The Chief Reason for the great success of Hood's Sarsaparilla is found in the article itself. THE REVIEW.

LOCAL NEWS.

Mrs. A. Kellison and child leave on Tuesday next to join her husband at Great Falls, Montana.

Adoption of new school books by different counties goes merrily on, despite the attendance of Van Antwerp, Bragg & Co.'s agents.

Charles Davidge is back from Washington City. The office that he longed for has not come yet, but probably will if he but has patience.

Editor Schwin, of the Peoples' Friend, was in the city with the excursion party Thursday. He is a clever gentleman and is running a good paper.

The trustees of the city schools have decided that the new series of school books must be used. They will be introduced into the city schools.

Department Commander C. M. Travis has sent out a large number of invitations to people to attend the soldier monument ceremonies at Indianapolis next Thursday. The necessity of this is not apparent. If a State affair everybody can go without invitation. If an excursion affair then the invitations are in order.

Frankfort News: The News has it from reliable authority that Prof. Lake, the pedestrian will be wedded shortly to an estimable young lady of Crawfordsville, named Miss Fisher, daughter of a prominent business man of that city. We do not know whether Mr. Lake will like the News's action in telling his secret, but a newspaper is expected to tell all his secrets.

The game of ball between the Reds of this city and the Covington club Thursday, was attended by a large crowd of people. It was an interesting and closely played game until the visitors took exception to the umpire and refused to play further, the score then standing 8 to 9 in favor of the Reds. Sullivan and Wasson were the battery for the Reds and they did good work. In all, the game was interesting, the home club only finding Gebhart, the visiting pitcher in the eighth inning when they did pound him unmercifully for singles and two base hits.

George Sappenfield received a telegram on Saturday, and as they had relatives at Jewett, Ill., who were sick, supposed the telegram was from there, and did not take time to break the seal, but four of them hurriedly got ready, came to town and took the first train west. Arriving at Jewett, they had to go seven miles in the country before reaching their destination, and then found that no telegram had been sent. They returned home and found that the message was from Worthington, Ind., and they had to make another trip.—Waveland Independent.

The twenty-seventh annual meeting of the Old Settlers of Montgomery, Tippecanoe and Fountain counties will be held at Meharry's Grove on Thursday, August 29, 1889. The Committee cordially invites you and your friends to be present. Come with the pleasant remembrance of early pioneer life bright in your memory: come and live over some of those times of hardships, of trials, and last but not least, the pleasant little episodes of the early settling of this country. Come, bring your old relics and enjoy a good time. Prof. J. M. Coulter, of Wabash College; Hon. Park Hunter, of Warren county; Rev. R. J. Cunningham, of Crawfordsville; Hon. J. W. Heath, of Lafayette; President Smart, of Purdue University; and other good speakers will be there to instruct and encourage the throngs of people who will spend another pleasant day in that beautiful grove. Ample arrangements will be made to feed all who come by the ladies of the church for a reasonable fee, therefore the usual custom can be varied by leaving the baskets at home. All invited to come and greet each other.

Family Reunion.

August 14, at his home in Darlington, the family and friends of Archibald Flanigan to the number of 70 met to celebrate his 80th birthday. There were present, with their families, all his children but two, one in Illinois and one in Kansas. The festive board was piled high with the choicest bits, all went merry as a marriage bell and every guest entered fully into the enjoyment of the occasion. Several very handsome presents were given by children and others present.

Archibald Flanigan was born in Fredrick county, Virginia, August 14, 1809, soon after which he removed with his parents to Ross county, Ohio, where he resided until the year 1835, at which date he came to Indiana and settled in Franklin township, in this county, where he has since lived and will probably close his earthly career.

Mr. Flanigan came at an early day, helped to clear the forest and pave the way for others, toiled early and late and accumulated considerable property, and now having reached four score years nothing is more fitting than to have his children and friends gather round in social intercourse. May he live to enjoy other gatherings under as favorable circumstances, is the prayer of his Dying of Glanders.

A remarkable case of glanders is reported to the State board of health from Parke county. Instead of an animal being affected by the dread disease it is a human being, and the doctors say he must die. A farmer named Pierce had a horse afflicted with the disease, and about two weeks ago, while he was standing near the animal, it swung its head around and struck him on the face, breaking the skin and letting some of the deadly poison into his system. In a few days he developed symptoms of the same disease. Dr. S. W. Pell, of Carbon, attended him, but was unable to give any relief and called in Dr. G. W. Bence, of Greencastle, for consultation. The latter was also helpless to relieve Pierce's suffering, and both physicians agree that he must die.

