

THE WEEKLY REVIEW

CRAWFORDSVILLE, IND

Saturday, June 8, 1867.

THE NEWS.

Since the 30th of April the Union Pacific Railroad has constructed forty miles of track. During the time there have been a number of stormy days in which it was impossible to lay track.

Appleton Oaksmith, who was convicted years ago of being engaged in the slave trade recently made application to the President for a pardon, but his wife a she devil, protesting against it, the pardon was refused.

At a meeting held at Winchester, Tennessee the militia called into service by Governor Brownlow was severely denounced. It was charged that they had killed one peaceful citizen, and compelled many others to conceal themselves to escape a similar fate.

General O'Neil, the Fenian leader, has been traveling incognito through Canada for the past six weeks, and on Monday arrived at Prescott and examined the works at Fort Wellington, by permission of the commandant at that place. He then returned safely to the American side.

The murder of the crew of the American bark Formosa, by the natives of Formosa, has been confirmed.

The remains of Artemus Ward, which arrived in New York on last Friday, have been forwarded to Maine for interment.

It is almost certain that there will be no July session of Congress.

The radicals are resorting to every illegal method possible for the purpose of securing the election in the District of Columbia.

The Reverend Joel Lindsey, who inhumanely flung his child to death has finally been let off by paying a fine of $250.

General Meagher has taken the field against the Indians in Montana at the head of one thousand men.

A plantation in Louisiana, which, anterior to the war, yielded an income of $50,000 was sold the other day for $2,000.

Maximilian is thirty-five years old, and his friends think he will not be much older.

August Belmont, of New York, this year returns an income of $100,000.

The gentlemen to whom Mr. George Peabody intrusted his gift of $2,000,000 for educational purposes in the South, have received their act of incorporation passed by the late Legislature.

It is stated that there are in operation in California three hundred and ninety-eight saw-mills, which cost $2,500,000, and have an aggregate capacity of 5,000,000 feet per year.

The population at Kansas is now estimated at 275,000.

The expense of widening the Chicago River according to the project now before the Board of Public Works, is estimated at from $3,000,000 to $5,000,000.

New Hampshire boasts of three millions of dollars worth of horses, four and a half millions worth of cattle, five and a half millions worth of sheep, and six hundred and seventy-four thousand dollars worth of swine.

The editor of the Colorado Times has been shown a nice little gold bar, just from the mint, weighing 5 5/100 ounces, coin value $120 3/4, the result of thirty-six hours work of two men, in what is known as the old Spanish diggings, two miles from Central City, up the Platte River, on the old Bayard ranch.

It is intimated that Senator Nye—Radical—from Nevada, was re-elected by the use of funds from a National Committee. Did this necessitate the late appeal from a "National Committee" for more funds?

Minnesota is said to give promise of a great yield of wheat this season. The St. Paul Press states that the crop will be 15,000,000 bushels, and adds that the area of land put in wheat this year is much greater than ever before; and even in those frontier settlements where the scarcity of seed prevails, four times more land is sown in wheat than last year.

Some dastardly assassin on Saturday night fired through the window of Mr. John McClintock's residence, near Millersburg, Bourbon County, Kentucky, and shot him through the lungs. He can not recover. A reward of two thousand dollars has been offered for the apprehension of the perpetrator. His son-in-law Robert Armstrong, was murdered a year ago in the same place.

Several members of the Judiciary Committee have come to the conclusion that the impeachment movement is a farce which ought by this time to be played out.

The Indians in the vicinity of Smoky Hill are likely to have a brisk time of it. The American Express Company has given orders to its employees to shoot every red-skin upon sight, and the same command has been issued by General Hancock to his troops. It is alleged that these orders will cause an interminable war.

The recent rains have destroyed 2,000,000 fish at Detroit.

The organized Banditti of Tennessee, known as Brownlow's militia, have inaugurated a reign of terror in the unhappy State of Tennessee. No home is sacred from their outrage, and they perpetrate murders of the most wanton character.

