

THE WEEKLY REVIEW.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, IND.

Saturday, May 19, 1860.

Printed and Published every Saturday Morning, by CHARLES H. BOWEN.

THE Crawfordsville Review, furnished to Subscribers at $1.50 in advance.

CIRCULATION LARGER THAN ANY PAPER PUBLISHED IN CRAWFORDSVILLE!

Advertisers, call up and examine our List of SUBSCRIBERS.

For President in 1860,

STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS,

Subject to the decision of the Democratic National Convention, to be held at BALTIMORE.

Democratic State Ticket.

For GOVERNOR, THOMAS A. HENDRICKS, of Shelby.

For LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR, DAVID TURNIP, of White.

For SECRETARY OF STATE, WILLIAM H. SCHLATER, of Wayne.

For AUDITOR OF STATE, JOSEPH RISTINE, of Fountain.

For TREASURER OF STATE, NATHAL F. CUNNINGHAM, of Vigo.

For ATTORNEY GENERAL, OSCAR B. HORD, of Decatur.

For SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION, SAMUEL L. RUGG, of Allen.

For CLERK SUPREME COURT, CORNELIUS O'BRIEN, of Dearborn.

For REPORTER SUPREME COURT, MICHAEL C. KERR, of Floyd.

GRAND MASS MEETING!

OF THE

DEMOCRACY

OF

Montgomery County!

The Democracy of Montgomery County will meet in Crawfordsville On Saturday, May 19th.

For the purpose of sustaining the course pursued by the North-western and other Delegates to the Charleston Convention, who favored the nomination of STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS for the Presidency, and the re-affirmation of the Cincinnati Platform. Able Speakers will be in attendance.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Just after going to press we received the following dispatch from the Abolition Convention:

CHICAGO, Friday, May 18—5 P. M.

Abram Lincoln, of Illinois, formerly a member of Congress, and who was defeated in 1858 by Stephen A. Douglas, for U. S. Senator, was nominated this afternoon for President, on the third ballot—Hamlin, of Maine, a disciple of the Garrison school, was nominated for Vice President. This nomination secures New York for Douglas. The democracy of Chicago are jubilant.

The qualifications of Lincoln for President is that once upon a time he split a couple of rails!

AT THEIR OLD GAME.

We notice that some of the Republican leaders in this county are industriously circulating speeches made by Iverson, of Georgia, and other noted disunionists, and palming them off as the sentiments of the Democratic party. The chief culprits in this affair are men who have no regard for principle or fairness. Their only hope of success is a resort to misrepresentation and fraud.

GASKELL & CO.

The establishment of this firm is now the great attractive point of our citizens. The splendid stock of goods with which it is furnished, consisting of every variety, pattern and style of boots and shoes, from the heavy ponderous stoga to the most delicate and fascinating slipper and gaiter, together with an elegant and fashionable stock of ready made clothing, offers with its cheap cash prices the rarest inducement to purchasers. Here you can obtain a complete outfit of wearing apparel, manufactured from the finest fabrics, and cut to the latest and most fashionable styles of the day, at a saving of twenty per cent.

John Hoover is now manufacturing some very fine lanterns. They are far superior to anything brought here from the east, and will be sold for less money. Call and see them.

LADIES' HOME MAGAZINE.—The June number of this beautiful magazine is now upon our table. It is a splendid number.

Is your hat seedy? If so, make a purchase immediately of a new one at J. Gaskell & Co's.

GET READY FOR THE SHOW. Remember that Antonio Brothers' Great World Circus will be here on next Saturday.

Have you purchased your summer clothing yet? If not, go immediately to Gaskell & Co's.

THE ABOLITION CONVENTION AT CHICAGO.

On last Wednesday all the ragged political Lazarus' of the North congregated at Chicago, to select from among a hundred aspirants some one to run for the Chief Magistracy of the Union. Their appearance in Convention is said to be grotesque in the extreme. Old party hacks, broken down years ago, hair-brained crazy lunatics of the Garrison and Giddings school time-servers and licks-spittles of both the old Democratic and Whig parties, in fact they are the counter-fit-presentment of Falstaff's army, a set of "discarded, unjust serving men, revolted tapsters and ostlers trade-falling, the cankers of a calm world and a long peace." At last accounts they were divided as to whom they should nominate, Greeley and his wing favoring Bates, a slaveholder, Weed's clique William H. Seward, the man who boldly proclaims himself the champion of negro equality. How they will decide it is of little importance. Their chances of electing a President is among the impossibilities. As long as the white race predominates and exists in the Union, no Black Republican will ever be President.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

The Democracy of Franklin township met in Convention on Saturday, May 12th, 1860, for the purpose of organizing a Democratic Club.

