Democratic Mass

ON WEDNESDAY
August 29th, 1855.

THE WHOLE PEOPLE ARE COMING!!

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

There will be a meeting of the National Democracy of Montgomery county at Brown's Valley, on SATURDAY THE 1st OF SEPTEMBER.

Col. S. C. Wilson, Lew. Wallace, J. E. McDonald, Daniel W. Voorhees and M. D. Manson, will be in attendance and address the people. The ball will be started, come out and keep it moving.
By the Democrats of BROWN TOWNSHIP.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

The National Democracy of Wayne township will meet at the usual place of holding elections on Saturday the 18th of August. Let every National man be in attendance.

Fry publishes an article from the New York Journal of Commerce concerning the late terrible butchery in Louisville, which he gives his readers to understand is democratic authority. Every intelligent white man knows that the above paper is no more democratic than the New York Herald, and as usual the oath-bound liar and cumulator presumes too much upon the credulity and ignorance of his readers. His miserable and cowardly attempt to throw the blame upon the Democratic party, is but the re-echoing of his blood stained monitor, George Demon Prentice. Terrible will be the day of retribution when these monsters of blood shall appear before the tribunal of a just and avenging God.

Sue a bankrupt, and you catch about as much as you would to sue a beggar.—Fry.

We apprehend certain hungry creditors of the Doctor's have long felt the truth of this maxim. We have no desire to be personal, particularly when the poor devil reflects his deformities before his own mirror.

His cowardly subrosa charges us with being a "street fighter." This is an appellation to which we have but slight claims.—Fry.

We know personally of not less than three street fights this sanctimonious hypocrite has been engaged in. One where the cowardly wretch pursued his victim with a huge club, and aiming a blow which had it struck the object of his wrath, would undoubtedly have been attended with as fatal results as the dreadful homicide on last Wednesday. Rather than deny this charge let him seek with the Cain's of the earth absolution and repentance.

The Democracy of Coal Creek will meet at the usual place of voting on Thursday the 30th of August.

A Know Nothing council in Warrenton, Alabama, has blown up, and its papers surrendered to the District Regulator, and the presiding officer is exposing the rotten thing in an easy way. The Democrats are flying from it everywhere as from a killing epidemic.

"The author of the Editorial in the Review of the 4th," in reply to the Journal of this week, begs leave to state to said Journal man, that the charge of "Northern doughface" against him, is only a misnomer for political honesty. In these days when it is most popular to hate the Union and curse the Constitution, epithets are only a substitute for arguments; and it is invariably true, that those who are gifted with the largest fund of harsh names, are also endowed with the largest resources of small ideas.

The Journal man also takes umbrage at the expression "graded stock" applying to the Convention spoken of by the "author of the Editorial in the Review of the 4th," and the coward tries to shield himself behind the ladies, whom he speaks of as being present. Well, that is a clear dodge,—about equivalent to a run, and as the "author of the Editorial" has always made it a rule not to pursue an antagonist who either flees or hides, he has no disposition to vary from it in this instance. The Journal man has been talking a long time about "Squatter Sovereignty," really the application was never fully indicated until just now. We hope the ladies will be merciful towards him, and not scold him or spit upon him, that he has so far lost his manhood as to make a screen of them; for he is a very kind good soul to all the fair portion of creation, and then when he is dressed up, and has a clean dicky on, and in the enjoyment of that dignity and repose incident to safety, he is a rather distracting looking little man.

"Give us American politics and American religion."—Kenneth Raynor.

We don't know of any American religion, except Mormonism, Shakerism, and Millerism. These are native American religions. The Christian religion, we believe, is of foreign origin, and its founder not a native of America.

A citizen of Morgan county, Ind., who had been seduced into a Know Nothing council, gives the result of his experience to the public, through the Martinsville Monitor, in the following pregnant paragraph:

"Reader, you may think you hate Know Nothings, but, until you are initiated into its secrets, and witness something of the high and depth of its iniquity, the solemn mockery of its rituals, and the completeness of its tyranny, its fiend-like indifference, and its utter disregard of moral honesty, you will not know what to detest.

"Then if you are true to yourself, your country and your God, you will have so great a detestation for the order that you will avoid a bona fide member as a political demagogue, and shun a lodge as a Upas tree."

"That the American party acted prudently, we are not ready to say, nay, we believe they went too far, and suffered their excited and maddened feelings to drive them into unnecessary and unwarrantable excesses."—Montgomery Journal.

Wonderful and lenient admission! It is positively conceded that the American party did not deport itself with entire prudence in the late riots at Louisville! Well, we guess the Journal man is about right this time. Allowed "their excited and maddened feelings to drive them into unnecessary and unwarrantable excesses!" Yes, if mad cursings, blockading the ballot-box, dashing an innocent infants brains out, burning houses, storming churches, butchery and blood, are "excesses," then the Journal man is right, for the American party stands convicted of all this crime before the country.