A white man, imprisoned in Charleston for committing a rape upon a negro girl, hung himself on Wednesday.

The President's reception at Raleigh was of an exceedingly gratifying character. The dedication of the monument in memory of his father was celebrated on Tuesday.

Two cases of cholera have been reported in New York.

The experiment craft called the "Life Craft Nonpareil," started from New York for Havre on Tuesday.

A locomotive belonging to a freight train at Huron, on the Southern Michigan Railroad, exploded on Tuesday, killing the engineer and an assistant.

The widow of Bishop Polk is teaching in the Columbia Female Institute, an Episcopal institution, owned by the diocese of Tennessee.

The Lynchburg (Va.) News says: "From Pittsylvania we learn that many gentlemen are setting out their tobacco."

One gentleman alone has planted one hundred and fifty thousand hills, and others nearly an equal number. We are told of three large planters who will cultivate, this season, two million five hundred thousand plants.

There was a fashionable wedding in Toronto, at which Jefferson Davis, General Early and several Southern celebrities were invited. The happy bridegroom was Mr. Hyde, one of the editors of the St. Louis Republican; the bride a Southern lady named Benson.

Additional confirmation of the hostile attitude of the Indians in the North-west Reserve has been received by General Grant.

The Radical Convention at Trenton Tuesday, was composed of half whites and half blacks.

The Mayor and Common Council of Fayetteville, North Carolina, have been removed by order of the military satrap of that post.

The honorable L. Harris Hiseox, a member of the New York Constitutional Convention, was shot dead Tuesday in Albany, by General Cole, late of the United States Army, and brother of Senator Cole, of California. The killing was most deliberate. Cole afterward justifying the act that Hiseox had while he, Cole, was away in the army, raped his wife.

A clean sweep has been made of the city officials of Mobile by the military commander who has placed his own creatures in their places.

Not less than forty or fifty quartz-mills have been shipped to Montana this season. There were only twelve or fifteen mills in the territory prior to the opening of navigation this spring.

The trial of a new railroad constructor on the Central Pacific, in California, has proved a complete success. The machine levels the track, lays the ties, deposits the rails, and mails them in their places. It is estimated that with a complement of twenty men it will do as much work in a day as two hundred men without the aid of the constructor.

The accounts of the tobacco crop in North Carolina are of a discouraging character.

There is a considerable emigration from New England to Florida.

The Mayor of Augusta, Ga., announces in his message that there is just $10 in the Treasury with which to pay a floating debt of $112,000.

The Richmond Dispatch states that the Board of Public Works of Virginia have determined to pay on the 1st of July, in that city, the interest upon the public debt of Virginia, usually payable in New York.

A singular incident occurred in the Church of the Messiah, in St. Louis, last Sunday. Dr. Elliott, the minister, was delivering a discourse with the view of obtaining aid for the South, and while dwelling upon the principle of "peace and good will," a dove flew in at the window, perched for a moment upon the gallery balustrade, then circled above the minister, and finally seated itself upon the pulpit.

Two frightful deaths from hyphrophobia took place in New Orleans last week. The victims were children.

It is announced that a Polish gentleman is now on an inspection tour in Texas desirous to select the most favorable locality for farming, preparatory to an extensive immigration of his countrymen.

A discreet lawyer estimates that there are about fifteen hundred business houses in Memphis, and that at least several hundred of the same will, sooner or later, avail themselves of the benefits of the Bankrupt Act.

The Board of Registrars for the First District of New Orleans have decided that a man born in California or Texas, before these States became annexed to the United States, is a foreigner, and must take out naturalization papers before he can be considered a citizen of the United States.

The Mexican Minister has written a letter excusing and justifying the policy of putting Maximilian to death.

General Pope has issued an order defining the duties of the military satraps in his department, and disapproving the suppression by the post commander of Mobile with any newspaper published there.

