The Uniform Rank K. of P. is at Warsaw this week and from reports the boys are having a good time. They left via the O. & W., Monday, a merry party under command of Dr. S. L. Easminger. The boys will try camp life and return home, Monday, real, for sure old soldiers. Quite a number of ladies accompanied them on the trip.

The Alamo Cornet band visited Lake Maxinkuckee Sunday, and were said to be the best musical organization that has visited that popular resort this summer. They took a steam boat ride, caught fish and flirted with the girls. Noah Myers could not swim like he could in Sugar creek and Ed Truax thought it was somewhat wider. The boys furnished good music, had a good time and are willing to go again.

Dr. King, of New Ross, was in the city Monday.

George W. Stafford, of Washington Ter., is visiting here.
Elder Williams did not expostulate the gospel Sunday at Linden by special request of the citizens.

We are growing tired of the jealous manner in which some men conduct their business. We like to see every one succeed and bear no ill will against any fellow man. There is no need of personal insults to make a point among newspaper men nor business men. We believe it right to secure all the business you can in an honorable way and will always be glad to see our contemporaries succeed. We shall enter into no newspaper squabbles with anyone. Not that we feel an inability, but because we think our readers do not want it and think it an insult to decent journalism. We may have many faults and may be incompetent to fill the position we are trying to, but we are doing our best and trying to do it honorably.

Sallie J. Keeney, third daughter of Jerre and Sarah J. Keeney, died Saturday afternoon Aug. 3. She was born in Crawfordville on Feb. 25, 1859, and only a few months ago that dreaded disease, consumption, fastened its fatal clutches on her pure life and a worthy spirit sped happily to its giver. She was a good christian girl with all friends, no enemies. She was a member of Center Presbyterian church and devoted to the work allotted by her Master and when the summons came she was alike to that glowing testimonial for living a christian life, ready and happy to enter the portals of heaven and lay aside all earthly pleasures. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. E. B. Thomas at the family residence, Tuesday morning, after which the remains were laid to rest in Oak Hill cemetery.

Harry Woodfork is a colored gentleman of this city who is always ready to turn an honest penny and when a gentleman offered Harry a tempting handful of money to go to the Black Hills Saturday night and aid him in taking a dead body to a physician's office he was not slow in accepting. They had just picked up the supposed body when a fire was opened on them which sounded like an array of rattling guns. Woodfork's companion fell, as it seemed, fatally shot. It was then that the gentleman of color showed just how to beat Maud S's record. He fairly flew. Barb wire was like cobwebs and board fences like toothpicks. He never stopped until he waded Sugar creek, climbed the steep hill near the Monon depot and with two beautiful and active strides landed on the Court House corner.

Waynetown has a poker club. It was organized many years ago and some of the old and honored sinners with new recruits still pursue the two call five just for past time, you know. They have had many a raid and some of them are interesting. Last Sunday Marshal Zook and Constable Ben Gray dropped in on the boys who were sitting up with the sick but the hustling and scrambling through back doors and windows beat the days when the lady summonsed them to call that pot and quit parties. The club is composed strictly of stiff parties, brothers-in-law to the church, stock dealers and the dutch. They sometimes grow reckless while playing and lose as much as 50 cents. This raid will perhaps break up this imitation of Monte Carlo and hereafter they will open the door and let the gentleman out.

Ghost Scare.

The Enquire correspondent from this city sends the following: The ghost of Christopher Hillard has come back to drive sleep away from the eyes of his widow. Hillard died from neglect according to the Coroner's verdict, and he appeared in spirit from the very first night after the funeral. Mrs. Hillard lives alone and she avers that the ghost has an uncomfortable habit of walking back and forth across her bed after she lies down. She spends her days at home unmolested, but she sleeps at a neighbor's at night and talks freely of his ghostship.

COUNTY FAIR ITEMS

The Crawfordville band will furnish music for the county fair.

The one happy week of the year for Red Snyder is fast approaching.

There will be bicycle racing on Wednesday and Thursday of the fair.

Ben Myers will look after the chickens as only such fanciers as Ben can do.

The race track is being cleaned and put in good condition in time for the fair.

On Tuesday, children under 15 years, and persons over 70 will be admitted free.