BANNERS.

The National Democracy will be supplied on short notice by T. H. Winton, with all kind of banners, on better terms than any person in the state. Shop in Commercial Row, 3d story, opposite the Review Office.

The Board of Directors of the Montgomery County Agricultural Society, are requested to meet at the Office of the County Auditor, on Saturday the 25th day of August, 1855, at 1 o'clock, P. M. A full attendance is desired, as business of importance will be before the Board.

T. W. FRY, President.

The dangers of Catholicism in Tennessee are thus noticed in the Chattanooga Advertiser:

"The Know Nothings are calling upon the people of Tennessee to arouse, arm, and go forward to battle—to battle against what?—why simply against the three Catholic churches that the census of 1850 gives as in Tennessee. What a grand spectacle!—Behold! two thousand and eleven Protestant churches are to be arrayed against three Catholic churches! What a smash!—and then outsiders are called upon to join the churches to put down those three Catholic churches! O tempora! What are we not coming to! Only think of the fight—two thousand and eleven Protestant churches and the outsiders against THREE Catholic churches. Will not the sun stand still to witness the contest?"

A minister in Connecticut recently wound up his forenoon discourse by advising such of his congregation as had had out, to "go to work and get it in, for it looked likely to rain." A fact.

LOUISVILLE RIOT ITEMS.

We clip the following additional items from the Louisville papers of the 10th:

We do not expect ever to be able to record one-tenth of the outrages on Monday, but every day adds to the list. A Protestant German, on Tenth street, next door to Chesnut, was so badly wounded in the breast by a pistol ball that his recovery is considered doubtful. Two Irishmen were pursued by an infuriated crowd to the corner of Ninth and Magazine streets, where they stopped. The crowd, however, attacked a house there and shot one man and cut another across the breast. Both were severely injured.—Louisville Courier.

We learn that the upper part of the city presents a strange spectacle at night. Everything is still as death—no stir upon the streets—not even from one neighbor's house to another. The reign of terror is completely established. All confidence between neighbors and friends is broken up, and the houses are darkened and closed with the hope that the very stillness and silence within, will secure safety.

Think of this, citizens of Louisville.—Should such things be? No. How natural, then, to look to the causes of these marvelous changes. Behold the sad effects of political excitement. Say that in the ordinary combination of parties such could be, and you at once belie the experience of all the past. It is the promptings of a new-born zeal, or the mandates of an oath-bound political faction, that has led to the flow of blood in the recent election.

Tell us no more of fairness—no more of justice! "Truth and justice have fled to brutish beasts, and men have lost their reason."—Louisville Democrat.

We have already mentioned the fact of an offensive Irishman being brutally assaulted at the Court House on Monday, and that some ruffian ran a pitch-fork into his body. After marching about for some time, the blood of the poor victim all the while dripping from the prongs of the fork, the ruffian, who by the way, it is said, was from New Albany, stuck a loaf of bread on the fork and shouldering it, continued his march through the streets. No effort was made to arrest him.—Lou. Courier.

FROM THE RUINS.—Yesterday the remains of a woman and child were taken from the ruins at Main and Eleventh streets, the woman's head was crushed until it was almost flat—not more than two or three inches thick. There are two bodies recovered—let no man deny it.—Lou. Dem.

A large number of Germans and Irish have arrived in our city within the past two days from Louisville. In a conversation yesterday evening with a couple of intelligent young Germans, who have recently officiated as book-keepers in two wholesale German houses in that city, we learned that a large number of the foreign merchants there are about closing up their business at all hazards, preparatory to leaving the doomed place.—Cin. Enq.

OUTRAGES OF MONDAY.—Mr. Blackford of the Seventh Ward, went to the polls about noon. They asked him how long he had lived in this country. He was born in Jessamine county, in this State, and his father and grandfather were native-born. He had lived two months and a half in the Ward. The polls were not crowded, and the call was for voters. When asked how he voted, he had no ticket and was at a loss for names, but he said he voted the Democratic ticket. The reply was, that there was no such ticket. He named Clarke as the candidate. The overseers cried out, Sag Nichts; he has been there long enough. He finished voting and started out, when he was seized and badly beaten by the bullies. He still bears the marks on his head and face. He is a peaceable man, and gave not the least provocation.

Mr. Roberts went to the Fourth Ward poll. He spoke to one of the candidates, and upon going to the door he was met by a regulator, who asked him how he was going to vote. He answered, the Democratic ticket. Then you can't vote here; and the word was followed by a blow from the bully, that sent him out into the street.

