

DR. JOHN BULL.
SOMETHING
NEW AND VALUABLE.

This most powerful King on the face of the globe reigns supreme in the American Republic. The power of the crown has been passed on to the people, and the people have accepted it with a glad and willing heart. European kings employ the power vested in them to increase the riches of their subjects, and to reduce to greater misery and degradation the poor and dependent. Our American King goes forth with equal willingness to the joyful mansion and humble cabin, ready alike to administer relief and to order health and happiness to the lofty and lowly, the rich and the poor.

DR. JOHN BULL'S GREAT AMERICAN KING

Is the Tenth Wonder of the World, and the greatest blessing ever offered to afflicted humanity, to the suffering millions, the Doctor can say, relief is at your command. You have only to use this magical remedy. All those who still suffer, and will not accept the proffered balm, deserve not the city of their families.

This wonderful medicine, during the brief period since its introduction, has carried happiness to the hearts of thousands, and made life a dream to many who heretofore regarded it only as a painful and miserable existence. To the winds with all Liniments, Embrocations, Pain Killers, and Pain Extractors, and let millions of glad tongues proclaim the merits of the great "American King of Pain," a preparation composed solely of vegetable and mineral products, produced by America's own rich and beautiful soil.

We would ask the Ladies, who are always competent judges of what is and what is not a valuable family medicine, to do us a special favor by giving the King of Pain a single trial, and if satisfactory, exert their influence in its behalf, recommend it, speak well of it, and let it be used by their afflicted neighbors. The Ladies are always charitable, and when they induce their suffering friends to use this really valuable medicine, they will be doing an act of benevolence that they can well be proud of. This is a powerful and truly magical remedy for all external diseases, sores, swellings, burns, etc., and for many internal affections, it is a certain cure, yet it is perfectly harmless, and incapable of producing the least injurious effects in the most delicate cases or the weakest constitution.

It is entirely useless to follow the old and worn-out system of publishing to the public thousands of certificates of cures performed by this medicine. It costs but twenty-five cents to try it, and the King of Pain, with its well-earned reputation on the King of Pain doing all and more than he claims for it.

We would ask the Gentlemen, who are always competent judges of what is and what is not a valuable family medicine, to do us a special favor by giving the King of Pain a single trial, and if satisfactory, exert their influence in its behalf, recommend it, speak well of it, and let it be used by their afflicted neighbors. The Gentlemen are always charitable, and when they induce their suffering friends to use this really valuable medicine, they will be doing an act of benevolence that they can well be proud of. This is a powerful and truly magical remedy for all external diseases, sores, swellings, burns, etc., and for many internal affections, it is a certain cure, yet it is perfectly harmless, and incapable of producing the least injurious effects in the most delicate cases or the weakest constitution.

It is entirely useless to follow the old and worn-out system of publishing to the public thousands of certificates of cures performed by this medicine. It costs but twenty-five cents to try it, and the King of Pain, with its well-earned reputation on the King of Pain doing all and more than he claims for it.

We would ask the Gentlemen, who are always competent judges of what is and what is not a valuable family medicine, to do us a special favor by giving the King of Pain a single trial, and if satisfactory, exert their influence in its behalf, recommend it, speak well of it, and let it be used by their afflicted neighbors. The Gentlemen are always charitable, and when they induce their suffering friends to use this really valuable medicine, they will be doing an act of benevolence that they can well be proud of. This is a powerful and truly magical remedy for all external diseases, sores, swellings, burns, etc., and for many internal affections, it is a certain cure, yet it is perfectly harmless, and incapable of producing the least injurious effects in the most delicate cases or the weakest constitution.

It is entirely useless to follow the old and worn-out system of publishing to the public thousands of certificates of cures performed by this medicine. It costs but twenty-five cents to try it, and the King of Pain, with its well-earned reputation on the King of Pain doing all and more than he claims for it.

