Brookshire Captures the Delegates.

Mr. Brookshire seems to be having things his own way in securing delegates to the Democratic nominating convention in spite of the opposition of the Swallowtail element of this county and the disappointed office seekers in other counties. Last week in Clay county where it was claimed the miners would go against him he got every delegate but one and in the township where the strongest fight was made against him, the Brookshire delegates received 218 votes to 17 votes for the opposition. Well, the Republicans would as soon defeat Brookshire as any other Democrat next November.

Darlington's Busy Man.

DARLINGTON, IND., April 4.—I have seen the handwriting on the wall in The Daily Journal, of March 31 in regard to Darlington's busy man. Interpretation shows that I am he. The article is all right as far as it is truthful, and all wrong where not so. I feel that it is an honor to myself and a proper thing to do, to have an office in a Good Templars lodge at this place, and expect to make use of my best efforts to do my duty in filling the position. I have not seen the Darlington correspondent in our lodge. I am and always have been a Republican when there is an opportunity to vote for men of good principle.

I was chairman of the citizen's convention and am not ashamed of it. It was an honor to the Republican power. Every one present was allowed a vote if a qualified voter of the town.

All business was transacted in about thirty minutes. Some good citizens as there is in town were nominated, and I think most of them will be elected.

I had plenty of time to attend a meeting of Darlington's Driving Park Association same evening after the convention. We had a pleasant meeting arranged for races, and a general good time the coming fourth of July.

I did ask for six small sewer tile to put in at crossing to my gate; had the pleasure of seeing that they were given to another man for the same purpose; bought and paid for my own tile.

The fact has been demonstrated by our late convention that the good people of this place have outgrown the mental and moral calibre of the old town board and are demanding something higher, purer and better. The present indications are that they will succeed, with plenty of good material to spare.

I feel it not only my privilege, but a duty to oppose evil wherever it occurs, and there are dark dens in Darlington that are the stepping stones to damnation in this life and a hell in the life to come.

In regard to Sunday. There was a time that I was a member of church, and was a very regular attendant of church and Sabbath school. But a dark day came. My wife became almost entirely helpless, making it necessary for some one to feed and tend to her every want for eight long weary years. I have felt it my duty to stay at home of Sundays and attend to her wants; occasionally I get to church. I have occasionally driven my horse on Sunday for the purpose of giving him exercise before my daughter goes to church, and if it is a sin I will have to accept the result.

Wonders of Chess Combinations.

To estimate the actual number of ways of playing even a very few moves in chess is beyond the power of calculation. At first both players have a choice of but 20 moves; the first player has an average of 28, 30 and 33 ways of playing the second, third and fourth moves, respectively. On the hypothesis that the number of "replies" is always the same, no matter what the preceding move may have been, the number of ways of playing the first four moves on one side only would be 318,778,504,000. Let us assume, for convenience of calculation, that, for the next six moves on each side, after the first four, there is a choice of 30 ways of playing. We thus get by combination with the result quoted above figures which prove that the number of ways of playing the first ten moves on each side is 169,518,829,100,544,000,000,000,000,000.

Score One for Our Printers.

The printer is generally rated a pretty bad sort of a fellow but his conduct generally consists of vice, not crime. The following shows that that before the law he has not proven so bad as some other people. Of the 3,000 convicts in the State penitentiary of Texas, there is not a printer or a newspaper man while there are ministers, doctors, bankers, merchants, photographers, barkeepers, cooks and members of all other professions and callings.

Musical Recital.

The second section of the Musical Amateur Society will give a musicale on Monday evening at Baldwin's music store at 8 o'clock. Miss Stillwell and Miss Campbell have arranged an interesting programme. All members of the society, both active and associate, are requested to be present. Roll call and business meeting after the programme is concluded.

