LAST CALL.

Every man who has neglected to pay his subscription for the last year and those who are in arrears since 1854 are requested to make immediate settlement and save cost, as we intend to commence suing—We have thrown grass long enough and like the old man in the fable shall try what virtue there is stones.

ATTENTION OLD LINERS.

The Democracy of Coal Creek township will meet on Saturday the 31st of March, at 1 o'clock P. M., at the Bristol Ridge School House, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the April election. Let every conservative and union loving man turn out. We must give Negrophobia a warming in Old Coal.

THE WEATHER.—Last Wednesday was a lovely day, the air soft and balmy as a day in June. On Tuesday night we were visited with a violent thunder-storm, and many were the predictions that we should have a keen northeaster, accompanied with snow and sleet on the next day. But the morning broke with a clear, cloudless sky, the sweet melody of the feathered songsters rounded in every grove, and everything seemed to wear renewed life and beauty—March has entered the calendar of the year like a lamb, but at the present time of writing, he has begun to put on the airs of a lion, his soft breezes have changed into bleak winds.

W⁷ T. D. Brown has received another package of Boehrhave's celebrated Holland Bitters. This is the most popular medicine ever sold. Mr. B. has sold over two thousand bottles during the past year—The cures it performs, are speedy and permanent.

GRAHAM BROTHERS.

This firm have now the finest store-room in town, the new addition being about completed. James Graham is now in New York, making the spring and summer purchases. It is the intention of the firm to open in a few days with one of the largest and most magnificent stock of goods ever introduced in the western market.

JOHN L. ROBINSON AND THE BLACK REPUBLICAN PARTY.—For sometime past it has been apparent that this dirty dog whose former connection with the Democratic party was always a disgrace, has been playing into the hands of the Black Republican leaders of the State. So apparent has this become, that the State Sentinel not long since openly exposed his treachery. His occupation at present, is feeding with the scanty official crumbs of his office, publishers of Black Republican papers. Knowing himself to be disgraced in the eyes of the Democracy of the State, he is now currying favor with the enemy.

Campbell, Galey & Harter are beginning to receive their stock of spring and summer goods.

THE CRAIN HOUSE.—This old favorite is daily thronged with visitors. It is one of the best hotels in the west.

THE REPUBLICAN VICTORY AT CHICAGO

The Editor of the Journal, in speaking of the recent Republican victory at Chicago, says:

"CHICAGO CITY ELECTION.—We learn by telegraph, (this Wednesday morning) that the city election, which took place in Chicago, on Tuesday of this week, resulted in the election of the entire Republican Ticket, by 700 majority. John Wentworth, was the Republican candidate for Mayor. Hurrah, for 'Long John'."

That our readers may know something of the character of Long John, we give the following extract from an article published a few weeks previous to the Republican Convention, from the Press and Tribune of that city, the leading organ of the Republican party of the North-west—Wentworth's nomination was unexpected by the Republicans, and his success in convention a surprise. Yet notwithstanding his infamous character, they all voted for him, a striking exemplification of the consistency of modern Republicanism—

Resolved, That the "cold collation" that we found waiting our arrival in Lafayette, was a Royal Banquet, and the giver, John L. REYNOLDS, Esq., has once again proven his title—"Prince John." The Star City ought to be proud of him, as she is, as a citizen.

Resolved, That "CARMICHAEL," mine host of the Palmer House, Indianapolis, indeed a "host in himself." To travelers by whom this faint tribute may chance to be seen, we say, If the Capital by your destination, go to the Palmer House. Carmichael reigns there, and that means everything—choice rooms, choice servants, and edibles and drinkables par excellence.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be made out and one forwarded to each of the parties concerned.

Resolved, That the Editors of our own town papers, those of Greencastle, Indianapolis and Lafayette, be requested to publish the foregoing resolutions.

beyond their individual welfare and prosperity; it is, that they will speedily bring their banner from its darkening, and in the light of its stars be again the goodly company we so heartily remember.

FROM OUR RIPLEY CORRESPONDENT.

Mr. EDISON: Having occasion to visit the town of Yountsville, and being somewhat inquisitive in regard to the political affairs of the place, and hearing that there was to be a political meeting that evening at the Universalist Church—believing all meetings of the kind, public places, I took my place with the "friends," as a spectator.

A loud-mouthed prater about public morals, he is a personal exemplar of all the vices and corruption of city life. Holding forth regularly on the evils of intemperance and prostitution, he is notoriously a victim of both—presenting to the young men of the city and state, in his own person, the gravest possible warning against those intimacies. With great parade about fidelity to the taxpayers, his administration was actually less economical than that of his successor, when he fell to maligning the moment he found the latter would not be his toady. His prosecutions for public offences were carried on, as he made no scruple of avowing for purposes of revenue only. Glaring frauds were perpetrated on the tax-payers, while the mayor was gratifying his prurient tastes by the presence of abandoned females in his room at the court house—carrying on such conversation as disgusted his own employees. He used the money of the city for the vilest of all purposes, and the vouchers are now on file in the controller's office for the money expended at his order by agents in the business of public prostitution. It is well known, too, that he narrowly escaped indictment for this offence, which, if proved upon him, would have made him successor to the dredger and O'Malley, in the city birdwell.

LEGITIMACY TRIUMPHANT—M-FARLAND WITHDRAWN.

The question so often asked, "What is the question?" seems at the present period of being satisfactorily answered. That there were unmistakable evidences of Bourbonism being amongst us, as was often manifested by our present M. C. is well known to our readers. The only question seemed to be, whether it was a pure Galli extraction, or a bogus imitation from Kentucky. The withdrawal of Dr. M. Farland settles the question. Billy Wilson, the little brother of Jimmy, is to have the race. Billy is a legitimist, an heir-apparent to the office. Among his train-followers, who delight to "crook the pregnant hinges of the knee," in obsequious homage to royal lineage, is Abram Horner, unsophisticated Abram. Abe wears Billy's livery, and in case of success, has the promise of the Loyalist.