On motion, James Hopper was appointed Chairman, and W. K. Martin, Secretary.

On motion of J. B. McCallister, Alex. Harper was appointed President of the Township Club, to correspond with the Central Committee at Crawfordsville.

On motion of Mr. Harper, a committee consisting one in each Road District was appointed, for the purpose of ascertaining, as near as possible, the strength of the parties in their respective districts, and report the same to the President.

The following persons were chosen as such committee:

Dist. No. 1, J. H. Booher;
" 2, Abra Casner;
" 3, John Simmons;
" 4, Ewing Morgan;
" 5, W. J. Mullen;
" 6, Nathan Booher;
" 7, S. T. Miller;
" 8, J. B. McCallister;
" 9, David Sutton;
" 10, Peter Vanice;
" 11, George Shoemaker.

Having organized, John Morgan, Esq., being present, was requested to address the meeting.

Mr. Morgan responded in a very able and argumentative speech, showing the different shades and colors of the opposition flag under which the Republican party had marched since 1850; after which he gave the Charleston Convention a very thorough dissection, and after returning his thanks to the Convention, concluded his remarks.

Alex. Harper being called to the stand, responded in a speech of considerable length.

J. B. McCallister was called to the stand. Mr. McCallister's cutting remarks capped the climax. When he had finished, a motion was made by Mr. Harper that a copy of the proceedings of this Convention be sent to the editor of the Crawfordsville Review, for publication.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

JAMES HOPPER, Pres't.
W. K. MARTIN, Sec'y.

We are requested to state that the lady members of the Order of Good Tempers, design giving an ice-cream supper on next Thursday evening, the 24th inst., at Temperance Hall; the proceeds to be applied for the benefit of the order. As this is the first entertainment of the kind this season, and a very laudable one at that, and since the ladies have entered into the arrangements with a good deal of spirit, we doubt not a large number will be in attendance, and that a lively time may be anticipated. The Hall, we also understand, is to be tastefully decorated with evergreens for the occasion.

Mr. Wheelwright, the American projector of a railroad across the Andes, is prosecuting his plan. The Argentine Confederation voted him $50,000 to defray the expenses of the preliminary surveys, and a league of land on each side of the proposed road when completed.

THE MARKET HOUSE.—The board of trustees have resolved to build a market house, provided it can be done for eight hundred dollars. We say let it be built and that immediately.

The Black Republicans offer a very attractive bill to the faithful on next Saturday. They advertise Thomas Corwin to be present. In case of his failure which is very likely, Col. Lane will volunteer to tell an anecdote.

CRANE HOUSE.

We had the pleasure on last Sunday in "going in" on one of Reube's fine dinners.

For superb accommodations this house is second to none in the Wabash valley.

ALABAMA AND GEORGIA.—The telegraph brings us accounts of the movements of the people of these States against the seceders. Georgia and Alabama will be represented by Union delegates in the Baltimore Convention, who will stand faithfully by the Democratic organization.

Godley for June.—A splendid number of this old favorite for the coming month has been received. Every body should subscribe for Godley.

JAPAN.

The state of matters in Japan appears to be getting worse and worse, and the foreign community there is living in great apprehension. On the 26th of February, two Dutch Captains, Capt. De Vos, of the brig Christian Louis, and Capt. Dekker, of the schooner Henrietta Louise, were murdered in Yokohama. They were walking through the streets, and, it is said, had given no offense, being respectable, quiet men, when they were attacked by some Japanese with swords. Capt. De Vos was killed almost immediately, and Capt. Dekker was pursued a short way before he was dispatched. No cause is assigned for this. The address is given to the people of Missouri, 3d. If he is nominated, Rollins, who was only beaten by 300 votes when he ran for Governor of Missouri, will run again, 4th. This nomination would head off the third party, 5th. It would unite the Opposition and settle all the differences of opinion among them in Pennsylvania and other States, 6th. It would leave the Free States open for the selection from them of a candidate for Vice President, 7th. The Germans, who now oppose him through a misapprehension of his position would cheerfully support him when they are enlightened on this matter. 8th. His nomination will secure the prevention of Slavery Extension and Filibustering.

