyons and Henry Wilmoth entered the mine in charge of Joseph Page, night boss, to close worked-out rooms. One of the men entered a room which had not been frequented for some time. His non-safety lamp here ignited the gas, producing a tremendous explosion, which caused the pillars of coal to vibrate and the air doors to slam, thereby extinguishing every lamp in the mine, at the same time filling it densely with smoke.

About ten miners were at work in the mine, and guided by a lad, Lyons, who escaped, the injured men were rescued. They proved to be Joseph Page, the boss, with skull crushed; Henry Wilmoth, hip hurt and internal injuries from inhaling fire. After an all night hunt the body of Gleason was found under tons of debris.

The fault of the explosion rests solely with the men hurt. They were provided with safety lamps and commanded to use them, but neglected to do so. The mine was not injured beyond the stoppage of work until the smoke can be excluded. This place was in a spasm of excitement during the early morning hours by the report that all the men in the mine had perished; but when the facts were obtained the casualties were found as herewith reported.

SEVENTY WOMEN SHOT.

German Soldiers Storm a Village in the Land of the Hottentots.
BERLIN, May 16.—A telegram from the German consulate in Cape Town says that Capt. Francis stormed the kraal on April 12. On the German side Sakolowki and three German soldiers were wounded. Seventy native women, ten native men and boys and a few babies were killed. The official report expressed regret that the women and children were killed, but says that a sudden attack and indiscriminate firing were the only means of capturing the stronghold. The German force consisted of 300 German and native soldiers. Hornkranz was the most strongly fortified of the villages of Witbooi, the Hottentot chief. He is collecting his warriors and threatens vengeance.

THE INFANTA ON THE WAY.

President Cleveland Will Try to Do the Princess Proper Honor.
WASHINGTON, May 16.—The fear that Princess Eulalie would turn back from her trip to this country and that embarrassing complications between Spain and the United States would result has been dissipated by the cable information to Secretary Gresham Monday that the princess is said to be thoroughly in favor of doing all that can be done to pay proper honor to the infanta during her visit, but he wants to do it in the American way. The royal lady is due in New York on May 19, and the time intervening will give plenty of opportunity for the arrangement of the details of her reception.

HANGED BY A MOB.

Lynchers Hang Lou Trenck, the Murderer of Henry Fiedler, at Brownstown, Ind.
SEYMOUR, Ind., May 16.—Lou Trenck, who murdered Henry Fiedler a week ago last Sunday, was hanged at Brownstown at 2 a. m. by a mob from this place. The lynching party was composed of the same men who hanged Turley Monday morning.

Will Give It All to Ireland.
LONDON, May 16.—In the house of commons Sir J. B. Macle, conservative, asked Mr. Gladstone whether the value of the postoffice property in Ireland, which the imperial government proposed to give, free of compensation, to the new Irish government to be created by the home-rule bill, amounted in the total to £4,000,000. Mr. Gladstone replied that he considered the estimate a fabulous one, but that Ireland would receive the postoffice property free of any charge.

Normal Bank Suspended.
BLOOMINGTON, Ill., May 16.—The Exchange bank of Normal will not open for business this morning. There was a run of moderate dimensions on the bank Monday, with indications of a recurrence to-day, and after consultation of the heaviest depositors suspension was determined upon. The bank is a private one, owned by W. H. Schuerman. It had dealings with the Columbia national bank of Chicago. Schuerman says he will resume business in three days. No figures are given.

More Failures in Australia.
BRISBANE, May 16.—The Bank of North Queensland, limited, has suspended. The Queensland national bank has also suspended. The deposits in the Queensland national bank last December amounted to £8,500,000, one-half from Great Britain. The subscribed capital is £15,000,000, of which one-half was paid up, and a reserve fund of £455,000 was claimed. The bank has a branch in Sydney, N. S. W., and its connections extend to other places in Australia.

Failure of Eastern Managers.
THEO, N. Y., May 16.—Nehr & Carpenter, eastern managers for the Northwestern Guaranty Loan company of Minneapolis, have made a general assignment and closed their doors. Two million dollars, of $10,000,000 worth of debenture bonds recently issued by the Northwestern Guaranty Loan company, has been disposed of to people in this city and vicinity through the eastern managers.