The Colorado Times says it is reported, on good authority, from Weaversville that on the 31st ult, one Indian—a desperate character—killed four men on the west side, viz: Robert L. Stockton, (Indian agent, Hoop valley,) James Latham, Wm. Griffin and Isaac Stover, at a point two miles above Willow Creek.

The four were trying to arrest the murderer, when they were slain. Stockton was a brother-in-law of Senator Conness, of California.

Mr. Durant, the appointed Governor of Louisiana in place of Governor Wells, has positively refused to fill the position.

Three small steamers from this country have been seized in the Canadian waters upon suspicion of their being in the Fenian service.

Brazil is preparing for a vigorous renewal of the war. Her government has positively refused the proffered mediation of the United States.

The Canadians are making extensive preparations, military and civic, in honor of the confederation, which is to take place on the first of July, and will be observed as a public holiday.

The Porte has consented to refer the Cretan difficulty to a commission to be appointed by the European powers.

The Crar has visited Berlin and Paris, and is going to London.

Russia is rapidly arming. The workmen in her gun factories are employed day and night in converting muzzle-loaders into breech-loaders. The whole of the Russian army will, it is said, be provided with the latter weapon by the end of June, at the latest.

The great French railroad tunnel through Mount Cenis is now more than half completed. The entire length of the tunnel will be seven miles twelve hundred and fifty-seven yards, and the distance completed at the close of March, 1867, was four miles three hundred and forty-five yards. The advance effected in March was one hundred and forty-eight yards, or if the present rate of progress could be maintained, the tunnel would be completed by March, 1870.

An effort is being made to induce an extensive European emigration to Nicaragua.

The Imperial commander of Vera Cruz has refused to surrender the city, although advised to do so by the Austrian Admiral.

They are enjoying a sensation in Liverpool, where a youth of seventeen, disguised as a young lady, has, by the connivance of the lady principal teacher, been residing for a year past in a fashionable girls' boarding-school, patronized exclusively by the aristocracy.

Count Bismark has asked and received permission to retire from the cares of office after the adoption of the Federal Constitution.

Vienna is to be thoroughly fortified forthwith.

A party of twenty-five Fenians attempted to land near Dungannon, and were captured. So says a cable dispatch.

Thirteen regiments of regular British troops, numbering 9,000 men, have been distributed along the Canadian border, with a view to repelling Fenian aggressions.

On the 20th of May, Queen Victoria laid the foundation stone of the Hall of Arts and Science at Kensington, London. The ceremony was one of regal magnificence, and her Majesty was received with a genuine outburst of enthusiasm. An immense crowd attended. The musical performances were as perfect as the Royal Italian Opera company could make them. The Prince of Wales, as chairman of the committee, read an address to the Queen. Her Majesty replied very briefly, and was back at Windsor early in the afternoon.

The London Star of the 20th of May reports: "Mr. William Lloyd Garrison, the distinguished leader of the American anti-slavery party, and Mr. George Thompson, arrived at Liverpool on the 20th of May. Mr. Garrison intends to make a stay of several months in this country and on the continent."

There appears to be little doubt of the surrender of Maximilian and his officers to Escobedo. The last Mexican advice, via Galveston, state that the Ex-Emperor was taken with a severe attack of dysentery, but had recovered, and would in all probability be handed over to the United States.

The Czar and Napoleon have agreed upon a plan for the settlement of the Cretan difficulty, which will be presented to the Sultan and the European representatives.

The King of Prussia, accompanied by Count Bismark, has left Berlin for Paris.

We learn that the horse "Fervacques" won the grand Prix de Paris and the Emperor's Cup after a very exciting contest and amid a magnificent attendance. The Czar of Russia was on the ground.

The owner of "Hermite"—the winning horse of the English Derby—has pocketed £200,000 by the result of the race.

It is said that the Prussian Government has refused to pledge itself against the future arming of the fortress of Rodstadt, in conformity with the wish of Napoleon.