We would ask the Gentlemen, who are always competent judges of what is and what is not a valuable family medicine, to do us a special favor by giving the King of Pain a single trial, and if satisfactory, exert their influence in its behalf, recommend it, speak well of it, and let it be used by their afflicted neighbors. The Gentlemen are always charitable, and when they induce their suffering friends to use this really valuable medicine, they will be doing an act of benevolence that they can well be proud of. This is a powerful and truly magical remedy for all external diseases, sores, swellings, burns, etc., and for many internal affections, it is a certain cure, yet it is perfectly harmless, and incapable of producing the least injurious effects in the most delicate cases or the weakest constitution.

It is entirely useless to follow the old and worn-out system of publishing to the public thousands of certificates of cures performed by this medicine. It costs but twenty-five cents to try it, and the King of Pain, with its well-earned reputation on the King of Pain doing all and more than he claims for it.

We would ask the Gentlemen, who are always competent judges of what is and what is not a valuable family medicine, to do us a special favor by giving the King of Pain a single trial, and if satisfactory, exert their influence in its behalf, recommend it, speak well of it, and let it be used by their afflicted neighbors. The Gentlemen are always charitable, and when they induce their suffering friends to use this really valuable medicine, they will be doing an act of benevolence that they can well be proud of. This is a powerful and truly magical remedy for all external diseases, sores, swellings, burns, etc., and for many internal affections, it is a certain cure, yet it is perfectly harmless, and incapable of producing the least injurious effects in the most delicate cases or the weakest constitution.

It is entirely useless to follow the old and worn-out system of publishing to the public thousands of certificates of cures performed by this medicine. It costs but twenty-five cents to try it, and the King of Pain, with its well-earned reputation on the King of Pain doing all and more than he claims for it.

We would ask the Gentlemen, who are always competent judges of what is and what is not a valuable family medicine, to do us a special favor by giving the King of Pain a single trial, and if satisfactory, exert their influence in its behalf, recommend it, speak well of it, and let it be used by their afflicted neighbors. The Gentlemen are always charitable, and when they induce their suffering friends to use this really valuable medicine, they will be doing an act of benevolence that they can well be proud of. This is a powerful and truly magical remedy for all external diseases, sores, swellings, burns, etc., and for many internal affections, it is a certain cure, yet it is perfectly harmless, and incapable of producing the least injurious effects in the most delicate cases or the weakest constitution.

It is entirely useless to follow the old and worn-out system of publishing to the public thousands of certificates of cures performed by this medicine. It costs but twenty-five cents to try it, and the King of Pain, with its well-earned reputation on the King of Pain doing all and more than he claims for it.

We would ask the Gentlemen, who are always competent judges of what is and what is not a valuable family medicine, to do us a special favor by giving the King of Pain a single trial, and if satisfactory, exert their influence in its behalf, recommend it, speak well of it, and let it be used by their afflicted neighbors. The Gentlemen are always charitable, and when they induce their suffering friends to use this really valuable medicine, they will be doing an act of benevolence that they can well be proud of. This is a powerful and truly magical remedy for all external diseases, sores, swellings, burns, etc., and for many internal affections, it is a certain cure, yet it is perfectly harmless, and incapable of producing the least injurious effects in the most delicate cases or the weakest constitution.

It is entirely useless to follow the old and worn-out system of publishing to the public thousands of certificates of cures performed by this medicine. It costs but twenty-five cents to try it, and the King of Pain, with its well-earned reputation on the King of Pain doing all and more than he claims for it.

We would ask the Gentlemen, who are always competent judges of what is and what is not a valuable family medicine, to do us a special favor by giving the King of Pain a single trial, and if satisfactory, exert their influence in its behalf, recommend it, speak well of it, and let it be used by their afflicted neighbors. The Gentlemen are always charitable, and when they induce their suffering friends to use this really valuable medicine, they will be doing an act of benevolence that they can well be proud of. This is a powerful and truly magical remedy for all external diseases, sores, swellings, burns, etc., and for many internal affections, it is a certain cure, yet it is perfectly harmless, and incapable of producing the least injurious effects in the most delicate cases or the weakest constitution.

It is entirely useless to follow the old and worn-out system of publishing to the public thousands of certificates of cures performed by this medicine. It costs but twenty-five cents to try it, and the King of Pain, with its well-earned reputation on the King of Pain doing all and more than he claims for it.