Everybody will be here this year and it will be the biggest fair ever held in the State.

The bicycle races will be an interesting feature for which credit is due Tom Nicholson.

Willard Taylor, of Yonksville, will be here, with his famous herd of Schropshire sheep.

There will be fine racing this season, as Jim Freeman says the track was never in a better condition.

The lake in the fair ground will probably hold enough water this year to swim a duck, if somebody will furnish the duck.

The management could please the cranks by having two or three good games of base ball during the week. It would be a drawing card.

Frank Snyder, the good looking secretary, is beginning on the mountain of work. It takes work to have a good fair and Snyder is capable of attending to it.

The fine handiwork of D. W. Cox in making the entire place look beautiful is assured. The fair would not be a success if Cox did not have a hand in the pie.

Everyone except thieves and toughs will be here. They know Crawfordville is a poor city for them, for they always take a trip to Michigan City here.

Crawfordville merchants are never slow and Floral Hall will be as beautiful as ever, while our ladies will exhibit such fine work as only the ladies of Montgomery county can do.

Would it not be a good idea to move a stall out into the circle for a press stand? Where are our friends, Red Snyder and Jim Insley, that they do not look after the unfortunate reporter?

The Prohibits of the county proposed to bring St. John and Mrs. Gouger to address the people on Thursday of the fair for the sum of $50, but the directors did not think the investment would pay.

Every citizen of Montgomery county should be proud that our fair is the most successful in the State. Go where you will you can hear the people say "that Montgomery county fair is a hummer." It ranks at the head of them.

Hamilton & Harwood have been refused permission to run a refreshment stand on the fair ground this year. The directors had an expensive law suit with this firm at a late session of court and were beaten, and don't like them in consequence.

LADOGA LEADER ITEMS

Quite a number of Ladogans will go and gaze on the roaring Niagara next week.

Mort Lee and wife are at present living at Ladoga, having given up their residence at Crawfordville.

Luther Rice arrived here Thursday, after an absence of about two years in the West. He has just completed an engagement as assistant Civil Engineer on the gigantic railroad bridge over the Missouri river at Nebraska City, Nebraska.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Clark together with their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Jennie Clark, arrived here Thursday from their home in Iowa. As everybody knows, they formerly lived near here. Everybody is glad to see them and give them a hearty welcome. Mr. Clark weighs nearly 300 pounds.

Prof. J. S. Starr after five years' connection with the Central Indiana Normal School, resigns it now to accept a position in a commercial school in St. Louis. Mr. Starr's work in the Normal has been highly satisfactory to all concerned, and it is with much regret all around that the change is necessary.

A Kerosene Victim.

Mrs. Chas. Fisher died on Monday, at Brazil. A month since she was terribly burned by the explosion of kerosene in attempting to build a fire. She has suffered untold agonies since, the doctor amputating finger after finger as it was necessary, and her left arm was to have been amputated to-morrow had she lived. The husband has suffered a double loss, losing a child last Friday.

Jewels and Laces.

"Oh, girl with the jewelled fingers, Oh, maid with the laces rare!"

What are your jewels and what are your laces worth to you? You would give them all if you could get back your health. Well you can and you can keep your jewels and your laces too. Thousands of women know by happy experience that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription restores the health. It is a positive remedy for those derangements, irregularities and weaknesses so common to woman. In fact it is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee, from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle-wrapper, and faithfully carried out many years.

There will be twenty-seven agricultural fairs in Connecticut during the present season.

Strikes of one kind and another are epidemic in England and Scotland on both a large and a small scale.

Would You Believe

The proprietor of Kept's Balsam gives thousands of bottles away yearly? This mode of advertising would prove ruinous if the balsam was not a perfect cure of coughs and all throat and lung troubles. You will see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Don't hesitate! Procure a bottle to-day to keep in your home or room for immediate or future use. Trial bottle free at all druggists. Large size 50c and $1. N-17-eow-ly.

General Sheridan's private secretary from 1875 to 1880, is in jail in Kansas City for horse stealing.

I have used S. S. S., for debility resulting from chills and fever, and have found it to be the best tonic and appetizer that I ever took. It also prevented the return of the chills. A. J. ANGLIN, Eureka Springs, Ark.
