

THE WEEKLY REVIEW.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, IND.

Saturday, August 4, 1860.

Printed and Published every Saturday Morning, by

CHARLES H. BOWEN.

15¢ The Crawfordsville Review, furnished to Subscribers at $1.50 in advance.

CIRCULATION LARGER THAN ANY PAPER PUBLISHED IN Crawfordsville!

Advertisers, call up and examine our List of SUBSCRIBERS.

DEPARTURE OF TRAINS ON THE LOUISVILLE, NEW ALBANY & CHICAGO R. R.

GOING NORTH.

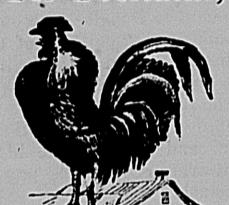

Morning Train at 5:45 a. m.
Evening Train at 11:25 a. m.
Freight at 3:47 p. m.

GOING SOUTH.

Morning Train at 6:10 a. m.
Evening Train at 9:10 p. m.
Freight at 10:10 a. m.

R. E. BRYANT, Agent.

For President,

STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS,
OF ILLINOIS.

For Vice President,
HERSCHEL V. JOHNSON,
OF GEORGIA.

Democratic State Ticket.

FOR GOVERNOR,
THOMAS A. HENDRICKS, of Shelly.

FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR,
DAVID TURPIE, of White.

FOR SECRETARY OF STATE,
WILLIAM H. SCHILATER, of Wayne.

FOR AUDITOR OF STATE,
JOSEPH RISTINE, of Fountain.

FOR TREASURER OF STATE,
NATHL F. CUNNINGHAM, of Vigo.

FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL,
OSCAR B. HORN, of Decatur.

FOR SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,
SAMUEL L. RUGG, of Allen.

FOR CLERK OF SUPREME COURT,
CORNELIUS O'BRIEN, of Dearborn.

FOR REFORMER OF SUPREME COURT,
MICHAEL C. KERR, of Floyd.

FOR CIRCUIT PROSECUTOR,
WILLIAM P. BRYANT, Jr., of Parkersburg.

Particular Notice.

Subscribers must bear in mind that all subscriptions for the new volume must be paid before the 20th of this month, or they will be charged 50¢. The new volume will be regularly enforced without respect to age, sex or personal.

THE ISSUE.

Let Congress intercede to protect Slave in the Territories.—BRECKINRIDGE.

Let Congress intercede to prevent Slave in the Territories.—LINCOLN.

Let the People of the Territories determine the question.—DOUGLAS.

We call attention to the above concentrated essence of the three platforms before the country. The two sectional ones both urge intervention by Congress, while the true National and Union Faith, with Douglas as exponent, says: Leave the question to the People.

Douglas men pin this to the Oppositionists of either faction and see their twist, but they cannot get away. Either is as bad as the other, because both seek to rob the people of their right to govern.

DEATH OF HON. ISAAC A. RICE.

Hon. Isaac A. Rice, Republican candidate for Congress in this District, expired at Delphi on last Wednesday morning, after an illness of only a few days.

CLEAR THE TRACK FOR THE DEMOCRACY.

The untrified will be in town to-day. The Linconites who do not wish to hear the luzzas for Douglas, Johnson, and the Union, will put cotton in their ears.

JOHN PURDE.

The name of this gentleman is again mentioned by some of the Republicans here as a compromise candidate in case there should be a contest between Orth and Wilson. Mr. Purde would make an excellent candidate, and if elected would reflect credit on the District, but we fear he will again be slaughtered. Merit and genius is not appreciated by the Republican party.

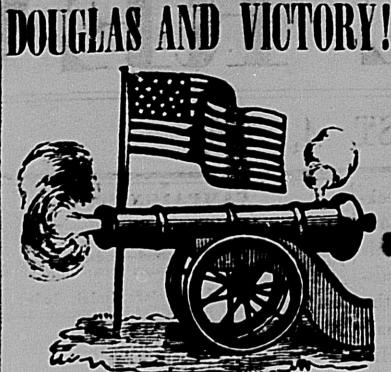

ABE. BORNE.