The address is signed by Blair, Sen. Dredges, and Forbes. Little importance is attached to this document.

The strong combination formed against Seward will be successful. His stock is falling while Lincoln's is rising.

GREELY'S MANIFESTO.

CHICAGO, May 14. Greely is working for Bates. He has just written an address to the Republicans for him. He pledges the signal support to any nominee, but recommends Bates, because—1. As he is a slaveholder, he would quash all the talk about sectionalism. 2d. He is beloved by the people of Missouri, 3d. If he is nominated, Rollins, who was only beaten by 300 votes when he ran for Governor of Missouri, will run again, 4th. This nomination would head off the third party, 5th. It would unite the Opposition and settle all the differences of opinion among them in Pennsylvania and other States, 6th. It would leave the Free States open for the selection from them of a candidate for Vice President, 7th. The Germans, who now oppose him through a misapprehension of his position would cheerfully support him when they are enlightened on this matter. 8th. His nomination will secure the prevention of Slavery Extension and Filibustering.

The address is signed by Blair, Sen. Dredges, and Forbes. Little importance is attached to this document.

The strong combination formed against Seward will be successful. His stock is falling while Lincoln's is rising.

THE RIGHT COURSE.

We notice that the true Democrats of Alabama are moving in the right direction. A call of prominent Democrats has been issued for a Convention, to be held at Selma, in that state, of all those who are in favor of sending delegates to the Convention at Baltimore, and of maintaining the unity and organization of the Democratic party. That is the right way. Let those who are in favor of sending delegates to Richmond do so, and those who are in favor of sending delegates to Baltimore do so. There used be no conflict about a question of that kind. There are two roads leading in different directions, and are open to all who wish to walk in them. One points to disunion of the States and the overthrow of the Democratic party, thro' Richmond; the other to the continued Union of the States and the integrity of the Democratic party, thro' Baltimore. Let the people of Alabama choose in which they shall walk. If they prefer to travel the Richmond road, let them go in peace. But let those who love the Union and the Democratic party crowd the other, and go shouting and triumphing to Baltimore, where they will receive a hearty welcome. There need be now no jostling or jarring that will come after a while, if needs be. It is now a mere choice of roads. It will depend upon what is done at the center stations on either, whether peace or strife shall occur at their outcome. Let each Democrat choose now which he prefers, and not wrangle whether they shall all go one or the other. The right course, is, therefore, being adopted in Alabama. Those favorable to going to Richmond will meet in Convention at Montgomery, while those favorable to sending delegates to Baltimore will meet at Selma. Cin. Enq.

OVER THE FALLS.

With respect to the lad reported by telegraph as having gone over Niagara Falls, the Rochester Democrat has the following: We learn that a boy ten years old, son of a late Dr. Macleod, and a nephew of Mr. Thomas C. Sweet, of Chippewa, fell into Niagara river, a short distance above the Falls, on Sunday afternoon, and was carried over the cataract. He was in company with his mother and some other persons on a small island where there is a burning spring, and exhibited a disposition to go near the edge of the bank, for which he received a caution. He did not heed the warning, however, and in a few minutes he was missed. There is no doubt that he fell into the water and was swept into the abyss beneath the Falls.

THE EDITOR OF THE COLUMBUS (Ga.) TIMES.

The editor of the Columbus (Ga.) Times, a bitter Anti-Douglas sheet, writing from Charleston, thus speaks of the enthusiasm for Douglas: We learn that a boy ten years old, son of a late Dr. Macleod, and a nephew of Mr. Thomas C. Sweet, of Chippewa, fell into Niagara river, a short distance above the Falls, on Sunday afternoon, and was carried over the cataract. He was in company with his mother and some other persons on a small island where there is a burning spring, and exhibited a disposition to go near the edge of the bank, for which he received a caution. He did not heed the warning, however, and in a few minutes he was missed. There is no doubt that he fell into the water and was swept into the abyss beneath the Falls.

THE DOUGLASS.

The Douglass men are in the ascendancy, and feel that their favorite is the only man in the nation who can be elected over the Republicans. In their caucus meetings, the least allusion to his name brings immense applause, and the watchword is "Douglas and Victory." The enthusiasm of the Hungarian Lords for Maria Theresa, when driven from her Capital, and appearing among them in her simple garb, pleading for assistance, could not exceed the wild excitement of the friends of Mr. Douglas for his nomination.

