

FIRST RATE.
We are indebted to the Louisville Journal for the following good story:
CONGRESSIONAL MORALITY.—We were infinitely amused three or four weeks ago by a practical joke in Washington City upon a number of the nice men of Congress. It was too good to be left unpublished.
A couple of merry fellows one of them a distinguished member of Congress from a Southern State, and the other a distinguished ex-editor from Kentucky, concocted a letter purporting to be addressed by a young lady to a very fine-looking gentleman. It was got up in first-rate style. The pretended young lady set forth therein that she had several times seen the gentleman she was addressing, that she was fascinated by his fine face and manly form, that her heart was deeply touched by all she saw and heard of him, that she must make his acquaintance before his departure from the city, that she hoped and prayed he would forgive her seeming boldness as it was the first imprudent act of her life, that she had always moved and was still moving in the highest circles of the Capital, that she would be upon a certain square of a certain street at precisely 12 o'clock on the following day, in a dress which she described with great particularity, and that she hoped and trusted he would meet her and thus afford her an opportunity of a brief personal intercourse with the idol of her heart.
The two ways had between thirty and forty copies of this letter written by a female friend of theirs, and they sent these copies to between thirty and forty members of Congress, selecting those of course who were known to entertain a very exalted opinion of their own personal fascinations.
Everything being thus arranged, the two jokers called upon us and another young gentleman, explained what they had done, and invited us to get into their carriage, ride with them to the point of assignation, and see the sights. We unhesitatingly consented, and we saw sights sure enough.—Riding upon the designated square, we beheld the whole of the thirty or forty members, Northern men and Southern men, Whigs, Democrats, and Know Nothings, walking to and fro, all gazing earnestly in every direction and at every female figure to discover the object of their anxious search.
We concluded, that, if more copies of the letter had been sent to members of the House of Representatives, the House would have had to adjourn for the want of a quorum.
“HUE AND CRY.”
The excitement occasioned by the flight of the assassin Baker, who killed Poole, was felt around the whole country. At Bergen the people turned out and chased down a man who was Baker for certain—at Amboy, the same zeal was displayed, and the counterpart of Baker was juggled, and the New York Police was telegraphed; at Philadelphia, their Baker was Constabulary sent for. One of these Bakers turned out to be a drunken school master on a spree, another a peddler of lottery tickets, and a third an itinerant preacher. If they keep on at this rate, they will soon have a “Baker’s dozen.”
It is suggested that all Napoleon’s preparations are making for a visit, not to the Crimea, but to Berlin; that the allies have abandoned all hope of taking Sebastopol, or at least have concluded that it will cost a great deal more to take the place than it is worth, and that they will march through Prussia, if she consents, and over her, if she resists into Poland. The Crimean destination, and the rumored opposition of the British cabinet, is deemed merely a ruse to ward off suspicion until the result of the Vienna conference is disclosed.
The election for members of the Legislature in Kansas, took place yesterday.
MARRIED.—On the 23d inst., by Eld. M. M. Vanhook, Mr. JAMES M. Cox and Miss CATHERINE Goble; both of this place.
On Thursday evening, March 29, by Rev. James H. Johnston, Mr. ROBERT BLAIR and Miss JENNIE JOHNSON; all of this place.
Accompanying each of the above marriages was a bountiful supply of cake, which the entire couple partook of, and one and all, including the devil, expressed themselves in appropriate speeches on the occasion, and all joined in wishing the parties long life, happiness and abundant success.

Crawfordsville Nursery.
THE undersigned has ordered a select variety of Apple, Peach & Cherry trees, to be on hand by the 10th of April, which added to his present stock of Apple and Pear trees, will be sufficient to supply their spring demand. CRAWFORDSVILLE FEMALE SEMINARY.
THE WINTER TERM OPENS ON THE 2nd DAY OF JANUARY, 1855.
Under the efficient management of the President of the Institution, Rev. JAMES H. JOHNSON, who gives his entire time to the government and instruction of the school.
The Trustees and Teachers would express their gratitude to the citizens of Crawfordsville, for the liberal patronage they have thus far afforded, and solicit a like liberality in future.
The course of instruction is thorough, and special attention is paid to the moral and religious, as well as intellectual training of the pupils, while nothing of a sectarian character is allowed.
It is exceedingly desirable that the scholars should be prompt in their attendance at the beginning of the term. The new school room handsomely furnished with Wales’ patent desks and chairs, is now ready for the accommodation of the Seminary. The room is spacious, and will be found pleasant and attractive. The assistant teachers are Miss CATHERINE MERRILL, Miss ELLEN CATCART, and Miss EMMA HOWE, teachers of music.