This gentleman received a majority of the votes cast in the Republican Primary election for Prosecutor of the Common Pleas Court, held here on last Saturday. Mr. H. has rendered some service to his party. His zeal sometimes overleaps itself in impracticable suggestions and strategy. His nomination will be a tower of strength to the party. As a lawyer he occupies a respectable position in the profession.

The Republicans about town wear long faces. They feel like Solomon, in his old age "that all in vanity and vexation of spirit."

The N. Y. Herald ciphers up the account of the Great Eastern, and makes out that she will clear $70,000 by her trip to America.

DOUGLAS AND VICTORY!

GRAND RALLY

OF THE

MONTGOMERY DEMOCRACY

On Saturday the 4th of August.

The Democracy of Montgomery County will assemble in mass Convention on Saturday the 4th of August, for the purpose of nominating a ticket for the several County Offices.

AND RATIFYING THE NOMINATION OF DOUGLAS AND JOHNSON!

Among the distinguished speakers who will be present on the occasion, will be GOV. WILLARD,
HON. D. W. VOORHES,
HON. J. E. MCDONALD
AND OTHERS.

The Convention will assemble at 1 o'clock. Immediately after nominating the candidates speaking will commence.

At 10 o'clock

STATELY HICKORY,

will be raised in front of the Court House.

Let every Democrat turn out on this occasion. Bring your banners, flags, music, and all the emblems of old fashioned Democracy, and let us rebuke the factious, who would break up the nation.

COME ONE! COME ALL!

And let us have a glorious Democratic Jubilee. By order of the CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

THE BRIGIT CONVENTION.

On last Tuesday, about two hundred sore-heads, composed in part of postmasters and mail agents, assembled at Indianapolis to nominate an electoral ticket. Bright and Fitch managed the whole affair, and such was the low trickery and rascality exhibited in conducting the proceedings that Tom Walpole a zealous bolter, left the Convention in a rage and cursed Bright and Fitch as "d—d scoundrels whose only object was to break up the Democratic party." There were only twenty counties represented, and these by men, in many instances, holding federal offices, the balance being Republicans. The most ridiculous thing performed by these allies of Lincoln, and which will raise the responsibilities of every Democrat in the State, was a resolution appointing a committee to confer with the Central committee of the Democracy of the State to form a union electoral ticket. Their request will receive about the same attention that a dog would baying at the moon. Bright and Fitch are politically d—d for all time to come, and their treason will be repaid by the Democracy of Indiana with usurous vengeance.

THE OLD BRASS PIECE! ON JESSE.

We believe in fighting the devil with fire. JOHN PETTIT, a Federal Judge in Kansas, comes here and sacrifices his independence and manliness at the bidding of Jesse D. Bright. Judge Pettit would have taken no part in Indiana politics if he had not been forced to do by the "right bower" of Mr. Buchanan. Those who are acquainted with the political history of Indiana well know the contempt with which Judge Pettit has regarded Senator Bright. And yet to retain his influence for future preferment we find the Kansas Judge ready to do the bidding of the Senator. No man better appreciates the character of Bright than Pettit. He knows the man, inside and out. Yet he has not the moral courage to act upon his own convictions. We call Judge Pettit to the stand and inquire of him whether he recollects one Indiana Senator having made the following estimate of the character of another Indiana Senator? We quote:

There is no complaint of my course, and the question is, shall I be beaten to gratify the impious dictate of one man? Shall the whole State lower to him whose chief qualification for place is low cunning and treachery, and a hatred of every thing that is greater and nobler than himself?

We ask Judge Pettit if these questions are not as pertinent now as they were at the time they were made? In a few days we will reverse the picture and give Bright's opinion of Pettit. We shall not be partial but endeavor to do equal and exact justice to both parties.—State Senator.

THE KING OF THE KNOW-NOTHINGS.

G. S. Orth, the King of the Know-Nothings is actively engaged in electioneering for the nomination for Congress. We can assure Orth that Montgomery will have her say in the Convention. The Hon. James Wilson although not desiring the nomination, will be strenuously urged and nominated despite the trickery of the Lafayettians. There is only one man who will be allowed to supersede Mr. W. and that is his brother Billy. There's no chance for Orth.