We would ask the Gentlemen, who are always competent judges of what is and what is not a valuable family medicine, to do us a special favor by giving the King of Pain a single trial, and if satisfactory, exert their influence in its behalf, recommend it, speak well of it, and let it be used by their afflicted neighbors. The Gentlemen are always charitable, and when they induce their suffering friends to use this really valuable medicine, they will be doing an act of benevolence that they can well be proud of. This is a powerful and truly magical remedy for all external diseases, sores, swellings, burns, etc., and for many internal affections, it is a certain cure, yet it is perfectly harmless, and incapable of producing the least injurious effects in the most delicate cases or the weakest constitution.

It is entirely useless to follow the old and worn-out system of publishing to the public thousands of certificates of cures performed by this medicine. It costs but twenty-five cents to try it, and the King of Pain, with its well-earned reputation on the King of Pain doing all and more than he claims for it.

We would ask the Gentlemen, who are always competent judges of what is and what is not a valuable family medicine, to do us a special favor by giving the King of Pain a single trial, and if satisfactory, exert their influence in its behalf, recommend it, speak well of it, and let it be used by their afflicted neighbors. The Gentlemen are always charitable, and when they induce their suffering friends to use this really valuable medicine, they will be doing an act of benevolence that they can well be proud of. This is a powerful and truly magical remedy for all external diseases, sores, swellings, burns, etc., and for many internal affections, it is a certain cure, yet it is perfectly harmless, and incapable of producing the least injurious effects in the most delicate cases or the weakest constitution.

It is entirely useless to follow the old and worn-out system of publishing to the public thousands of certificates of cures performed by this medicine. It costs but twenty-five cents to try it, and the King of Pain, with its well-earned reputation on the King of Pain doing all and more than he claims for it.

We would ask the Gentlemen, who are always competent judges of what is and what is not a valuable family medicine, to do us a special favor by giving the King of Pain a single trial, and if satisfactory, exert their influence in its behalf, recommend it, speak well of it, and let it be used by their afflicted neighbors. The Gentlemen are always charitable, and when they induce their suffering friends to use this really valuable medicine, they will be doing an act of benevolence that they can well be proud of. This is a powerful and truly magical remedy for all external diseases, sores, swellings, burns, etc., and for many internal affections, it is a certain cure, yet it is perfectly harmless, and incapable of producing the least injurious effects in the most delicate cases or the weakest constitution.

It is entirely useless to follow the old and worn-out system of publishing to the public thousands of certificates of cures performed by this medicine. It costs but twenty-five cents to try it, and the King of Pain, with its well-earned reputation on the King of Pain doing all and more than he claims for it.

We would ask the Gentlemen, who are always competent judges of what is and what is not a valuable family medicine, to do us a special favor by giving the King of Pain a single trial, and if satisfactory, exert their influence in its behalf, recommend it, speak well of it, and let it be used by their afflicted neighbors. The Gentlemen are always charitable, and when they induce their suffering friends to use this really valuable medicine, they will be doing an act of benevolence that they can well be proud of. This is a powerful and truly magical remedy for all external diseases, sores, swellings, burns, etc., and for many internal affections, it is a certain cure, yet it is perfectly harmless, and incapable of producing the least injurious effects in the most delicate cases or the weakest constitution.

It is entirely useless to follow the old and worn-out system of publishing to the public thousands of certificates of cures performed by this medicine. It costs but twenty-five cents to try it, and the King of Pain, with its well-earned reputation on the King of Pain doing all and more than he claims for it.

We would ask the Gentlemen, who are always competent judges of what is and what is not a valuable family medicine, to do us a special favor by giving the King of Pain a single trial, and if satisfactory, exert their influence in its behalf, recommend it, speak well of it, and let it be used by their afflicted neighbors. The Gentlemen are always charitable, and when they induce their suffering friends to use this really valuable medicine, they will be doing an act of benevolence that they can well be proud of. This is a powerful and truly magical remedy for all external diseases, sores, swellings, burns, etc., and for many internal affections, it is a certain cure, yet it is perfectly harmless, and incapable of producing the least injurious effects in the most delicate cases or the weakest constitution.