At the First Ward poll, in the morning, there was a constant scene of violence.—The polls were crowded. Mr. Beman saw a German who was in the crowd pulled out and blows aimed at him. The man implored them not to strike him, as he had done no harm; he only wanted to vote; but he would leave if they would let him go. Mr. Beman interceded, and the voter got away with whole bones. In a few minutes afterward another German was dragged out of the crowd and beaten by the bullies. Beman seeing the man likely to be killed—a bully laying upon him with a club—interceded again, but was this time struck a stunning blow on the head with a club, which disabled him from further efforts.—Louisville Democrat.

The New Albany bullies who visited our city on Monday were claiming all the glory of the outrages and excesses committed on the night of the election.—Courier.

We understand that these same New Albany rascals, while the mob surrounded the Times office, congratulated each other upon having brought about that act of the mob.—Louisville Times.

The Know Nothings, having run most of the Germans out of the city, now make nightly excursions into the country, with the hope of finding food for their hellish passions. The Germans and Irish in the country have, however, managed to escape their savage foes.—Lou. Times.

THAT NIGGER.—The nigger, who was on the platform of the Abolition Convention on the 13th, has made himself known, and who do you think he is, ye old citizens of Rushville? Why, no other than Bartow who some years ago, kept a barber's shop in this place! What a happy meeting that must have been between him and his "Abolition brudders" from Rushville! A most thrilling reunion! How delighted the darkey was to see his old friends! We presume, it was through the influence of the Rash county seat beside the President of the Convention.—Rushville Jacksonian.

LATER FROM EUROPE—ARRIVAL OF THE AMERICA.

HALIFAX, Wednesday, August 15.

The Royal Mail Steamship America, from Liverpool, en route for Boston, arrived here this evening. She brings Liverpool dates to August 4th.

The news presents no feature of special importance.

The Allies were daily extending their advances towards the Redan and Malakoff towers, and the assault was anxiously looked for.

Latest advices from the Crimea are to July 30th, on which day Gortschakoff telegraphs there had been a partial cannonade on both sides, but nothing of importance.

A grand secret expedition was in preparation, and the harbors of Kameisch and Balaklava were crowded with vessels to take part in it.

The French Government is said to have chartered 97 small steamers for river service, each to be capable of carrying 500 men.

Rumors were current in Paris on the 3d, that the bombardment of the Malakoff tower and the Redan had been recommenced.

A dispatch received at London from the latest moment, states that the News learns that the siege of Sebastopol is about to be raised, and that communications of a momentous character had just been received from Germany by the Western Powers.

Accounts from Western Asia state that a victory had been gained by the Russians, and another report says it is stated that the Russians were retiring from Kars and Erzeroum.

From the Baltic there was no news.

The Queen had sent a message to Parliament that provisions be made for any extraordinary expenses which may arise, which was followed by a proposition from the Chancellor of the Exchequer to issue £7,000,000 sterling additional in Exchequer bills.

The difficulties arising out of recruiting troops in the United States had been referred to in Parliament and Lord Palmerston stated the practice had been put a stop to. The official report of the new French loan shows that 3,600,000,000 francs were bid for, being six times the amount asked.

There were doubtful rumors that Spain would send a contingent to the Crimea.

The statement that the King of Naples had asked for the presence of Austrian troops is contradicted.

From the other parts of Europe there is no news of importance.

LIVERPOOL MARKETS.—Cotton declined 1-16d. Sales 35,000 bales, 3,500 to speculators. New Orleans fair 7. Middlings 6-3-16. Breadstuffs, prices unchanged. Transactions moderate on account of stormy weather. Accounts of the grain crops generally favorable. Western Canal Flour 40s@40s 6d. Good Ohio 43@44s.

Provisions.—Prices unchanged. Money tighter.—Consols for money 91½.

A NEGRO PAPER ADVOCATING THE FUSION TICKET.—The Herald of Freedom, a paper edited by a "nigger," thus rejoices over the nomination of Salmon P. Chase by the so-called (but in reality Abolition) Republican party of Ohio. It says:

"The Republican Convention at Columbus very appropriately celebrated the anniversary of the ordinance of freedom by nominating Salmon P. Chase for the Governorship of Ohio; and, if the people of the State be not utterly lost to all sense of right, they will next October approve the nomination, and stamp it as one eminently fit to be made."

"Mr. Chase's firm and unwavering opposition to the encroachments of the slave power during his term in the Senate, and his exposition of the great wrong of the Fugitive Act and of the Nebraska-Kansas Bill, entitle him to the thanks of all right-thinking men in the State."

"Mr. Chase is destined, we trust to honor higher yet, when the nation shall awake from the long trance produced by the insidious poison of the slave system."

The Herald of Freedom evidently thinks that if Chase is elected the "Underground Railroad will flourish."

