THE PEOPLE ARE HERE.

Fair Weather and "The Greatest on Earth" Combined to Attract One of the Large-est Crowds Ever On the Grounds.
—Notes Here and There.

The hopes of the directors of "the greatest fair on earth" were not disappointed to-day. The sun rose in a clear sky and about the same time thousands of people in all parts of this and neighboring counties rose also to prepare for a day of pleasure at the fair. Trains were loaded and gravel roads were crowded and by 10 o'clock the grounds and buildings had the appearance of one vast bee hive. The fairgoers all made money to-day, the exhibitors had an elegant chance to advertise their goods and everybody was supremely happy.

FINE FURNITURE.

The eye cannot pass with a mere passing glance the rich display of furniture belonging to A. Kozanzer's Sons in the east wing of Flora Hall. Nearly everyone stops for a closer inspection of these fine goods and they are worthy.
Years of experience have enabled the Kozanzers to give the public opportunity to buy the very latest things in furniture at the most reasonable prices.
In this display are several elegant pieces already sold to Solomon Landman and J. E. Lidekay, of Ladoga. Mr.
Kozanzer regrets that lack of space prevented his display being what it ought to be to properly represent the stock he carries.

NOTES.

The banks all closed at noon to-day.

Several lost children were hunting parents during the day.

Six red ribbons adorn the paintings of Miss Imogene Brown.

Two cowboys are killed at every performance of the Wild West.

Ed Sargent is the gentlemanly assistant in the secretary's office.

Mrs. Abraham took the red ribbon on general display of china tableware.

Mrs. John Gilbert was well remembered in the art awards, capturing three firsts.

The first premium for superiority in jellies was awarded to Mrs. Sweeney, of Yountsville.

Cotton & life are spraying the multitude with Queen Bess and Anoura Tulip perfumes.

Gregg brothers obtained six firsts and four seconds in the display of amateur photography.

The balloon will go up again to-morrow and the man will come down in the parachute again.

Gilbert's pianos in Agricultural Hall show up in strong contrast to the fruits and vegetables.

Walter Hulet's driving mare was entered to-day in the saddle class and captured second prize.

In the Southdown exhibition of sheep Privet Bros. secured six firsts together with six seconds.

H. R. Tinsley & Co. are exhibiting a hay loader in Machinery Hall and also paints, tools and hardware.

Cohoon & Fisher have a line of farm machinery on exhibition and also some of their smaller merchandise.

Ben Myers, the chicken fancier, carried away two first prizes and one second on his display of Langshans.

Houlehan & Quillen occupy a large section of Machinery Hall with their farm implements and the like.

Mrs. Beeson, of Vincennes, one of the expert judges in Floral Hall, formerly owned and edited a paper in that city.

The dance last evening just north of the poultry house was given by the elite of the fair grounds and proved an eminent success.

L. W. Cochran showed forty-seven horses and took piles of red and blue ribbons. We will give a complete list of them next week.

Go out to-night and see the electric fountain display. Admission, 10 cents.
Floral hall will be lighted up and there will be plenty of music.

Petty thieves relieved George Widener of a coat and hat last night and Joe Hutchinson of a coat with a false tooth in one of the pockets.

D. J. Woodward is showing a beautiful line of buggies made by the Union City Buggy Company. Mr. C. W. Tripp, representing the company, is assisting Mr. Woodward.

Albert Miller is showing some beautiful buggies of home manufacture. A survey and a platoon representing the Dovetail Company's latest designs in buggy bodies are attracting much attention.

H. L. Harlan has secured four first premiums and one second on his display of chickens. One of them beside being awarded first premium at the World's Fair, has captured 49 other premiums.

Red Snyder saw the pickpockets here on Tuesday who attempted to go through him at Frankfort. They evidently recognized him, too, as they left town before Red could get the police on their trail.

H. A. Gray and Allan Robinson were before the board of directors yesterday evening, Gray accusing Robinson of exhibiting another man's vegetables. The dispute was finally settled by giving the ribbon to Robinson and the reward to Gray.

The balloon ascension yesterday afternoon was a decided success. The parachute leap was made right over the heart of town, the professor descending on Market street, where he lodged in some telephone wires and was slightly stunned by falling to the ground.

The favorite place in Floral Hall is D. H. Baldwin & Co.'s corner where there is always music. Miss Pauline Russell, of Waveland, Miss Allie Wilson, of Ladoga, Mrs. T. E. Booher, of Darlington, Miss Acker, of Waveland, and Miss Jessie Grider, of New Market, played to-day.

Thrown From a Horse.
Williamsport Republican: Last Monday afternoon the little daughter of Chas. McCabe, of Covington, was riding horseback on the main street of that place when the horse frightened and she was thrown, her foot becoming fastened in the stirrup and she was dragged two hundred or more feet suspended by the foot, her body being exposed at every leap of the horse to being kicked by the animal's heels. Strange to say she was not injured beyond a few bruises and a bad scare. The child is about seven years old. The man who caught the horse was injured to the extent of a broken rib.

The Fair To-Night.

The management have decided to keep the fair open to-night and in order that all may go the admission is made 10 cents. The electric fountains will play and there will be plenty of amusement.

Will Be Here Sunday.

On next Sunday Rev. W. E. McLennon, D. D., of South Bend, will occupy the pulpit of the Methodist church both morning and evening. He is pastor of Studebaker's church and quite an eloquent divine.

Forecast For Indiana.

For the thirty-six hours ending at 8 p. m. Sept. 7.—Cloudy and threatening to-night, fair weather on Friday.

Surprised the State Official.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 6.—Capt.
William R. Myers, secretary of state, was married at noon Wednesday to Miss Florence Stewart, and an hour later the bridal couple left for a tour through the east. At the state house the wedding created a pleasant surprise to the state officers, who had not suspected it.

Begins Operations.

MARTINSVILLE, Ind., Sept. 6.—The Leutzman sorghum factory at Mooreville, this county, the largest of its kind in the world, began operations Wednesday. The profit of an acre of cane is from $37 to $50 and there are 800 acres adjoining this factory.

Said He Was Guilty.

LA PORTE, Ind., Sept. 6.—James Carr, who was shot while robbing Collum Bros. general store at Mill Creek, was arraigned before the circuit court Wednesday morning. He pleaded guilty and was sentenced to eight years in the prison north.

Those 23c kid gloves, 5c. fans, 7c.
