

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA

Take Hood's Sarsaparilla 100 Doses One Dollar

The Chief Reason for the great success of Hood's Sarsaparilla is found in the article itself. It is merit that wins, and the fact that Hood's Sarsaparilla actually accomplishes what is claimed for it, is what has given to this medicine a popularity and sale greater than that of any other sarsaparilla or blood purifier before the public. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures Scrofula, Salt Rheum and all Humors, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Biliousness, overcomes That Tired Feeling, creates an Appetite, strengthens the Nerves, builds up the Whole System. Hood's Sarsaparilla is sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared by C. I. Hood & Co., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

Ed Reynolds and O. M. Gregg, the men appointed by the B. M. A. to go to Chicago and consult the railroad magnates there about securing lower shipping rates for Crawfordsville did their work well and we will soon be able to give our farming friends as good, if not better prices than any of our rival towns. The Monon officials have agreed to give us as good rates to Chicago as the Clover Leaf gives to Toledo and hereafter we will be put on an equal footing with the other shipping points.

The following committees have been appointed to perfect the arrangements for the Y. M. C. A. banquet upon the evening of August 13: Committee on reception, T. H. Ristline, E. Gregg, Albert Ruffner, Walter Smith; on refreshments, Jim Johnson, Jim Wilson, Omer Cox, Herbert Thomson, Charley Ross; on program, F. R. Rosebro, R. S. Thomson, Harry Bishop; on decoration, W. H. Jackson, S. J. Billman, Cliff Voris.

Big Elder Williams, who preacher occasionally for glory and boodle, chiefly boodle, stood the other day in front of Johnson's saloon, looking up and down the street to see what he could nail. Frank Fisher got on the building above with a bucket full of water and seeing the Elder needed a cooling application on his perspiring brow let the contents of the bucket loose on the dusky object below nearly drowning him. The elder says he will have the law on him "shuah," but might compromise for a consideration.

There are many Democrats in Montgomery county who are not subscribers of the REVIEW and while we do not wish to boast of what we are doing we believe every reader will sanction our assertion that we are making it as good a local paper as it has ever been and to continue as successful we must have the support of the party. We are never asleep and generally find out the crookedness of the republican party, are not afraid to tell it in plain unvarnished english. We will make a special low rate to Jan. 1, '90 and hope our friends over the county will aid us in securing every democrat on our list.

On the War Path.

We met a gentleman on the streets Wednesday who mysteriously drew us aside and proclaimed the startling fact that he wished to be interviewed, saying there was nothing particular to be mentioned but he had never been implicated in an interview and wanted to see the letters, John R. Robinson, spelled out boldly in print. "Well, what do you want to speak about Mr. Robinson?" "Oh, nothing particular, let's talk about the Maxinkuckee excursion." "You just tell the people over my name that I hereby challenge J. C. Edgeworth to mortal combat with two beer bottles, for his outrageous management of that picnic. Why he had it so arranged that when we had all filled ourselves up with peanuts and wanted a drink, there wasn't any to be found in the car, and then to add insult to injury he got off at a little way station and brought us in a tin can full of water. Now what do you suppose we wanted with water. Why his conduct was disgusting. We were twelve hours going and twelve coming, with five minutes at the lake to see the sights and eat dinner in. I asked Edge what was the matter, and he said the Van couldn't afford an extra train just to take us up to the lake, but that the management was trying to economize and had to hitch on a freight train so as to kill two birds with one darnick. Please state to the people that Mr. Edgeworth is an abbreviated penitentiary and should be allowed a day off at Joliet or some other resort for his health and the health of his friends."

The Dagoes Supper.

The Clover Leaf railroad is working several hundred Italians in spreading the gravel over the road. The largest colony are quartered in tents near New Richmond, and it was a Riverview man's pleasure to see them cooking and eating their supper Monday. Their principal dish and the one they seemed the most fond of was noodles, which was composed of a piece of soup bone boiled in water with slices of dough thrown in as a mixture. A large iron pot of this stuff consisted of all the supper a large party of them had. One big burly fellow seemed rather selfish and did not eat with the others, having for his supper a loaf of bread, two green apples and a cup of water. They took on a small furnace dug in the ground near their tent, and only eat because it is a necessity to do so and live. They treat anyone pleasantly and are a race to be pitied.

Y. M. C. A. Blowout.

On the second Tuesday in August the members of the Y. M. C. A. will give a banquet and reception for members only. The press and public will be invited and it is thought two hundred will take part, altogether. After the banquet a reception will be held and a good time indulged in generally. No liquor will be sold on the ground and only members of the press be given the privilege of using intoxicating language. After that a reception will be tendered the friends of the association every month.

A Rare Opportunity.

People throughout the county should remember that now is the time to brush up in the common branches again before being examined for license or entering upon another year of teaching. Messrs Hultz and Perrin who have charge of the normal now at the college are accommodating and able men and will be happy to accommodate all who come. No time should be lost in improving this opportunity.

Lake Maxinkuckee.