It is entirely useless to follow the old and worn-out system of publishing to the public thousands of certificates of cures performed by this medicine. It costs but twenty-five cents to try it, and the King of Pain, with its well-earned reputation on the King of Pain doing all and more than he claims for it.

We would ask the Gentlemen, who are always competent judges of what is and what is not a valuable family medicine, to do us a special favor by giving the King of Pain a single trial, and if satisfactory, exert their influence in its behalf, recommend it, speak well of it, and let it be used by their afflicted neighbors. The Gentlemen are always charitable, and when they induce their suffering friends to use this really valuable medicine, they will be doing an act of benevolence that they can well be proud of. This is a powerful and truly magical remedy for all external diseases, sores, swellings, burns, etc., and for many internal affections, it is a certain cure, yet it is perfectly harmless, and incapable of producing the least injurious effects in the most delicate cases or the weakest constitution.

It is entirely useless to follow the old and worn-out system of publishing to the public thousands of certificates of cures performed by this medicine. It costs but twenty-five cents to try it, and the King of Pain, with its well-earned reputation on the King of Pain doing all and more than he claims for it.

We would ask the Gentlemen, who are always competent judges of what is and what is not a valuable family medicine, to do us a special favor by giving the King of Pain a single trial, and if satisfactory, exert their influence in its behalf, recommend it, speak well of it, and let it be used by their afflicted neighbors. The Gentlemen are always charitable, and when they induce their suffering friends to use this really valuable medicine, they will be doing an act of benevolence that they can well be proud of. This is a powerful and truly magical remedy for all external diseases, sores, swellings, burns, etc., and for many internal affections, it is a certain cure, yet it is perfectly harmless, and incapable of producing the least injurious effects in the most delicate cases or the weakest constitution.

It is entirely useless to follow the old and worn-out system of publishing to the public thousands of certificates of cures performed by this medicine. It costs but twenty-five cents to try it, and the King of Pain, with its well-earned reputation on the King of Pain doing all and more than he claims for it.

We would ask the Gentlemen, who are always competent judges of what is and what is not a valuable family medicine, to do us a special favor by giving the King of Pain a single trial, and if satisfactory, exert their influence in its behalf, recommend it, speak well of it, and let it be used by their afflicted neighbors. The Gentlemen are always charitable, and when they induce their suffering friends to use this really valuable medicine, they will be doing an act of benevolence that they can well be proud of. This is a powerful and truly magical remedy for all external diseases, sores, swellings, burns, etc., and for many internal affections, it is a certain cure, yet it is perfectly harmless, and incapable of producing the least injurious effects in the most delicate cases or the weakest constitution.

It is entirely useless to follow the old and worn-out system of publishing to the public thousands of certificates of cures performed by this medicine. It costs but twenty-five cents to try it, and the King of Pain, with its well-earned reputation on the King of Pain doing all and more than he claims for it.

We would ask the Gentlemen, who are always competent judges of what is and what is not a valuable family medicine, to do us a special favor by giving the King of Pain a single trial, and if satisfactory, exert their influence in its behalf, recommend it, speak well of it, and let it be used by their afflicted neighbors. The Gentlemen are always charitable, and when they induce their suffering friends to use this really valuable medicine, they will be doing an act of benevolence that they can well be proud of. This is a powerful and truly magical remedy for all external diseases, sores, swellings, burns, etc., and for many internal affections, it is a certain cure, yet it is perfectly harmless, and incapable of producing the least injurious effects in the most delicate cases or the weakest constitution.

It is entirely useless to follow the old and worn-out system of publishing to the public thousands of certificates of cures performed by this medicine. It costs but twenty-five cents to try it, and the King of Pain, with its well-earned reputation on the King of Pain doing all and more than he claims for it.

We would ask the Gentlemen, who are always competent judges of what is and what is not a valuable family medicine, to do us a special favor by giving the King of Pain a single trial, and if satisfactory, exert their influence in its behalf, recommend it, speak well of it, and let it be used by their afflicted neighbors. The Gentlemen are always charitable, and when they induce their suffering friends to use this really valuable medicine, they will be doing an act of benevolence that they can well be proud of. This is a powerful and truly magical remedy for all external diseases, sores, swellings, burns, etc., and for many internal affections, it is a certain cure, yet it is perfectly harmless, and incapable of producing the least injurious effects in the most delicate cases or the weakest constitution.

