One Dollar

The Chief Reason for the great success of Hood's Sarsaparilla is found in the article itself. It is merit that wins, and the fact that Hood's Sarsaparilla actually accomplishes what is claimed for it, is what has given to this medicine a popularity and sale greater than that of any other sarsaparilla or blood purifier before the public.

Hood's Sarsaparilla cures Scrofula, Salt Rheum and all Humors, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Billoousness, overcomes That Tired Feeling, creates an Appetite, strengthens the Nerves, builds up the Whole System.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is sold by all druggists. $1 for 85. Prepared by C. L. Hood & Co., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

The city board of equalization has been in session several nights of this week. It business seems to be to raise the assessment of the personal property of most of our business men. This is probably for the purpose of paying the increased salary of the Mayor, Clerk, City Assessor and other officials. They need the money in their business, that is the city of do.

Even our esteemed friend the Hon. Michael Price, ex-councilman, now county commissioner, falls into line with the cranks and says the REVIEW is read by no one. This is strange and unfortunate, for Michael should know everything, for to see him you would imagine the seat of wisdom was his pants. But the fact is Michael is like all the republican commissioners we have had for some time past, a block-head with as much business as a mule.

Samuel Wallace, residing near New Richmond, Montgomery county, has brought suit for slander against Elias Perkins, his father-in-law, and Frank Perkins, a son of the latter, for $10,000 damages in the Fountain county circuit court. The slander consists in a story which Wallace claims was circulated by the defendants, charging that he had been the indirect cause of his wife's death. James B. Milner, of this city, has been retained by the defense.—Lafayette Courier.

It was a party of men on Green street who had quite an amount of fun at the expense of their friends Monday. A wire that hung over a telephone wire reached the sidewalk, and the men would hold it with one hand and shake hands with the passers-by. The sidewalk had been covered with water and the joining of hands made a good circuit of electricity, so that the unsuspecting received a severe shock. They would look for the brick house that fell on them but could not find out until an explanation was made.

Miss Anna Null, of Crawfordsville, while the guest of Miss Effie, last week, swallowed a pin and it lodged in her throat. Dr. Wilson was hastily sent for, and he succeeded in forcing it down into the stomach. At last accounts she was doing well.—Ladoga Leader.

Charley Goldsmith, handsome and full of fun, the Mud Turtle camping club issued their invitations last week. They start August 2 for the Shades of Death. Fifteen comprises the party, several of whom are from Indianapolis and Danville.

The REVIEW may not be much of a newspaper, our grammar may be an old edition, and we may not have many readers; we stand all such accusations, but we generally get there just the same.

Misses Eleanor and Jimmie Hughes, two of the most popular and handsome belles of Louisville, were at Evanson's saw-mill, east of the Junction, on Saturday. It was brought from the Beal farm, two miles northwest of the city.

The Mud Turtle camping club issued their invitations last week. They start August 2 for the Shades of Death. Fifteen comprises the party, several of whom are from Indianapolis and Danville.

Pat Donahue, the man who was arrested by the Chicago detectives as being Cooney, the Dr. Cronin murderer, was in the city Tuesday. Mr. Donahue says he looks very much like the photograph of Cooney and was spotted some time before he found out what they were after.

He was on his road home and said he would stay there until the trouble was over.

As soon as the new rope comes the natural gas company intend to drill 2,000 feet and if they are not rewarded with gas it will not be the lack of enterprise. There are many in the city who have little hope of ever being so fortunate but there is little to loose and much to gain. If they find gas the city will boom; if they do not, well, lower the curtain and let them tell.

Children's Day was observed at the Universal church on Sunday last. The exercises consisted of a sermon at 11 o'clock to the children, by the pastor, Rev. J. B. Fosher, from the text "Grow in grace;" after which a basket dinner was spread in the grove. At 2 p. m. the children of both Sunday schools gave an entertainment consisting of declamations, recitations, essays, etc., interspersed with music by the school and also by Miss Fannie Doyle, of New Market, who is a very fine singer indeed, aided by her brother and Mr. French, editor of the Brookston Reporter.
