

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

WHAT IS SCROFULA

It is that impurity in the blood, which, accumulating in the glands of the neck, produces unsightly lumps or swellings; which causes painful running sores on the arms, legs, or feet; which develops ulcers in the eyes, ears, or nose, often causing blindness or deafness; which is the origin of pimples, cancerous growths, or the many other manifestations usually ascribed to "humors," which, fastening upon the lungs, causes consumption and death. Being the most ancient, it is the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

How Can It Be CURED

By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the remarkable cures it has accomplished, often when other medicines have failed, has proven itself to be a potent and peculiar medicine for this disease. Some of these cures are really wonderful. If you suffer from scrofula, be sure to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. "My daughter Mary was afflicted with scrofulous sore neck from the time she was 22 months old till she became six years of age. Lumps formed in her neck, and one of them after growing to the size of a pigeon's egg, became a running sore for over three years. We gave her Hood's Sarsaparilla, when the lump and all indications of scrofula entirely disappeared, and now she seems to be a healthy child." J. S. CARLISLE, Naught, N. J.

Asbury Linn and M. Edwards occasionally send a car load of hogs from this place and Linnsburg, but the business is far from being brisk.

With the excellent ability and qualifications represented by the democratic candidates for County Supt. surely the selection of an efficient person, one who will reflect credit and honor both upon the schools and the democratic party is insured.

Your educational items are a grateful recognition of the teacher's profession, in your columns and of special interest to the teachers. They should esteem them highly, and each contribute something.

Two little sons of A. D. Kellison were out in the woods playing, last week. They "treed" a ground hog and not knowing what it was, ran their hands in a hollow tree after it, when the animal seized them in its teeth and lacerated them severely.

In driving from here to Danville via Lebanon, we noticed the wheat between here and Lebanon varied from fair to very poor and thin on the ground, and many places within eight miles of Lebanon we noticed farmers plowing up their wheat. From Lebanon to Lizton it was very fair, and from Lizton to Danville it was good.

Mrs. Lola Berry, the post mistress is ready to step out. She has made a good official.

The sheriff has levied on R. S. Osburn's personal property to pay the judgment of Chas. Haas. Such acts look very funny.

Bill Zerface our enterprising druggist lost nine gallons of oil one day last week by it leaking out of a can. The loss was six dollars.

We have not heard how mad Wesley Fouts is since he got left in the soup in the post office deal, and there were a few more of the boys who feel hot under the collar.

During last campaign the republican promised some of the weak fellows that they should receive an office and now they don't seem to know the poor fellows. Why is this?

The town election draws nigh, we want to see a strong democratic ticket appointed. We favor J. C. Wilson, for Marshall, again he has made a good official and should be kept in the office.

If there is no need for a political town ticket why was there a necessity for a change in the post office. It is a poor rule that don't work both ways and if we need politics in anything we need it in everything.

The question now is will the republicans give Ras Williamson the office he is seeking. It has leaked out that his daughter was selected for the post office to keep Mr. Williamson off of the track but he seems to stay.

The new post mistress, Minnie Williamson is a lady, and we hope will meet with success in the management of the office. She deserves the office and no one has cause to complain of her receiving the appointment from the present administration.

What Waynetown people would like to know is the man's name who swore that Mrs. Lola Berry as post mistress neglected her business. She has made the best official we ever had and was perfectly willing to step out, but not at the instigation of some worthless whelp, who would tell such lies on a lady.

There is something new under the sun and Judge Woods will have a chance to convict some of the men he is willing to see go to the Pen. Monday evening a deputy U. S. Marshall was here and ordered all the tried and trusty republicans to appear before the U. S. Grand Jury. Of course this is to catch some democrat and they will try and convict democratic politicians. We await developments.

Wayne township has many ambitious republicans who want office. There were several who are now sorry because they did not get the post office, but they were not in the ring and are left in the soup. Ross Williamson still wants to be revenue officer notwithstanding his daughter has an office and he is going to work for it until the last hope has vanished and he is not the only one that wants something. But the others are afraid to speak out.

The centennial anniversary of one hundred years, of Presidents, was duly celebrated here.

The business houses and many residences were beautifully decorated with flags and bunting.

In the afternoon the cornet band was out and gave some good music. In the evening the band led the military company out onto the Main street where they gave a creditable drill, and then proceeded to the Christian church, where observing services were held.

The choir and cornet band furnished the music. Prof. A. N. Higgins delivered an address, followed by interesting recitations by Miss Mattie Sims and Agnes Kelley. The day was duly observed and all felt as if they had done their duty.

NEW RICHMOND.

Wint Washburn is remodeling the store front and repairing the porch to the building.

Suipe shooting this spring has been very poor, and pot hunters have had bad luck so far.

The dry weather is telling on wheat, corn, and meadows, and unless rain comes soon will damage things things generally.

We are glad to see republicans pulling each other's wool over the post office, and hope they will have better sense four years hence.

Bill Graves wishes to inform the Bristle Riders that he is having a new suit of clothes made. William will astonish the natives soon.

Jim Campbell and Bounce Kirkpatrick had a hard fight last week. Campbell did his adversary up the first round and the parties quit satisfied.