Seized Harper's Magazine.
CONSTANTINOPLE, May 16.—The censors have caused to be seized many copies of Harper's Magazine, containing Schlegel's poems, which they pronounce immoral.

The national league of musicians adjourned at Detroit, Mich., to meet in Baltimore, Md., May 1, 1894.

DON'T DO IT.

The most precious earthly possession is a good character. If you are ever tempted to do a mean or dishonest thing, don't do it. If you are ever enticed to indulge in intoxicating drinks don't do it. If you have dyspepsia, indigestion or constipation and any one tries to persuade you to use any medicine but the Los Angeles Raisin Cured Prune Laxative, don't do it. Sold by Moffett & Morgan, the druggists. You will find it the best medicine in the market for stomach, bowel and liver complaint.

True Merit.

To praise true merit do thou be the first.
Nor stay till others loud declare 'tis right.
Who waits till all commend is like the bird
Who mocks the songs of those of greater might.

The first loud peal of yonder deep toned bell
Is worth a hundred echoes of its tone.
The voice that loud proclaims a deed is great,
Is praise indeed, 'e'en though it be alone.

True merit well deserves the praise of all
And often he who does not say 'tis well,
When noble deeds are done by humble men,
Within his heart hides sin, if truth you tell.

Be slow to charge another with an act
That you yourself would never stoop to do,
Lest your own conscience sting you in the end,
Should your unkind suspicions prove untrue.

Give unto each his due, whatever it be,
Nor tremble at your voice should you not find,
When once you've said what honesty you think
Your own words echoed from another mind—
—Florence Bailey Farnsworth.

Mrs. Hoke Smith.

Mrs. Hoke Smith, wife of President Cleveland's secretary of the interior, is the youngest daughter of General Thomas R. Cobb of Athens, Ga., and is still quite a young woman, having been married at the age of 20. On her marriage Mrs. Smith became the mistress of a beautiful and spacious home in Atlanta, which has ever since been the center of a generous and charming hospitality, which it is confidently predicted will be continued in Washington. Mrs. Smith is a very attractive woman and the proud mother of three pretty children, two girls and a boy.

It is worth $1.00 to any man, woman or child suffering from catarrh. —A. E. Newman, Grayling, Mich.

For years I have been a terrible sufferer from headache, some six months ago my physician prescribed Phenyo-Caffein, and since then, by their use, I have not had a severe headache, being able to stop them completely in their incipient stage. J. H. Stannard, Concord, N. H.

Sweeter Than Honey in the Honey-

"What in life is half so sweet,
As the hour when lovers meet."
Nothing is sweeter to the youthful and robust in health, but, alas! too many "Court in poetry, and live in prose" after marriage. This is especially true of the wives whose changed relations bring on "bittering down" pains, displacements and irregularities of the female organs. It is likewise a restorative and invigorating tonic, strengthening the nerves, and imparting new life to the tired and debilitated bringing back the "roses to the cheek" and the "rainbows to the eyes." Sold by all druggists, under guarantee, from its makers of satisfaction in every case, or price ($1.00) refunded.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

O, this dull, depressing headache,
That won't wear off;
This hawking and this spitting,
And this hacking cough;
I've lost my sense of smelling,
And taste's going, too.
I know Castoria's what I need,
But—what shall I do?
My hawking and my hawking
Keeps up a steady din;
I'm haunted by the fear that
Consumption may set in.
I feel supremely wretched;
No wonder I'm blue,
I know my health's failing,
But—what can I do?
Do! I'll tell you what to do, my friend,
If you'll lend me your ear a minute. Go down to the drug store and buy Dr. Sage's Castoria Remedy, and take it according to directions given, and you'll soon find that this miserable headache is a thing of the past; the hawking, hawking and spitting, so disagreeable to others as well as yourself, will come to an end, and in a short time you will feel like a new man. A new man—think of that—and all for fifty cents, which is the price of Dr. Sage's Castoria Remedy, the unfailing cure for this terrible disease.