Friend and foe alike admit that Mr. Douglas inspires a warmth and devotedness of feeling from his friends that is most extraordinary in its character. He possesses that peculiar personal magnetism and fascination that conquer all those who are brought within the sphere of its influence.

THE COLUMBUS (Ga.) TIMES.

The editor of the Columbus (Ga.) Times, a bitter Anti-Douglas sheet, writing from Charleston, thus speaks of the enthusiasm for Douglas: We learn that a boy ten years old, son of a late Dr. Macleod, and a nephew of Mr. Thomas C. Sweet, of Chippewa, fell into Niagara river, a short distance above the Falls, on Sunday afternoon, and was carried over the cataract. He was in company with his mother and some other persons on a small island where there is a burning spring, and exhibited a disposition to go near the edge of the bank, for which he received a caution. He did not heed the warning, however, and in a few minutes he was missed. There is no doubt that he fell into the water and was swept into the abyss beneath the Falls.

THE COLUMBUS (Ga.) TIMES.

The editor of the Columbus (Ga.) Times, a bitter Anti-Douglas sheet, writing from Charleston, thus speaks of the enthusiasm for Douglas: We learn that a boy ten years old, son of a late Dr. Macleod, and a nephew of Mr. Thomas C. Sweet, of Chippewa, fell into Niagara river, a short distance above the Falls, on Sunday afternoon, and was carried over the cataract. He was in company with his mother and some other persons on a small island where there is a burning spring, and exhibited a disposition to go near the edge of the bank, for which he received a caution. He did not heed the warning, however, and in a few minutes he was missed. There is no doubt that he fell into the water and was swept into the abyss beneath the Falls.

THE COLUMBUS (Ga.) TIMES.

The editor of the Columbus (Ga.) Times, a bitter Anti-Douglas sheet, writing from Charleston, thus speaks of the enthusiasm for Douglas: We learn that a boy ten years old, son of a late Dr. Macleod, and a nephew of Mr. Thomas C. Sweet, of Chippewa, fell into Niagara river, a short distance above the Falls, on Sunday afternoon, and was carried over the cataract. He was in company with his mother and some other persons on a small island where there is a burning spring, and exhibited a disposition to go near the edge of the bank, for which he received a caution. He did not heed the warning, however, and in a few minutes he was missed. There is no doubt that he fell into the water and was swept into the abyss beneath the Falls.

THE COLUMBUS (Ga.) TIMES.

The editor of the Columbus (Ga.) Times, a bitter Anti-Douglas sheet, writing from Charleston, thus speaks of the enthusiasm for Douglas: We learn that a boy ten years old, son of a late Dr. Macleod, and a nephew of Mr. Thomas C. Sweet, of Chippewa, fell into Niagara river, a short distance above the Falls, on Sunday afternoon, and was carried over the cataract. He was in company with his mother and some other persons on a small island where there is a burning spring, and exhibited a disposition to go near the edge of the bank, for which he received a caution. He did not heed the warning, however, and in a few minutes he was missed. There is no doubt that he fell into the water and was swept into the abyss beneath the Falls.

THE COLUMBUS (Ga.) TIMES.

The editor of the Columbus (Ga.) Times, a bitter Anti-Douglas sheet, writing from Charleston, thus speaks of the enthusiasm for Douglas: We learn that a boy ten years old, son of a late Dr. Macleod, and a nephew of Mr. Thomas C. Sweet, of Chippewa, fell into Niagara river, a short distance above the Falls, on Sunday afternoon, and was carried over the cataract. He was in company with his mother and some other persons on a small island where there is a burning spring, and exhibited a disposition to go near the edge of the bank, for which he received a caution. He did not heed the warning, however, and in a few minutes he was missed. There is no doubt that he fell into the water and was swept into the abyss beneath the Falls.

THE COLUMBUS (Ga.) TIMES.

The editor of the Columbus (Ga.) Times, a bitter Anti-Douglas sheet, writing from Charleston, thus speaks of the enthusiasm for Douglas: We learn that a boy ten years old, son of a late Dr. Macleod, and a nephew of Mr. Thomas C. Sweet, of Chippewa, fell into Niagara river, a short distance above the Falls, on Sunday afternoon, and was carried over the cataract. He was in company with his mother and some other persons on a small island where there is a burning spring, and exhibited a disposition to go near the edge of the bank, for which he received a caution. He did not heed the warning, however, and in a few minutes he was missed. There is no doubt that he fell into the water and was swept into the abyss beneath the Falls.

THE COLUMBUS (Ga.) TIMES.