The Indianapolis Republican in alluding to the celebration by the negroes of the Emancipation of the negroes of the West Indies, complimented them by calling them "our colored brethren."

The Indianapolis Journal, in speaking of the law of Indiana which prevents negroes from testifying against white men, in courts of justice, denounced it as a foolish and improper law.

Two big, saucy negroes have taken the stump for the Chase Abolition ticket in the north western counties of Ohio. The Republican alias Abolition Convention Loraine County, Ohio, passed the following resolution:

"Resolved, That it is the sense of this Convention that the colored people are entitled to have the elective franchise given them."

In noticing these movements the Columbus Statesman well remarks:

"This is a proper prelude to the change to be proposed if the Fusion ticket should be successful—giving to negroes in Ohio the right of voting and eligibility to office. Yet the ruling wing of the party who will do this thing, if in power, are pledged to shut out white Roman Catholics and white foreigners from the rights with which that party wish to invest the African."

ABOLITION PHILANTHROPY.—E. BACKUS, a Virginia slave, who wished to redeem himself and family, made application to the grand anti-Nebraska fusion convention which assembled in Ravenna, Portage co., Ohio, on the 4th of July, for aid, and received the magnificent sum of eighty-two cents. He then waited on a friend of the Nebraska bill, who pledged himself for the whole amount.

FROM THE ALBANY ATLAS. THE CRUSADE EXTENDING—ASSAULT ON THE METHODISTS.

We have noticed the movements of the know-Nothings of New Jersey against the Methodists, and the public meeting held in New York to denounce them. It appears that a Mr. Graves is out in a volume having the same object—called "The Iron Wheel, or Republicanism Backward, and Christianity Reversed." A writer in the Cortland Democrat quotes some specimens of the vindictive work:

"Methodism cannot be justly called a church of Christ. 'Methodism a human invention—is the granddaughter of Rome—the grandchild of the man of sin, and son of perdition; the church cannot fellowship it.' The first chapter of the discipline wholly untrue. 'Methodism without either altar or divinity—its members are preachers all unconverted.' 'Methodism the Popery of Protestantism,' &c. 'The doctrine of the power of the keys held by the Methodist clergy in common with the Pope.' 'Thirty untruths taught in the baptism of an infant.'"

"Masonry has equal,—yes, far superior claims than Methodism to assume the title and demand the regard and consideration of a Church of Christ. 'It is a society set on foot by a man, not professing the slightest conformity to the word of God.'"

"What is such a society but a great rival and antagonistic institution to the church set up by the God of Heaven?"

"The Methodist system is death to all the institutions for which Washington fought and freemen died. 'All the Methodist preachers in this country were tyrants,' and yet he says again 'Methodism is only sixty-eight years old! The Methodists are the merest puppets ever wired or worked by stratagem. Oh, my country! how much is to be feared for thy liberties from these?'"

"The Methodism of the Discipline is a naked clerical despotism, and in essence Popery.—'Jesuitism.' 'A Methodist society is an institution, not a church.' 'I unhesitatingly pronounce it ANTI-CHRIST.' 'The preachers are tyrants, circuit riders, 'scandal mongers,' hypocrites and deceivers.'"

THE NIGGER THAT CAUSED THE TROUBLE.—We were not a little amused at a circumstance that occurred at the late fusion gathering at Columbus. When Chase was declared the nominee for Governor, a portion of the delegates from Hamilton, from Ross, and other counties found it difficult to restrain their indignation, whilst others let loose their "pent up wrath" on everything that came in their way. One stiff-necked hunk from Ross left the Convention perfectly livid with rage as soon as Chase's nomination was announced.

As he stepped on to the pavement he met a regular live Sanibo, black as the ace of spades. This was more than he could stand. Looking daggers at the darkey for a moment, he exclaimed:

"Get out of my way you infernal black scoundrel, you are the d-d nigger that's causing all this trouble!" Sanibo dodged off the track as soon as possible, and prepared to dodge a brick bat.—New Lisbon O. Patriot.

That miserable old rascal, Pap Taylor, of the Cincinnati Times, has been at his old tricks. He got out an edition of his paper, filled with the vilest abolitionism, and sent it to Connecticut to operate on the elections in that State. A few weeks afterwards he got out a pro-slavery edition of his paper and sent it to Virginia, to influence the elections there. From our Kentucky exchanges we learn that the wretched old hypocrite has now published an edition of his paper for exclusive circulation in that State, the tone of whose articles is entirely different from those which he sends to his Northern subscribers. His Southern Times declares vehemently that Sam is in favor of the extension of slavery, and his Northern Times declares with equal vehemence that this same Sam is anti-slavery to the backbone. A party which resorts to such flimsy and disreputable tricks to carry an election cannot be far from its own end and the end of a rope.—N. A. Ledger.