Without doubt the Vandallia folks carried more people over their line last Sunday than they ever did before, the occasion being the great meeting at Lake Maxinkuckee. There were three large trains from this end of the line, one from Indianapolis via the C. I. St. L. & C. and three from South Bend, one over the Nickel Plate and another special from Fort Wayne. In all they must have handled fully 6,000 people, the rush being so great that it was an utter impossibility to afford them the best of accommodations, and no sensible person could have expected it. But they did well, as the Vandallia people always do, and deserve much credit for getting the trains out as fast as they did. Only those who stood back and observed the rush and clamor, saw the throngs of people get on the first train they came to, only to find that it was going in the opposite direction from their home, while a caller was telling where the train was going, all this had to be seen to know how difficult it is to get a train out on time. The companies' employees did all they could to make things agreeable, much credit being due Agent Edgeworth, of this city. The rush will not be repeated, as the Van folks have it arranged now to meet such a vast crowd. Fifteen thousand admission tickets to the assembly grounds were sold, and everyone got a peep at Rev. Talmage, if they could not hear him. The lake was covered all day long with boats, and the little steamers reaped a rich harvest, one of them clearing $300. All the hotels were crowded and the scene reminded us of a Thursday night here during fair week. Crawfordsville sent a delegation of about 100, all of whom took in all the sights and were surprised at such a pleasant place being located in our State. The trains Sunday will be arranged so that no trouble will occur. One division will start from Logansport and another from Terre Haute, and after the Terre Haute division gets to Logansport they will run through direct to the lake, without stops. There is room for everyone at the lake and you should not miss the good chance offered to visit the finest summer resort in Hoosierdom.

Died in Prison.

Henry C. Day, the Greencastle watch maker, who was sentenced to two years' imprisonment at Jeffersonville on the charge of embezzlement, died this week, after having served four months of his sentence. He failed to account for certain watches left in his possession, and though the jury was satisfied of his guilt, the liveliest sympathy was felt for the unfortunate man, as his downfall was attributed to intemperance. He was in business in Greencastle for many years, and will be remembered in connection with the assault and robbery that were perpetrated on him some 10 or 12 years ago by the noted burglar, Bill Rudifer. Day was taking his watches to the bank vault about 9 o'clock p. m. when Rudifer knocked him down and escaped with his booty. The noted desperado was arrested a few days afterward near Terre Haute and the stolen goods recovered. Rudifer managed to escape from prison and was finally killed while burglarizing a house at Indianapolis. Day's remains were interred at Greencastle, where his wife and several children reside.

BASE BALL CRANKISMS.

The Ladoga shortstop plays ball like a pretzel.

The Terre Hautes shut out the South Bends, last Sunday.

The Reds have every right to claim the county championship.

Several lads from Ladoga were up to see the game Wednesday.

The recreation parks and the Reds should play for the city championship.

Charley Rapp, of the Ladogas, is a good catcher and a perfect gentleman.

Dougan, of the Terre Hautes, has been offered a position with the Indianapolis league club.

Paul McGinnis never did play ball, anyway. He can sell goods to Ladoga people much better.

Hal Ensminger has retired from the management of the Recreation Parks and is superceded by Lon Lee.

The Ladoga shortstop cannot play pins, let alone ball. He actually made one stop during the entire game Wednesday.

They say Ladoga had but four men of their original club here. They only needed two, and they were Charley Rapp and Lish Tibbett.

Of the Recreation Parks, Fred Wilhite is the pretty man, Billy Martin the important man, Verd Galey the grandstand man, and the rest substitutes.

"Pig" Dorsey was here this week, looking in the best shape. He says the Terre Hautes will stick together the entire season and have some good games.

The Wabash college club will reorganize as soon as college begins and will be stronger than they were the fore part of the season. They won the championship of the State and intend to keep it.

The Crawfordsville Reds defeated the Covington club, Sunday last, by a score of 11 to 6. McCune and Wasson were the battery from this city. The boys all speak well of their treatment.

The bummiest game of ball that was ever played in the city was the one between the Ladoga boys and the Recreation Parks at the college grounds Wednesday afternoon. Fully 200 people were present when Wal Foster, of Ladoga, called out "play ball." For the Recreation Parks there cannot be found a brilliant play, though Galey at short stop made several gallery stops. Johnnie Carroll was hit in the head by a pitched ball and had to retire from the game. Will Martin could hardly pitch any instead of a ball. They batted him for many clean hits, while Lish Tibbett, of the visitors, enjoyed getting the bases full and then knocking the ball to the railroad. No one played ball, either home club or visitors, and the game which ended just as the sun was sinking below Sugar Creek's hills was announced in favor of the Crawfordsville talent by a score of 21 to 22.

Notice to Farmers.

I desire to state that so far as I am individually concerned, I will pay as much for wheat as is paid at Linden, New Richmond, Waynetown or any other station in Montgomery county, freight rates or not. Farmers having the article to sell can bring it to me with the assurance that they will secure the highest market price.

I have accommodations for hitching one hundred teams around my warehouse. Free of charge to my customers. Remember I pay CASH and don't ask you to go to the bank after your money. Try my way of doing business; it will pay you. Office, first door east of Inley's livery stable.

A. : E. : REYNOLDS,

Successor to Crabbs & Reynolds.

A colored camp meeting is in progress at the fair ground.

Mrs. James Brown, of Danville, is here visiting her parents.

The wife of George Piercy died at their home in Dakota this week.

Mrs. M. D. Ward, of Princeton, is visiting her father, J. G. Overton.

There will be no doubt of the excursion train getting to Maxinkuckee Sunday on time. Fare only two dollars.

A fellow claiming to be Merrin Thompson, the Oakland Thunderbolt, pulled against a team of horses on the streets Thursday evening. There was nothing especially brilliant about it and if the fellow is what he claims to be he can surely make enough in the ring without giving such pauper entertainments.