Grand Temperance Conference. All true friends of temperance reform are cordially invited to meet at the court house on Tuesday, Aug. 20, at 10 a. m. The temperance cause must be awakened and taken care of by its friends.

Col. Eli F. Ritter, of Indianapolis,
Rev. E. C. Siler, of Bloomington,
Rev. Lawton, of Ladoga,
Rev. Ryker, of Whitlock,
will speak during the day and evening. The ladies and clergy of the city and county are earnestly requested to attend.

Rather Political

The official bee is buzzing in the ears of many a politician and the latest out and out convert is lawyer Coppage. He would like awful well to fill Judge Snyder's shoes on the judicial bench, and he would be no slouch at the business. He is red headed but there is no fine against that so long as the supply of white horses holds out.

Yes that grammar of ours is a back number from the woods of Wayne township, down where they plant and grow democrats by a solid round majority. We also brought our nerve with us and are finding out a few things that the people want to know but the politicians don't. We intend to tell our readers of every cent of the tax payer's money that is paid out foolishly if we can find it out and we are generally around to see the procession.

Richard Bible is the name of a tried and true republican over in Coal creek township who is a candidate for sheriff on the republican side of the house at the next struggle. Dick is known far and wide as a good fellow and would make a good judge. We have not heard yet whether Wal Tiffany will be a candidate or not.

John C. Wingate, the man who wore grand papa's hat and showed it to Jim Blaine, and strutted around like a ten-year old pea fowl with one tail feather left, is secretly laying his ropes for the congressional race. Now John would make a good county treasurer and was only killed in the race by a chronic office seeker, but when he climbs the ladder to where the congressional fruit hangs he will find they are awful sour grapes.

E. D. Williamson is a wire puller and quite a good one for the republican party down in Wayne township. He wants to be sheriff and has not stood back in saying so. Now the question is will the boys on the outside of the ring get any show, in other words are they even in the race at the beginning.

It has been secretly hinted but not published in either the War Cry or Wall Paper that Johnnie Bonnell never wanted to be post master and that the talk and blow was only for future effect, and that he would bob up serenely as a candidate for auditor. That Bonnell is in the ring and though it was like drinking vinegar he was whipped into line at the late unpleasantness, are gospel truths. You may mark it down that John Bonnell will be the republican nominee for auditor.

It is said that the enemies of Bob Pierce still like to see majestic Robert sat upon and when Judge Greenham not only sat upon Judge Woods and our Bob but squelched them, it is reported that a secret meeting of the ring was held—the B. B. B. ring—and they not only smiled but laughed in chorus. Poor Bob. Poor ring.

Yes there is considerable crookedness in the Montgomery county court house. There has been for years past and the poor tax payer has paid for the fun. Two good men have been robbed and the tax payers have come in for their share. Montgomery county will be in luck to own a court house if the funny business keeps up for twenty years.

It will not be very long until Capt. Munhall will enter upon his career as a political officer. Now whether it will be a brilliant one or not remains to be told. The question as to whether he dyes his mustach has been settled. Capt. acknowledges that the REVIEW was right, and we hope he will make a good officer and not try to get every cent of the fees that come into the court house.

The democratic party has some excellent timber to put in the field at the next election and it is now time to be looking around. We want men who can win, men who have friends and a standing in the community in which they reside. It takes hustlers, and we have them, then why not push them to the front. John Williams is a good man, so is Frank Wren. Charley Clark, of Ladoga, is a sure winner. John Mitchell, of Adams, would add strength to a democratic ticket. Joe Henry, of Wingate, is also a good one. Bob Galloway, of Mace is a hustler. The woods are full of them and we want to find them in plenty of time.

Jimmy Johnston, of Parke county, is no pig but a good-sized hog now. The latest was that Hon. Jeems is laying for another race for Congress. He is working in the suburbs and has been known to tell some influential friends that he wants another chance.

Capt. Billings is that sort of a politician that you read about only in good books. The Capt. missed going to the state senate just because he is the biggest crank in Montgomery county to set on a creek bank and suffer in the hot sun catching Coal creek minnows. Then he could have had Clerk Huett's shoes if he would only have asked for them, but he did not ask for anything he simply went about and did more of the dirty work than any man in the county. He was a brave soldier and is a good honest man and now when will his ungrateful party pay him for it.

That the young bloods swallowed the nomination of Hannibal Trout for legislature like a dose of bitter medicine is a well known fact. There were several aspirants and they all got looks in admirable style. They were simply whipped into line. We do not know all of them but we do know that some of the young men would have filled the office creditably. Howard Edwards is one of them. He would have come nearer carrying Wayne township than any republican ever did but we suppose the boys can expect the same dose again. They are young and must take a back seat. When are the boys to be given a chance?