The Emperor Napoleon has presented to the University at South Bend, Indiana, a superb and powerful telescope valued at 25,000 francs. It has inscribed upon it in French: "Presented by His Imperial Majesty Napoleon III to the Catholic University of Notre Dame du Lac, Indiana, United States."

Clarkson Stanfield, the well-known artist, and one of the most celebrated scenic painters in the world, died in England on the 21st of May.

We notice that in several places in the State, the radicals are getting up partisan celebrations of the Fourth of July. These gatherings are simply political dodges to strengthen themselves for the next presidential race.

STATE ITEMS.

Oliver Lawrence, a Terre Haute shoemaker, hung himself last Sunday morning. Mr. Lawrence reserved his reasons for committing the rash act.

The superintendent of the Terre Haute cemetery makes grievous complaint of certain citizens and citizenesses, who are in the regular habit of stealing flowers from the graves. The superintendent declares he will make them sweat for it.

The Terre Haute Journal tells of a wonderful and terrible ignis fatuus, which may be seen every night, dancing over the surface of a bog near that city.

The Louisville Courier tell of a festive preacher of Jeffersonville who got drunk in Louisville, rioted in a house of ill fame and spent the night in jail. His name is Ira Mitchell, and a church trial will settle his case.

A little son of Mayor Ware, of Jeffersonville, fell into a vault Sunday morning and was drowned.

The Junction Hotel, at Kokomo, was destroyed by fire last Saturday. Caught from a locomotive spark. Loss $9,000.

Michael Cassali, a dealer in second hand clothing at Fort Wayne, died Tuesday from the effects of sulphuric acid that he had taken on Saturday. Death times seem to have been the cause of the suicide.

Is Luck.—H. C. Davis, of Reserve township, in this county, found in his garden on Sunday, the 5th ultimo, fifty sovereigns, weighing four dollars and eighty-four cents each, making a total of $250 72, which at the present price of gold, is worth about $385. Mr. Davis informed us that the whole of this sum was found in a space of about ten by fifteen feet, and at a depth not to exceed three inches beneath the surface of the earth. The coins bear dates from 1819 to 1832.—Crawford County Republican.

In Evansville a family was poisoned by eating deadly night shade mixed with their greens.

INDIAN ANTIQUITIES.—We learn from the Sullivan Democrat that a party of gentlemen of antiquarian proclivities recently excavated a mound in the vicinity of Fairbanks, and were rewarded by finding the skeletons of some thirty-nine Indians, in the backbone of one of which was found an arrow head. In a vault were also found a large pile of bones, apparently brought from some other locality. The mound was fifty feet high, and had been covered with heavy timber. A battle with the Indians was fought in that vicinity by a detachment of under Lieutenant Fairbanks during the Indian war, but the size of the trees on the mound would indicate greater antiquity of the skeletons than that event.

JEFF. DAVIS has had to give bail that he will stand trial. Would the Government be willing to give bail to grant him a trial?

A boy aged four and a half years got lost in the woods near Durham, N. H., recently, and was diligently searched for during the six succeeding days. At the end of that time the child was discovered, by a dog, still alive, but nearly exhausted from hunger and exposure. He had subsisted during that period on leaves and berries.

French Opinion of the London Conference. A Paris letter says the results of the London Conference do not suit the French. Last year they had a chance to take the Rhine, and this year not only to get that, but they are obliged to barter and negotiate, and go half way about a little patch of no importance at all as compared to the whole of what they might have had. The bourse has absolutely gone down from pure disappointment and dissatisfaction, and Napoleon now holds in his hands an immense card, for the whole nation wants to go to war with Prussia, and certainly expects soon to do so.

The treaty of London is denounced in the Press as a humiliation and a shame, as a miserable postscript to the treaties of 1815, and they demand its resiliation as soon as possible.