James Wilson is the ablest man in the Republican ranks, and the only man in that party fit to represent the Eighth District. His friends should insist on his nomination.

A STRONG SPELLER.—Joe Lane, in his manuscript begins his own name with capital letters and God Almighty's in lower case. When in Mexico he spelled Vera Cruz, "Verry Croose."

REPRESENTATIVE MEN FOR DOUGLAS.

Rev. Jedediah Burchard, of Jefferson Co., New York, the celebrated Revivalist, has come out flat-footed for Douglas. John G. Saxe, the American Poet, and late Democratic candidate for Governor in the State of Vermont, has declared his intention to stump New York for the Little Giant.—Hon. Geo. Bancroft, the great American Historian, is an out and out Douglas man. Edwin Forrest, the great American Tragedian, is a friend of Stephen A. Douglas.—Prof. Boynton, the American Lecturer upon Geology, Physiology and Electrical science, postpones his tour to Europe to stump for Douglas. Hon. Roger B. Taney, Chief Justice of the U. S. Supreme Court, is for Stephen A. Douglas, for the next President. Hon. R. J. Walker, Ex-Secretary of the Treasury, and late Governor of Kansas, has pledged himself to stump New Jersey for Douglas and Johnson.

So they go.

WHO WILL BE THE SUCCESSOR OF RICE?

This is the question that is now agitating the Republican party in the Eighth District. Here in Montgomery county, many are pointing to the Hon. Jas. Wilson as the candidate. Abe Horner and Ad. Gilkey proclaim him as the John Brown to lead the forlorn hope. Abe says that Wilson can be elected, that he is willing to take the contract to make him the next Congressman. We acknowledge that Abe is a powerful man in elections, and that he can make men vote for his candidate whether they are willing or not. Ad. Gilkey pledges Ripley for Mr. W. We think James has got the inside track.

THE VOTE OF PENNSYLVANIA THIS FALL.

In 1856, the Democratic vote in this State was 240,772; the Republican, 147,963; the American, 82,202. Total, 460,637. Democratic over Republican, 82,809; over American, 148,574; over both 607. The Republican minority on the popular vote was 165,011. And this too with FREMONT a candidate, a much more popular man than Mr. LINCOLN in the State of Pennsylvania, where it is acknowledged "there is no Republican party yet." How in the name of Heaven are the Republicans going to carry that State with one hundred and fifty thousand majority starting them in the face? The $2,000 F. FREMONT will mostly go for DOUGLAS, just as they do in New York. They will throw their vote where it will tell the best against the Interventionists, the two disunion candidates, BRECKINRIDGE and LINCOLN.—Should the bolting candidate get one-third of the Democratic vote it would not defeat Mr. DOUGLAS. But he will do no such thing. The BELL and EVERETT Union men will see that no disunion candidate carries that State. Mark that.

THE DEMONSTRATION AT TERRE HAUTE.

The Democratic mass meeting at Terre Haute, on Saturday, was one of the largest and most enthusiastic demonstration ever held in the State—numbering at least 25,000 people in attendance. Our informant states that if he had not been an eye-witness he would not have believed it possible that so many people could have been assembled. He counted in one procession going into town, upon one road leading into the city, two hundred and eighty-one wagons. And similar scenes were witnessed upon the other roads. In the procession was a company of horsemen, well drilled, numbering not less than four hundred. The whole country around Terre Haute seemed to have emptied its inhabitants into the city to give vent to their enthusiasm for Douglas and Johnson.

THE HIGHEST SPEED EVER ATTAINED BY HORSE FLESH.

In the days of the Revolution our forefathers had to contend not only against armed soldiery, but in many instances, against their own countrymen, men who were governors, port-collectors, agents for the sale of stamp-paper, and hundreds of public officers that King George in his royal favor had bestowed upon his colonial subjects. These men opposed the revolution. The competency of their snug offices outdid their manhood, their patriotism and love of liberty. They sustained the King in his tyrannical policy and acted throughout the entire struggle as spies and traitors. In the contest now waging between the Democratic party and the Abolition cohorts of the North, and the Disunionists of the South, we find in many instances the Federal office holders of the present administration, shaking hands with the common enemy, and acting the part of base spies and traitors against their own brethren. Let the Democracy mark these ingrates, these serpents that have been warmed into life. Let the mark of Cain be branded on their foreheads that all men may know their true character.