It is entirely useless to follow the old and worn-out system of publishing to the public thousands of certificates of cures performed by this medicine. It costs but twenty-five cents to try it, and the King of Pain, with its well-earned reputation on the King of Pain doing all and more than he claims for it.

We would ask the Gentlemen, who are always competent judges of what is and what is not a valuable family medicine, to do us a special favor by giving the King of Pain a single trial, and if satisfactory, exert their influence in its behalf, recommend it, speak well of it, and let it be used by their afflicted neighbors. The Gentlemen are always charitable, and when they induce their suffering friends to use this really valuable medicine, they will be doing an act of benevolence that they can well be proud of. This is a powerful and truly magical remedy for all external diseases, sores, swellings, burns, etc., and for many internal affections, it is a certain cure, yet it is perfectly harmless, and incapable of producing the least injurious effects in the most delicate cases or the weakest constitution.

It is entirely useless to follow the old and worn-out system of publishing to the public thousands of certificates of cures performed by this medicine. It costs but twenty-five cents to try it, and the King of Pain, with its well-earned reputation on the King of Pain doing all and more than he claims for it.

We would ask the Gentlemen, who are always competent judges of what is and what is not a valuable family medicine, to do us a special favor by giving the King of Pain a single trial, and if satisfactory, exert their influence in its behalf, recommend it, speak well of it, and let it be used by their afflicted neighbors. The Gentlemen are always charitable, and when they induce their suffering friends to use this really valuable medicine, they will be doing an act of benevolence that they can well be proud of. This is a powerful and truly magical remedy for all external diseases, sores, swellings, burns, etc., and for many internal affections, it is a certain cure, yet it is perfectly harmless, and incapable of producing the least injurious effects in the most delicate cases or the weakest constitution.

It is entirely useless to follow the old and worn-out system of publishing to the public thousands of certificates of cures performed by this medicine. It costs but twenty-five cents to try it, and the King of Pain, with its well-earned reputation on the King of Pain doing all and more than he claims for it.

We would ask the Gentlemen, who are always competent judges of what is and what is not a valuable family medicine, to do us a special favor by giving the King of Pain a single trial, and if satisfactory, exert their influence in its behalf, recommend it, speak well of it, and let it be used by their afflicted neighbors. The Gentlemen are always charitable, and when they induce their suffering friends to use this really valuable medicine, they will be doing an act of benevolence that they can well be proud of. This is a powerful and truly magical remedy for all external diseases, sores, swellings, burns, etc., and for many internal affections, it is a certain cure, yet it is perfectly harmless, and incapable of producing the least injurious effects in the most delicate cases or the weakest constitution.

It is entirely useless to follow the old and worn-out system of publishing to the public thousands of certificates of cures performed by this medicine. It costs but twenty-five cents to try it, and the King of Pain, with its well-earned reputation on the King of Pain doing all and more than he claims for it.

We would ask the Gentlemen, who are always competent judges of what is and what is not a valuable family medicine, to do us a special favor by giving the King of Pain a single trial, and if satisfactory, exert their influence in its behalf, recommend it, speak well of it, and let it be used by their afflicted neighbors. The Gentlemen are always charitable, and when they induce their suffering friends to use this really valuable medicine, they will be doing an act of benevolence that they can well be proud of. This is a powerful and truly magical remedy for all external diseases, sores, swellings, burns, etc., and for many internal affections, it is a certain cure, yet it is perfectly harmless, and incapable of producing the least injurious effects in the most delicate cases or the weakest constitution.

It is entirely useless to follow the old and worn-out system of publishing to the public thousands of certificates of cures performed by this medicine. It costs but twenty-five cents to try it, and the King of Pain, with its well-earned reputation on the King of Pain doing all and more than he claims for it.