The Gas Well.

No further drilling has been done at the gas well this week. The depth reached by the drill thus far is near 2,000 feet. The well has filled up with water several hundred feet, and although pumped out soon flows in again. A two-inch pipe was received from Indianapolis, Wednesday, and 2,000 feet feet placed in the well. There are little or but faint indications of gas of any consequence yet, and the impression is rapidly growing that our gas well is a round hole with no gas nor any likely to be. Drilling will probably be continued for some weeks yet in the hope that the much desired article may be found.

Base Ball Crankism.

Sheehan is playing with Danville. Kid Fisher is doing good work now with Peoria.

Peoria will not end the season better than fourth place.

Charley Hoskins is not playing as good ball as he did last year.

The Yountsville club and the Waynetown club will play at the latter place next Saturday.

The Recreation Park club should play the Reds a game and settle the city championship.

The Hillsboro club will soon give a contest at their town for a purse of $100, the best club taking the purse.

The Ladoga boys are a strong ball club and play good gentlemanly ball. They should secure a game with the Reds of this city.

The war is now on. Terre Haute and Danville have both hung out the bloody flag. Boys don't act so foolish, but play ball for money.

The only amateur game that will be played for blood will be the one between Veederburg and Hillsboro, which is for a purse of fifty dollars.

Dorsey is one of the heaviest batters of the Terre Haute club and has played the best ball of his life this year, and has many friends who are glad to know it.

The Reds of this city seems to be invincible they have beaten every club they have played. Sullivan & McCune are both good twirlers and hold the average club down to very few hits, while Dubby Wasson has no superior among the amateurs as a catcher.

Dougan will leave the Terre Hautes September 15th and re-enter DePauw University and then the college supremacy will be a war to be settled this fall. We think Dougan has a promising future as a ball player and if he does not rank among the best in the country we will miss our prediction.

The Terre Hautes defeated the Danville club on the former's grounds Monday, and the game Tuesday broke up in a row, the Danville club leaving the field. Crawfordsville and Danville once struggled for supremacy over each other but they never fought, they never bled, and all was over when they left the diamond.

Danville papers has one of the double titled fits when their club defeated Terre Haute with Dougan in the box. The Press even says Dougan is the very finest in the mind of the base ball crank of this paper. We still say so. He is superior to any twirler Danville ever had and is a most perfect gentleman. In fact the Terre Haute club is composed only of gentlemen.

Will be Here Aug. 22.

It is with pleasure that we call attention to Dr. Rorick's return visits to our city, and note his constantly increasing patronage among our best citizens. The doctor could already publish numerous testimonials from those he has cured in our midst. But he has a rule that he strictly adheres to. He never mentions the name of a patient, or publishes a reference to any case he treats. There are thousands who are living miserable lives, and are succumbing to disease and death as a result of some misconduct on their part, who could be readily restored to health and vigorous womanhood were it not for timidity and the fear of a betrayal of confidence. It is out of regard for this class of cases that he has established this rule. The secrets and feelings of his patients are sacred to him. Read the doctor's large advertisement in this issue of our paper, and take advantage of his offer to give free consultation and thus meet a talented and genial gentleman who is a master of his profession. Dr. Rorick will be at the Nutt Hotel, Thursday, Aug. 22, 1889.

BOXERS IN A BAD BOX

Sluggers Sullivan and Kilrain Indicted in Mississippi.

THE LATTER ARRESTED IN MARYLAND.

He is Captured on the Eve of His Departure for Australia—True Bills Found Against the Backers of the Principals.

GOVERNOR LOWRY SCORES A KNOCK-OUT.

PUNIS, Miss., Aug. 15.—After considerable delay the grand jury on Wednesday returned indictments against John L. Sullivan, Jake Kilrain, Referee Fitzpatrick, Muldoon, Cleary and Donovan. The indictment against Sullivan, relieved of its legal verbiage, charges that John L. Sullivan, by and in pursuance of a previous appointment and arrangement made to meet and engage in a prize-fight with Jake Kilrain, and for a large sum of money did unlawfully engage in a prize-fight in a ring commonly called a prize ring, and then and there beat, strike and bruise the said Jake Kilrain against the peace and dignity of the State of Mississippi. The indictment gives the names of six of the grand jurors, as witnesses. They were at the fight.

The indictment against Fitzpatrick charges him with aiding and abetting in the fight, but did not specify in what way. The capias issued for the parties outside the State who have been indicted will be returned to the court marked "not found." Copies of the indictments will then be sent to Governor Lowry with a request to issue requisitions for the offenders.

