LOCAL NEWS.

Covington is going to have electric light. Dr. Berryman will hold his sale on Feb. 21. Will Gray was up from Veederburg, Sunday.

Diphtheria is raging up in Coal Creek township. Covington had an Uncle Tom show Tuesday night.

Charley Casad is talking of buying the Veederburg Reporter.

This has been the dullest season for the coal dealers for many years.

Joseph Huff, of Waverland, has been taken to the county poor farm.

Five or six arrests for drunkenness were made on Sunday morning.

Morris Herzog will open out a new stock of dry goods in Waynetown on March 1st.

Mrs. Hettie Tingley, nee Steele, is very sick at the residence of her mother in Waynetown.

The whooping cough is visiting all the home-oids in Ripley township, especially at Alamo.

The union revival at Waverland closed last Thursday with thirty-seven additions to the churches.

A new time table in the running of passenger trains on the O. I. & W. will go into effect tomorrow.

The fox drive in Wayne township to-day will be the largest of the season as it includes the whole township.

Hon. E. V. Brookshire has returned from Washington City where he has been sojourning for some days past.

There is not a country store in the county but what has several store boxes full of eggs. That fruit was never so plentiful.

Charles H. Pense, the veteran teacher, is taking a week's vacation, and will begin his next term of school in Ripley, Monday.

H. J. Streng, of Richmond, Ky., has bought the Herzog stock of dry goods at Waynetown and removed them to the Zuck brick block.

Uncle Silas Peterson has brought Dr. Berryman's farm and the Potato Creek postoffice in all probability will be discontinued before very long.

Noah Myers, the Alamo druggist, is pushing his Devil on Cornus for all that it is worth. He is an enterprising man, has a good medicine and will make it win.

The alleged "White Cap" notices which several persons are reported to have received here are thought to have been sent more in the nature of sport than anything else.

The valentine chestnut received less attention this year than usual, and the wish is general that the old state habit of sending those fool things known as valentines through the post office will eventually cease altogether.

A specimen of the bark of the redwood trees of California was brought to this office this week. This bark specimen is about 15 inches in thickness and some pieces have been taken from trees in that state nearly 30 inches in thickness.

Thursday last Miss Emma Nelson and James Hymer, of Putnam county, were married at the home of the bride, and the same day took a trip to Indianapolis, returning Friday evening. After they returned the bride was taken suddenly ill, and died Saturday afternoon.

Two fox drives are announced to take place to-day. One takes place in the region within two or three miles around Yountsville and the other in the country mostly embraced within the boundaries of Wayne township. The foxes are not particularly numerous or destructive, but the boys want some fun and can have it as these drives even if there is some labor attached to it.

Mr. A. B. Milligan, for many years a resident of Brown township, died on Sunday last after a short illness. Mr. Milligan was a gentleman universally respected for his many good qualities as a citizen, neighbor and friend, and his kindly face will be greatly missed among those having the pleasure of his acquaintance. He had resided in Brown township for over twenty years, coming to this county from Kentucky.

It will be remembered that the Greencastle mail works was bid off to Muncie, who paid $25,000 for the plant. The Muncie citizens no doubt thought they would increase their population several hundred and in a short time their business men would be remunerated for the donations they made by an increase of customers. But it must be remembered these manufacturing nearly all have their own stores and compel their employees to buy of them, give orders, etc. On Monday last Darnell Bros., who are connected with the mail works, moved their stock of goods to Muncie to supply the employees, and several other merchants of the Greencastle works will follow suit in a few days. These are what are termed the "pluck'em" stores.

Taken In.

Deputy Marshal Wood arrested one Dr. G. M. Talbot, of Alamo, last week, on charge of violating the election laws. Talbot was very busy along during election times securing votes for the republican party and was said to have been not at all scrupulous how they were obtained. He has been expecting the lightning to strike him and was extremely nervous about the prospects of being taken before the Federal Court. He gave bail for $500 for his appearance. Whatever his trial may result he will find there is some expense and trouble in being so over zealous for the success of his party and will not be so anxious hereafter. The Marshal also arrested Alfred Lucas, of Veederburg, for bribery; bond, $1,000; John Cronk, and Lincoln Brown, both for bribery; bond $1,000 each.

An Unknown Found Dead.

An unknown man was found dead, lying beside the track of the Monon railway about a mile and a half south of Lafayette on Saturday. The man was lying upon his face alongside of the track. A broken jug was beside him, which had evidently contained whisky. There was nothing on his person to designate who he was.

Where Is Maxie Rice?

Maxie Rice, the thirteen-year-old son in a prominent family of Frankfort, has been missing since Tuesday last. His disappearance causes much uneasiness. The authorities of the surrounding cities have been notified, but no clue can be obtained as to his whereabouts. He is a bright little fellow, with light hair and blue eyes. When he left he wore cap, knee-pants, and is supposed to have left the city in company with a boy named Sawyers, presumably for the purpose of joining a show company. Telegrams, with the request of publication, are being sent to various city papers with the hope that they will lead to his recovery.

Good News From the Wheat Crop.

Reports reaching the secretary of the state agricultural board show that wheat throughout the state is in good condition. The lack of snow has not been very damaging because of the small amount of cold weather experienced. Travelling agents for grain firms state that the wheat is in the best condition it has been for five years, particularly in the southeast part of Indiana.

Gallagher-Shuckrow

John Gallagher, of Lafayette, and Jerry Shuckrow, of Danville, Ill., have arranged for a glove fight to the finish to occur on or near the 26th of March within 50 miles of Danville. Gallagher went into training Monday.

Dr. Bull's baby syrup is in good demand; everybody speaks well of it. The price only 25 cents.

It is expected that railroad building, which has been somewhat neglected in Montana, will be active this year.

The Voice of the People on Wine.

It is a well-known fact that wines above all other liquors are grossly adulterated, but when a pure article is placed on the market and people find it out to be pure, they all with one accord recommend it. The port grape wine from the vineyards of Alfred Speer, of Passaic, N. J., has received the unqualified endorsement of the medical faculty and of thousands of invalids that have been won back to health by its use. For sale by druggists.

There is a rumor in England that William Walter Phelps is to be the next American minister to that country.

The Population of Crawfordville.

Is about 10,000, and we would say at least one half are troubled with some affection of the throat and lungs, as those complaints are, according to statistics, more numerous than others. We would advise our readers not to miss the opportunity to call on their druggist and get a bottle of Kemp's balsam for the throat and lungs. Trial size free