A Yankee genius out west conceiving that a little powder thrown upon some green wood would facilitate its burning, directed a small stream upon the smoking pile, and not possessing a hand sufficient quick to cut this off at a desirable moment, was blown to pieces. The coroner thus reasoned out the verdict: "It can't be called suicide, because he didn't mean to kill himself; it wasn't a visitation of God, because he wasn't struck by lightning; he didn't die for want of breath, because he had nothing left to breathe with. It's plain he didn't know what he was about, so I shall bring in 'Died for want of common sense.'"

THE engineers of the Pacific Rail Road are using nitro-glycerine for the purpose of cutting a tunnel through the summit of the Sierra Nevada, and advance at the rate of fifty feet per week; and by mid-summer it is anticipated that fifty miles of road will be added to the ninety-four already in operation at the California end.

In England the consumption of beer is reported to be increasing. In 1857, there were 17,884,770 barrels brewed, while in 1860 there were 25,388,600 barrels brewed, an increase of over 40 per cent., although while during the same period the population increased but a little more than six per cent.

A VIRTUOUS Massachusetts editor says, "the gentleman who encloses an advertisement stating that he wishes to make the acquaintance of 'one or two young ladies,' whose 'Vin Tin Tins' he would gladly see, and whose company he would like to have occasionally on an evening, can have his money back by sending his address. We publish no such advertisements."

A SMALL cottage in the vicinity of the falls, on the Canadian side of the river, has been rented for the occupation of Jefferson Davis and his family during the summer. The house is about half way between Clifton and Queenstown.

HELEN WESTERN is playing in San Francisco in pieces where she is required to hover on the confines of nudity, to the delight of returned miners, who remark "Hi! Hi!"

From the Mobile Tribune, May 26, "KILL the White Devil."

Last night the son of Rev. Isaac Epstein, the minister of the Israelite congregation, had been sent on an errand, and on his return was about two doors from his father's residence, corner of Franklin and Church streets, as the alarm bell was ringing. Here he was encountered by two negro men, one of whom cried—"There's a white devil!" "Kill him!" said the other, raising a cudgel. The little boy, who is between eleven and twelve years old, raised his arm and fended off the blow which knocked him down, and would doubtless have been fatal had it struck his head.

Another severe blow was given between the shoulders after he fell, and the brutes hurried on. The little boy hastened home, and meeting his father, who, roused by the alarm had come to the gate, exclaimed "I'm killed!" and fell, exhausted, in his father's arms, who at once supposed he had been run over by a horse truck, as the bell had not yet rung long enough to be suspected of being more than a fire alarm.

Alas, Poor Ulysses.

Mrs. Jane Swisshelm, the ferocious and formidable Bohemian, is after U. S. with the sharpest kind of an instrument. In her last letter to the Republican, the new radical organ at New Orleans, Mrs. Swisshelm says:

"General Grant, being a Democrat and an open sympathizer with slavery, and in consequence of the war, in pursuance of our old kike war policy, retained in command through blunders which would have secured the disgrace of any radical General. He used the material prepared by Fremont for clearing the Mississippi, and for preparing which Fremont was superseded. He exhibited a dogged perseverance in using that final argument in war, the longest purse and the most men, but he never made a brilliant movement, or once out maneuvered an enemy. In his Richmond campaign he crossed the Rappahannock just as Burnside and Hooker did, and fought Lee at the greatest possible disadvantage, but as he hurried his men against one another, and they were slaughtered by the thousands, the Government poured in army after army to his aid, until Lee, worn out as he was, was not able to kill them all, and the survivors took Richmond."

Dr. Kirk recently predicted that in fifty years there would be more distinguished black men than white. Undoubtedly if the white men are of the same calibre of Dr. Kirk.

The clog dancer deers having eloped with a Grand Rapids woman. In other words he repudiates such a "step," and his reputation is unlogged.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

AUTHENTIC DOCUMENTS. ARKANSAS HEARD FROM. TESTIMONY OF MEDICAL MEN.