The law being in force until the 1st of June for squirrels, some of our farmers say they will report to the grand jury any violation of this law.

A man with his jack knife threatened to carve, cut, and otherwise annihilate at the saloon the other night. He will draw that jack knife on the wrong party some day.

We wish some one would form a trust on potato bugs and make them scarce. They are plenty and are watching for the potatoes to come through the ground.

People who have friends buried in the cemetery west of this place should look after the graves of their departed friends. A great many of the graves need attention.

The gas well excitement has completely died out. We know there is gas under our town and it would be a paying investment to men of capital to drill a gas well here.

Loud complaints are being made in certain directions concerning misappropriation of campaign money last fall. We cannot say, but some one should rise and explain if not guilty.

Sam Mitter, hostler for Mr. Coopland, has a peculiar place for his bed. He rooms in the undertaker's office and sleeps in a coffin. Sam proposes to be ready when Gabe sounds his last trump.

Our village needs a lumber yard the worst way. We can't get anything of that kind short of Crawfordsville, and there is a big scope of country that would patronize an institution of that kind here.

The English sparrow is taking things fast and it will not be long until all other birds will be extinct if something is not done to eradicate the pest. The commissioners should offer a reward for the killing of them.

A young lady who visits our town annually and corners one of our young business men and tries to coax, beg, or borrow money, would surely desist if she knew the remarks that were made of her actions.

Frank Cornell, post master! Ahem! Burford did it for him for distributing the lying circulars about the tariff, and trying to get poor men to vote against their own interest. Mr. Cornell was the man to help such schemes along.

A letter from Newt Sheppard, in Kansas, states that he is going to farming, having bought a barrel to haul water in and a yoke of oxen to begin with. He did not go to Oklahoma as he supposed he would when he left Indiana.

To the excellent scribe at Darlington we will say, that railroad receipts show that for upward of eight weeks, eight cars of shelled corn left the ware house for Toledo and New York. Come and see them and don't fail to see the famous merchant tailor.

A young man with no teeth, as luck would have it, came very near swallowing our genial R. B. ticket agent, last week, simply because he would not bring the pay car at the time the young man would like to have it. The agent is still alive and selling tickets at the present writing.

Post master elect Cornell was terrible on democrats last fall, but when he went to fill out his official bond as post master, George Washburn, an ultra democrat, was the first man he asked to sign his document. How strange that he would ask a rebel, and an uncompromised one to go on a g. o. p. paper!

We were handed the names of two men who try to take a prominent part in church and singing school affairs. These two men it is said raise so much disturbance at "singing school of Sunday evenings that it is impossible to run the school with success. Next week the names will appear if repeated next Sunday.

A republican told the writer that he had heretofore voted the republican ticket just because it was a republican ticket—nothing else. He now says he has begun to take notice and hereafter will vote the Democratic ticket through principle. We wish a few more would put on their thinking caps and vote for self interest awhile.

Rope that was sold six-months ago for 15 cts per pound now sells for 25 cts., sugar that sold six-months ago for 6 1/2 cts., now sells for 9. Trusts did it. Coffee that sold for 20 cts., now sells at 27 cts. Trusts did it. Everything a poor man eats, drinks, and wears, sells higher than it did six-months ago. The republican party did it. Vote for the party, and when the bloody shirt is brought out four years hence, fall into line and have these damnable things repeated.

The post office ambroglio is settled at last. The official documents were sent here by his Honnab, John Burford, the grand schemer of all the Montgomery county brave high tariff republicans. Frank Cornell, whose name is better known as chief Hot Iron, got the office, and John H. who goes by the name of Bad Medicine, is broken hearted because he did not get there and refuses to be comforted. C. Q. K. is wearing mourning on his under lip and will now take the name of Big Little Chief or the man who never takes fire water. George W. George L., Dr. D., and Wm. C., will hold a grand scalp dance in honor of Bad Medicine's defeat and fun all along the line is looked for in the near future. Chief Hot Iron says he has got it and will keep it. Right he is. Shake.

An Enterprising Firm.

It matters not where we may find enterprise we think it is always worthy of praise for it is the enterprising and wide-awake merchant who draws a good trade to any town or city and makes the cry of hard times sound out of place.

In this we are compelled to speak of one of Crawfordsville's best firms, that of Abe Levinson, successor to Phil Joseph. About three years ago Mr. Levinson came here as manager for the Phil Joseph store. He carried a fine stock and is always looking for something new and novel for the trade, and his prices have been so low while his stock was so complete that he has always had an excellent trade.

Not long since he secured the stock and is now sole proprietor. He is still doing a big business and will continue to do as he is a business man of ability, who knows how to cater to the wants of the people. We can safely recommend him to our readers as a business man who will give them fair dealings and sell them the very best of goods as low as any competitor.

Dr. R. A. Gunn, M. D. Dean and Professor of Surgery of the United States Medical College, Editor of the "Medical Tribune," author of "Gunn's New Improved Hand-book of Hygiene and Domestic Medicine," says: "Belonging as I do to a branch of the profession which believes that no school of medicine knows all the truth regarding disease, and being independent enough to use any remedy that will help my patients without reference to the source from which it comes, I am willing to acknowledge and commend thus frankly the value of Warner's safe cure."