A BABY

One morning this week a gentleman drove up in front of the "Baldwin" music store with a "Baby Grand," Decker Bros. piano, and placed it in the store where everybody is invited to call, see and hear. The case is a very beautiful San Domingo mahogany, with Queen Ann legs. Visitors will also find the Decker Bros., Baldwin, Ellington, Fischer, and Haines pianos at this store in upright cases. Also Hamilton and Estey organs. Call and see the "Baby," at 131 south Washington street.

An Orderly G. A. R. Encampment.

Lafayette Courier: The work of the police force during the encampment deserves special mention. For the first time in the history of the city, perhaps, a big event has taken place in Lafayette without the swearing in of a lot of extra policemen. The force was not enlarged on this occasion and there could not have been better order kept. Strange to say no burglaries have been reported, no serious rackets occurred, and there was but little fracturing of the law.

Lafayette Journal: The good order and decorum of the encampment were most noteworthy, not to say surprising. With five or six thousand strangers in the city, there was hardly an arrest, nor occasion for any. As the visitors were largely Grand Army men, the credit belongs to them. Lafayette has entertained many big crowds, but never a better behaved one encamped within her bounds. The G. A. R. members have proved themselves again, if any further proof were needed, to be of our best citizens. All honor to the brave soldier who saved the country, and is still its bulwark, safeguard and defense!

State Mass Meeting of the Anti-Liquor League.

A call has been made for a mass meeting to be held in the city of Indianapolis, April 18, 1894. The object of the meeting is to unite all who are opposed to the saloon as a corruptor of government and morals of the people, and who will work for the nomination of fit men in their own political parties—men who are not gamblers, violators of law nor dominated by the Liquor League. As the temperance voters largely outnumber those who favor the liquor traffic, the Anti-Liquor League is a movement to unite them, regardless of party, to work for the election of men who are not under the influence of the Liquor League. It is a movement by the churches, and yet all, whether they are members of any church or not, are invited to attend the meeting. It is expected that churches, young peoples' societies and temperance organizations will send representatives. The State Superintendent, M. L. Wells, 36 Dickson Place, Indianapolis, will furnish information to those writing him.

Obituary.

Nina R. Booher, daughter of A. W. and Marian Booher, died April 5th, 1894, aged 13 years, 2 months and 15 days. Nina possessed a gentle and lovable spirit. Her life was pure, her language was always chaste, and her words were those of kindness to all with whom she met.

She was bright in her studies, very industrious in her books, and stood at the head of her classes. She was chosen as a delegate from her department of the city schools of Crawfordsville to the Columbian Exposition and was a favorite of her teachers.

A light has gone out of the home and a farewell from parents' brothers and sisters, and friends. While the cloud of sorrow overshadows us, there is a light beyond, in the hope that our loved one hath gone to inhabit a mansion in our Father's house.

The funeral service was held at the Christian church at Darlington, conducted by Rev. F. P. Trotter, April 6, 1894.

Similar Cases.

In conversation with one of our physicians it was learned that the recent death of three persons in this city was due largely to heart trouble. This ailment was almost the same in each case, and was probably the result of the grip. The trouble was in each case a valvular insufficiency and endocarditis, the valves not performing their functions, and an inflammation of the inside lining of the heart. It is considered rather strange that in each case the persons were taken down with other troubles, which developed into this heart trouble, and caused death.

The Orphans' Home.

The County Commissioners met yesterday afternoon and the contract for the erection of the new building for Orphans' Home in Britton's Glen was signed by the parties concerned. The Commissioners then went out with the contractor, John Tinsley, to select a spot to erect the building, but they could not agree, and it was decided to take out the Orphans' Home committee and all together choose a place. Work on excavation will be commenced next week, and the erection of the edifice will be pushed to completion.

A Pleasant Trip.

The singers and their friends who went to Yountsville last evening had a most enjoyable time. The proverbial hospitality of the people of that pretty village was exhibited to a marked degree. Every number of the programme was received warmly and most of them were encored. After the entertainment was over the performers were treated to an elegant supper. The sum of $25 was cleared for the benefit of the church.