We would ask the Gentlemen, who are always competent judges of what is and what is not a valuable family medicine, to do us a special favor by giving the King of Pain a single trial, and if satisfactory, exert their influence in its behalf, recommend it, speak well of it, and let it be used by their afflicted neighbors. The Gentlemen are always charitable, and when they induce their suffering friends to use this really valuable medicine, they will be doing an act of benevolence that they can well be proud of. This is a powerful and truly magical remedy for all external diseases, sores, swellings, burns, etc., and for many internal affections, it is a certain cure, yet it is perfectly harmless, and incapable of producing the least injurious effects in the most delicate cases or the weakest constitution.

It is entirely useless to follow the old and worn-out system of publishing to the public thousands of certificates of cures performed by this medicine. It costs but twenty-five cents to try it, and the King of Pain, with its well-earned reputation on the King of Pain doing all and more than he claims for it.

ENW ARRANGEMENT AND NEW GOODS.
JOHN W. BURK,
HAS taken the store room formerly occupied by John Burk, Esq., on the corner of Pike and Green streets, where may be found a general assortment of Dry-Goods, Groceries, Hardware, Cutlery, Queensware, Crockery-Ware, and all such articles as are usually kept in a retail establishment. He pays particular attention to the purchase and sale of Country Produce, so that families can be supplied with provisions at all times. Being desirous of extending his business, he invites the public to give him a share of patronage, as he feels confident he can sell on as accommodating and cheap terms as any one in Crawfordsville.
January 27, 1854. v5n31.

Groceries! Groceries!!
The undersigned having just received a large assortment of Groceries, such as, Coffee, Sugar, Tea, Fish of all kinds, Molasses, Tobacco, Cigars, Salsinates, Table salt, Spices, Nuts, Candles, Raisins, pepper, Rice, Indigo, Madder, Soap, Wash-tubs, Wash-bowls, Tin-ware, Brooms, Buckets, Nails all sizes, Oils of all kinds, White-lead and SALT BY THE BARREL.
All of which will be sold cheap for cash, or exchanged for country produce. Give me a call.
no. 63, 52, n194. A. MANN.

Fresh Sugar Cured Hams.
THE undersigned has now on hand a quantity of Sugar cured hams for sale. A. P. MANN.
Feb. 9, 1854. n32. tf.

Wanted.
ALL kinds of country produce, for which the highest price will be paid by A. P. MANN.
Feb. 9, 1854. n32. tf.

Produce
OF all kinds kept constantly on hand and for sale by A. P. MANN.
Feb. 9, 1854. n32. tf.

Dried Beef.—An excellent article for sale by A. P. MANN.
Feb. 9, 1854. n32. tf.

The Enderment!
THE GREAT External remedy for Fever and Ague in all its forms! This justly popular preparation has met with unprecedented success during the past summer and fall. If you have the ague, try it.

Nothing taken internally.
Sole Wholesale and Retail by the Proprietors.
Dec. 2, 1853. T. D. BROWN & Co.

Crawfordsville Marble Works.
I. F. WADE,
DEALER IN MARBLE.

CONTINUES to carry on business at the old stand, east of the Bell Tavern, Main St., and is just receiving a new stock of superior Marble, which he will finish for all who may want, in good style, at reasonable rates. Monuments, Tombs, etc., either American or Italian, furnished to order.
June 7, 1853. n50. tf.

10,000 DOLLARS REWARD!
Is offered for a Better Receipt.
It contains no Opium, Calomel, or Mineral Poison, and is safe for the most delicate Child!

Dr. Wm. Hall's
BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS,
FOR THE CURE OF

Consumption, Decline, Asthma, Bronchitis, Wasting of the Flesh, Night Sweats, Spitting of blood, Hemoptoe, Coughs, Indigestion, Pains in the Side, and all Diseases of the Chest and Lungs.

It is estimated that 150,000 persons die annually in the United States with consumption, and Professor Eberly says that a vast number of these could be saved by the timely use of some prompt remedy. Dr. Hall's Balsam strikes at the root of the Disease at once, and such is its speedy effect, that any one using it freely, according to directions, for 24 or 48 hours, and not being entirely satisfied with its merits, may return it and receive back their money. Their money will be cheerfully refunded. The most distressing cough is frequently relieved by a single dose, and broken up in a few hours' time. The afflicted do not have to take bottles after bottle before they find whether this remedy will afford relief or not.