Stoney Point, White Co., Ark., May 23, 1867. Dr. John Bell—Dear Sir: Last February I was in Louisville purchasing drugs, and I got some of your Sarsaparilla and Cedar Bitters.

My son-in-law, who was with me in the store, had been laid up with rheumatism for a long time, and on the 15th, after using your Sarsaparilla and Cedar Bitters, he was cured, and now he is well and strong.

Dr. Gist, who had been in bad health, tried them, and he also improved.

Dr. Coffey, who had been in bad health for several years, and who was almost blind, tried them, and he also improved.

Dr. Coffey has given you great popularity in this territory. I think I could sell a great quantity of your medicines this fall—especially your Cedar Bitters and Sarsaparilla. I am, Sir, very respectfully, Yours, C. B. WALKER.

Extract of a Letter from PROSPERITY, Ala., May 13, 1867. Dr. John Bell—I send you $200 for Cedar Bitters, please send what will come after paying the balance. I have been laid up for several years with indigestion, have had to take pills every night for ten or fifteen years, and in February, 1867, I was attacked with general paralysis. I was confined to my room for the balance of the year, and in the spring of 1868, I was cured, and have been in a very weak and nervous condition until some two months since, when I was put under an operation, and your Cedar Bitters for treatment, commenced improving right away, and am pretty well restored.

Yours, A. L. NEAL.

Parties wishing the prescription, FREE, by return mail, will please address:

REV. EDWARD A. WILSON, Williamsburg, Kings Co., New York.

MAY 1867.

MAGNETISM is the vital principle of life. When by transgressing the laws of nature we impair the workings of that beautiful mechanism which God has made perfect, nature, through her great Electrical Battery, makes a powerful effort to remove the impediment which clogs the circulation of the magnetic forces. To assist Nature, we use the "Electro Magnetic Fluid," prepared by the Swan Manufacturing Company, which is nothing less than Electricity in liquid form, and as such is the most powerful and useful as well as most useful chemical discovery of this age of fruitful research. It is composed of the most powerful ingredients known to chemistry, and when consumed by the human body, it supplies the deficiency of magnetic power, needed to banish disease.

Yale's long standing, Scrofula, and epileptic fits have been cured in a few minutes, while Rheumatism and Neuralgia, those giant diseases which have for ages baffled medical skill, and caused untold suffering, yield at once to the healing influence of this powerful fluid. It is warranted to heal the following diseases when used according to directions as a bathing lotion: Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Palsy, Fits, Swelled Joints, Scrofula, Stiff Limbs, Spasms, Deafness, Cancer, White Swelling, Salt Rheum, Sore Eyes, Female Weak Back, Spinal Affections, Protrusion, and other Female Diseases.

Remember that its use involves no long tedious, uncertain, and costly experiment, but its good effect can be seen almost instantly while in no case can it possibly do harm.

Send to the proprietors for circular containing full directions for its use, and testimonials of remarkable cures, effected by this medicine after all other remedies had failed to relieve.

One bottle will be sent to any part of the United States on receipt of one dollar.

Dr. Schenck's Mandrake Pills. A Substitute for Calomel.

These Pills are composed of various roots, having the power to relax the secretions of the liver as promptly and effectually as Blue Pill or mercury, and without producing any of those disagreeable or dangerous effects which often follow the use of the latter.

In all bilious disorders these Pills may be used with confidence, as they promote the discharge of vitiated bile, and remove those obstructions from the liver and biliary ducts, which are the cause of bilious affections in general.

SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS cure Sick Headache, and all disorders of the Liver, indicated by yellow skin, coated tongue, heaviness, drowsiness, and a general feeling of weakness and lassitude, showing that the liver is in a torpid or obstructed condition.

In short, these Pills may be used with advantage in all cases when a purgative or alternative medicine is required.

Please ask for "Dr. Schenck's Mandrake Pills," and observe that the two likenesses of the Doctor are on the Government stamp—when in the last stage of Consumption, and the other in his present health.

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers. Price 25 cents per box. Principal office, No.