A gentleman who is a friend of the Governor and has conversed with him says the Governor has cooled down considerably about the prize-fight and is leaving it in the hands of the courts. The Governor seems to be more friendly inclined toward Sullivan than before and considers him less blamable than some others in the affair.

At the afternoon session the attorneys for the defense submitted a plea in abatement. The plea set forth that the court has no jurisdiction to try the present indictment because the case was already before the justice of the peace on affidavit made by the sheriff, the charges being identical with those contained in the indictment. It is also urged that the grand jury was impeached and sworn August 12, and after deliberating until the following afternoon refused to find an indictment, and that Judge Terrell at this juncture of his own motion, sent for the jury and delivered the charge already published, forcing the jury to bring the indictment.

Judge Terrell was summoned by the sheriff at 5 o'clock. The grand jury desired his presence in the court to present more indictments and they handed in eight bills. They were against persons outside of the county who had not yet given bond. Had the parties indicted or any of them been under bond the indictments would have been made public. The bills are against Frank Stevenson, who managed Kilrain's interest; W. E. Harding, who made by the sheriff, the charges being identical with those contained in the indictment. It is also urged that the grand jury was impeached and sworn August 12, and after deliberating until the following afternoon refused to find an indictment, and that Judge Terrell at this juncture of his own motion, sent for the jury and delivered the charge already published, forcing the jury to bring the indictment.

The finding of this batch of indictments caused considerable excitement among all hands. Baltimore, Md., Aug. 15.—Jake Kilrain, accompanied by his wife, arrived here at an early hour, and as he stepped from the Norfolk boat an officer arrived with a warrant from the Governor of Maryland, issued upon a requisition of the Governor of Mississippi, and placed him under arrest. The ateated pugilist was taken before Marshal Frey, who notified the Mississippi authorities. Kilrain was then locked up to await their action. Jake's wife wept bitterly, and the prisoner was quite nervous and seemed to fear the Mississippi authorities. Marshal Frey had the warrant since July 30, but has been unable thus far to serve it, as Kilrain's whereabouts were unknown. Kilrain says he has been in Virginia, but not in hiding. He simply tried to keep out of the way until he heard what Governor Lowry did with Sullivan. Kilrain was on his way to Australia when arrested. His mission here was to see his children and leave his wife. He has retained Joseph Whyte, son of ex-Senator Whyte, as counsel.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 15.—Governor Foraker has declined to issue a warrant for the extradition of Richard Carroll, general superintendent of the Queen & Crescent road, wanted by Governor Lowry, of Mississippi, as an aider in the Sullivan-Kilrain prize-fight. Carroll's part in the affair consists in the fact that his road carried the fighters and spectators to the scene of the battle. Governor Foraker bases his refusal of the requisition on the ground that Carroll was in the State of Ohio at the time of the fight.

A CLOUD-BURST.

A Terrible Fall of Rain in New Jersey Causes Considerable Damage.

PATERSON, N. J., Aug. 15.—A terrific cloud-burst occurred here Wednesday morning. Streets were washed out, cellars flooded and the sewers choked so that the water spouted out of the manholes to a height of ten feet. On Hamburgh avenue the sidewalks were washed away and a woman was swept several blocks toward the river before she was rescued by three men. In some places the water in the streets was four feet deep. Passaic City had a similar experience.

Destroyed by Lightning. NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—Lightning struck a 15,000-barrel oil-tank of the Tidewater Company at Constable Hook Wednesday evening. The oil was ignited and destroyed. Lightning also set fire to the ordnance building at the Sandy Hook testing grounds and it was destroyed, with some valuable instruments. Loss about $15,000.

Evicted Settlers Re-arrested. FORT DONCE, Ia., Aug. 15.—The old river land trouble was revived by the arrest of three settlers Wednesday, charged with malicious trespass. C. C. Chintemall, Alfred Welsh and W. Internelli, were lodged in jail for returning to their farms, from which they were evicted, and securing the hay crop. They will be tried Saturday.

The Deep-Water Convention. TOPEKA, Kan., Aug. 15.—Governor Hamphreys has issued a proclamation calling the deep-water convention at Topeka, October 1, at the request of Governor Evans, of Colorado, the chairman of the executive committee. The call includes all States west of the Mississippi river.

An Illinois Merchant Falls. ELGIN, Ill., Aug. 15.—Charles F. Hall, a general dealer at Dundee, has failed for $100,000. He has stores at Woodstock, Nunda and Wilmet, Wis. Hall estimates his assets at $115,000, but it is not believed his property will realize nearly that amount.