Call on the agent and get a pamphlet gratis. The Treatise on Consumption alone is worth more than the price of this medicine. You will find certificates of Physicians in Cincinnati, and of others whose names have been collected hereat home, where they can be found.

The public have been imposed upon by remedies recommended by certificates which have always originated from some unknown source. We believe that a Medicine possessing real merits will effect cures where other remedies used at the same well as abroad. This is no Paragon's preparation, but one which is used in season will save the lives of thousands; and persons may make this bargain with agents from whom they purchase, that in every case where it is used freely according to directions, and entire satisfaction is not given in 24 or 48 hours, they can return the medicine, and their money will be cheerfully refunded. For sale by Sloan & Morgan, Crawfordsville; Henry Ott, R. C. Armstrong, Lexington; T. W. Webster, Lancaster; John B. Hooper, Linden; Webster & Palmer, Shannondale; Joseph Milligan, Waverland; James & Bros., Parkersburg; A. L. Dilling, New Richmond; December 16, 1853. v5n24y1.

DR. VANDERBILT,
DENTAL SURGEON.

RESPECTFULLY tenders his services to the citizens of Crawfordsville and vicinity. He gives particular attention to carious teeth—millions of which are annually lost for want of timely and judicious treatment. Those that are in want of artificial teeth can send by mail and see specimens of the best manufacture of Porcelain Teeth in the West.

Having superior utility and ease to all requiring artificial substitutes, from a single tooth to an entire double set. All work warranted.
All operations pertaining to the science carefully attended to with the least possible pain.
Dental Rooms in Washington Hall.
November 4, 1853. v5n13tf.

Baldness Cured!
EMERSON'S AMERICAN HAIR RESTORATIVE.

FOR Restoring the Hair on Heads, Faces, Eyebrows, and to prevent the Hair from falling, is winning golden opinions of persons who are using it. This is a new article, recently introduced, is a sure cure for Baldness, and will stand the test of a discriminating Public, as thousands who have used with testify. See Circular to be had of the agents, giving full particulars. Price $1.00 in large Bottles. Sold by Sloan & Morgan, Agent.
C. E. FISHER & CO., Proprietors,
57 Superior Street, Cleveland, Ohio.
December 9, 1853. v5n23y1.

SILK TISSUES. figured and plain, at CRAWFORD & MULLIKIN'S.

ALL kinds of Groceries kept at CRAWFORD & MULLIKIN'S.

Hardware and Queensware, a good assortment on hand at CRAWFORD & MULLIKIN'S.

TARLATANS, blue and pink, at CRAWFORD & MULLIKIN'S.

DRUGS & MEDICINES.
SLOAN & MORGAN,
ARE just receiving their Spring stock consisting of a very large, and splendid assortment of fine
Drugs, Medicines, Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Dye-stuffs, Perfumery, Stationery, Fancy Articles, &c., &c.
Our Stock was purchased in New York, from the importers, and very carefully selected by one of the firm in person; consequently the public may rely on every article being PURE and UNADULTERATED.
PHYSICIANS and all others, are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves, as we are prepared and determined to sell at as low prices as any other establishment of the kind in the State, the windy boasting of defying all competition to the contrary notwithstanding.
Crawfordsville, June 16, 1853. n51.

Fancy Articles.
THE largest and best assortment of Perfumery, Soaps, and Fancy articles generally, that has ever been brought to this market, for sale at

SLOAN & MORGAN'S.
June 16, 53. n51.

Cigars and Tobacco.
OF THE best quality, always on hand, and for sale at the Drug Store of

SLOAN & MORGAN.
June 16, 53. n51.

Ground Paints.
WE have the best Paint Mill ever brought to the place. Ground and mixed Paints of every description, can at all times be had at the Drug store of

SLOAN & MORGAN.
June 16, 53. n51.

Tanners Oil.
A pure article, by the Barrel, or single Gallon, for sale at the Drug store of

SLOAN & MORGAN.
June 16, 53. n51.