ANOTHER TRAITOR.

Old Judge Pettit, a man who since his apostacy from the Whig party has lived off of the Democratic party for the last twenty years, publishes a letter, in which he says, that he would rather see Lincoln elected than Douglas. Pettit holds a Judgeship in Kansas, an appointment given him by Buchanan. His return to Indiana is unquestionably for the purpose of aiding Lincoln in carrying the State. His connection with the party in former years proved a dead weight. A man of no fixed principles, he changed alternately from Free-soilism and Whigism, to Democracy. While in our ranks he added no strength to the party as the present political character of Tippecanoe county will attest. In parting with the Judge we feel that the party has been blessed with a happy rid-

A DISUNION STRAW.

The following was one of the regular Fourth of July toasts at the celebration in Hendersonville, South Carolina:

"By Robt R. Sneed.—The election of old Abe Lincoln.—The shortest way to a Southern Confederacy."

That explains the object of the Breckinridge movement, which is to elect Lincoln if possible, and so pay the way to a Southern Confederacy.

RAISING THE HICKORY.

To-day a gigantic hickory, an emblem of our glorious party, will be raised in front of the Court House. It will tower into the nether regions over two hundred feet.

Let every Democrat be on hand to assist in the raising.

For a superior article of Kerosene Oil go to Benefield's. We have tried it.

AUGUST ELECTIONS.

General elections will take place on the first Monday in August, in the following States: Alabama, Arkansas, Kentucky, Missouri, Texas; in Tennessee on the first Thursday, and in North Carolina on the second Thursday.

The Decatur (Ill.) Gazette of the 24th gives an instance of the spirit that animates the young Douglas men of that State. He says a Republican of Blue Mound Township, in that county, has a farm on which resides a nephew, who is for Douglas. The uncle, determined to cure the young man of his Democracy, gave him notice that if he did not go for Lincoln he must leave the farm. The young man has accepted the latter alternative, and will move off the farm rather than be compelled to vote against the great statesman of the West.

About the first thing Bright did after organizing his squad of postmasters and Republican hirings, was to have a resolution passed (which he had drawn up with his own hand) endorsing his apostacy from the Democracy.

We apprehend that about the first of next December the few individuals who are supporting the Yancey Disunion ticket, for the sake of holding on to little pitiful offices for a few months, will feel a good deal like the angels that were cast out of Heaven. They will all have a strong desire to get back.

Whenever you hear a federal officer expatiating upon the Democratic party by saying that Douglas and Johnson are not the regular nominees of the party, set him down as a hired emissary of the Black Republican party, a man that has sold his birthright for money, a man that has no independence of character, but a driveling hireling, a slave, a scoundrel that will lick the hand that smote him.

Old Jos Giddings is very anxious to get back into Congress, and his special friends are urging his claims with great pertinacity. They think (or profess to) Old Abe is going to be elected, and Giddings wants to be the administration leader in the House.

THE DEMONSTRATION AT TERRE HAUTE.

The Democratic mass meeting at Terre Haute, on Saturday, was one of the largest and most enthusiastic demonstration ever held in the State—numbering at least 25,000 people in attendance.

Old Jos Giddings is very anxious to get back into Congress, and his special friends are urging his claims with great pertinacity. They think (or profess to) Old Abe is going to be elected, and Giddings wants to be the administration leader in the House.

THE VOTE OF PENNSYLVANIA THIS FALL.

In 1856, the Democratic vote in this State was 240,772; the Republican, 147,963; the American, 82,202. Total, 460,637. Democratic over Republican, 82,809; over American, 148,574; over both 607. The Republican minority on the popular vote was 165,011. And this too with FREMONT a candidate, a much more popular man than Mr. LINCOLN in the State of Pennsylvania, where it is acknowledged "there is no Republican party yet." How in the name of Heaven are the Republicans going to carry that State with one hundred and fifty thousand majority starting them in the face? The $2,000 F. FREMONT will mostly go for DOUGLAS, just as they do in New York. They will throw their vote where