Notice to Woman's Auxiliary.

The committee will meet next Monday at 2 p. m. instead of Tuesday to make further arrangements for the social.

Catarrrh Cannot be Cured

with local applications, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrrh Cure is not a quick medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in the country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrrh. Send for testimonials, free.

Consumption Checked

Obstinate Case of Catarrh

Local Applications Failed—Hood's Sarsaparilla Cured.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"Gentlemen:—I ought to make known my experience with Hood's Sarsaparilla, so that others afflicted may learn where to find a remedy for that serious and obstinate disease, catarrh. It troubled me seriously. I had a dull aching sensation in the top of my head, and the usual discharge from the nose. I became so bad that morning I could not get out of bed, and spit. My lungs were also being rapidly affected, and had it not been for Hood's Sarsaparilla, I would have died.

A Consumptive's Grave

long ago. I have taken about ten bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, which have effectually cured me. Before resorting to this medicine, I used all the catarrh remedies, both internal and local application, I heard of. None seemed to reach the seat of the disease. In fact I grew worse while using them. I owe my cure to the blood purifying powers of Hood's Sarsaparilla." MISSIE M. KEYSER, Pataskala, Ohio.

Hood's Pills cure all liver ills, biliousness, jaundice, indigestion, sick headache. 25c.

A Benefit Recital of the Ben-Hur Chariot Race.

On April 20 Miss Annie Linn Carr will give a benefit recital at the M. E. Church, assisted by four young ladies of this city. Miss Carr is better known here by the name of "Net" Carr, having made her home for several years with her grandfather, Col. D. N. Heath. She is now living in Chicago, and gives this benefit to raise money to complete her education. As all know she possesses superior talents and is very desirous of developing them to their fullest extent, a very desirable ambition surely and one that her many friends here will be pleased no doubt to encourage her in. She is now studying at the Chicago conservatory.

Among the pieces she will recite is the Ben Hur Chariot Race, on the recital of which recently in Chicago she was highly complimented. Arrangements are now being made for her appearance on the 20th.

The Purple Sulfur.

Perhaps no local disease has puzzled and baffled the medical profession more than nasal catarrh. While not immediately fatal it is among the most nauseous and disgusting ills the flesh is heir to, and the records show very few or no cases of radical cure of chronic catarrh by any of the many modes of treatment until the introduction of Ely's Cream Balm a few years ago. The success of this preparation has been most gratifying and surprising. No druggist is without it.

No other medicine has equalled Hood's Sarsaparilla in the relief it gives in severe cases of dyspepsia, sick headache, etc.

Who Says Rheumatism Can Not be Cured.

My wife was confined to her bed for over two months with a very severe attack of rheumatism. We could get nothing that would afford her any relief, and as a last resort gave Chamberlain's Pain Balm a trial. To our great surprise she began to improve after the first application, and by using it regularly she was soon able to get up and attend to her house work. E. H. Johnson, of C. J. Bilious Colic Prevented.

Persons who are subject to attacks of bilious colic can almost invariably tell, by their feelings, when to expect an attack. Such persons should always keep the Remedy at hand, ready for immediate use when needed. Two or three doses at the right time will save them much suffering. It is Good.

The more Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used the better it is liked. We know of no other remedy that always gives satisfaction. It is good when you first catch cold. It is good when your cough is seated, and your lungs are sore. It is good in any kind of a cough. We have sold twenty-five dozen of it and every bottle has given satisfaction. Steadman & Friedman, druggists, Minnesota Lake, Minn. 50 cent bottles for sale by Nye & Booe, 111 Washington street, opposite court house.

Peculiar to Itself.

So eminently successful has Hood's Sarsaparilla been that many leading citizens from all over the United States furnish testimonials of cures which seem almost miraculous. Hood's Sarsaparilla is not an accident, but the ripe fruit of industry and study. It possesses merit "peculiar to itself."