REMOVAL.
CABINET AND CHAIR WARE ROOMS.

Having removed our shop on the corner of Washington street two doors north of the court-house, where we may be found a assortment of Chairs & Furniture, we solicit a share of public patronage. Undertaking attended to as usual.
THOS. J. T. ROSS.
IRVIN WHITE.
October 7, 1853. v5n14tf.

JUST RECEIVED.
WE HAVE JUST RECEIVED AND OPENED our Fall supply of DRUGS, MEDICINES, CHEMICALS, PAINTS, OILS, VARNISHES, STATIONERY, PATENT MEDICINES, GLASSWARE, WINDOW GLASS, PUTTY, BRUSHES, etc., which we intend to sell as low as can be afforded by any house in the Wabash Valley, or the State of Indiana.

Physicians will do well to call and examine our stock of Chemicals and Select Powders, which were brought from the importers with special reference to the wants of the profession. We will pay particular attention to the prescription business, and are prepared to attend to calls at all hours, and on notice. Tombs, Monuments, etc., either American or Italian, furnished to order.
Don't forget to call at the old stand, one door east of the Eagle Hotel.
T. D. BROWN & Co.
Crawfordsville, December 2, 1853.

PAIN! PAIN! PAIN!
Who would suffer with pain one single hour for the price of a bottle of Dr. Baker's Pain Panacea?

Dr. Baker's Pain Panacea,
For the cure of pain both external and internal. The greatest pain-curing remedy yet discovered. Pain can not exist where this remedy is faithfully used!

One Single Dose!
Has given immediate relief in thousands of cases, where persons were suffering with the most excruciating pain, both in the stomach and bowels! Others of cramp-like colic, others of cramp throughout the whole system; others of violent attacks of diarrhoea, and others of cholera.

One Single Application
Will give (almost) instantaneous relief in cases of Burns, Toothache, Headache, Neuralgia, Swellings, and Inflammatory Rheumatism. If it is applied according to directions.

Give it One Fair Trial.
And if you do not find it to be what it is recommended, go back to the agent and get double the amount of money refunded. We make this offer, knowing that what this medicine has done in thousands of cases, it will do again.

In Chronic Diseases
Such as Dyspepsia, Weak Breast, Liver complaint, general debility, fever and ague, cancer or sore throat, neuralgia, rheumatism, and all the kindred diseases, old sores, coughs and colds.

In the above named diseases it only needs to be faithfully used, according to directions, and a cure is certain!

Get a Pamphlet
Of our agent. There you will find well authenticated evidence of its great healing propensities; and when you have once used the medicine you would not be without it for ten times its price.

Denounce it a Humbug!
We call upon those who are deceived by the use of this medicine, to denounce it to the world, and to inform the public that it is not a humbug, but that others may not be deceived by a worthless article. Recollect the genuine is signed

O. R. BAKER, M. D.
Price 25, 50, and $1.00 per bottle. For sale by Sloan & Morgan, Crawfordsville; Henry Ott, R. C. Armstrong, Lexington; T. W. Webster, Lancaster; John B. Hooper, Linden; Webster & Palmer, Shannondale; Joseph Milligan, Waverland; James & Bros., Parkersburg; A. L. Dilling, New Richmond; December 16, 1853. v5n24y1.

NEW BOOKS.
JUST RECEIVED A LARGE ASSORTMENT of New Books and Notions at our

Book and Notion Store.

We have greatly enlarged our rooms, and our stock is much larger than ever heretofore comprising one of the best selected stocks of Gold Jewelry that we have ever had the pleasure of offering in this market. We have, positively, over one hundred different styles of

EAR RINGS AND BREAST PINS,
That will give the purchaser every advantage over those small lots; the largest assortment of assorted Watches in the country; both gold and silver chains and keys.

Musical Instruments of all kinds.
One hundred assorted accordions, musical boxes, violins, guitars, banjos, flutes and fies, tamborines, lutes, etc.; a fine assortment of revolving pistols, bowie knives, guns and shot; a better assortment of notions and fancy goods you cannot find anywhere; and to all those who want to buy silk and crape shawls and parasols